LAWN PRIZES AWARDED

W. E. Marsh, W. B. Rickert and S. H. McDeid.

The award of the prizes of $12, $8 and $5, offered by E. T. King for the best kept lawns was made Monday to W. E. Marsh, W. B. Rickert and S. H. McDeid in the order named by Judges A. L. Coons, A. W. Weekes and C. McArthur. The awards were made upon three points: 1—trimming around trees and walks; 2—general condition of lawn itself, freedom from weeds, etc.; 3—general appearance from the street. With a possible 600 points, the score announced by the judges was: Marsh 890, Rickert 849, McDeid 830.

While there were but eight contestants, the effect upon lawns throughout the village has been good, a marked tendency toward better care of premises being noticeable.

A GOOD MAN GONE

Death of Myron Bozung Wednesday, September 25.

Myron Bozung died September 25, 1907. Funeral services were conducted at Marlon Church by Rev. Fr. Zindler, and the body was followed to the grave by one of the largest processions ever had there.

Mr. Bozung was born May 14, 1858, at Avon Lorain county, Ohio, and came with his parents and their family to Michigan in 1864. He was married twice and leaves one little girl three years old and two stepsons, ages 5 and 6 years, a widow, aged 64, six grown up brothers and three married sisters, to mourn his loss.

Mr. Bozung always worked at farming, and leaves his widow and children a comfortable home of 80 acres free from incumbrance. He was a good citizen, neighbor and close calculator and good provider for his family, and was a steady member of the Catholic faith in which he was brought up and remained to the end. He was honored and respected by all who knew him.—[Com.]

SAGE TAKEN TO IONIA

Aged Horse Thief Sentenced by Judge Perkins Monday.

Milo Sage, the aged man convicted of stealing a horse and buggy from Lowell at the time of the homecoming festival and who was caught later at Flint, was sentenced by Judge Perkins Monday to serve from one to five years at Ionia. The recommendation is two years. Sage, who is seventy-six years of age, could scarcely support himself before the bar of the Circuit court. He did not speak except when addressed by the judge, when his answers came haltingly and with difficulty.

Judge Perkins questioned him regarding his past history and drew from him the story of his wanderings about the country after leaving Lowell many years ago to avoid being drafted for service in the Civil war. He declared that he had never been in prison and that the stealing of the horse was the only black mark against him. When sentenced he stumbled from the courtroom in the company of a deputy sheriff, the same vacant stare which has been prominent through the court proceedings showing in his face.—[Grand Rapids Press.]

OTTO-ROTH WEDDING

Solemnized at German Methodist Church Last Evening.

A pretty October wedding was solemnized at the German M. E. church Wednesday evening, October 2, when Rosa Marie Roth and Rev. Alfred Otto were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Promptly at the appointed hour the beautiful strains of Lohengrin's wedding march were begun, Miss Isabel Fallas presiding at the organ. The bridal party consisting of the two bridemaids, Rosa and Fannie Roth, and groomsmen, John Roth and Herbert Otto, brother of groom, followed by the maid of honor, Miss Lucy Roth, entered. Then came the little flower girl, Pauline Roth, scattering flowers in the path of the bride, who followed on the arm of her father, Rev. Magdanz and the groom and best man, Frank Otto, brother of the groom, stood waiting to receive them. As the pastor pronounced the ceremony the soft cadence of the music made the vows which united them even more solemn and beautiful.

The bride was gowned in white French batiste trimmed in violet and wore a long net veil and carried brides roses. The maid of honor, Miss Lucy Roth, wore a cream white gown and carried American beauty roses.

Rev. and Mrs. Otto leave Thursday for their home in Kewaskum, Wis. The best wishes of a host of friends go with them.—M. A. S.

AGREES WITH MISS SMITH

George A. Sherman Gets the Same Cold Shoulder in Eastern Churches.

New York City, Sept. 23. Editor Lowell Ledger: Dear Sir: This morning, early this morning being sent by my people at home.

I noticed your article on the hospitality of the churches in the large cities.

I agree with Miss Laura Smith in every thing she has said in regard to the churches.

I have not been making a test of the churches here in New York, but during my stay I have visited some ten or fifteen churches and I find the same conditions as Miss Smith reports in her article. I found them all very cold and indifferent.

At the Calvary Baptist church, Dr. McArthur said if any one wished to speak to him they could do so by coming to the pulpit at the close of the sermon. Here I was greeted by an elderly lady who really asked me to come again.

