DIED IN HER CHAIR

Mrs. Eliza Bancroft Passed Away Without a Struggle.

Mrs. Eliza Bancroft passed peacefully to her rest from her home in Lowell Sunday afternoon, while alone in the house, and her body was found still sitting in her easy chair by the window about six o'clock that evening by K. H. Fletcher a neighbor.

Mrs. Bancroft had been afflicted with heart disease, and the neighbors noticing that she had not moved for some time suspected that all was not right and investigated, with the above result.

Undertaker Veiter who was summoned found some warmth still remaining in the body and thinks that Mrs. Bancroft may have died about four o'clock.

Mrs. Allen Bancroft, whose maiden name was Eliza Deborah Lee, was the daughter of Edward and Deborah Lee, born at Martinsborough, Louisiana, N. Y., March 2, 1836. She was married to Allen Bancroft March 28, 1857 at Palmyra, N. Y. In 1867 they moved to Iowa and from there in 1872 to Ohio and in 1878 came to Lowell.

Four children were born: Cora J. who died at the age of 4 years, Hattie L., Riddle Spraker of Glenfield, N. Y., Chas. H. Bancroft of Alto and R. D. Bancroft of Elgin, Oregon.

She began her work of weaving at the age of 35 and continued it up to her death and during the last year she wove 1,230 yards of carpet and rugs. She gave her heart to the Saviour when a young woman in her Eastern home and united with the Toledo Iowa Baptist church in 1870 and with the Baptist church at Lowell Feb. 1, 1883.

She leaves to mourn her loss three children three grand children two brothers Chas. R. Lee of Fairport, N. Y., and Henry W. Lee of Windsor, Ohio, besides many nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Services were held at the Baptist church yesterday following a brief home service conducted by her former pastor Rev. D. B. Davidson of Alpena. Burial at Oakwood.

NOT ANY FOR MAIT

Says "Business is on the Bam" in the West.

M. E. Simpson returned Saturday evening from a nine weeks' prospecting trip through Colorado. He bought some fruit acreage at Palisade and left it in charge of Dean McCarty for planting, but did not find business conditions favorable for locating and says that Lowell is a hustling town compared to La Junta. He went to Akron, O., Tuesday to investigate a proposition there.

Mart's trip has done him good. He looks about a year younger for every week he has been away.

The line-up is as follows: Elmer Hawk, catcher; Bruce McQueen, pitcher; Chas. Clark, first; Will Culver, second; Dexter Conklin, third; Martin Avery, shortstop; Wayne Young, left field; Roydon Warner, right field; Otto Andrews, center field.

Elmer Hawk is manager and Bruce McQueen captain. They played with the Lowell North Enders yesterday afternoon and won with a score of 6 to 0 and have booked a game with Saranac for Saturday.

HIS LEG TORN OFF

Alto Lad the Victim of a Terrible Accident.

ALTO, Mich., May 11.—While Orla Bickford, the 11 year-old son of A. O. Bickford of this town was catching a ride on a buggy driven by William Miesler this afternoon his right leg became caught in the wheel of the buggy and was torn off at the knee. When the unfortunate lad fell, fainting from the terrible agony, into the street and was picked up by a man standing near, the leg fell from his trouser leg.

The boy was on his way home from school with a few playmates when he spied Miesler driving down the street.

"Ride, mister!" he exclaimed. The man in the buggy, with whom were also two little girls, nodded assent and the little chap jumped up behind. As he threw his left leg into the body of the vehicle his right struck a spoke in the wheel and was whirled around against the axle, cruelly dragged down and completely around the axle until it snapped off like a twig. The lad screamed in pain, but Miesler did not stop his horse. He stated that he failed to hear any sound from the boy.

As the buggy went on down the street the lad fell off and lay screaming in pain in the street. He was carried to a doctor's office in Miesler's buggy and the leg amputated between the knee and the hip. The boy suffered with a terrible hemorrhage this afternoon and fears for his recovery are entertained.—[Grand Rapids Herald.

MCCAWLEY-McCORMICK

St. Patrick's Church, Parnell, the Scene of a Wedding.

On Tuesday morning Miss Teresa McCawley was united in marriage to William McCormick at St. Patrick's church at Parnell. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Teresa Conway as bridesmaid and John Troy was best man.

After the ceremony the wedding party went to the home of the bride's sister Mrs. P. Byrne of Ada, where a large wedding reception was held in the afternoon and evening. About two hundred guests were present and the wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick will make their home in Ada.—[Parnell Scribe.

CONSOLIDATED

Lowell Lumber Company Buys the Ecker & Kellogg Stock.

