NOT A FIRE ALARM

The Boys Were playing Horse With Earl--that's All.

No, that wild alarm on the night breeze last Thursday evening was not on account of a fire but of several fires, inspired by revenge. They burned in the breasts of several of our young men, and Mr. Newly Wed (nee Earl Thomas) was the victim.

The melodious strains were hampered out of a circular saw carried on a big drag wagon, which also bore Mr. N. W., draped in a night shirt, ghostly with a shower bath of Pure Gold flour, handkerchiefs and bearing numerous placards. "Alas he was not game," read one, a sample of the rest, all referring to the cute escape made by Earl and Della two evenings before.

Thus adorned and equipped the drag with its living cargo, bearing torches and sending out showers of Roman candles proceeded up and down Main street with detours on either side of the river giving the natives deafening "serenades" and Earl the time of his life.

The boys think they got even for numerous pranks played by their chum upon other new-weds in days gone by; but Earl thinks he is "a head ahead yet."

Mrs. Earl was safely ensconced in a neighbor's house during the fusillade and escaped any boisterous attentions.

One feature of the Main street parade was the kidnapping of The Ledger editor by a couple of husky young chaps and a free ride for the scribe on the drag. This evidently was to pay him for the wedding write up. The boys made a mistake this time. Mrs. J. should have had that ride.

SCHOOL NOTES

Kindly Furnished by Superintendent E. J. Martin.

Total enrollment in the High school is 123; of these 53 are non-resident pupils.

The seating capacity in the High school is more than full; ten or twelve being obliged to find seats in the laboratory.

The Freshmen class is made up of forty-four energetic members. On account of the large attendance in the High school and the crowded condition of the program it is thought that an additional teacher will have to be supplied.

There is a large attendance in the South Ward. Thirty-eight being enrolled.

The usual monthly report cards will be sent to parents next Wednesday.

Mrs. Mayme Hinds, more familiarly known as Miss Mayme Hayes, made a pleasant call at the High school last Monday. Mrs. Hinds will be remembered as a former teacher of history and English in the Lowell schools.

The senior class numbers twenty-eight. Here's hoping the entire number may be successful in carrying the work during the year and that they may all be seen next June on the stage of that magnificent new city hall.

The spade, handed down last commencement time by the senior class to the juniors, has been provided with a neat case and adorns the walls of the high school room. Its bright clean blade being a silent reminder of the necessity of studiously digging and delving for knowledge.

Great interest is being manifested by Latin and German pupils under the efficient instruction of Miss Edwards.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Services next Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m. The newly appointed pastor, Rev. N. F. Jenkins will officiate at both services. Note the change of the evening service from 7:30 to 7 o'clock.

Friday evening October 8 there will be held at the church an exegetical and inaugural in honor of the retiring and incoming pastors. Full program announced next week.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Morning service--subject: Some of the notes for the old fashioned orthodox Bible Christianity that were sounded forth from the Grand Rapids pulpit last Sunday. This will be interesting and encouraging to think the old paths have not been discarded altogether by the leaders. Noon Brotherhood class, subject: What specific blessings ought Christians to introduce into the social reform? This church will have no service Sunday evening out of courtesy to the new pastor of the Methodist church. Let us give him a royal welcome.

Attention, Congregational Brotherhood. Your meeting has been postponed. Be on the lookout for an early call for a meeting. A good speaker is being secured and a banquet is in store. Let our next meeting be a rouser. Keep your eyes and ears open for next meeting when announced.

Our September Newly-Weds.

From the advanced knowledge of its uses, in New Jersey, the automobile is being made into a portable garage by hand-carrying and exposing them to the mountains. In a few months the trunk of the automobile will be easier to leave town. This is almost as barbarous as capital punishment.
Another plan is reported to be paying attention to the automobile. One that even royalty is anxious for the proty American girl and the American boy. It is a young American man ought to have been considered in the tariff at high protective rates on arrival.
Aviation is the craze of the hour. Statistics compiled by the Bureau of Census for 1901 show that in Europe the physicians care for 1,000,000 patients in general population. If such a proportion holds good for Europe, it is reasonable to suppose that the similar proportion would be sufficient for the United States. It is stated that the number of physicians in the United States is 25,000 in addition to the natural requirements.

