

We Don't Want the Earth.

In fact we don't want all the banking business. We probably could not get it if we did want it. If our methods haven't satisfied you, if you are better accommodated elsewhere—then peace and joy go with you. We can't kick, for we have honestly tried to treat you fairly. We try to treat everybody that way. BUT if you have never given us a chance, we really want to show you what we can do for you. We can't please everybody, but we would like the chance to try to please YOU. Come in and get acquainted.

BREAK LONG SILENCE

Lowell Boys Write Relatives of African Trip

After a silence of about eight years, Anthony and Thomas Roach, former residents of Lowell township, have just written relatives here from San Francisco, of their arrival in that city from South Africa. Years ago they left their home on the river road about three miles west of this village, to "seek their fortune." For years nothing had been heard from them until the present time. They state that they have spent most of the time in South Africa. They contemplate coming east soon for a visit with their relatives and old friends in Lowell and vicinity. They are brothers of Mrs. Wm. McGrath of Lowell, and have one sister in Detroit, one in Washington, D.C., and a brother in the North. Their father died during their absence.

EVANS-KINYON WED

Marriage of Lowell-Boston Young People Last Evening.

On Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Kinyon, occurred the wedding of their daughter, Mabel Pearl to Claude W. Evans of South Boston, Pastor W. D. Ogg performing the ceremony.

The apartment was tastefully decorated and the bride couple stood under an arch of bells with a background of evergreen. Miss Gladys Hart played the wedding march and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Boyce acted as escort.

The wedding took place in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom and the company enjoyed an excellent wedding supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans left on the Grand Trunk for Grand Rapids and vicinity to spend two weeks with relatives and friends.—[Com.]

P. M. TRAIN DERAILED

Night Passenger Runs Off the Track at Fox Siding

The Pere Marquette train from Detroit, due in Grand Rapids at 10:20 Tuesday night did not arrive until 2:30 this morning as a result of a derailment at Fox Siding, a few miles from the city. The train had stopped at Fox for orders, and had not gained much headway after the start when the wheels struck a D rail. The coaches were thrown from the track, turning partly over. None of the passengers were injured, although all were more or less shaken up.

A relief train was made up at the Pere Marquette yards at this city as soon as possible and the passengers from the Detroit train and the Saginaw train, stalled behind it were transferred and brought to their respective homes late.—[Grand Rapids News.]

Disease of Honey Bees.

The United States Department of Agriculture calls attention to the fact that American foul brood and European foul brood has been found to exist in Kent county. The Department has no means of knowing how long the disease has existed in the region, but desires to notify bee keepers of the trouble and to suggest that, if not already informed concerning the disease, they inform themselves at once. Very frequently colonies of bees are destroyed by disease and the loss is attributed by the bee keeper to some other cause. Farmers' Bulletin No. 442, The Treatment of Bee Diseases, gives a description of the brood diseases and methods of treatment. It will be sent free on request to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

Attention is also called to the fact that the brood diseases do not at all injure honey for human consumption, so that there need be no fear on the part of purchasers of honey.

Some New Lowell Homes

Photo by Avery. The above engraving represents the fine new home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Strong, built by Ecker & Hatch. It is of the bungalow type, with all modern improvements, including bath and a hot water heating plant. It is finely located on the corner adjoining the Methodist parsonage and is a decided improvement to surrounding property. Mr. and Mrs. Strong deserve much credit for their enterprise.

THE LADIES CLUBS OLD RESIDENT GONE

L. L. C. Enjoy Patriotic Program and Study Motor Car.

On Wednesday, Jan. 31, the Lowell Literary club met with Mrs. E. R. Ecker with Mrs. C. D. Hodges, director.

After regular business meeting the program opened with piano duet by Mesdames C. D. Hodges and C. H. Anderson.

Mrs. Greene read a paper prepared by Mrs. Clyde Collar which was a very instructive description of the motor car, giving us a detailed account of the motor car.

Mrs. Clarence Speaker read a splendid paper "The American Flag."

The club then sang "America," after which Mrs. W. S. Winegar read an exceptionally fine paper, "American Queens of the White House," giving a short sketch of each, comparing their lives, characters and social duties.

Each member is requested to contribute 10 cents to the flower fund at the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. U. B. Williams Feb. 11th. Mrs. Greene director. At roll call each member is asked to respond with "A Germ of Reform." A little drama is being prepared under direction of Mrs. E. S. White and it is requested that members meet at 2:30 instead of the usual hour.—[Com.]

C. L. C. Met With Mrs. Willard Tuesday.

February 6, the Clover Leaf club met at the home of Mrs. G. B. Willard with program in charge of Mrs. A. M. Andrews.

The first number was a piano duet by Misses Alice Crawford and Beatrice VandVice and they were so heartily applauded that they responded with an encore.

