SO. BOSTON FESTIVAL

Farmers and Friends Had Good Time Without Governor.

The Sheep Shearing and Stock Breeding association of South Boston and the Art society held their annual festival at the South Boston Grange hall, May 3. There was an exhibit of farm machinery and a display of beautiful patchwork and embroidery. At noon a bountiful and very appetizing dinner, such as Boston ladies know how to prepare, was well-served to about three hundred.

At about two o'clock the crowd gathered for the program which opened by singing, "Michigan my Michigan." Rev. Mr. Robinson of Alto gave the invocation and then followed an interesting and enjoyable program of music and recitations. A pantomime, "Old Lang Syne" was especially well received by the audience.

Although regretting the absence of Gov. Osborn, who had been expected to address them, the assembled people listened with pleasure and satisfaction to talks by Rev. Mr. Ogg and Rev. Mr. Wootton of Lowell and Mr. H. H. Lowrey, commissioner of schools of Ionia county.

The Art society elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. Burr. Vice president for Boston, Mrs. Phila Gilley; Vice president for Campbell, Mrs. Glenn Sevill; Vice president for Berlin, Mrs. Anna Rudolph; Vice president for Keene, Mrs. Vera Clark; Vice president for Saranac, Mrs. Gesler; Vice president for Lowell, Mrs. F. E. White; Secretary, Mrs. Amy Lind.

The Sheep Shearing and Stock Breeding association elected the following officers: President, P. C. Freeman; vice president, A. P. Burr; secretary and treasurer, Winifred Allen.

The annual meeting of the two societies will hereafter be known as the South Boston May Festival instead of the Sheep Shearing Festival and will be held on the Wednesday nearest May 15.

The following people from Lowell were in attendance:

Messrs. and Mesdames H. I. Taylor, F. B. McKay, R. T. Ford, Hugh Young, A. M. Andrews, E. A. Wadsworth, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. White, Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Ogg, Mesdames H. A. Peckham, M. N. Henry, F. P. Hakes, C. C. Winegar, Mrs. Thorgren, and the Misses Mary E. Abbey, Myrtle A. Taylor, Rev. J. R. Wootton and E. R. Collier, W. R. Bolter, R. E. Springett, James Boden and J. Howard Payne.—[M. A.]

NEARLY FIFTY YEARS

With Lowell Masonic Lodge, Henry Mitchell Honored.

Lowell Lodge No. 90, F. & A. M., was busy Tuesday night until an early hour, with a large attendance including a number of visitors from a neighboring lodge.

After confirming the M. M. degree upon Clyde James a banquet and an enjoyable speech-making program followed.

Dr. F. E. White, W. M., in a neat address presented a life certificate to Brother Henry Mitchell of Grand Rapids, who responded feelingly. Mr. Mitchell has been a member of Lowell Lodge 47 years and the granting of this certificate means that he will never have to pay any more dues.

The Worshipful Master, then in capacity of toast-master introduced the several speakers: Rev. J. R. Wootton of the Lowell Methodist church, Rev. Russell H. Brady of Trinity Methodist church, Grand Rapids, and Visiting Brother Charles Lane of Portland, Oregon.

Altogether, the event ranked well up among a multitude of similar occasions in local Masonic history.

Lowell Literary Club

The L. L. C. held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. O. Hill Wednesday, April 26, and the following program was given: Piano duet, Mesdames E. F. Coons and C. D. Wineman; Vocal solo, Mrs. Herman Strong.

The club adjourned to meet May 10 with Mrs. Herman Strong.—[Com.]

CHRISTIAN MOTHER'S

Last Words a Prayer for Loved Ones.

Died, of bronchitis, at the home of her son, Dr. Chas. H. in this village Saturday, April 29, Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson. Although Mrs. Anderson had not been in good health for some time she was only confined to her bed two weeks.

Mrs. Anderson's maiden name was Elizabeth Rae. She was born in Demsey, Sterling, Scotland May 17, 1833.

At the age of 13 years she came with her parents in a sailing vessel to Hamilton, Canada, the voyage taking 6 weeks and 3 days.

In 1851 she was united in marriage to Alexander Anderson at Dundas, Canada. To this union 8 sons and 1 daughter were born. About 45 years ago Mr. and Mrs. Anderson came with their family to Brunswick, Mich. and settled on the homestead where one of the sons still resides. Here the husband died in 1898.

The three years succeeding this were spent with the daughter, Agnes L. and son Charles H., in Ann Arbor, while he took his medical course.

For the past six years Mrs. Anderson has lived in our midst with this son and daughter.

Besides them, two sons, Alfred and Wm. of Brunswick and one brother, James Rae of Hamilton, Ont., are left.

In early life our friend united with the Presbyterian church in Scotland and was a faithful member until about 25 years ago when she affiliated with the Methodist church at Brunswick.

Though of a quiet, retiring disposition, Mrs. Anderson was dearly loved by those who knew her best and her sweet Christian character was felt among all with whom she was associated. A kind and affectionate mother, almost her last words were a prayer for the loved ones she was leaving.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. R. Wootton, assisted by Rev. Jacobs, who had at a previous time been her pastor for six years, and by Rev. W. D. Ogg.

