Phoebe Elizabeth Walker was born in Mt. Pleasant, Western Canada, December 14, 1833, and came with her parents to Michigan in 1836. The family spent the winter in Kalamazoo.

The next summer they settled in Vergennes there being no village here at that time, almost their only neighbors were Lucas Robinson, Sr. and Sylvester Hodges.

Her father built the Walker tavern on the line between Ionla and Grand Rapids. She was married to Henry Epley in 1852 and to them were born seven children of which four survive her: Mrs. P. J. Devine of Portland, Oregon; Fred Epley of Mt. Clemens, Mich.; Eliab Epley of Stanton, Mich., and Mrs. Geo. Krum of Lowell, also two sisters, Mrs. L. J. Robinson and Mrs. G. W. Parker both of Lowell.

John Emmons one of Grattan's respected citizens passed away Saturday afternoon after a brief illness, aged sixty-one years. He was born in Canada and came to Michigan with his parents in an early day and has occupied the old farm where they settled for more than twenty years.

He was an honorable and upright man. The funeral service held Tuesday at the Ashley church was largely attended, there being nearly one hundred and forty ten in the procession. Rev. T. H. Carey officiated and the floral emblems were many.

Mr. Emmons left a devoted wife and three children, Lewis and Orla Emmons and Mrs. Elenor Smith, besides two brothers, Ray and Urah Emmons.—Belding Banner.

REUNION OF SEVENTH MICH. VOL. INFANTRY

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL GATHERING ATTENDED BY THIRTY SURVIVORS.

Here from California, Illinois, New York and All Over Michigan. Rousing Camp-Fire at City Hall.

Lowell put on gala day attire Tuesday to greet the veterans of the old Seventh Michigan Infantry in their twenty-fifth annual reunion. Business places, homes and the several places of meeting and entertainment were decorated with the national colors. Thirty veterans of the regiment were present, a number of them accompanied by their wives. Their names follow:

A. P. Glaspele and wife, Oxford; J. W. Holmes and wife, Alma; James McPherson and wife, Leaside; James Churchill and wife, Pontiac; John Kimball and wife, Pontiac; John Kimball and wife, Palo Alto; J. W. Seelye and wife, Oxford; James McPherson and wife, Lowell; Mrs. L. Hillings, Riverdale; C. A. Brink and granddaughter, Grand Rapids; J. M. Greenfield, Flushing; R. C. Knaggs, Evanston, Ill.; J. D. Galt, Wayne, Mich.; J. L. Rice, Camden; V. Brown, Orion; J. W. Fullerton, Alma; F. W. Osterlee, Pontiac; John J. Thorp, Holly; C. Hamilton, Bronson; Wm. Watson, Detroit; Al. D. Smith, Middleport, N. Y.; V. L. Northup, Dexter; C. G. Felt, Long Beach, Cal.; O. Armstrong, Perinton; Frank Whittaker, Cedar Springs; Geo. A. Dibble, Adrian; Robert W. King, Lapeer; G. E. Holman, Lapeer; J. G. McMillan, East Saginaw; Chas. H. Bator, Bechtel; The members of the local G. A. R. post and W. R. C. were present at all sessions and with Capt. James McPherson, the lone Lowell member of the 7th, did everything possible to make their guests comfortable.

A morning session was held at which Village President Bergin gave an address of welcome and a business session was held. An interesting and well attended meeting was enjoyed in the afternoon also and the following officers elected:

President, John G. McMillan, Saginaw; Vice Pres., J. M. Greenfield, Flushing; Sec. and Treas., R. W. King, Lapeer; Chaplain, V. Brown, Orion; Surgeon, H. B. Landon, Bay City; Drummer, J. T. Spillane, Detroit; Historian, C. Hamilton, Bronson; Company vice presidents: A. James Roll; B. A. A. Lumbard; C. J. W. Holmes; D. A. T. Hencock; E. Wm. Watson; G. Geo. E. Holman; H. James Churchill; I. Frank Whittaker; K. Jas. McDaniels.

The evening session was preceded by an open air concert by the Lowell City band, following which President Glaspele called the assemblage to order and announced prayer by Chaplain Brown; after which Comrade Hicks took charge of the meeting in a vigorous and characteristic address. He concluded by showing the banner presented to the Seventh regiment by the ladies of Monroe and introducing Major R. C. Knaggs of Evanston who told the story of the struggle for the banner at Antietam.

The Battle Hymn of the Republic was sung by a class of Miss Kemp's school children, the audience joining in on the chorus. Addresses followed by James M. Greenfield of Flushing and F. M. Johnson, editor of THE LEDGER.

Chaplain Brown, aged 80 years, followed with a song rendered in a manner that would have been a credit to a man much younger. Comrade and Lady Glaspele then divided a few moments and Miss VanArsdale sang Annie Laurie, followed by Comrades Holmes and Hamilton in brief addresses.

Mrs. Strong sang "Ben Bolt," and Dr. Seelye of Orion who is totally blind and has one empty sleeve, followed in one of the best talks of the evening.