WHITNEY CORROBORATES THE STORY TOLD BY COOK
PEARLY STILL DENIES IT
Say: Whitney Does Not Play Any Part Whatever in the Controversy as to the Doctor's Claim.
Harry Whitney of New Haven, who with Dr. Frederick A. Cook at Annotok and to whom Dr. Cook said to have given a detailed account of his trip to the Pole, has sent a wireless message from Indian Harbor, Labrador, in answer to the question: "Did Cook reach the Pole?" saying: "I have no reason to doubt Cook's statement." He was told by Dr. Cook that he had been at the Pole, but the information was private. Dr. Cook left records and instruments with Whitney, and he did not know of his trip. Whitney, who is a physician, has been seen at the Pole, but he is not sure of it. He is unable to speak with authority as to the value in sealing the discovery.

Is Poor Place for Fortune-Hunters

THE national capital is the poorest place in the United States for fortune hunters who seek marriage with rich girls as a means to acquire wealth. It is not that the mothers of Washington have greater intuition than their sisters of less conspicuous cities of the United States. Indeed, the reason is far from the individual or collective abilities of Washington society women.
The girl-trotting foreigner who passes in Washington as a count, prospector, baron or any other of the noble offices soon finds that his game is known. A soft-boiled but determined demand is made on him within a day or two to leave Washington.
If he does not do so, the pseudo-wealthy soon finds himself surrounded by other nations get the same sort of treatment from the embassies of the city that he is said to go elsewhere. It is the best place for fortune-hunters to seek the Persian minister an accomplished host.

These Things May Not Be So, but They Appear So to Us.

The expected has happened and Rev. Russell H. Bready will remove from Lowell. After four years of activity in the religious, social and industrial life of our community, in the zenith of his popularity and usefulness, he is called to higher. While we regret his departure, we are glad to have him. He has left his mark not alone on the church, but on the fraternal, social and industrial life of the people as well. We are glad too that he is not to leave Kent county. Since we were to lose him, we are more than willing that Grand Rapids is to have him, congratulating ourselves meanwhile that the local option campaign will not lose by the change. In this and other capacities, we shall meet him and his again and often. We are glad, too, since the change must be, that Mr. Bready is to have so worthy and able a successor as Rev. A. J. Jenkins of Holland, another staunch local option campaigner, for whom awaits the same cordial welcome and loyal support as was accorded his predecessor. "The King is dead. Long live the King!"

In the minds of most people the discovery of the North Pole is of questionable value, considering its cost in lives and treasure. But now that Peary has discovered a most pitiless and ungrateful manner toward Dr. Cook, his fellow explorer, the public is disgusted with the whole performance. A man so small as to send back all his white companions when near the goal for fear there wouldn't be glory enough to go round, who refused to permit Cook's records and instruments to be brought back on his ship, and then, banking on Cook's lack of that corroborative evidence, proceeded to announce his rival as a liar and impostor, is hardly poor material of which to make a hero. Peary may have found the Pole. We presume he did. But his conduct since has been a disgrace to Americanism.

Some of the Baptist ministers concerned in the recent separation in the Grand Rapids association, object to the terms used by the newspaper reporters in describing the proceedings, "secession," "split" and "row" are some of the obnoxious words. Reference to the unbridled falls to disclose words more apt. If the brethren don't like the name they shouldn't have had the game. Newspapers are poor hands at making distinctions where there are no differences. The best way to assemble, brotherly love is to dwell together in peace. It is well to remember that if God Almighty intended all men to think alike, he made a most awful job of it. After all, it matters not half so much what one thinks as what he is. Better a mighty sight of the good hevie than a bad orthodox.

The LEDGER is glad to note the prosperous condition of the Lowell schools and the large increase in foreign attendance. It speaks well for the management of our educational affairs. Our people are proud of their schools and are not alogorily in making appropriations for their support and we predict an increasing liberality in this direction. A strengthening element in future educational work in Lowell among youth and adults will be the new ground floor library now building. The Lowell schools and the Lowell library have bright futures, which promise much for the moral and intellectual welfare of our community. We welcome the return to our columns of Superintendent Martin's school notes.