At the Broadway Tabernacle (Cong.) I was not noticed at all and the same at Zion church (Episcopal), St. Patrick's cathedral 5th av. (Catholic), "The Church of the Strangers," 57th st. where a large electric sign was displayed in front of the church with the words "Strangers Welcome." Here I expected to be welcome but the minister stood back and never so much as asked me to have a seat. I walked in and helped myself. After church I passed out without a word from anyone.

At the Christian Science church I was greeted by a young man but he was a friend of mine from Grand Rapids and that is the reason.

And many other churches I visited. I found very cold and they look at you as much as to say "Who are you?" and "What do you want to do here?" So when you go out you feel that you never want to go there again.

The ministers of these churches claim they are so busy they can't speak to people at the door. And some of these churches have their ministers. I don't know what they are all busy at at the close of the sermon.

If they are busy that does not hurt for the church members or the usher, from being at least civil.

Dr. McArthur said one of his church members complained to him about people not being cordial and he said "There is an old gentleman that sits in the same seat with me every Sunday and he never speaks." And the Deid said: "Do you know that some of the gentlemen has this very week and the same complaint about you?"

So that is the way it goes. The don't even know their own church members. Another minister said yesterday that he thought it was the stranger's business to make himself known if he wished to be noticed.

It would do the churches good if they had a few more like Miss Smith to stir them up.

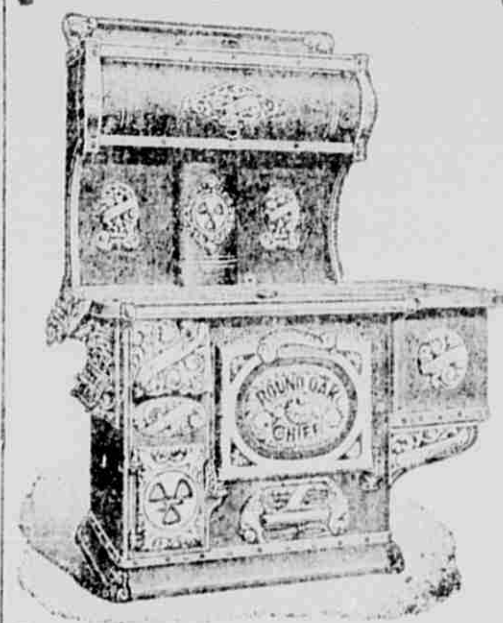

I am very glad that our churches in Lowell are not this kind.

Yours truly, Geo. A. Sherman 243 W 57th St

From Our Point of View

Some of those little souls that do not wish to think themselves and are not willing that others should, have again turned their batteries up on the Fountain street church and are trying to drive it from the Baptists. A little while ago it was the doctrine of Rev. J. Norman Randall that was objected to, and now it is his successor, Rev. Alfred Wishart, who is being pelted with their petty spitefulness. These heresy hunters are in our judgment, the greatest enemies to the Christian church. They will persecute over thoughtless "visionaries" who have thought all we who enter here. Fortunately, the march of civilization is leaving these little-time-markers behind, and thinking men and women in thousands of favored communities are being lidden to enter and bring their brains with them. Seeing that God made the brain, it seems a sensible attitude for the modern church to take.

The American Economist, which we have before referred to as an ultra protectionist paper, quotes approvingly the Nevada Iron Representatives' statement that "There has never been anything but a fair and equitable trade between the country now only as an end and an object."

There is a widespread feeling that the average observer will find in present prices of farm products little justification for the trust formed by Minnesota farmers. The old-fashioned grasshoppers are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today, although a million dollars' worth of grain has not yet been forgotten a hard time here. The average observer will find in present prices of farm products little justification for the trust formed by Minnesota farmers.

BEST OF PROOF. The highest of Vice President Fairbanks for election as his delegate to the Methodist Episcopal general conference on account of the serving of cocktails at a dinner given in honor of President Roosevelt, yet shows upon his small, but excellent, great events may turn the "vision, Romanism and rebellion" speech of a Michigan minister, and the "vision, Romanism and rebellion" speech of a Michigan minister, and the "vision, Romanism and rebellion" speech of a Michigan minister.

"The Blood is the Life." Science has never gone beyond the above simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning over broadening with the advancement of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also affected and an impure blood impairs the ability of the brain to direct the body's organs and muscles. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, it cures and purifies the blood, thereby curing pimples, blotches, eruptions and other cutaneous affections as eczema, tetter, or salt-rheum, hives and other manifestations of impure blood.

