METH. BROTHERHOOD

Has a Social Session Second to None Ever Held.

The regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Brotherhood, held in Macabee hall Tuesday evening, was one of the most enjoyable, interesting and instructive ever held by that organization. There was a large attendance.

Judging by the effective work done at the tables, the supper, which came first on the program, was entirely satisfactory. There was enough and to spare, the only complaint heard being to the effect that there were not enough toothpicks to go round.

Following the supper, three new members were initiated after which President Coons announced that the April meeting would be in the interest of local option with Myron H. Walker of Grand Rapids as the speaker.

F. M. Johnson was then called to the platform as chairman of the program committee. With a few timely words, he introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. George W. Jennings of Owosso, who, it had been announced, would address the Brotherhood on the subject, "How to Win Men." It is impossible to reproduce Mr. Jennings' address in cold type. It must have been heard to be appreciated. It was at once pointed, logical and eloquent, at times even approaching the sublime. He laid special emphasis upon the necessity for thinking if we would be successful in winning men, but said that thought must be crystallized into action. We must know men, know their needs, the conditions under which they live, their temptations and sorrows, if we would do them good. His peroration was a masterly tribute to Jesus the Man of the ages. The greatest product of Egypt was not the pyramids or the sphinx, or any of the great architectural relics which have come down to us through thirty centuries of time, but Moses the thinker who "refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God." The greatest product of Italy is not its great buildings or its magnificent works of art, but Savonarola, the Florentine monk who thought of the common people and gave himself heart and soul to the work of bettering their condition, and who was burned at the stake for his devotion to them. And Cromwell, and Gladstone and others like them were the greatest products of the mighty British empire, as Lincoln and Garfield and McKinley are of our own great country, because they thought for their fellow men and put their thoughts into action. But the greatest product of the ages was not any of these or all of them, but the Man of Nazareth, who was the visible expression of the thought of God toward men.

Mr. Jennings was heard throughout with delighted appreciation and was frequently greeted with hearty bursts of applause and words of approval. Should he ever visit our city again, it is hoped that his audience will not be confined to members of the Brotherhood.

COMING AT LAST

Detroit, Lansing & Grand Rapids Road Seeking Franchise.

Senator Andrew Fife of Grand Rapids, Dr. Oliver H. Lau and H. M. Wallace of Detroit and others associated with them in promoting an electric railway from Detroit to Grand Rapids by way of Lansing, it is stated, secured franchises from 48 of the 53 towns through which the line will pass, and these franchises will be submitted to the popular vote at the elections this spring, as required under the new state constitution.

Senator Fife and Mr. Wallace were in Lowell yesterday to meet the township board, and the matter will be submitted to the electors at the April election. It will be necessary to hold a special election in the village as there was not sufficient time to permit of giving the notice required by law before the question can be voted on. But trouble in securing the franchises is not anticipated as the people want the improved facilities which the interurban promises.

MISSION CLOSSES

With a Pontifical Blessing to St. Mary's Congregation Tuesday Evening.

The Mission given by Rev. Father Godfrey Schlachter, C. P., S. S. of Ft. Wayne, Ind., in St. Mary's church, Lowell, from March 1 to 8, was well attended and all who went were well satisfied, and sorry he could not remain longer.

Father Schlachter is a brilliant orator, and master of his subjects. Remarkable interest was shown by the community in the work of the mission, splendid congregations greeting him at every meeting. As a result of his work in this place, the work of the church has received an impetus which will be felt in the years to come.

Father Schlachter closed the work in Lowell Tuesday evening with a pontifical blessing to the congregation. He left for Rome City, Ind., Wednesday morning where he will rest for a few days after which he will resume his work in Illinois.

Especially is much credit due to the energetic young pastor, Rev. Father Dehlan, who never tires in his labors among his people, and through whose efforts the mission was held here.

COUNCIL MEETING

The matter of the unpaid taxes of Silas Brasted and Nathan Blair were referred to the village attorney with instructions to collect.

President Look appointed Trustees Mattern, McQueen and Taylor as members of the election board for the annual village election to be held March 14.

A. W. Weekes, A. L. Coons and J. B. Yeiter were appointed election commissioners.

The finance committee was instructed to adjust the taxes on the city hall lot.

TRADE MORAL

—This paper's advertising columns are the business news of the community. If you happen to need a new parlor carpet, you will be a lot more interested in a carpet ad. than in a paragraph about Jim Jones' newly painted barn. That's why everybody in this vicinity reads this paper's ads.

