Oration by Rev. Russell H. Bready, Memorial to Unknown Dead by Rev. N. F. Jenkins.

Monday, May 30, 1910, the order of exercises will be as follows: 1:15, p. m., Bugle call.

General Assembly, 1:30, Music, "Hail Columbia" and "Star Spangled Banner." Lowell City Band.

1:45, Call to order, Pres. D. G. Look.

2:00, Music, "The Star Spangled Banner," led by High School Chorus.

Prayer, Rev. N. F. Jenkins. Reading, "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," Leo Kallinger.

Music, "Reveries," Lowell Band. Recitation, "Abraham Lincoln," H. W. Beecher. Ruby Willett.

Music, "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," High School Chorus. Oration, Rev. Russell H. Bready.

Music, "America" by audience, led by Lowell City Band.

At the conclusion of the exercises on the island, the parade will be formed on the west bank of Flat river in the customary order by H. W. Hakes, Marshall of the parade. Headed by the Lowell City Band the procession will march to Oakwood cemetery over the following route: From West Water street to Main street, and Bridge street thence to Washington street, and from thence to Oakwood cemetery, the Post and Relief Corps assembling at the Soldiers' monument, from which point twenty-four young ladies under direction of members of the Post and Relief Corps will be deployed to decorate the graves of soldiers and of members of the Woman's Relief Corps. During the ceremony of decoration, the band will render appropriate music. After the ceremony of decoration the Post, Relief Corps and others will assemble at the Soldiers' Monument where Rev. N. F. Jenkins will deliver an address "The Unknown Dead." At the conclusion of this address the bugler will sound "Taps."

Attention: Comrades of Joseph Wilson Post, No. 87.

You are hereby ordered to assemble at the Post rooms Sunday evening, May 29th, at 7 o'clock, to attend Memorial services at the M. E. church.

You are also requested to assemble at the Post rooms on Monday May, 30th at 12:45, to attend in a body the Decoration Day services at Island Park and at Oakwood cemetery.

By order of Henry Lampman, James H. Godfrey, Adjutant-Post Commander.

Bring Flowers

We earnestly appeal to all who read this notice to bring flowers to be strewn over the graves of our soldiers next Monday. Heretofore the pupils of our schools have furnished generous quantities of wild flowers. The number of soldiers' graves has increased. Let every one contribute at least a handful of flowers, that no graves may be neglected.

Leave the flowers at the store now equipped by Egbert L. Kirroy, King block, Saturday afternoon or early Monday morning. Joseph Wilson Post No. 87, Woman's Relief Corps.

LEVI FLETCHER DEAD

Passed Away at the Home of His Daughter in Pontiac.

Levi Fletcher died at 10 a. m. May 24, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. C. Kellar in Pontiac, after an illness of two weeks of pleuro-pneumonia. He had been at work in the Monroe auto factory at that place for the past two months. Mrs. Fletcher, who had been at his bedside for a week, returned home Tuesday evening accompanied by the nephew, Guy Fletcher and Wednesday noon the son Arthur, and Mr. and Mrs. Kellar and two children came with the body.

Mr. Fletcher's real name was Levi Schell. He was born in Kiddleville, now the city of Belding, June 2, 1847. His mother died when he was three weeks old and her sister Mrs. John Fletcher, of Pratt Lake adopted him and he had since borne her name.

On January 2, 1875 he was married to Catherine H. Story of South Boston and they lived on the W. S. Story homestead at Pratt Lake most of the time until they came to this village three years ago and purchased the pretty little home on Jefferson street.

Besides his wife, four children survive: Will P. and Mrs. Fred Harker of Missoula, Montana, and Mrs. M. C. Kellar and Arthur Fletcher of Pontiac; also one adopted sister, Mrs. M. S. Tucker of Indianapolis, Ind., and one own sister, Mrs. C. W. Stone of Muir and several nieces, nephews and grandchildren. One nephew, Gates Stannard married Mrs. Fletcher's sister, and they live in Phoenix, Arizona. Funeral services will be held at the home Sunday under Masonic auspices and interment made in South Boston cemetery.

Laid to Rest

Mrs. John Wright Honored in Death by Former Co-Workers.

Mrs. John Wright departed this life from her home in Lowell village, Monday evening, May 16, after a long illness. Funeral services were held at the Congregational church Thursday, conducted by Rev. W. D. Ogg.

Burial at Oakwood, with large representations of the Relief Corps and W. C. T. U. in attendance.