"The laborer is worthy of his hire," and the dealer to a fair profit. Whoever helps defeat these ends, convives at the death of business and credit. The laborer has occasionally referred to these things in a candid and honest manner during the past two years. If there were any who needed evidence to convince them of the truth of our statements we trust that results have vindicated our honor and judgment. The something for nothing business will continue to tempt fools and imbeciles, but the wise will continue in the way indicated by justice and common sense.

AGENTS of the H. J. Heinz Pickle Co. were in town Saturday demonstrating their wares. They stated that the Heinz people were well pleased with their Lowell pickle station business and with their former patrons, and intimated that the Lowell plant might develop into a large industry. In behalf of the people of Lowell The LEDGER would state that the Heinz company has made itself solid with this community by its square dealings, having in at least one instance done more than it agreed to do. Any development of its local business will be welcomed and cheerfully cooperated with.

The LEDGER has secured new correspondents at Elm Dale and Alto and our readers may expect to hear from those bustling burgs regularly hereafter. Now that the Grand Rapids Herald has dropped the country correspondence feature this paper has become the distinctive home paper of a constantly increasing territory and the publisher expects to rise to the demands. It is up to the people to support the paper, if they are favored them. To keep the best they must not let it be their money and influence. The LEDGER will continue to be worthy of your very best support.

The Medical Record, discussing the subject "Alcoholism, Crime and Insanity" as affected by heredity, reveals that the child will copy the habits and inherit the diseases, or tendencies to same, from the parent and that the children of degenerates will probably be worse than their parents. The doctor concludes with a warning that if the race is to survive and prosper, sensible, healthy people should "use their utmost endeavors to stamp out vice and intemperance."

ON ACCOUNT of Canadian and Methodist in the new tariff law, Canada will adopt retaliatory measures and thus because of the stand-patience of two old trust sources, the day of reciprocity between the two great American governments lying side by side is indefinitely postponed. These old granddaddies come in again, but we must have them.

AS BETWEEN BITTERS and Townsend, this is the latter. If the senatorship is a good thing, Julius Caesar has had his share. The Senate needs new blood. Anyhow, Townsend is willing to have the people decide it; and we can't remember that Mr. Barrows ever ran his shirt working for election of senators by the people.

A YOUNG MAN "who takes his bit of regularly" asked a girl to marry him and she told him she wasn't running a Keesey cure. If there were more girls of that stamp there would be fewer drunkard's wives taking in washings.

FAMILY BROKEN UP

Former Lowell People-Figure in State Press Sensation.

Saravac, Mich., Sept. 10.—Rev. Dr. W. H. Flint, former pastor of the Congregational church, has sold his practice and disappeared, although his wife declares she knows of his whereabouts. Mrs. Blanche Bennett, the vivacious wife of the former village baker, is supposed to be in Grand Rapids, although Saravac is not certain where she is nor whom she is with. It is known definitely that she is not in Tacoma, Wash., with her husband and children, and it surmises a great many interesting things besides what it is certain of.

Based upon the absence of the two persons named, both of whom have been prominent in local affairs of Saravac for a number of years, this quaint old village is sitting up late at nights to discuss the biggest sensation of its history.

Dr. Flint came to Saravac originally as the Congregationalist pastor. Lon Bennett was conducting his baker shop and his pretty wife spent a great deal of her time behind the counter. She spent part of her remaining leisure in the work of the church, and the disposition of what time she had left on her hands was a matter of considerable interest to the local gossipers even at that time. Two years ago the Bennetts moved to Tacoma, Wash., to go into business. A little later Dr. Flint came to Detroit, studied medicine and returned to Saravac to practice.

A few weeks ago Dr. Flint visited in Tacoma. When he returned to Michigan he was accompanied by Mrs. Bennett and the latter's little daughter. A few days later Hubby Bennett left Tacoma with murder in his mind and hurried to Saravac. There was a storm, but there were no tragic developments and no court proceedings have followed his visit as yet. What did occur is recorded only in the months of the sensation-loving folks of this place, Lowell, Grand Rapids and other places, wherein the principals of the tale are known. In Lowell, especially, the case has been freely discussed the Bennett's having lived there a few years ago. They left Lowell to locate in Saravac and from the moment that move was made the present storm started to brew, according to Dr. Flint's own alleged admissions.

