To Florida some people go to escape the cold and the snow. It is no comfort to roam a Round Oak Furnace at home. And winter you never will know.

There is great comfort and satisfaction in owning a warm air furnace that gives you a perfectly heated home—that holds the fire that saves fuel and stays by you a lifetime, sound and good.

We know it is best for our customers and best for us to sell a furnace of highest quality and advanced first class—correct furnace work.

A furnace should be a permanent improvement—just like good plumbing. Cheap plumbing is a very bad investment everybody knows. Same thing with a cheap furnace. The difference in the cost of a cheap and a good furnace is very little, after all, and when you take into consideration the fuel saved by the ROUND OAK and its durability, it is not long before you are ahead and you keep getting ahead instead of continually getting worse off.

The question really is which is best and cheapest for you in the long run. We sell the ROUND OAK and will help you to decide.

We make plans and estimates free and give all inquiries prompt attention.

Now is the time to have your furnace installed and get the matter off your hands before cold weather begins.

MATRIMONIAL.

Scott-Blow. Grand Rapids Groom Wins Lowell Bride.

The marriage of Miss Mary A. Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Scott of this village and Mr. Arthur E. Blow of Grand Rapids took place last evening at 7:00 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of seventy-five relatives and friends. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Russell H. Bready under a grove of vines and ferns. The bride wore a gown of amethyst messaline with gold lace trimmings and carried white bride roses and maiden hair fern. She was given away by her father. The maid of honor, her sister, Miss Mabel Scott, wore a white gown of swiss batiste and carried pink astors. Fred J. Stauffer of Grand Rapids was groomsmen.

Preceding the ceremony "Past and Future," was sung by Miss Florence Phillips of Grand Rapids and as the bridal party descended the stairs, passed through green-vine ropes held by Misses Florence Yeiter and Jane Willard, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Chester J. Berger and Mr. Tuller, violinist, of Grand Rapids, and during the ceremony "Hearts and Flowers," was softly played.

The dining room decorations were carried out in red and white and from the chandeliers to the table were white ribbons interwoven with myrtle and sinilax, and the living room decorations were carried out in green and white, and cut flowers of roses, carnations and chrysanthemums were used throughout the rooms in profusion.

The punch bowl was in charge of Miss Bertha Doyle, the gift room of Misses Marguerite Southard and Esther Ruben and the dining room of Misses Anna Lasby, Freda Ecker, Lotta Smith and Florence Scott.

After a short wedding trip to Woodstock, Ont., and other places, Mr. and Mrs. Blow will be glad to welcome their friends at 244 Sheldon Street after October 15.

Those from out of town who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Barber and Mrs. Agnes Kopf of Houston, Texas; E. C. Lewis, Chicago; Mrs. A. L. Scott, New York City; Miss Mary Hampton, Hokodote, Japan; Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Taylor, Kalamazoo; Miss Clara and Harry Davis, Grandville; Elmer Davis, Alto; and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gingrich, Mr. and Mrs. E. Love and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Smith and daughters Louise and Lottie, Mr. and Mrs. John Gingrich, Miss Carrie Scott, Frank Abel and Earl Bohler, all of Grand Rapids.

Winegar-Thomas. Knew How to Fool Their Friends.

It takes Earl and Della to get even with their Lowell chums, as we will show you. Tuesday evening Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Bready, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Thomas, Earl and Ethel and Mrs. Julia Hildreth were invited to dine with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Winegar and daughter, Della. The rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

A sumptuous dinner was enjoyed by the merry company after which, to the astonishment of Rev. Bready, he was handed the marriage license of Earl and Della and requested to perform the ceremony at once. No bridesmaid or best-man was there, no wedding march, no elaborate wedding gown, and the clergyman was cautioned to speak low, lest there be eavesdroppers outside; but the knot was tied well and firmly, the ring service being used.

