THE WEEKLY GRIST.

News Items of All Sorts and Sizes From Up Town, Down Town, Around Town.

There was something of a mad-dog scare in town last week. David Wilson's dog had an attack of rabies and bit Frank Bergh's dog. Wilson's dog died and the Bergh dog was killed. Joe Richmond was bitten on the hand but claims that the skin was not broken and refused treatment. The Board of Health met promptly to take necessary precautions and as will be seen by the Council Proceedings that body decided on vigorous measures. A few dogs less will be no calamity, but the public must be protected. With the vigorous action taken it is believed no further alarm need be felt.

The first wedding since the re-dedication of the Methodist Episcopal church was solemnized Wednesday morning at 10:30, October 9. The new equipment renders the ceremony very impressive. The contracting parties were Mr. Glenn E. Richards and Miss Maudie Frank, both of Grand Rapids. The ring service was used, Rev. Russell H. Brandy officiating. A wedding dinner was served at the Parsonage, after which Mr. and Mrs. Richards left on their wedding trip to Kentucky. Mr. Richards is a brother of Mrs. Brandy.

The Clover Leaf club lecture course which opens next Wednesday evening with the Shamrock Trio, offers a lot of good entertainment and instruction for dollar, silver numbers. Ott, lecturer. All this going for $1.00. Don't miss it.

Last evening, fire destroyed the Wisner house in the north-west part of the village and occupied by Elmer Ward. Mr. and Mrs. Ward were away and the fire was first discovered by neighbors. It is believed to have started in the cellar, though the cause of the fire is not known. Owing to the long distance out, the roof was nearly gone when the firemen arrived. Most of the household goods, however, were saved and the building was insured.

A splendid improvement has been made in the appearance of Train's opera house block by painting and taping the brick walls and by replacing the old fashioned windows with modern double sash windows. The last improvement will add greatly to the comfort of the interior and will be greatly appreciated by the public.

The teachers of the Central, wards and library gave Janitor Towson the surprise of his life at the Central building last evening. Chaucery called it "a howling success, and the spread, oh my!" OLD RELIABLE BUS LINE.

Watters Bros. Make Public Statement Concerning Their Business.

STATEMENT.

Watters Bros., proprietors of the Lowell Bus and Buggage Line, wish to make this plain statement regarding their business. We have been obliged to enter into a very unpleasant competition. The Old Bus line has served the public faithfully for many years and we have every facility for giving prompt and careful service in the future. Our home and property are here and our money is invested here in business. We have shared in the good or bad fortunes of Lowell and we have never failed to help with our money and influence any enterprise for the advancement of the town.

We operate our business at a heavy expense. There is a fair living in the bus business for one line although during two or three of the winter months we maintain it at a loss. There is absolutely no money in it for two lines. We do not believe the fair-minded citizens of Lowell are looking for "free rides" or "cut rates." We shall continue to give courteous and accommodating service and shall push our business in every honorable and business like way possible and we have confidence that the people of Lowell will continue to sustain and patronize the old reliable "Bus Line." Delos C. Watters, Manager Watters Bros.

A Nation of Cripples Rheumatism Be- yond Control

The Only Hope to Rheumatic Sufferers is Uric-O Treatment.

If rheumatism continues to spread as it has in the past few years, it would seem as though we would be before long become a nation of cripples. The terrible destructiveness of this disease is apparent on every side of us. Almost nine out of ten of the cripples one meets had their affliction brought on by Rheumatism. How many thousands more there are that are hopelessly bed-ridden and whom we never see. Rheumatism from the very nature of the disease can never cure itself and if neglected is bound to grow worse rather than better. If you ever have any twinges of Rheumatism go to your druggist and get a bottle of Uric-O, the wonderful new Rheumatic specific. It will cure you and it is the only treatment in the world that will cure you permanently and thoroughly. Uric-O cures by its direct action on the muscles, blood and kidneys. It seeks out the poisonous Uric and Rheumatic Acid and drives it from the system and it is only a treatment of such a nature that will ever cure Rheumatism. Liniments and plasters only serve to drive it from one spot to another. They never cure Rheumatism, because it is primarily a blood disease, and until the blood is cleared from the poison, a cure cannot take place. There never was a case of Rheumatism that Uric-O could not cure and you should not put off taking it. You can test Uric-O free of charge if you wish. Just cut out this advertisement and send it to the Smith Drug Co., 324 Smith Bldg., Syracuse, N. Y., together with your name and the name of your druggist, and state that you have never used Uric-O and would like to try it. They will give you free, through your druggist, a 7-cent bottle, which you can test and try to your own satisfaction. Uric-O is sold and personally recommended in Lowell by D. G. Look.