Loretta Seely was born Jan. 26, 1838, in Whiteside county, Ill. At the age of 17 years she came with her parents to Michigan and settled on the farm in Vergennes, July 13, 1866, she was married to John Wright and since that time has lived in Lowell. To this union one son was born, William J., Aug. 17, 1868, who with the husband is left to mourn the loss of a loving wife and mother. Besides the immediate family she leaves one brother, Hiram VanBuren, living near Lowell and one brother Byron in Oklahoma. Also several nieces and one nephew. For many years she has been a member of the Congregational church, W. C. T. U. and Women's Relief Corps, and by her kind, loving disposition endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact. All through her declining years her trust was in her blessed Redeemer and she died happy in the thought of going home.—Com

PLEASE remember that a local paper must be democratic, in that it must treat everybody alike, so far as possible. In times of bereavement, everyone very naturally thinks his case is "different" from all others. At times there have been even said to a dozen obituaries in a single issue of THE LEDGER. Some want funeral sermons and obituary poetry published. How would you like a paper that did that for everybody? And yet, to be fair, it is in one case it must be in others. The only way out is to bar the sermons and charge advertising rates for the poetry. Please remember, and be reasonable.

AMOS S. MUSSELMAN of Grand Rapids, a candidate for governor, is not afraid to take a bold stand for temperance, local option, civil rights, and good government. He is a good citizen, a business man and announces his belief in the application of civil service rules for employees of the state and that the governor should execute the laws. Between Mr. Musselman and Chase Osborn, the Republicans cannot go far wrong in either case. If the Democrats should nominate Mr. Ferris or Mr. Heman, old Michigan would have her pick of some mighty good men.

A CHICAGO doctor says that six drinks of whiskey are equal to a day's work for exhausting body and brain. Here the similarity occurs. The profits on the six drinks, given the seller, while the price of the day's work is paid to the worker. One is lost, the other gain. Again, while a man is drinking he isn't working, and he wouldn't be good for much if he were. When you drink six drinks a day, he might as well adopt the motto: "If drinking interferes with your business, give up your business."

WHATVER THE LEDGER has said regarding the candidacy of Pat Kelley for governor has been because of his connection with the Warner administration and not because of anything objectionable in his record as a man. We believe there should be a clean sweep at Lansing; and we wouldn't begin by making Kelley governor.

IN REFERENCE to the wishes of the old soldiers, no ball game will be played in Lowell on Decoration day. They feel that the day is sacred to the memories and observances for which it was set apart, and surely the younger generations can give up a little when they go so much.

AS A reviewer of the Payne tariff act is the best tariff law ever passed. Says Congressman Bonnell, "It makes the dear consumer 'shell out' on a big, big roller with a pair of big six shooters; and is just as accurate as a respectable and popular in their calling; they are in poor business, and had better get out and 'make room for those who can give 'em a 'hop' or whom none can give."

PRESIDENT TAFT is right and in line with the people in his contention that the tariff question be placed by a commission designed for the purpose. It is time that this great question, affecting the interest of every man, woman and child in the nation, should be taken out of politics and treated as a business matter by a nonpartisan committee, free from all party bias, under suspension as subjects of corporate control or influence and who shall have time to inform themselves as to the rights of the common people, who can never lose their liberties. We are glad to see that Senator William Aldrich Smith, who has been so much of a stand-patter to sinners at all times, has changed front somewhat in this matter and is willing to concede that the tariff commission idea may be worth trying.

"TROWING money to the birds," is a familiar saying, signifying waste of means. This can hardly be said of the scheme of a wealthy Cincinnati widow who has bought a two-acre park as a retreat and have there a bird sanctuary for her birds. As women, through their use of birds as military adornments, have been the most deadly and persistent enemies of our feathered friends, it is fitting that she should show them practically done to death by giving $250,000, the amount to be expended, in a large sum; but it is a mere bagatelle to the millionaire from Lowell twice a week

Clara Stahl is with it and she knows how to wait on the people. Mrs. R. F. Wilkinson and Mrs. Laura Tucker of Nebraska spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Emory Strong in Easton. Frank Daniels and mother were guests of his sister Saturday night and Sunday at Mrs. Mark Brown's in Otisville. Clayton Wilkinson of Saranac came Saturday night and stayed till Sunday night with his grandma in Otisville. Our pulpit was occupied by a gentleman from Orleans Sunday as Rev. W. H. what's the difference, was called to preach a funeral at Saranac. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lee visited their son Glen Sunday on the Moon farm.

LOVELL DIST. NO. 5. Will Carleton, City Hall, June 6. Wm. Ballard of Alto visited his cousin Ernest Neesham Sunday. Robt. Ford is patrolling his house. Frank Robbins has sold his milk route and business to J. Denton of Keweenaw who will continue the business.

Mrs. J. P. Neesham Jr., is visiting friends in Walker and Grand Rapids. J. J. Post has made quite an improvement to his B. C. Neesham church by constructing a wire fence on the south side.

At the men's service to a Vets. parish the vicar tried to convey the message that the heroes and heroines are the secret corner of the home, where an angelic presence is to be found. "For you seem to think," he concluded, "that your wives staying at home are maintaining a mind the children and prepares the meals are heroes, and yet their touching devotion to duty proves them to be so." "I just hadn't struck one old farmer in the way before, and as soon as he got home he promptly told his wife that the vicar had called her a heroine."