The Lowell Lumber company has bought of Ecker & Kellogg their stock of lumber and building materials. Mr. Ecker will assist in the sales department of the combined business and will continue his planing mill business as heretofore.

Both Lumber company and planing mill are equipped to meet all demands upon them for service in their respective lines; and THE LEDGER hopes they will enjoy a full measure of prosperity.

See the Lumber company's announcement elsewhere in this issue.

ENTERTAINMENT.

Husted-Jaeger Company at Congregational Church May 14.

Miss Florence Phillips who has been announced to appear at the Congregational church, Friday May 14, with Charles Husted, impersonator will be supplanted by Miss Julia Jaeger, lyric soprano. Miss Jaeger has an unusual soprano voice of great range, an artistic temperament, and a pleasing personality. She is prominent in Grand Rapids music circles and is always received most favorably by her audiences. Miss Jaeger is an experienced singer and Lowell should consider itself fortunate in being afforded the opportunity of hearing this rising star.—[Com.

Lads Don't Go There.

George Tebbel and his sister, Miss Edna Tebbel, were in Ionia last Saturday. They returned home by way of Lowell, and while in that damp town, the playful spring breezes snatched George's hat from his head, and after playing football with it for a few minutes, dropped it in Grand river. George had just time enough to go to a store and buy another hat before train time.—[Smyrna Cor. Belding News.

Geo. B. Fuller of Bloomington, Ind., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. G. W. Rouse.

GANNON PIONEER

Death of Mrs. Mary Ann Young of That Township.

Mrs. Mary Ann Young, whose death occurred May 5, aged 76 years, 4 months and 9 days, was a pioneer of Cannonburg. Mary Ann Liddle was born in the village of Camillus, New York, December 26, 1832. While a child her parents moved to Wisconsin, then later to Chicago.

On the 26th of December 1849 she was united in marriage to Thomas B. Young in Chicago and on account of the cholera epidemic in that city they returned to his home in New York state.

In 1875 she with her husband came to Michigan, where she has since resided. Two children, Gaylord and Robert Young, both of whom survive, were born to this union her husband having preceded her on May 30, 1897.

Mrs. Young early in life became a member of the Methodist church. On coming to Michigan she united with the Congregational church at Cannonburg, of which she was a member at the time of her death.

Funeral services were held at the Congregational church May 9, conducted by Rev. A. H. Sturgis. Interment in Cannon cemetery.

Those who are left to mourn their loss are two sons, six grandsons and a host of relatives and friends beside four great-grand children.—[Cannonburg Scribe.

FED TWO HUNDRED.

Methodist Brotherhood Supper a Success in Spite of the Rain.

The weather man evidently "had it in" for the Methodist Brotherhood supper last Thursday evening; for it rained heavily all night and the time intended patrons should have started. For all that about 200 people braved the elements and were well taken care of by the deft kitchen and waiting committees. Chairman Watts commends his several committees and pronounces the enterprise a success. Thanks are due to the band for services which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Preparations are now making for the Brotherhood picnic June 4; and if the weather man is kind he will be freely forgiven for past offenses.

STILL GOING UP

R. L. White Gets Salary Jump and Refuses Call up Higher.

Prof. Robert L. White, superintendent of schools at Elgin, Ill., for the past two years, has been granted a $200 increase of salary for the coming year, making it $2,700. The board of education at the same time adopted resolutions commending his work and influence upon the community.

Afterward Prof. White received an offer of the superintendency of the schools at Joliet at a salary of $3,000; but will remain with his appreciative constituency in Elgin.

His many Lowell friends rejoice at Mr. White's deserved success.

THE ART EXHIBIT

Given Under Auspices of Lowell Schools May 19 to 22.

The art exhibit consisting of two hundred reproductions of the world's leading subjects in paintings, portraits, architecture sculpture and natural scenery, owned by the Horace K. Turner company of Boston and worth several hundred dollars has been loaned for four days to the Lowell schools and will be on exhibition next week Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday May 19, 20, 21, 22, in the vacant store adjoining Mr. Heydlauff's express office.

The exhibit will be open to the public forenoons, afternoons and evenings. A small admission fee of ten cents will be charged. We have two main objects in bringing this famous collection of pictures to Lowell as follows: first, to afford our children and citizens an opportunity to see and study excellent copies of master pieces, and to know something concerning the artist, thereby fostering a desire for the appreciation of art; second, to enable our school children to earn and to secure good pictures for their school rooms.

We trust the citizens of Lowell will patronize the school and assist in this worthy effort.

Some art catalogs will be on sale and an opportunity will also be given for those who desire to select and order pictures for their homes.

Our Reference Library Table.

