C.R. MAINS PARDONED

Battle Creek People Not Anxious to See Him Return

The following concerning a brother of E. O. and W. H. Mains former Lowell attorneys, will be of interest to our readers:

Battle Creek, Mich., June 11—Battle Creek hears with mingled emotions the news from Washington that President Taft has pardoned Charles R. Mains, the disbarred lawyer, whose life has had one series of sensational episodes since he became prime factor in this city's famous Mains-Hulbert litigation.

Originally Mains was regarded as a shrewd local lawyer. Indebted through his company, to the Hewer Wire Fence concern, to the extent of $3,000 in the favor of the Pittsburgh Steel company Mains produced a slip for $300 signed by S. S. Hulbert, the steel company's local representative. Hulbert started in to prove it a forgery and eventually Mains was arrested for plotting to murder Hulbert, following the kidnaping of Police Capt. Clinton Hamilton, who was wearing Hulbert's clothes and who kept an appointment arranged between Hulbert and Mains.

Acquitted, Mains went west and served time in Oakland, Cal., for fraudulent use of the mails. Freed again he went to Alaska, killed a prospector and was sentenced to Fort Leavenworth prison. Later he was transferred to a prison asylum at Washington, D. C.

For years Mains has threatened bodily harm to the men who fought him in the Mains-Hulbert case and believing him crazy, there are a number of lawyers and ex-officials here who dread his return.

Jack Rafferty made a business trip to Muskegon this week in the interest of the Dratz Mfg. Co.

Frank Kelley is home from Detroit on his vacation.

Mrs. Martha Combe and her daughter Jessie were in Grand Rapids yesterday.

Mrs. J. H. Hamilton was in Grand Rapids Tuesday.

From High School Entertainment. City Hall Could Not Hold Crowd.

The capacity of the new City hall was taxed to its utmost on Tuesday evening, the occasion being the rendition of the play, "The Merchant of Venice Up-to-date," by Seniors and Juniors of the Lowell High school. Standing room was at a premium and some were turned away who could not gain admission.

It is unnecessary to comment on any particular part. Each was well taken and the players showed the effect of good training under the instruction of Miss Peters, and deserve much credit for the manner in which they carried out their several parts.

The entertainment receipts were $160.35, which will be used to defray the expenses of the Senior and Junior reception; and the play will be repeated on Friday evening for the benefit of the City hall furnishing fund.

The music for the evening was furnished by the High school orchestra, composed of Golden Greene, Royden and Claude Warner, Wayne Young, Dexter Conklin, Bruce McQueen and Latelle Ecker.

Earl C. Adams and Edith M. Cave United

Mr. Earl C. Adams of Keene, and Miss Edith M. Cave of Grant were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Byron J. Frost, 361 Straight street, Grand Rapids Wednesday afternoon, June 15, 1910, at 3 o'clock, in the presence of the immediate relatives of both families. Before the ceremony Mrs. R. Dyke sang, "I Love You Truly." While the bride party proceeded to the altar Miss Edith Covert played Lohengrin's wedding march. The ring service was performed by Rev. Russell H. Brady, of Trinity Methodist church. Byron J. Frost acted as the best man, and the bride was attended by her sister Mrs. Byron J. Frost. After the ceremony refreshments were served. The bride couple were well remembered with beautiful presents. Mr. and Mrs. Adams will make their home at his farm in Keene township.

There are thirty-two pages of text matter, full of information and new material, carefully prepared after a recent trip over the route. The publication is profusely illustrated with half-tone plates made from direct photographs, and include pictures of the new boats, scenes in Seattle, Victoria, Vancouver and Prince Rupert, forest scenes on Vancouver Island, Indian villages on the route, pictures of the majestic scenery of the inside channel, and a series of beautiful scenes on the Skeena River. In addition, there are diagrams of the steamships and a new and complete map of the North Pacific Coast, showing in a clear way the steamship route. The cover of the booklet is a striking one, printed in four colors. Copies of this publication can be had free on request to E. A. Anderson, agent.