"Water does that mean?" asked the good lady. "Oh, it means a woman who steps to her house instead of going to her neighbor," explained the farmer vigorously. "It means a woman who is not a thing 't' fear to mind what he says," "I snatched the wife," I go to the house to see if other women do as' as be kind if he can't see it. Why, I'd five different colors in 't' house I wore last Sunday!"—Lionel Spectator.

Bethover's "Moonlight Sonata." The story runs that Bethover's "Moonlight Sonata" always as called, though he so rarely gave a descriptive name to any of his works was composed on an occasion when he had been playing to some strange fellow at a dance. Walking with a friend, he overheard in a humble house some one playing with much feeling a bit of one of his sonatas. He paused to listen. In a moment the music ceased, and a girl took up the piano and began to play for you, and played water fully till the lamp burned out. Then she turned to the piano and began to play to impromptu the mysterious delicate breathings of the beginning of that wonderful sonata, the most tricky etude second part, and the glory of the close—Christian Science Monitor.

Long Words. While our language does not contain such long words as are found in some other tongues nor so many words of unusual length, still we have several that are awkwardly long for conversational purposes. We have "philopogonitis," with twenty letters; "interconversionality," with twenty-two; "disproportionality," with twenty-three; and "transmutationality," with twenty-four; "interconversionality," with twenty-five; At Arlington

BY WALDON FAWCETT

The fact that President Taft saw fit to devote the first Memorial day since his elevation to the office of chief minister to participation in the commemorative exercises at the Gettysburg national cemetery, serves to focus public attention on the annual Decoration day observances in our great national cemeteries. Not that it is anything unusual for the chief executive to spend this May day in memory of one of another of the silent camp grounds of the nation's fallen soldiers. On the contrary, the custom observed by practically every president since the Civil War has made at least an unofficial day of the highest official of the nation. It is not unusual for the chief executive to spend this May day in memory of one of another of the silent camp grounds of the nation's fallen soldiers. On the contrary, the custom observed by practically every president since the Civil War has made at least an unofficial day of the highest official of the nation.

OLD ENGLISH CANOPIED SEAT

For Greater Joy in Life Than to sit in Garden and Inhale Fragrance and Listen to Birds.

Those who possess gardens and enjoy outdoor life will be eagerly looking forward to the many sunny days when so many happy hours may be spent among the flowers. There are few, if any, greater joys in life than to sit in the shade of a quiet or sweet-smelling flowers on a quiet lawn.

MADE PROMISE OF SECRECY

Therefore Call Though Only Guess Who Has Told Youngster to Stand on His Tiptoes

The venerable countess of Cardigan, the author you know, of that wicked book of memoirs, thinks the modern girl (or rather, the modern boy), said an English visitor to New York.

A Man is Known by the Company he Keeps and the Company he Keeps Most are His own Clothes

He is with them from eight to sixteen hours every day. He has to take them to dinner with him; he has to appear on the street with them; he has to introduce them to every friend he meets and he cannot apologize for them for he is responsible for having them. Many a young man's job has been spoiled by the cut of his coat; Many a business and professional man has received the attention usually given to a boy because he was wearing a boy's suit. Many a man whose business it was to look neat has looked shabby because he made a bad choice in a suit of clothes.
We can give you a suit according to your age and for the work you have to do so that you will be properly dressed at all times.

EVERYTHING NEW IN BOYS' HATS, CAPS AND FURNINGS, ALSO A LARGE LINE OF TRUNKS, BAGS AND SUIT CASES. DO NOT MISS THE OPPORTUNITY OF SEEING THE RIGHT GOODS AT RIGHT PRICES AT LOWELL H. J. TAYLOR MICH.

A Watch is the Ideal Commencement Gift

It's time to begin to look for something for the graduate. We are proud of our stock of reliable watches, and invite you to look them over and compare prices. Lots of other good things at more moderate prices; Jewelry, Sterling Spoons, etc. Engraving free.

The "Krect" Truss

Single $4.00 Double $5.00 when used for single, a thin flat pad is used on the well side.
This truss holds all forms of rupture. It is equipped with our positive catch joint where pads are attached to front, preventing them from getting out of position, the pads are made of rubber sponge compressed enough to give the proper consistency and shape and are covered with waterproof material to prevent the absorption of perspiration. Springs made of the best Ingersoll's saw steel covered with calf leather, nickel brimings. This is a truss of quality. You will make no mistake in ordering one.
We will send this truss to you prepaid, with the distinct understanding that if it is not perfectly satisfactory you can return it to us and we will refund the price paid. In ordering give measurement around body on a line with the rupture. State whether single or double; if double, which side is worst, and any further information that would help in selection of truss. Mail your order today.