LION CLEARED THE YARD.

Pet of Minneapolis Man was Death to the Dogs.

Mr. Nelson, who was much annoyed by stray dogs burying bones in his garden at Linden Hills, secured a lion while he was in Europe last summer, paying $287.50 for a rather weather beaten king of beasts, but one that was guaranteed in every respect. The lion became a great pet on the way over and came to know his master's voice and obey it. Its name was Henry. Arrived at Linden Hills Mr. Nelson let Henry out into the back yard and simply waited. At 7:30 on the first morning a Newfoundland dog as large as a small garage walked into the yard to step on the flower beds as usual and to tip over the garbage can. The lion saw the dog enter the yard and the dog just barely saw the lion. "Crunch!" That was all. It was the sound made by Henry eating the dog. At 8:10 a monster bulldog smelled his way into the garden to rip up a yard of soil among the petunias. "Ki-yi!" "Crunch!" The bulldog had gone hence. By 11:30 Henry's score stood: One Newfoundland, one bull, four fox terriers, an Irish setter, and two plain dogs. Everything that came into the yard collided with the lion and, it was not. Mr. Nelson was so joyous over the experiment that he could not go to work that day, but just sat around and felt good. In six weeks the dogs were either all in or were avoiding the place by going two blocks the other way. Then the circus came around and the lion was so fat and glossy that Mr. Nelson disposed of him to the menagerie department for $327.75.—Minneapolis Journal.

Proof of Power.

The man who is worthy of being a leader of men will never complain of the stupidity of his helpers, of the ingratitude of mankind nor of the inappreciation of the public. These things are all a part of the great game of life and to meet them and not go down before them in discouragement and defeat is the final proof of power.—Elbert Hubbard.

Why a Backbone Beats a Wishbone.

"Trouble with most fellers," says Uncle Si Simlins, "is that their backbone is mostly all wishbone."

Uncle Si's sage sarcasm applies to people in every town. Some of us in this town might study it with profit.

You wish you could succeed in business. You wish you could do as well as your neighbor who does succeed. You are overworking your wishbone. Give your wishbone a rest. It's tired.

YOUR BACKBONE NEEDS EXERCISE. IT'S BACKBONE THAT DOES THINGS—NOT WISHBONE. STRENGTHEN YOUR BACKBONE AND GO UP AGAINST COMPETITION.

Marshall Field had competition, but his backbone gave him the nerve to advertise big in newspapers when advertising was not known to be such a Necessity of Business Life as it is now universally recognized. John Wannamaker had the same sort of backbone.

Their backbone backed up their wishbone.

Backbone bulds business by booming business.

Business is boosted by backbone.

And the backbone of business is newspaper advertising.

What Sincerity Stands for In - Good - Clothes.

You are at the mercy of the man of whom you buy a suit or overcoat. He is at the mercy of the concern from whom he buys. Some manufacturers make their goods as well as they possibly can. Others—the majority—make them as cheap as they can, with the one idea of making them look well enough to yield a big profit.

SINCERITY CLOTHES are cut and tailored as carefully as human hands can do them, and the result gives clothes that we can recommend and guarantee—clothes that have style and fit of the first quality—that keep their shape and give best satisfaction and value—and finally, the PRICES ARE RIGHT.

All Eyes on the Dress Goods This Week

The 1st, absorbed in the Fall Sale of Dress Goods, has been selling out of its stock. Every suit is sold by the yard in the garment department. Of course, all of the goods are sold at a profit, but the profit is kept so low that you can buy at a bargain.

In the first place, we had a great deal of our goods, bought in large quantities from the public, our customers.

Hundreds of women have bought at our sale, and they have all agreed that it was a great advantage in buying new. For those women who are means much and in this season, it is especially so. But you'll not realize how great the bargains are until you see the goods.

These prices are possible for the week only beginning Oct. 12.

UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROLINA PRAISES PE-RU-NA.

Ex-Senator M. C. Butler.

Dyspepsia is often caused by Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Relieves Catarrh of the Stomach and is therefore a Remedy for Dyspepsia.