Luther W. Loomis Answer to the Final Roll Call.

Luther W. Loomis died at the home of P. Zylstra in this village Monday, June 13, at the age of 76 years. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday at 10 a. m., under the auspices of Joseph Wilson Post No. 87, G. A. R., Rev. N. F. Jenkins officiating; burial at Oakwood.

Mr. Loomis was born in New York state in May 1834. He served in the Civil war with the Seventh Ohio Infantry and was a member of Joseph Wilson Post G. A. R.

His wife died in February, 1903; and for the past four years Mr. Loomis has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. P. Zylstra. For several years he has been in ill health; but his final illness was of but a week's duration. His last wish—to live until his last pension voucher could be signed, so that Mr. and Mrs. Zylstra could be recompensed—was gratified. He leaves no close relative, the nearest being a nephew.

METHODIST CHURCH.

The pastor will preach on coming Sunday morning upon the topic: "An answer to a prayer given at last but after long delay and earnest pleading. Why such delay?" There will be no service at the church in the evening. The congregation is invited to attend the evening service at the City hall to hear the baccalaureate sermon.

A very fine Children's day service was held at the Balley church last Sunday afternoon. The children of the Sunday school were well drilled by their teachers for their work in the program. A fine attendance of interested listeners exhibited much interest in the work there. Some have been received into the church at that point on the last two Sundays. The workers in that school are earnest in their labors to rightly train the rising youth.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Closing Volume Seventeen. This number of The Ledger closes volume XVII. It contains two years ago last Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson with their family of small children, came to Lowell and began work at the first issue of this paper. Our friend Robert Ed. Gray, referred to our outfit at that time as "the kindergarten;" and he had it right. But we've grown some since then; and while, like his, we have made mistakes, we have tried to "make good" and to publish a paper worthy of the town of our adoption. How well we have succeeded is for others to say. To those who believe that in the main our influence and work have been for public betterment, we say: continue with us in the future as in the past. Help us with your support, comment and friendship. We know such other better than we did seven years ago and should be able to serve each other better. The writer has been a member of the paper business for longer than any other editor, exceeding the record of that veteran journalist James W. Hine, more than a year in length of service here, and still has, he hopes, many years of activity in store. For the future, the best we have to give is at the disposal of our friends, and the past is its guarantee.

A Square Deal Demanded. At a meeting of the St. Paul Roosevelt club in honor of Clifford Pinchot and James B. Garfield, it was declared that a new party has been brought out by the name of "The Conservation Party." The name of Pinchot, Pinchot and Garfield were said to be its leaders and the rights of the people against monopoly was declared to be the issue. "The country's natural resources must be conserved for the benefit of all the people," said Mr. Pinchot. "Congress has not only refused to help but has tried to forbid pro-

A Detroit fire marshal attributes many fires of unknown origin to oil, kerosene or waste thrown into a corner, rubbish heap or drawer and forgotten. He cites a case where a towel was used to oil a floor and afterward thrown with the dirty clothes. The very next morning the house was full of smoke.

WE SURELY feel honored. A writer of made-to-order editorials for mis-fit editors in soliciting the patronage of THE LOWELL LEDGER says: "Over two thousand editors are using them. You are one of the few who have persistently refused to examine them." How's that for high? "I got out your roll of honor, please."

That's a Johnny-on-the-spot sort of insanity Mains had. Comes on in time to clear him of murder and goes off in time to get him out of the asylum. Seems to us it's an old trick to catch a President with, and we are fearful that Brother William is "zeal."

LOWELL and Ada will be interested in the proposed historical monument in the Grand Rapids Home-Coming, representing the arrival of the first traders Madam LaFramboise,rix Robinson and others, which list should be added, Daniel Marsac.

FLAG day is a good idea. When we think of what the flag cost and what it represents, we know our people cannot be reminded of it too often. Every patriotic citizen, in fact, is ought to be a lesson in good citizenship.