In the cure of scrofulous swellings, enlarged glands, open cutting sores, or old sores, the "Golden Medical Discovery" has performed the most marvelous cures. In cases of old sores, or open cutting sores, it is well to apply to the open sores Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve, which possesses wonderful healing potency when used as an application to the sores in connection with the "Golden Medical Discovery" as a blood purifier. For Lung Troubles. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral certainly cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption. And it certainly strengthens weak throats and weak lungs. There can be no mistake about this. You know it is true. And your own doctor will say so.

WE ARE MAKING A HIT

With These New Fall Styles for Men and Young Men

Something about the styles, the goods, the quality and the price. Some of the smartest at $15.00 and $20.00

These new Sixtory styles in full suits and overcoats are certainly making a hit in town. They have struck the boys just right—for the snappy style and splendid fitting qualities of the Sixtory suits and overcoats, and the modest prices we ask for them, make a combination that can't be beat.

Lately you've seen in length or lapels—little finishing touches such as cuffs, lap seams on trousers and the like, give a satisfying range of styles—and no matter what your limitation of price, you can suit you every time. And what's still more to the point, you'll find that these clothes are going to Horn their style and shape. That's a matter of Sixtory's charm that's worth thinking about.

You are likely to find your choice among the velvet, cassimers, worsted, or serges. There's a great range to choose from.

The Wings of the Morning

BY LOUIS TRACY

This is a charming love romance full of exciting adventures admirably related. We have secured the serial rights for our columns and will begin its publication in an early issue.

From the moment that the man and the girl, who are the heroes of the good ship Sirius, are described on the beach of their island until the last page, Mr. Tracy keeps you interested. The people in the story are real and so popular. Although the novel is an achievement—New York Evening Sun.

"The Wings of the Morning" is one of those books that you just have to read to see how it all comes out.—San Francisco Argonaut.

GONE TO HER REST.

Mrs. Hiram Vanbuseen Released from Her Long Suffering.
Mrs. Hiram Vanbuseen died Friday morning, Sept. 27, at her home in Boston township, 33 miles east of Lowell. Funeral services were held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 1:30, conducted by Rev. Russell H. Bready, burial at Oakwood cemetery.
Lena Hatchway was born in Onondaga county, New York, Oct. 29, 1818, and came to her parents, Philip and Adelaide Hatchway, to Vergennes, Michigan, to spend her childhood days. To them two children were born, Lydia and Charles L. The latter married May 19, 1836, in the sixth name of a bright and promising wife. The husband and daughter are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and loving mother.
Four brothers and two sisters also survive. Philip Hatchway of Stanton, John of Bromont, H. Albert of Tacoma, George of Bay City, and Mrs. Goodrich Knott and Mrs. Lottie Wilson both of Lowell.
Mrs. Vanbuseen's last moments were a peaceful one. She was surrounded by her family and friends, with all her suffering she was sustained by waiting on her bed for so long for many years she had put her trust in the Lord Jesus-Christ.

A PIONEER AT REST.

John Dennis, Early Settler in Ada and Vergennes, Gone to His Reward.
John Dennis was born in Ontario, Feb. 15, 1820, and died at the home of his son, John P. Vergennes, Sept. 23, 1907, at the age of 87 years. Funeral services were held at the Bally church, Vergennes, Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Russell H. Bready, and the body was laid to rest in the Bally church cemetery.
Mr. Dennis came to Michigan in the early manhood, when the country was new, and married Emily Jiggs at Ada, Feb. 22, 1847. Being a pioneer his first home in Ada was a log cabin. He tried that farm for one in Vergennes, where he built another log house in 1854. Five children were born to him, Frank L., Irving A., Herbert D., John O. and Adelaide O.
In 1875 Mr. Dennis built the frame house which still stands on the farm. He has been suffering as a result of paralysis for several years but was patient and thorough in his sickness and died respected by all who knew him, leaving his aged widow, three sons, a sister and many friends to mourn his loss.—

It's Funny what a difference just a suit of clothes makes.

But it's a fact. The appearance has much to do with the ease. In all the walks of life, the well dressed man gets the preference. There is much more to a suit of clothes than the outward appearance. It is the way they are built up from the inside. A special effort is to get right clothes at the right prices. Notice the difference between the fine and the ordinary makes.

Some Claim That Success is a Mere Matter of "Advertising!"

Furs! Furs!

We own immense quantities of most desirable Furs and we own them "Right." We buy our Furs for "Spot Cash," and in big lots. We sell them on a close margin, for we believe in a "Big Output."