The State Gazetteer for 1909 is out and a copy has been added to the Lowell's reference library for the convenience of its patrons. This outfit now includes Encyclopaedia Britannica, bound Review of Reviews from 1900 down, Cram's atlas of the world, the Kent county atlas and Webster's 1909 edition International dictionary, Michigan Manual and Rand, McNally's encyclopedia.

LARGE DIVIDEND

Declared by the Prospering Lowell Specialty Company Yesterday.

The board of directors of the Lowell Specialty company had a meeting at their offices yesterday morning when a statement of the business done during the past 8 1/2 months was given, showing a most gratifying prosperity during that period.

A net profit of 20 percent was shown on the capital stock, and a dividend of 12 1/2 percent was declared, payable on or before August 1, 1909. The remaining 7 1/2 percent was passed to the surplus fund.

The business of the period named shows an increase of 25 percent over that of any preceding 12 months.

SENATOR TUTTLE

O'Flahgan Will Deliver Decoration Day Address May 31.

Senator Arthur J. Tuttle of Igham has been selected as orator for the annual Decoration day observance here Monday, May 31. Other arrangements are being made by member of local Grand Army post and Women's Relief corps for fitting memorial exercises; and further announcements will be made later.

Decoration day has been growing in favor with Lowell people for years as a patriotic day, and the attendance and interest in the coming event, weather being favorable, will probably equal or surpass those of other years.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Program for next Sunday will be as follows: 10:30 a. m. Public worship and sermon by the acting pastor, Rev. A. T. Cartland. Special music morning and evening.

11:45 a. m. Sunday school, F. X. White, Superintendent. Lesson, Acts 14, 1-28.

7:30 p. m. Evening service. Sermon to young men on the subject, "The Making of Manhood." Thursday 7:30 p. m. mid-week prayer service.

Children's day will be observed the second Sunday in June with a special children's service in the morning and a Sunday school concert in the evening.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

We want you to hear the following subjects next Sunday.

Monday: "Where to Walk, or Life's High Places." This is a sermon calculated to get folks to remain always where they seem to be in their best moods.

Evening: Several scenes in Paul's life—the mob in Ieonium, the healing of the Lystrian cripple, Jupiter and Mercury, together with others.

Don't miss this service. Anthems at both services. Wednesday night class on Inspired Church History. Choir practice Thursday evening.

VERGENNES BAILEY CHURCH.

Service next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. standard time. Sermon by Rev. A. T. Cartland. Special music by members of the Lowell Methodist choir. All are cordially invited.

Yes! we claimed that our last years line of

was the "Best ever"—"The greatest line we had ever shown"—and all that sort of thing and we meant it too—but this year we have done even better. When you put your whole heart into a thing, in getting it into shape and find it comes up to the mark, in fact laps over a little—you are bound to get enthusiastic over it. That's the way with our wall paper line this year. We feel through and through that it is better than what has gone before.

THAT'S AN EXPENSIVE WATCH

No matter how little it cost you, if it doesn't tell you the right time.

That kind of a watch would be dear if you got it for nothing.

A handsome case is desirable—but an accurate inside mechanism is absolutely INDISPENSABLE.

If you like we may put one of special movements in an Orisler case, and you will have an excellent timepiece.

What we wish to point out is that the works are the watch, the case is the adornment.

And another thing we wish to point out is that if there ever was a jewelry store that was prepared to please you in watches, this is the place—and we include our guarantee for your protection.

Call in and hear our arguments.

Problem Baffles Scientists

There has been an influx of many thousand dollars standing unused 150 years, in the name of a great company in London for supplying that will dissolve food by the application of a created light. The money has never been earned by any investment. For still persists, there is the law of commerce in progress at the volume of commerce in the world.

The man who can clear the old channels of New York harbor from 1000 even for a few hours at a time will be hailed as the wonder of the age.

Word Fainting. Jimmy (reading)—"Casey swatted the batter into left field for a brace of geese and then pitched (thoid has an' dented de pan on Mulligan's lullaboon dat sailed over Outfielder Sluggers's' hat." I tell yer, Willie, dat's work-paintin', dat is! Shake-specs never could heat dat!"

Gamble for Maids. "About queer reasons are advanced by society girls for losing a place, and the manager of the employment bureau, "but the queerest I have ever heard was given by a girl who blew in here last week. Her late mistress was a hedge fund. One day for the want of money to bet, she and her friends played with their maids for money. At the end of the game each maiden considered herself in honor bound to stick to her agreement, and an attempt was really made to swap servants according to the ups and downs of the game. Some of the girls thus called off chased places without enough, but that client of mine refused to be swapped, and has had around hunting a new job."—New York Sun.