The bride was married in her traveling suit, then, attired in garments she had been accustomed to wear on the street, she, in company with her pastor, made her way to the Pere Marquette station. About this time the other young people were beginning to mistrust what was going on and some one telephoned to Grand Rapids and found out that the license had been granted. The crowd, who were holding a shower at the home of Mrs. Harold Weekes, quickly made their way to the station and while the girls decorated the bride with tags, the boys were searching for the bridegroom and Mr. Bready stood guard over the suitcases. The search proving fruitless, one of the number hustled over to the Grand Trunk station reaching there just in time to see the train pulling out, with the sought for gentleman on board.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will visit in Grand Rapids for a few days and return to make their home in Lowell, in their own house, which has been prepared for them.

Blakelee-Sullivan. Lowell Girl Married in Detroit Tuesday.

Miss Leona Blakelee of Detroit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Blakelee of Lowell was united in marriage to Edward C. Sullivan of Detroit, at the home of the bride's sister there, Mrs. W. J. Warren, 342 Pennsylvania ave., Tuesday at high noon. Rev. H. G. Pierce of the Tabernacle Methodist church performing the impressive ring ceremony. The bride wore a gray traveling suit, and carried bride roses. After the ceremony they immediately left for a ten days outing at their cottage at St. Clair Flats.

Mr. Sullivan is cashier and assistant general manager of the Michigan Telephone Co.

The couple will welcome their many friends at 342 Pennsylvania ave., after Oct. 12.

Whitney-Layer.

Clinton, La., Sept. 12—Freeman Whitney of Jackson, La., and Miss Bessie Layer of Michigan were married at the Methodist parsonage here to-day at 12 o'clock. Rev. F. M. Freeman, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating.—(New Orleans Times Democrat.)

AGED WOMAN GONE

Death of Mrs. Ann Gardner Sayles of this Village.

Ann Gardner Sayles was born in Lancaster, Ontario, Nov. 10, 1821, and died at her home in Lowell Sept. 18, 1909. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Russell H. Bready Sept. 22.

While in infancy her parents moved to Danbury where she remained until 23 years of age, after which they removed to Otisco, Ionia Co., Mich. She was united in marriage to George R. Sayles of Keene township Feb. 5, 1845. Here they founded a christian home where with characteristic devotion to God and the right they lived for 33 years. Her husband's failing health then compelled them to retire from active labor and in 1878 they left the farm and moved to Lowell where four years later her husband passed away. Three sons and four daughters were born to them. One son and three daughters survive; Mrs. S. E. Hull of Albion, Mrs. Olive Warner of Bowne, Emily and Porter Sayles of Lowell; also 11 grandchildren, 11 great-grand children, one brother William Gardner of Smyrna and one sister Mrs. Mary Watkins of Grattan.

In early life her decision was made for Christ and His cause. In 1880 she united by letter with the Methodist church of Lowell and those of us who know her best loved her the most. Her calmness and trust in her Saviour sustained her through the loneliness of her widowhood and the lengthened shadows of bereavement through which she was called to pass, and during the last few years of her life looking backward over nearly 88 years as she sat day by day with folded hands patiently waiting the summons. It comes like a benediction to us all that she so longed to the last to clasp her precious bible that had given her such bright and glorious anticipations of her heavenly home. We are thankful for her life and though dead she yet speaketh.

The Fall Quarterly Style Book is without doubt the finest fashion book on the market today at any price. Good quality paper is used throughout, the printing the finest that money can buy and the art work is the product of the country's best artists. Two pages and the cover are printed in full color, and many other pages are true-to-life halftone illustrations.

It is better in every way than any other publication of its kind—better even than any previous issue of the Style Book. It is handsome enough for the parlor table, yet cheap enough so that every woman can afford one for use in the sewing room.

Comparing it with other publications you naturally expect the price to be 35c or 50c, but it is only 25c and as each book contains a certificate good for any one of the Home Journal pattern the price is reduced practically to 5c a copy. Secure one at Payne's today.