The friends took the 3:34 train for Brunswick where services were conducted by Rev. A. T. Garland at the old homestead and she was laid away beside her husband and the children who had preceded her.

MRS. NEASE AT REST

Wife of Former Lowell Pastor Passed Away.

Mrs. Charles Nease, wife of a former pastor of the Lowell Methodist church, died at the parsonage of the Plainfield avenue Methodist church, Grand Rapids, Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. Funeral services were held Wednesday. Mrs. Nease had been an invalid for years and a great care to her husband.

Mrs. Nease has shown a wonderful capacity under these trying circumstances. During the past two years he has built a large church, maintained all of his preaching services and clerical duties and cared for the sick wife with the kindness and patience of a true Christian. The consciousness of duty well done will be a solace to him here and a joy hereafter. Many Lowell friends sympathize with him in his loneliness.

Tuesday's Herald had the following:

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Nease, wife of Rev. Charles Nease, pastor of the Plainfield avenue Methodist church, died at the parsonage, 14 Spencer Avenue, Sunday morning, after an illness covering four years. Besides her husband she is survived by an adopted daughter, Mrs. McCormack, wife of Dr. George E. McCormack, 357 Plainfield Avenue.

Mrs. Nease was born in 1852 near Lincolnshire, England. When 8 years old she was brought to America with her parents, the family settling in West Virginia. She was married to Charles Nease, who was then teaching school, in 1874. Later he entered the ministry.

Rev. and Mrs. Nease came to this city six years ago and while the wife was frail in health, she entered heartily into the work, lending what assistance her strength would permit to the work.

Michigan has been the field of labor for Rev. and Mrs. Nease for many years, three of them having been spent at Lake Odessa, five at Rockford and three at Lowell.

Funeral services will be held at Plainfield avenue church at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Dr. J. R. T. Lathrop, district superintendent, will officiate. It is expected that a large number of friends from out of the city will attend.

MEWEN LAKE

In your last issue the Brannen correspondent has an interesting item regarding Mewen Lake. I have been "very well acquainted" with Mewen Lake for many years and have noticed many curious phenomena there. Some years ago a young groceryman from Lowell came out to fish bull heads on a Saturday night. He got badly muddled, lost his way and missed the whole country, aside in his volucrous mid night appeals for assistance to locate himself. The next year some young fellows from Grand Rapids camped at the lake side and got even worse muddled up and the following Saturday two saloonkeepers from Grand Rapids came there for the "time of their lives" and by all indications succeeded, winding up with a slumber under the depot at Alto. It was then evident to me that the water of Mewen lake was growing stronger and stronger every year. Now the Brannen correspondent has been sending "shriek" "thunderclaps" in Grand Rapids and thinks there has been a "Venetian Night" on Mewen lake. Isn't it just possible that while he was waiting around with hip boots on to catch bull frogs he got thirsty, took a drink of lake water and then the hellish and glib worms very naturally suggested the article.

A year ago last winter I was at Mewen lake to fish perch. I had a large savage black dog with me and as we came off of the ice he pointed onto a muskrat house and after digging furiously for a moment or two ran off with a muskrat in his mouth. Ever since then and strenuous chase I captured the dog but he had scolded the muskrat and there was about two feet of trap chain sticking out from between his bloody jaws. I endeavored to find out who the trap belonged to but the dog said he never would give up that trap if I did find out. (The poor dog is dead now.) One the moonlight night last fall I went to Mewen lake to fish bull heads and presently noticed two bull heads scattered all over the surface of the north end of the lake. There was one where I was fishing which presently stood on its nose and Ewer up and down. It was evident that the "denizen of the deep" was copying after the habits of the "Aloha Board of Trade" and trying to look at the moon through the bottom of a beer bottle. I immediately rushed my boat over there and gave said "denizen of the deep" a stirring lecture on the evils resulting from monkeying with beer bottles. He seemed to appreciate my advice and I don't think he will ever touch another beer bottle.

Being childlike and bland and free from guile myself I concluded that the beer bottles with hook and line attached and the steel traps in the muskrat house were relics of a prehistoric race, possibly mound builders.

It has just occurred to me however that possibly the Brannen correspondent might be able to furnish the name of the owner of the beer bottles and traps "to any one wishing to purchase" muskrat steaks or wail eyed pluck.

We're Opposed to Mail Order Concerns Because—

They have never contributed a cent to furthering the interests of our town—
Every cent received by them from this community is a direct loss to our merchants—
In almost every case their prices can be met right here, without delay in receiving goods and the possibility of mistakes in filling orders.
But—
The natural human trait is to buy where goods are cheapest. Local pride is usually secondary in the game of life as played today.
Therefore
Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competitor with their own weapons—advertising.
Advertise!
The local field is yours. All you need do is to avail yourself of the opportunities offered. An advertisement in this paper will carry your message into hundreds of homes in this community. It is the surest medium of killing your greatest competitor. A space this size won't cost much. Come in and see us about it.