Hon. M. C. Butler, U. S. Senator from South Carolina for two terms, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes to the Peruna Medicine Co., as follows: "I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, besides a good tonic."

CATARRH of the stomach is the correct name for most cases of dyspepsia. Only an internal cathartic remedy, such as Peruna, is available. Peruna Tablets can now be procured.

AROUND THE HOUSE

LITTLE THINGS THAT AMOUNT TO MUCH.

Use Hydrogen Peroxide to Remove Blood Stains—Cream of Tartar When Ink Is Spilled—Proper Way to Clean Ivory.

Hydrogen peroxide is good for removing stains caused by blood, but must be used with care. If gray is spilled on your table linen or gown, it may be taken out quickly by the use of a little peroxide. To avoid weakening the material this should be immediately followed by the use of an alkali. If just removing a spot, sponge the fabric first with peroxide until the stain has vanished, then follow with a solution of weak ammonia. If you have been unfortunate in staining a handsome gown or blouse that cannot be laundered, dampen starch and place it thickly upon the stain. When dry brush off the starch. This may have to be repeated several times. Mildew is a stubborn stain. Try immersing the spots first in buttermilk, or lemon juice, then launder in the usual manner.

It is difficult to remove ink stains nowadays, because modern chemical inks are quite distinct in character from the old compounds. However, many suggestions are offered for removing ink. One way is to cover the stain thickly with cream of tartar, then hold the fabric over a bowl, and pour boiling water through it. If the stain is taken in hand at once it will disappear quickly; if dry and old, it may need several fresh applications of cream of tartar and boiling water. If still obstinate, lay the article in the sun, moistening from time to time with the same mixture. Lemon juice and salt is also often an effective mixture. The fabric should be placed in the sun. Another remedy for ink-stains on white goods is hot tallow. Dip the spots in the melted tallow, let it cool on the goods, then brush off and launder.

To clean ivory that has become brown or of a blackish tint, dissolve rock alum in rain water; boil this and keep the ivory in the boiling solution for about an hour, taking it out from time to time and cleaning it with a soft brush; then let it dry in a damp linen rag, when it will be found thoroughly cleaned. Ivory is often bleached by the simple process of dampening it and exposing it to the rays of the sun, a process which must be frequently repeated.

It is said that potatoes will bake in much less time if the skins are greased before putting them into the oven. The skins will come off more easily and will be as thin as when boiled.

It will be economy to finish your sheets with the same width hem at each end. By so doing they can be used either side up, and gain much wear.

Sulphur Apples.

Peel, core and quarter your apples. Measure them into a market basket and to each gallon of prepared apples allow one tablespoonful of sulphur. Put the sulphur into an old tin. Set this in the bottom of a barrel and drop a live coal upon the sulphur. Hang the basket of apples in the barrel and cover as quickly as possible, making barrel as nearly airtight as you can. Let the apples remain in the sulphur fumes several hours. Then place them in jars and tie a cloth over the top of each jar and your apples are all right. When you want to use them, soak them for an hour or two before using them. Use just like green apples.

To Clean White Mackintosh.

Unless extremely soiled a white mackintosh may be cleaned by washing with soap and water; but if it is exceptionally dirty dip it first in cold soft water and then lay on a clean table or board. With a soft scrubbing brush scrub with yellow soap on both sides until dirt is removed. Then dip in three or four waters until soap is removed entirely, and hang it up in the air, without wringing it. If the mud stains around the bottom have been in long and are obstinate it is best to send it to an expert cleaner.

Tin and Acids.

No acids should ever be used to clean tinware. The best possible means of keeping it in good condition is to wash it in boiling water until every particle of grease is removed. Once a week it can be rubbed with a little powdered rotten stone and sweet oil mixed and finished with a little whitening on a piece of chamois. Things that have become old and dingy can be brightened by rubbing with a moist piece of flannel dipped in salicylic acid.

A Bride's Aprons.

The most serviceable pieces in one's wardrobe this summer were the overall aprons given the bride by her girl friends at a linen shower. They are of pretty colored linen embroidered in white, and made to cover the dress completely from neck to hem. They are semi-fitting princess affairs with wide kimono elbow sleeves, and button in the back with one large button.

Cheese Straws.