Rev. W. D. Ogg spoke feelingly and interestingly to the old vets and Mrs. W. O. Merrill recited, "My Papa," a little girl's recital about her papa's army coat; after which every body sang, "Marching Through Georgia."

President Glaspele then thanked the people of Lowell for their kindness. Rev. W. D. Ogg pronounced a double benediction, one for the Seventh and one for the audience; and a successful event was closed.

All services were held at the City hall and the evening meeting was said by Comrade Glaspele to have been the best attended of any campfire in the history of the regiment and he has attended them all.

The visitors expressed themselves well pleased with their reception and entertainment here; and Comrade Glaspele thought it worthy of note that of the large number entertained at Hotel Waverly not one visited the bar.

Captain James McPherson is grateful to the people of Lowell for the support given him in entertaining his old comrades, particularly to S. P. Hicks who was his right hand bower from start to finish.

SLEPT LIFE AWAY

Mrs. Austin Miles Found Dead in Bed.

Mrs. Austin Miles was found dead in bed at the home of Ferris Taylor, south of this village, Tuesday morning by Miss Ellen Finch. She had been in ill health for a long time and had longed to be at rest. It was evident that she had passed away in her sleep without a struggle. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. D. Ogg officiating in the absence of the pastor. Burial at Oakwood.

Leticia Perry was born in Newport, Tipton county, Ireland, Sept. 1836 and came to America in 1851. She was united in marriage to Geo. Kellogg in Georgetown, New York in 1861. She was the mother of seven children, Frank, Emily, Charles, Sarah, Lewis, George and Chester Kellogg. Mr. Kellogg died Aug. 5, 1883. One daughter, Sarah, died Nov. 5, 1894. She came to Lowell in '87 and was married to Austin Miles Oct. 10, 1897. She was born of French and Irish parents and was of Protestant Episcopal faith and at the age of seventeen years was confirmed in St. Marks church Brooklyn by Bishop Potter of New York. When married to Geo. Kellogg was with him united in the Methodist church of which she has been a faithful member ever since.

Rev. W. D. Ogg spoke feelingly and interestingly to the old vets and Mrs. W. O. Merrill recited, "My Papa," a little girl's recital about her papa's army coat; after which every body sang, "Marching Through Georgia."

OLD RESIDENT GONE

Benjamin Ellis Collar was born in Connecticut January 9, 1836, and passed away at his home in South Boston June 4, 1911.

He was the youngest of a family of seven children all of whom have preceded him. When about three years old his parents moved to New York state, coming to Michigan eight years later. He spent his young manhood on a farm in the township of Ada, where he was married in 1864 to Amelia E. Richards who passed away February 12, 1897, to whom were born three children Gaylord who died at two years, Ernest and Anna who still remain.

In 1866 they moved to Campbell township living for three years on what is now known as the Scovill farm. They then purchased the farm in South Boston where he resided until his death. A kind husband and indulgent father he was loved most by those who knew him best.—[Com.]

IONIA'S BIG WEEK

Getting Ready for the Chautauqua Special Trains

In preparation for the Chautauqua Week at Ionia, a large force of men has been at work cleaning up the grounds and putting them in the best of condition, and now a contract has been let and the work inaugurated to place enough electric lights to completely light the grounds from one end to the other. This will require the placing of a large number of poles and an immense amount of wire, so that every part of the grounds, as well as the big 80x120 tent will be thoroughly lighted.

A large space on the grounds will be reserved for the storing of automobiles, and a special force of policemen will be in charge of this automobile section. The entire Chautauqua grounds will be adequately patrolled, and good order and freedom from "rowdiness" will be insisted on.

Another star speaker has just been added to the list in the person of the famous orator, William Rainey Bennett, who will speak on the opening afternoon, June 28. His lecture is on "The Man Who Can," and it's a live one from start to finish.

Baseball is going to be a big feature of the week, as eight games have already been arranged, two of which will be played on July 4, Pawam vs. Saranac at 1 p. m., and Greenville vs. Ionia at 4 p. m.

It looks as if an immense crowd would go to Ionia to see these many attractions, as it is seldom a chance is given to hear Folk, Gore, Bede, Ott, Markley, Oneal, Bennett and Mrs. Lake, as well as hear such music as will be furnished by the Kellogg-Haines Co., The Dumbars and the celebrated Kalamazoo Concert band.

Special train service on Sunday, July 2, and Tuesday, July 4.

Herbert Buck Died in Alabama

The many friends of Herbert Buck will be grieved to learn of his death. He was a former Lowell resident having come here from Canada nine years ago. He moved with his parents to Platonu, Alabama, in March last and was stricken with typhoid fever. He was taken to the hospital where he died after three weeks' illness, having a relapse May 31. He was 18 years and 6 months old. His sister Laura is still ill in the hospital and does not know of her brother's death. The family have our deepest sympathies in their sad affliction.

THE paint we sell is of vastly more importance to our success than the profit we make on it. Profit at the loss of trade soon kills any business. There must be big value and satisfaction in every sale. It is quality you want, and we realize that we will never be able to make a profit on paint after the first sale if the quality of the paint does not bring you back; but we know you will come back if we can get you to take the first order. ROGER'S BEST MACHINE MADE PAINT REPEATS.