—Introducing the buyer to the merchant is the purpose accomplished by our advertising columns. The integrity of both are vouched for.

—Trying to win a girl's love by taking her aunt buggy riding is like an attempt to do business without advertising. The aunt enjoys the buggy ride, but it doesn't help your cause with the girl. The merchant who wants to win the home folks' trade will win if he plugs persistently through these columns.

SISTERS RE-UNITED

After 22 Years, Mrs. James Gibson Finds Long-Lost Sister.

After a separation of more than twenty-two years, Mrs. Jas. Gibson is enjoying a visit this week with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Covey of Cadillac, Mich. There has been no communication between them during all those years.

In 1899 a friend of the family visited relatives in the vicinity of Cadillac and in the immediate neighborhood of the Coveys and on becoming acquainted with the Covey family discovered the relationship with Mrs. Gibson. Coming back to Lowell this fact was communicated to the relatives here. Mrs. Gibson immediately wrote to her sister. A neighbor who was accustomed to call for their mail received the same from the post office at Cadillac, placed it in his pocket intending to deliver it into the hands of the owner, but as man is wont to do, forgot to deliver the epistle. One day the coat was declared of no further use as wearing apparel and found its way, with the letter, to the garret with other cast-off articles. One day this winter, after nearly eleven years, the housewife decided she needed that coat in a rug which she was making. So the coat was resurrected, and the long-lost letter brought to light, and it was soon placed with the owner after which followed a correspondence with the Lowell post-master with the result that the sisters have been reunited.

As to the boys themselves that were present, to have but seen them would have been convincing enough testimony to know that they appreciated being at their "Big Brothers" meeting. We will have you again, boys.

TRIES TO END LIFE

Alto Man Mounts Box Car and Cuts His Throat.

The home of Jake Gallier, back of the Advent church in this village, and occupied by James Malcolm and family, caught fire shortly after noon yesterday. The fire caught in the kitchen and rapidly spread, but through the timely assistance of the firemen, was extinguished with but slight damage to roof and kitchen.

Whitby's attempt at suicide was one of the most unusual ever recorded in this section at least. He took his razor and went to the railroad yards where he climbed to the top of a box car. Then he gashed his throat. He lay on the box car for some time, then descended to the ground where he stood for some time while he replaced the razor in the case and placed it in his pocket. Then he crawled through the snow to the corner of the depot where he was found later. As he was taken to his room at the hotel he made the remark that he would "finish the job before morning." So far as is known here he has no relatives.—[Grand Rapids Press.

JUDGE H. D. JEWELL

Addressed Congregational Brotherhood and Boy Guests Friday Eve.

Be a companion to your boy. See that he has right influence and inheritance. Such was the text that Judge Jewell of Grand Rapids used at the Congregational Brotherhood meeting last Friday evening. The Brotherhood had as their guests about forty of the boys of Lowell and the Judge could not help but mention a number of times, that it was a splendid thing to see the boys with men, and it ought to be a more common sight than it is. The boy needs the companionship of the man; and the man needs the boy to round out his own character. Indeed every one present and heard from believes that such a relationship between the men and the boys of our town, ought to be encouraged.

The judge gave us many valuable suggestions which will mean much to us in the future work. He is an authority on this subject, and has many weighty and incontrovertible arguments, so much so that to a class of students of sociology, he would be a recognized leader and teacher. He is himself an interested student of the juvenile problem, and will be found an able adviser. Such was the conviction of the Brotherhood after listening to the judge.

As to the boys themselves that were present, to have but seen them would have been convincing enough testimony to know that they appreciated being at their "Big Brothers" meeting. We will have you again, boys.

Spraying

has become an absolute necessity not only for the sake of good crops, but the dreaded San Jose Scale, threatens the very life of our orchards and spraying seems to be the only way to destroy it.

On the right we show the "Admiral" Sprayer, a powerful machine, thoroughly practical and easily operated.

In the center is the "Pomona" Barrel Sprayer. Either of these machines will do all that can be required of them.

On the left is shown with Bamboo Extension Rod, which allows the spraying to be done from the ground without a ladder. Come in and see these sprayers. The time for spraying will soon be here.

DEMAND FOR FARM LABOR

The greatest problem of the farmer today is to meet the demand for labor in his fields and in his service farm laborers. The trapper lines and the steam lines of the country bring thousands of men to the cities and cities, but they also bring the attractions of the city and the higher wages of the city workmen to the farm laborers, and in the great majority of instances, finally detach them from cultivation of the soil.
