·F. B. RHODES.

Labor day in Lowell was another red letter day for the town, a most successful event and an occasion that will be remembered with pleasure by the hosts who were here from many surrounding towns attending the eighth annual I. O. O. F. and Rebekah picnic, the assembly aggregating 3000. Crowds came in from various directions by rail and by road during the morning, and at nine-fifty the large Grand Rapids delegation arrived on a special Pere Marquette train and was met by the Lowell I. O. O. F. reception committee and band and escorted through Main street in time to lively music played by the Lowell band and the Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A. band, which accompanied them. The procession of over six hundred reached from the post office to the Methodist church where it turned. An amusing feature was the late arrival of Saranac Lodge No. 168 which brought up the rear, escorted by Rev. Russell H. Bready and preceded by a diminutive goat bearing the lodge banner.

The guests were lead to Island Park and after a band concert assembled about the platform to listen to the program, which opened with a quartet from the Lowell Methodist choir-E. S. White, Miss Bertha Carson, Mrs. E. S. White, Harley Maynard, with Miss Lenna Yeiter as organist. Noble Grand H. W Hakes of Lowell Lodge 115 called upon Rev. Russell H. Bready to give the invecation, and then presented D. G. Look, village president. Mr. Look gave a graceful address of welcome in behalf of Lowell Lodge 115, Rebekah Lodge 282 and the business men and citizens in general Believue. and then tendered to the president of the association, Noah French of Grand Rapids, the key of the city in the form of a handsome, large golden key adorned with ribbon and appropriately engraved. President French gave a fine response, thanking the people of Lowell and the president for the welcome so 'courteously extended.' Another selection was given by the choir-Mrs. E. S. White, Misses Bertha Carson, Vesta Smith, Irene Heydlauff, Maude Andrews, Minule Langworthy, Messrs. E. S. White, Harley Maynard, Clar-

Mr. Hakes then presented the speaker of the day, W. R. Humphrey, member of Sovereign Grand Lodge and appointee for this occasion by the Grand Sire of North America. Mr. Humphrey gave an eloquent and inspiring address, paying a high tribute to the ideals of OddFellowship and to its uplifting influence upon humanity. He told of the wonderful growth of the order since the founding of the first lodge in Baltimore, Md., in 1819 by five Englishmen, told of the wide extent of the order at present- of lodges throughout United States and Canada, Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, Australasia, Manila, Yukon. Porto Rico, Japan, Hawaian Islands and in the Isthmus of Panama, and of the great work it is doing in the this year. way of founding Odd Fellow homes for the aged and feeble members, and helping mankind in general. Among other beautiful things he said: 'Odd Fellowship teaches men and women, boys and girls, that they should speak kind words every daya kind word is like a song. If we have kind words to say let us say them today; if we have good deeds to do let us do them now; if we have flowers to give let us give them while the friends we love are still with us.' The last number was a pleasant surprise, Senator Huntley Russell, who was among the visitors, consenting to sing "The Sword of Bunker Hill", which he did to the admiration of the audience, and the program closed with a verse of America, lead by Senator Russell and accompanied by the drum. During the noon hour picnic dinners were relished by the hungry throngs, a table being predared for the guests of honor, and the visitors thoroughly enjoyed the shade and beauty of the island.

After dinner they gathered before the platform and witnessed an exhibition given by Bert Charles and his well-trained trick dogs Honey and gram of sports was carried out as Lurene of Hastings. announced and created much amuse ment, the ladies' nati-driving contest and spoon race being specially pleasing. Among those present were C. B. Clark of Grand Rapids, treasurer of the association; G. W. Hatch of Grand Rapide, Past President, Sec. and Mrs. E. F. Warner of Grand Rapids, Mrs Peckham of Freeport, president of Michigan Assembly of Rebekahs. The following were some of the many lodges represented: Refuge Rebekah lodge No. 285, Lake Odessa; Easter Rebekah lodge No. 333, Comstock Park, Mich., Ionia lodge 76; Centennial lodge, Berlin; Harmony lodge 146, Freeport; Daisy Rebekah lodge 323, Grandville; Thornapple Rebekah lodge 331, Ada; Saranac lodge No. 168; Purity Rebekah lodge No. 14, Grand Rapids; Grand Rapids South End Lodge No. 250; also from Belding, Alto, Downgjac. Eloped with His Wife's Sister.

Employed as a laundry hand in a Sault Ste. Marie laundry, Rev. Wm. A. Cummins, an Episcopal minister of Clarksville, was arrested Monday on a charge of non-support brought by his wife, and taken to the county jail in Ionia by Sheriff Cilley of that county. With them went Miss Velma Taylor, daughter of a Clarksville physician and sister of Mrs. Cummins, who was living with the minister as his wife.