"I felt an affection for Mrs. Bennett the moment she waited on me in her husband's bakery in Saravac," Dr. Flint is said to have told her husband during the recent trouble. There was talk concerning Dr. Flint and Mrs. Bennett, so citizens say, when the latter was living at Saravac, but the gossip was not taken seriously, although at that time the doctor is said to have confessed to his wife a strong liking for Mrs. Bennett. Mrs. Charles Kraft, of Lowell, sister of Mrs. Bennett's husband, is authority for this statement.

"Dr. Flint begged of his wife to allow him to come to my house and see her about the time she was leaving for Tacoma," said Mrs. Kraft, "but his wife, very properly forbade him to see her. Nevertheless he saw her just the same, he made a date to meet her in Grand Rapids and the two accompanied by one of her two little girls, rode about the city for some hours in a cab. Mrs. Bennett wrote to the doctor several times after she arrived at Tacoma, but claimed it was for medical advice. We know, however, that she wrote to him a number of times unknown to her husband.

"The doctor's family and Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were very friendly when all lived in Saravac, and Mr. Bennett invited the doctor to visit him when he went west a short time ago for his health. My brother regarded him as a brother. When the doctor was leaving for home Mrs. Bennett expressed a desire to come to Grand Rapids on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Campbell. Mr. Bennett thought it would be all right to let her make the trip with the doctor, and he sent his little 5-year-old daughter, Dorothy, with them. My brother wrote me she was on the way. She didn't arrive when she should have and an investigation by her mother and myself resulted in our finding out that she was staying at a hotel in Grand Rapids instead of coming to my place or going to her mother's. The little girl was with her and what she told caused me to wire Mr. Bennett at once. I told him to take the matter calmly and to do nothing rash. He arrived the Saturday night before Labor day. I explained the circumstances to him, and on Labor day he, accompanied by my husband and myself went to Saravac to see Dr. Flint. We met in the office of Dr. Flint's son-in-law, Attorney J. Clyde Watt and ex-state representative but the doctor refused to come there. Finally we went to the house where the whole matter was going over. Mr. Bennett was raging when he left Tacoma, but he thought the matter over sanely on his way out, and concluded he would gain nothing by shooting Dr. Flint. On facing the doctor he said calmly:

"Dr. Flint, it is well for you that I did not encounter you on my leaving Tacoma. I might have shot you then, but I feel now that it is better to let you live. But I want to advise you now that the best thing you can do is let my wife alone. She will leave you just as she has left me. But ask you, Dr. Flint, why did you cut me throat?"

The doctor doubtless knew that Mr. Bennett didn't ask the question in a neutral sense, but he replied:

"Why didn't you cut my throat?" "No, you didn't do that, but you did worse; you have broken up my home."

"Dr. Flint had nothing to say during the dramatic scene, and the doctor and Mrs. Bennett started back to Tacoma. The grandmother will bring up the girls, Mrs. Bennett was living in a boarding house in Grand Rapids the last we heard of her. What will become of her I really don't know.

It is a pity to everybody how the doctor and Mrs. Bennett got to know each other so well. She is 37 years old and he is 52. Mr. Bennett said on leaving here that he would tell Marion the elder of his two children, that her father was dead, to save her from being disgraced."

Mr. Watt, son-in-law of the doctor, corroborates Mrs. Kraft's statement that Mr. Bennett came to Saravac to complain about the doctor's attentions to Mrs. Bennett, but declines for obvious reasons to go into details in regard to the matter.

"It is possible that the doctor and Mrs. Bennett have been indiscreet in the past," said Mr. Watt, "but the thing has quieted down now and it would be a big mistake to reopen it. The doctor and his wife are on good terms and in justice to her and the other members of the family the thing should be dropped."

