How Lowell Young People Are Enjoying The Winter.

Lake View was defeated by Lowell girls in a well played game of basket ball Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, by a score of 25 to 33.

The guards for Lowell, Ina O'Harrow and Ruth Laver, played especially well against their tall opponents. They were fast in getting the ball out of their court and to them is due much of the credit for winning. The two center players, Ella Perrin and Marie Perry, although out-classed by the heights of their opponents deserve credit for their exhibition of good team work. Last, but not least to mention, is the playing of the forwards, Lucile Tinkler and Elva Bowen, both showing excellent team work, the former making seven baskets from field while the latter got away with six.

The whole team work was excellent and the girls can not be praised too much for the good showing they have made this year.

Following the girls' game the High school boys won from the Belding High school boys by a score of 20 to 14.

During the first half both sides played good ball, the result being a tie, 8 to 8. During the last half, however, Lowell pulled away from their opponents, winning the half by a score of 12 to 6; and the game by a total of 20 to 14.

Chaterdon and Begin, players on the local team, starred during the entire game.

Tomorrow night Holland plays her 3rd game with the Lowell girls, each having one game to their credit, after which the Stanton boys play the Lowell team.

The All Star team went down in defeat in the game with the first Olympic team from Grand Rapids 12 to 6. This was the first game the home team had played together and the showing made was as good as could be expected. Collins out pitched Pyman and with good support should have won his game. Another game will be played with some out of town team in the near future.

In the City League teams the Specialty company team have disbanded and Collins, Stiles, Howard and Armstrong will be placed on the other teams. Monday night the Athletics won a game from the Cutter factory and the tigers won from the Colts.

The next game will be Monday night when the Athletics play the Tigers and the Colts play the Cutter factory.

NAB HORSE THIEF

James Sargent Recovers Stolen Property. Thief Sentenced.

A horse, buggy and harness was stolen from the barn of James F. Sargent 1 1/2 miles west of Lowell last Thursday night by James Manuel, colored.

The fellow drove on to Ionia taking two other horses on the way, changing drivers and leading the Sargent horse, which broke away and later returned home.

Manuel was captured at Lansing and returned to Ionia where Deputy Sheriff Scott took him in charge and landed him in Grand Rapids.

Before Judge Perkins, Tuesday, he plead guilty and confessed to having served two other prison terms. He was sentenced to Marquette prison for a term of seven and a half to fifteen years.

BUSINESS CHANGE

Nelson Grocery Sold to Jacob Dykhouse.

A deal has been closed between F. W. Nelson of Lowell and Jacob Dykhouse of Grand Rapids, in which Mr. Dykhouse gets the stock of groceries located here, involving nearly $4,000.

Mr. Dykhouse will continue the business, making such improvements as needed to make an attractive and up-to-date grocery. Mr. Will Flynn will assume active management and will serve the public with the same courtesy that he has always shown in the past.

IS DOUBLY BEREFT

Death of Mrs. Lampman Leaves Daughter Alone.

For the second time in five weeks, death has entered the Lampman home in this village, the wife and mother following the husband and father to their eternal rest. Mrs. Lampman passed away Monday afternoon, having been ill ever since her faithful vigil at Mr. Lampman's bedside. Funeral services will be held at the home today, conducted by Rev. W. D. Ogg; burial at Oakwood.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out especially to the daughter, Miss Lora, who is left alone in the home, doubly bereft.

A friend kindly furnishes the following data: Mrs. Lampman was born in Albany, N. Y., January 29, 1844. When seven years old she came with a widowed mother, a brother nine years old, William L. Beardsley, now a resident of Ypsilanti, and a sister four years old, who died twenty-one years later, to Grand Rapids. Her mother, Mrs. Beardsley, then met and married Harlow L. Judson of Cannonsburg, Mich. To them two children were born, Charles S. Judson, who lives on his farm near Cannonsburg and Anna Loretta Chamberlin whose home is near Otsego, Mich.

When twenty-two years of age Miss Katie Beardsley married Henry Lampman, Jan. 23, 1868. The fruits of this marriage were three children, Carrie E. Hartwell who resides on a farm near Cannonsburg, Gertrude I. Oberly, also living on their farm near Mt. Pleasant, and Lora Lampman, the youngest daughter, living at the home in Lowell.

Mrs. Lampman was a faithful member of the Congregational church of Lowell and of the Eastern Star lodge. She was devoted to her home life, where her loving service will be most missed. Two grand-children are also left to mourn the loss of a grand-mother, Katie Ann and Dorothy May Hartwell.

From Bulletin of Trinity Methodist Church.

The pastor has more calls for lectures for brotherhood work and the management of the finances for new churches, than he could fill if he had all his time for such work. Under all the conditions which are well understood by the members of Trinity church he desires to give all of his time to this special work. He has therefore sent a formal request to bishop Cranston asking that as soon as he can appoint a new minister that he release him from his pastorate of Trinity church and appoint him to this special work. The pastor has requested the Bishop, if he can arrange to make the appointments take effect with the close of April 17, 1911, the day following Easter.

Orrin Beach, Deceased.

Orrin Beach was born in Ada, Mich., March 9, 1844, and lived in that township continuously 28 years. He was united in marriage to Anna E. Tredenic of Lowell, Sept. 20, 1870. In 1872 he moved to the township of Keene, residing there 7 years when he removed to the old homestead at Ada. In 1885 he moved to Grattan and one year later established a home on the farm which he has occupied continuously since that period. One son was born to them, Clayton J., now a resident of Grand Rapids. Mr. Beach was stricken with paralysis February 9 and died two days later, aged 66 years, 11 months and 2 days. Besides a wife and son who survive him he leaves a brother and sister to mourn their loss and many other relatives and friends who will greatly miss him.—C. J. B.

"Kent County Fair"

The Event of the Season

Farmer Spruceby and his wife have been setting all the country folks of Kent county in a stir and commotion by sending the following invitation to a select dozen of the real stuck-up folks of Kent county:

"Farmer Spruceby and his woman Mary cordially want to have the pleasure of yer company at there picknick dinner partie at the 'Kent County Fair.' This is the invite to these picknick dinner parties so come to it half after one o'clock, Tuesday, Feb. 28, and Wednesday, March 1. Only a select partie invited. The picknick party will ensemble on the north-west corner of the fair grounds—next to Mose Brown's potato field at the fair said above.

"Don't say nothing about this to Jim Hayseed and his folks, as we don't want to stir up no jealousies. Hope you kin come.

"JAKE AND MARY SPRUCEBY.

"P. S.—You don't need to bring no dinner with you as we calculate to feed ye all.

"SPRUCEBYS."

It's great—The farmers, the fakers, the barkers, the old maids, the widows, the gold brick men, the city folks, the bride and groom, the side show man, the "farmer" chorus, all the songs, all the choruses, the floppy, flappy, flippity, floppity, hippity potamus, the wild man, the magician, the bearded woman, the snake charmer, the fire eater, the strong man, Maud, the Jersey Lily, the fat lady, Jo Jo the dog-faced boy, the famous lumber jack contortionists, Siamese twins, Barnum's jumbo and baby elephant brought to life, the fancy chickens, prize pumpkins, turkeys, ducks, cows, calves, horses, races, wheels of fortune, slot machines and other things too numerous to mention. All these and more too at the "Kent County Fair," City Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 28, and March 1.