Miss Maynard read a very interesting and instructive paper on "Story of Our Old Songs" and Mrs. E. A. Anderson sang two of the old favorites, "Annie Laurie" and "Tis the Last Rose of Summer." This was followed by "Money Musk," a reading by Mrs. W. O. Merrill accompanied on the piano by Mrs. H. L. Weeks.

The club then sang the National hymn, "Star Spangled Banner," and Mrs. Merrill's guest, Mrs. Steiner from Canada, gave a very amusing reading, "The School Boy's Composition on Snakes."

Program closed with roll call, responses being a favorite song and meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. A. M. Andrews.—[Press Reporter.]

A FRIEND'S TRIBUTE

To the Memory of Mrs. R. W. Graham

The funeral of Mrs. R. W. Graham, whose death was recorded in our last issue, was held at the Congregational church Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. W. D. Ogg, and burial made in Oakwood cemetery. An intimate friend of the deceased kindly furnishes the following tribute to her memory.

Elizabeth A. Fuller was born in Waterloo, N. Y., December 25th, 1839. In her infancy her parents removed to Michigan and settled in Grattan. After finishing the course taught in the district schools of that day, she attended the High school in Grand Rapids, afterward engaging in teaching.

In 1869 she was married to Edwin Shaw. They settled on a farm in South Boston where they lived until their removal to Lowell about 1870. Three children were born to them, two sons and a daughter. Mr. Shaw died in Lowell in 1871. Three years later she was married to R. W. Graham and to this union was born one son.

Mr. Graham died August 14th, 1898, since which time Mrs. Graham has divided her time between her home in Lowell, her summer cottage at Harbor Springs and the homes of her children.

She died at the home of her youngest son at Harbor Springs, Feb. 1st 1912, after an illness of several months. Of her immediate family she leaves three sons, Clarence Shaw of Grand Rapids, and Dr. Earl Shaw of Williamston and Dr. Frank A. Graham of Harbor Springs and one daughter, Mrs. Edna Shaw Obermeyer of Logansport, Indiana, two stepsons Ernest Graham of Chicago and Herbert Graham of Gary, Ind., and Myrtle Graham at present in Grand Rapids; one sister, Mrs. Edith Smith and one brother, Carlos Fuller, both of Grand Rapids besides seven grandchildren.

Brief summary of three score years and ten—Born—married—died—and yet what lies between. This one who passed from earth but a few days ago deserves more than such passing notice for she was closely identified with the social, educational and religious life of Lowell for over forty years. Soon after coming to Lowell, she united with the Congregational church, she was a charter member of the literary clubs, a member for long years of the W. C. T. U., an active member of the Order of the Eastern Star. But of all these different interests that engaged her, the temperance cause and her church lay nearest her heart. She was a woman of bright intellect, a keen sense of humor (which one of our wise men has said was a saving grace) and a familiarity with and love of current literature, of quick sympathies and broad charity. These qualities combined to form a charming personality.

Mrs. Graham possessed in a marked degree the rare grace of true hospitality and her home was always open for the use of her friends or her church. She had an abiding faith in the word of God, a faith that never failed her. As youth and middle age slipped by and the shadows lengthened her thoughts centered more and more upon her children who she devotedly loved, her personal friends, her beloved books and her church. She felt that her work was finished and she would be glad at any time to hear "the one clear call for her." So when the message of her flight after long months of struggling came, those friends who with common interests had walked with her in sunshine and in shadow for over forty years could only receive it as good news and thank God—

"It's wrong to mourn—I smile, and wave my hand to you, my dear, death has no terrors for me. It is the last foe that I fear. Smile with the sunshine of the day; Good-by my friend, my lucky friend—I'll soon be coming up your way."

L. S. P.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the friends who contributed the splendid flowers, the choir, the bearers and all others who assisted at the funeral of our dear mother, Mrs. R. W. Graham.

Sells all the Patent Medicines
Advertised in this Newspaper

We also carry all Standard Patent Preparations on the market. We don't sell medicines without merit if we know it. We are advertising agents for such well-known lines as—

- Booth's Hyomie, guaranteed for catarrh.
- Nature's Remedy, the great liver tablets.
- Adler-ika, the German treatment for appendicitis.
- Dr. Miles' Nervine, Heart Cure and Pain Pills.
- Foley's Honey and Tar and Kidney Medicines.
- Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for stomach trouble.
- Parisian Sage, the guaranteed hair tonic.
- King's New Discovery for coughs and colds.

BEST OF ALL, we are exclusive agents for Nylals, the family medicines that don't need advertising extensively, as, when once used, always the favorite for all the common ills. Tell us your troubles and we will recommend and guarantee the ones you need.

FOR YOUR ANIMALS—Prussian Stock Remedies. Get quick results.

FOR POULTRY—Nothing equals Conkey Poultry Medicines.

Whatever you need, and whenever you need it, day or night, your wants will be best taken care of, and your money back if you are not satisfied, if you buy at