The couple disappeared August 16 and about a week later Mrs. Cummins notified Sheriff Cilley. He traced them to the Soo and brought with him a picture of Miss Taylor. This was shown to Police Chief Swart, who recognized the photo as that of a young lady living near his home. He went there and asked for Mrs. Cumming. Three hundred square miles of favorite hunting grounds for water fowl will be converted by the National Association of Audubon societies into a protected home for the numerous breeds gradually undergoing extermination for commercial purposes. Two tracts presented by the government for this purpose are in Oregon and California, about the Klamath, Malheur and Harney Lakes. Whole races of the wild fowl, persecuted by seekers after plumes and food for the markets, will be restored on the preserves.

DIVORCE COURT ON RIVERSIDE.

Judge Parts Wisconsin Pair at Trial Held in Open Air.

Appleton, Wis.-A half rotted stump of what once was a giant of the forest served as the witness stand, while all outdoors, with a river view to the fore and a gentle, sloping hillside to the year, was the courtroom when Judge John Goodland, who for 12 years has presided over higher judicial matters in the Tenth Wisconsin judicial circuit, granted a divorce decree to Mrs. Ada Ebeling from William Ebeling.

Late in the afternoon Mrs. Ebeling. accompanied by her attorneys, made a flying trip in an automobile from Green Bay to Appleton, with a view to securing a divorce. Judge Goodland was at his summer home at Telulah Springs, on the Fox river, a few miles east of Appleton.

Undaunted by this condition, they sped to the jurist's home. The attorneys hastily presented their case and convinced the judge that the defendant was willing that the action go by default, and without the formality of going to the courthouse Judge Goodland called a session of court on the river bank. Mrs. Ebeling was asked a few stereotyped but necessary questions and the decree separating her from the man whose wife she became only three months previously was ismay have shown you that for some garments that enjoy a reputation you must pay a premium of several dollars. We are fortunate in selling a line of clothing that enjoys an untarnished reputation for quality and style and for which we do not ask a premium of customers.

On the contrary you will find prices are lower than for any goods of equal quality or reputation.

We are now showing new fall styles in Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishings.

From Our Point of View

D. M. PARRY, the carriage manufacturer, whose stand against intimidation of labor voters, noted in another column of this paper, is an honest man; and "An honest man's the noblest work of God." Our readers who love fair play should preserve the article alluded to. It was clipped from the Grand Rapids Herald; and will likely "come handy" many times through the campaign. When you hear any of the common penny-dreadful talk of the horrors likely to follow the success of either party, show them this sensible document from a man who knows, and who, is honest enough and brave enough to tell the truth. Let's have an end to dishonesty and browbeat- day and Monday here hunting and ing in campaigning.

our readers were not so badly fooled as were Dr. Bradley's townsman when they celebrated or as was Vice President Fairbanks when he congratulated him upon his "victory." Truly, "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip."

PROSPECTS are good for a hardfought campaign in Indiana. We wish to notify the public that we have dissolved partnership in Hotel Lowell and the business will hereafter be conducted by D. U. Le-Pard under the same style.

M. E. Bower, D. U. Le-Pard.

Why Suffer?

If you suffer pain from any cause, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills will relieve it -and leave no bad aftereffects. That's the important thing. Neither do they create a habit. More often the attacks become less frequent, or disappear altogether. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills have no other effect except to relieve pain and quiet nervous irritation.

"We are never without Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. My husband and son, aged 15 were always subject to sick headache until we began using these Pills, and they have broken them up entirely. Don't think they have had to use them for six months. I recommend them to every one. A few weeks ago I heard an old lady friend was sick. I went to see her. She was down with LaGrippe, and nearly crasy with awful backache. I gave her one of the Anti-Pain Pills and left another for her to take in a short time. They helped her right away, and she says she will never be without them again. Last winter my husband was taken with pluerisy on both sides, and I know he would have died if it hadn't been for the Pills. In less than half an hour he was sweating, and went to bed and slept."

SYNOPSIS.

Terhune are introduced at the opening of the story, in England, the latter relating the tale. The pair on an outing miss their train and seeking recreation meet "the Honorable Agatha Wyckhoff," whose hand is much sought after, because of her wealth. Five other Agatha Wyckhoffs are introduced. The deceased stepfather, in an eccentric moment, made his will so that the real Agatha, he to his fortune and the castle at Wye, England, might wed her affinity. Thus Mrs. Armistead, chaperon, was in duty bound to keep the real Agatha's identity unknown. An attempt by Terhune gather a clew from the chaperon fails Perhane finds old books containing picture of a former Baroness Wyckhoff, which is exactly like Agatha Sixth, whom he is courting. Agatha Fifth confesses her love for Vincent and also that she is the meal heiress. He spurns her proposal. Many clews to identity of the real Agatha prove fruitless.