Mrs. Flint, when seen at her home, indignantly denied that there was any ground whatsoever for the rumors about her husband and Mrs. Bennett. The doctor has not been home for some days, but his wife declares she has received letters from him and knows where he is. He is out in the state, seeking a new location, having sold his practice in Saravac, she explains. She declined to say where he is, however.

Dr. Flint has been living at Saravac a couple of years, having removed here from Clarksville. He was in charge of the Saravac Congregational church up to the time when he resigned to study medicine at the Detroit College of Medicine. He has four children: Mrs. Stuart and a 12-year-old boy, all living in Saravac; Mrs. Stuart married an oil contractor, is living with the parents. She is said to be separated from her husband, who is a small clerk on the railroad running out of Detroit. She is now organist at the local Congregational church.

There is a general feeling in Saravac that the doctor and his wife's living will result in connection with the Flint-Bennett trouble. Mr. Bennett told his wife that he would not bother her again in any way if she allowed him to keep the children.

WHAT IS HYOMEI?

You Have Heard About the Catarrh Cure M. N. Henry Guarantees

Hyomei is a wonderful antiseptic, so powerful that it promptly destroys germs, yet its action on the mucous membrane is extremely soothing and healing. It relieves catarrh in five minutes; it cures in a few weeks or money back.

It is made chiefly of eucalyptus and eucalyptol taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia. The medical profession knows that eucalyptus is an absolutely certain germ destroyer and with the active principles of eucalyptus as a base Hyomei is made more efficient, pleasant and quick acting by the addition of Thymol, an antiseptic and disinfectant largely employed in the Listerian System. Gualacol and other important medicinal agents are also included in the Hyomei formula, which, without doubt, is the greatest destroyer of catarrh germs the world has ever known.

Hyomei is a powerful, penetrating antiseptic that is pleasant to use. It does not contain a particle of cocaine, opium or any habit-forming or injurious drug.

No dosing the stomach when you use Hyomei. Just breathe it in through the small inhaler that comes with each outfit. Sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Lowell by M. N. Henry. $1.00 for complete outfit.

Makes Hair Grow

Mr. N. Henry Has an invigorator that Makes Hair Grow in Abundance or Money Back

If your hair is thinning out gradually it won't be long before the bald spot appears.

The time to take care of the hair is when you have hair to take care of.

For thin falling hair the best remedy known to mankind is Parisian Sage. It is compounded on scientific principles and furnishes to the hair root a nourishment that acts quickly and promptly and causes the hair to grow.

But remember this! It kills the dandruff germ, the pest that appropriates all the natural nourishment that should go to the hair root.

Parisian Sage is sold by M. N. Henry under a positive guarantee to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of scalp in two weeks or money back.

It gives to woman's hair a lustre and radiance that is most fascinating and causes it to grow so abundantly.

Parisian Sage is now sold in every first-class town in America. A large generous bottle costs 50 cents, and the girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR DANDRUFF.

ZEZEMA stops itching instantly and will cure any case of Dandruff or itching scalp. ZEZEMA destroys the dandruff germ and prevents falling hair. It will give the hair a rich glossy color and leave the scalp clean and healthy.

WHAT IS HYOMEI?

You Have Heard About the Catarrh Cure M. N. Henry Guarantees

Hyomei is a wonderful antiseptic, so powerful that it promptly destroys germs, yet its action on the mucous membrane is extremely soothing and healing. It relieves catarrh in five minutes; it cures in a few weeks or money back.

It is made chiefly of eucalyptus and eucalyptol taken from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia. The medical profession knows that eucalyptus is an absolutely certain germ destroyer and with the active principles of eucalyptus as a base Hyomei is made more efficient, pleasant and quick acting by the addition of Thymol, an antiseptic and disinfectant largely employed in the Listerian System. Gualacol and other important medicinal agents are also included in the Hyomei formula, which, without doubt, is the greatest destroyer of catarrh germs the world has ever known.

Hyomei is a powerful, penetrating antiseptic that is pleasant to use. It does not contain a particle of cocaine, opium or any habit-forming or injurious drug.

No dosing the stomach when you use Hyomei. Just breathe it in through the small inhaler that comes with each outfit. Sold by leading druggists everywhere and in Lowell by M. N. Henry. $1.00 for complete outfit.