One cup grated cheese; add one cup flour, half of a small cup butter and a quarter teaspoonful salt; knead all together until the right consistency to roll without crumbling; bake

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

How a Veteran Was Saved the Amputation of a Limb.

B. Frank Doremus, veteran, of Roosevelt avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I had been showing symptoms of kidney trouble from the time I was mustered out of the army, but in all my life I never suffered as in 1897. Headaches, dizziness and sleeplessness, first, and then dropsy. I was weak and helpless, having run down from 180 to 125 pounds. I was having terrible pain in the kidneys, and the secretions passed almost involuntarily. My left leg swelled until it was 34 inches around, and the doctor tapped it night and morning until I could no longer stand it, and then he advised amputation. I refused, and began using Doan's Kidney Pills. The swelling subsided gradually, the urine became natural, and all my pains and aches disappeared. I have been well now for nine years since using Doan's Kidney Pills." For sale by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

COINED A BIG WORD.

Little One Wanted to Pick the "Underchildreable" Flowers.

When the first little granddaughter was big enough to want to pick the garden flowers, the grandparents tried every guileful means to save their pet posies from devastation. A truce was reached when it was agreed that Harriet should let the garden plants alone and pick only "children's flowers," a descriptive name bestowed at once alike on dandelions, buttercups, daisies and clovers. After this there was peace in the family. One day Katherine, the newest granddaughter, was contentedly pulling grasses while grandmother snipped off blossoms from the forget-me-nots. Katherine remembered that fresh flowers had not been gathered for the dinner table. She ran over to grandmother and promptly coined one of the longest words a four-year-old ever used. "Grandmother," she begged, "can't I pick the underchildreable flowers for dinner?"

SLEEP BROKEN BY ITCHING.

Eczema Covered Whole Body for a Year—No Relief Until Cuticura Remedies Prove a Success.

"For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. "I used one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, and two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills, which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. Walter W. Pagnusch, 207 N. Robey St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8 and 16, 1906."

Knew What She Wanted.

"A foreign looking woman, rather well dressed, came in the other day," said the librarian at one of the East side branches, "and asked for 'Cottage Cheese.' I supposed, of course, that some one had directed her to a dairy or perhaps a grocery, and that she had got into the wrong place. But she insisted that she was in the right place and that it was 'Cottage Cheese' that she wanted. 'It's the name of a book,' she said. That gave me the tip that she simply had a title mixed up, and, sure enough, it was 'Scottish Chiefs.'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Concort.

"There goes the big-fellin'est man in town!" pessimistically said a citizen of Pettyville, indicating with a contemptuous jerk of his thumb a pompous appearing personage who was passing. "He thinks so darned much of himself that he won't loaf in a grocery store like ordinary folks—if he can't loaf in the bank he won't loaf at all. And, as far as I can see, he ain't so all-fired better than some of the rest of us, neither!"—Puck.

Grammar and Grippe.

A professor at the University of Virginia was endeavoring to impress upon the youths of his class the monstrous crime of using the adverb "badly" where the adjective "bad" should be used. "Now," he said, after an exhaustive explanation, "if a man should say to you 'I feel badly,' what would you think?" "I'd think he had the grippe, sir," responded the wag of the class.

SURELY HAD PRIZE FLY.

Money Invested in Incubator Was Not All Lost.

Poultney Bigelow, the brilliant author and journalist, said the other day of the chicken farm that he is about to set up at Malden: "I hope to succeed with this farm. I hope our experiences won't too closely resemble that of my old friend Horatio Rogers. Rash Rogers lived in the suburbs. On the suburban train one morning he said to me with a sour laugh: "I've got something nobody else has got, Mr. Bigelow."

"Have you, Rash?" said I. "What is it?" "Well," said Rogers, "I bought a $50 incubator last month, put $15 worth of eggs in it, and hatched out a blubottle fly."

"He frowned, then sighed. "Yes," he said, "I've got the only $65 blubottle fly in the world."

Marrying for Love.

Happy marriages are surely possible even in these unpoetic, hard-hearted times. They are, if the people will only follow the instinct of their better natures and marry for love—the reverent, impassionate love of the man for the maiden, the pure, unsophisticated affection of the maiden for the man—instead of bartering happiness for rank or money.—Thorpe.

And the sooner a man makes up his mind to let a woman have the last word the sooner the controversy will end.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs. Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. If a woman finds that her energies flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has headache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Drugging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.