CLOSING SERVICES

Rev. Bready Greeted by Large Congregations for Last Meetings.

Rev. Russell H. Bready had large congregations for his closing services at the Methodist church last Sunday, the evening attendance filling all the pews.

To free the church from debt and to paper the parsonage throughout, dollar contributions were called for and generous responses were made. The task was nearly accomplished and Mr. Bready expects to complete it after conference.

Being probably the last church service of his Lowell pastorate, the warm attachment between Mr. Bready and his people was evidenced by moist eyes in pulpit, choir and congregation and by the many fervent "Good byes" and handclaps.

Departing from the stereotyped church reception an ex-angel and inaugural event in honor of retiring and incoming pastors and their families is being planned, further announcement of which will be made later.

"SHOWERS OF BLESSINGS"

Showing How "Coming Events Cast Their Shadows Before."

Miss Della Winegar entertained the sewing girls at the pleasant home of her parents Monday evening. When all were assembled each young lady was handed two holders to make. Each holder contained a card on one side of which was to be written a pleasant wish for the bride-to-be. Miss Lizzie McMahon, and on the other was to be guessed the date of Miss Della's wedding day, the one being nearest correct to receive a little prize. Nearly all the guests guessed some date in October, but none imagined that the day was so near at hand. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Margaret McMahon announces the marriage of her daughter Miss Lizzie to Mr. John Lally, the marriage to take place Wednesday morning Sept. 29th at 9:30 o'clock at St. Mary's church.

Mrs. Harold Weekes entertained with a miscellaneous shower at her home Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Lizzie McMahon, and Mesdames Frank Coons and Clinton Hodges entertain for her this evening at the home of the former.

CONGREGATIONAL

Some important and timely topics next Sunday at the congregational church. Morning—The Jew, Gentile and the Church of God. Important as revealing some of the great purposes of God that every Christian should be familiar with. Noon class of Brotherhood men, subject—Individualism and Altruism, or the Law of Love and Love as Law. Evening—How are we to deal with questions upon which we have no definite command of God? Or, adjusting matters of Casuistry—that is, determining duty in doubtful emergencies. Do not forget that we have a prayer, praise, Bible study and experience meeting, Wednesday night. Each night's study from this on will be complete in itself, rather than a study covering a number of meetings.

A curious case is that of the Wisconsin judge who has abandoned the practice of law and taken up work in a factory. From the time that the factory was started he has worked as a laborer, and has wandered off and gratified his inclination to do personal labor, one of which leads him to starting in the law and participating in legal practice, and the other leading him to work in a factory.

It is not about time for a new temple of power? Measurement by horse power is exact from time immemorial, and will be so in the future.

It has been decided in Washington that boys who play marbles "for keeps" are gamblers in the meaning of the law and liable to arrest and punishment for so heinous an offense.

It is cheering to the law-abiding citizen to realize that in its attempt to force upon the public a law which will force, though as the particular boy who is guilty is never called upon to pay, there is a grave doubt about the propriety of letting boys play marbles for keeps.

A curious case is that of the Wisconsin judge who has abandoned the practice of law and taken up work in a factory.

It is bound to come. Every forward movement reaches its goal.

Measure the Value of a Suit or Overcoat by the Service they Give you

If you should buy a suit or overcoat now, and next February find that they were not fit for another season, you wouldn't be greatly pleased with them or the store where you bought them, would you? Yet you must look out for just such clothes—the kind that are all "front" and no backbone of quality. Your safety is in buying goods where the merchant stands back of them and the makers stand back of the merchant.

Everything we Sell is Guaranteed

That's a pretty good assurance that you will get your money's full value. It's one reason why people who wear our clothes come back for more. And the other reason is that they have the most style and quality of any make of clothes and sell for less money than other makes in the same class. Do you want any better reason why you ought to be one of our steady customers?

Be Sure and call soon and look over our line of Shirts, Underwear, Sweater Coats, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Automobile Gloves, Fur Coats and Work Clothes.