Left to myseif. I was thinking out my plan of campaign as regarded attention. I looked up, startled, for it chair the slight form of the secretary approaching. Her hair was as neat as usual and her dress was the same simple gray gown she wore when I had seen her first.

"I beg your pardon, Mr. Terhune," she said, timidly, yet without hesitation. "am sorry to disturb you, but would you have the goodness to give me a little of your time?"

"Certainly," I replied, rising, "though the hour is late. Won't you be seated?" and I found her a chair. The secretary leaned back against it and folded her hands.

"I shall be quick," she said; "but I want to ask you something." She spoke in a low voice, but with perfect composure, though she never lifted her eyes. I caught myself wondering whether she cast them down habitually, so that people might observe the length of her black eyelashes.

"Yes?" I said, to encourage her.

"Of course, you know Lord Vincent very well, don't you?" As she asked ! me this direct question she looked me full in the face, and as my eyes met hers I mentally thanked her for her mercy in not often permitting man to gaze into them.

"Yes," I said, recovering myself, "I know him very well." "And he tells you things, doesn't

"Most things," I replied, wondering at what she was driving.

"Then could you tell me, please, if -if he accepted Miss Agatha-the one with the hazel eyes that you call Agatha Fifth-when she told him she loved him?"

I was never more astounded in my life. How did she know that Agatha Fifth had told Vincent she loved him, and how did it concern her? Perhaps. however, she was acting under Mrs. Armistead's orders, but if so she ought to have said so.

"That's a question of a very personal nature," I said, and eyed her searchingly; "but I don't think Lord Vincent would mind, as long as you know so much about it, if I tell you that he refused the young lady who was indiscreet enough to ask him to marry her."

The secretary gave a sudden start, and then, by what seemed to be conberself.

A TEXAS CLERGYMAN

Speaks Out for the Benefit of Suffering Thousands.

Rev. G. M. Gray, Baptist Clergyman, of Whitesboro, Tex., says: "Four years ago I suffered misery with lumbago. Every movement was one of pain. Doan's Kidney Pills removed the whole difficulty after only a short time. Although I do not like to have my name used publicly,

I make an exception in this case, so ble may profit by my experience." Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box.

AND SHE LEFT HIM GUESSING.

Woman's Directions of Little Heip to Traveling Lawyer.

A New York lawyer was called recently to a hamlet in Berks county, Pennsylvania, in the interest of a large coal corporation, and now he is telling this story on himself:

He was driving along & country road and feared he might have lost his bearings. The village he wanted to reach seemed elusive, so he halted in from of a farmhouse to make in-

"Madam," he called out to a broad German woman, who stood looking at him from beneath a "poke" bonnet, "can you tell me how far it is to the next village?"

"Oh, yust a leedle vays," came the response. "But, my good woman, how far is it? Is it two, four, six or eight miles? That's what I want to know."

"Yah, I tinks so." And the Wall street lawyer drove on a wiser man.

THREE CURES OF ECZEMA.

Woman Tells of Her Brother's Terrible Suffering-Two Babies Also Cured -Cuticura Invaluable.

"My brother had eczema three different summers. Each summer it came out between his shoulders and down his back, and he said his suffering was terrible. When it came on the third summer, he bought a box of Cuticura Cintment and gave it a faithful trial. Soon he began to feel better and he cured himself entirely of eczema with Cuticura. A lady in Indiana heard of how my daughter, Mrs. Miller, had cured her little son of terrible eczema by the Cuticura Remedies. This lady's little one had the eczema so badly that they thought they would lose it. She used Cuticura Remedies and they cured her child entirely, and the disease never came back. Mrs Sarah E. Physicians Recommend Castoria

ASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless: socond—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food: Third-It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system-not by stupefying it-and our readers are entitled to the information. - Hall's Journal of Health.

believe it an excellent remedy." Dr. R. M. Ward, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Physicians generally do not prescribe proprietary preparations, but in the case of Castoria my experience, like that of many other physicians, has taught me to make an exception. I prescribe your Cartoria in my practice because I have found it to be a thoroughly reliable remedy for children's complaints. Any physi-

When the sign was put up it took two days—not longer—for every inhabitant to become familiar with it. In a week even the small children could spell it backwards. Did the railroad take it down? No. If they had, the warning would have been forgotten in a week, and damage suits would have resulted. One time advertisements act the same way.