IT'S EARLY for Fourth of July accidents, but here's a forerunner from Caro, where a lad lost one hand and a thumb from the other while playing with a box of dynamite, which was used in some boys, are you wise?

When one who makes a practice of skinning others, gets caught at his own game and parts with some of his own precious article he's the only mourning he does for his dead, and let's say, he isn't entitled to one.

"Poor Old Dad" is going to get his last. Next Sunday is Father's day. The old man had his faults but he sacrificed much for his family and his recognition along with other.

The tariff administration is to credit itself with catching and punishing one of the sugar tariff thieves "higher up." More power to the search-light, and "let no guilty man escape."

Here's a great chance for pickled pigs' feet. A Mission sov has 100 lbs. of pickled pigs' feet, 45¢ per lb. They ought to be able to "go some."

Those who voted for it will doubtless enjoy reading this report from Cadillac: "Three dead, two dying, ten ill, from a fatal drinking bout."

When thieves fall out honest men get their due. The one who steals from another will be caught by the other, it is their duty to laugh.

From the North comes a promise of plenty of wild blackberries. That's better than no fruit.

OPPORTUNITY OF THE DICKINSON

Following to some extent, the example set by Great Britain, the United States is rapidly becoming aroused to the importance of fostering the National Guard in its organization among the people of our own population. An ability to handle firearms in a manner to produce accuracy and efficiency is not only an asset, but actually a necessity, in our country such as ours where, in the event of war, a large share of the responsibility for the defense of the nation rests upon the citizen-soldier and volunteer. It is because of a growing recognition of this need that the national government is doing everything possible to stimulate interest in the development of a national marksmanship. The United States maintains a powerful and rapidly growing navy, that measures up in comparison with the fighting feet of any other power, but our army does not make a correspondingly impressive showing when set against the military forces of the leading European nations. It is in this connection that the National Rifle Association, which has been the great body of citizen-soldiers in our country, has been training the citizen-soldier and volunteer. It is because of a growing recognition of this need that the national government is doing everything possible to stimulate interest in the development of a national marksmanship.

The Parable of the Sower

Lesson Text—Matthew 13:1-23.

Golden Text—"Whoever sows the seed in the good soil, he will bring forth a crop, and will increase his yield a hundredfold, and will bring forth a crop, and will increase his yield a hundredfold, and will bring forth a crop, and will increase his yield a hundredfold."

When a man sows seed, he sows it in various ways. Some of the seed falls on the path, some on the rocky soil, some on the thorns, and some in the good soil. The seed that falls on the path is trampled underfoot and the birds eat it. The seed that falls on the rocky soil grows up quickly but has no roots and withers away. The seed that falls on the thorns grows up but is choked by the thorns. The seed that falls in the good soil grows up and bears fruit.

The increase in the production of the Transvaal mines during the year 1920 almost equaled the entire production of the gold fields in the rest of the world's production of gold from the discovery of America in 1492 to 1880 was about $6,300,000,000.

LAND IN CANADA AN INVESTMENT

WORK IT, AND SECURE 20 PER CENT ON THE EXPENDITURE.

Farm lands in Canada increased in value this spring from fifteen to twenty per cent, and as a result of this increase thousands of those who have one acre or more of land in the States have had that much more value added to their holdings. There is proof here as a field for investment there is nowhere to be found a more profitable one than in purchasing farm lands in Canada. And, as a result of this increase in value, the farmer there is nowhere on the continent where more satisfactory return is given. The crops are always sure and the prices are always good. With railroads entering and traveling all the settled parts, there are very few districts in which the farmer will be more than ten to twenty miles from a railway station. Roads are good and big loads are easily handled. The price of getting grain to the primary market is low on this account, and the good roads by the increase of the railroads have their rates controlled by the Government, and what may be considered a fair rate is certain. Good prices for all kinds of grain is the rule, and if the investor should buy good land by the acre, the value given to his unworked land, it is not difficult to understand that the profit is not less than 20 per cent. It is not difficult to understand that the profit is not less than 20 per cent. It is not difficult to understand that the profit is not less than 20 per cent.
