

Holes in the Pocket

"Look at that hole in the bottom of my pocket; no telling how much money I have lost," lamented a young man the other day.

After he had gone an old man said: "I'll bet he has lost more money out of the hole at the top of his pocket than he ever lost from that little hole at the bottom." He spoke with the wisdom of age. Most of the money goes out of the big hole at the top of the pocket and we don't worry, but we raise a great rumpus if even a dime drops out through the hole at the bottom. Moral—Do away with the pocket as a money purse by starting an account at our bank.

A Valuable Faculty

Determined effort to save develops or strengthens a valuable faculty, namely, the faculty of drawing the line between necessary and useless expenditure.

Think of it: Isn't it usually the thing one is better off without that takes the money he should save?

Hence the double benefit of the saving habit: First, learning to deny one's self harmful indulgences; and, second, acquiring a property through little triumphs over self.

Ask yourself now if there is any reason why you should not become a money saver at

LARGE ENROLLMENT

Lowell Schools Open with Record-Breaking Attendance.

Supt. A. F. Frazee offers the following encouraging report of the opening of the Lowell schools for the fall term:

School opened Tuesday, Sept. 3, with a record-breaking attendance. So far the enrollment has reached 446, of whom 131 are in the High school. The rest are distributed as follows:

Central building: Eighth grade, 24; Seventh grade, 29; Sixth grade, 31; Fifth grade, 26.

East ward: First and Second grades, 52; Third and Fourth grades, 37.

West ward: First and Second grades, 31; Third and Fourth grades, 34.

South ward, 25.

Kindergarten, 26.

The crowded conditions in the East ward has made it necessary to transfer several pupils to the West ward.

There are just 70 non-resident students enrolled, all but one in the High school. This makes 52 percent or over half of our High school composed of foreign students.

The High School Literary society elected the following officers: President, Otto Andrews; treasurer, Florence Yeiter; vice president, George Cuddihy; secretary, Addie Yeiter; sery't-at-arms, Arthur Schneider; and captains for two sections, Lee Lampkin and Harold Bohler.

The Girls Basket Ball team elected Ruth Mattern captain; Mr. Smith manager, Arthur Schneider was made captain of the Boys Basket Ball team.

LOWELL BALL GAMES

Lowell Gets Revenge from Alto. Saranac Wins Game Here

The Lowell-Alto ball game at Ramona park, Grand Rapids, Friday drew a large enthusiastic audience, the crowd approximating 2000, and resulted in a victory for the Lowell team with a score of nine to three giving them full revenge for their defeat in the recent five-game series.

Harry Gerloski, erstwhile Alto pitcher, pitched for Lowell after the 4th inning, relieving Spenger. Alto secured three runs in the second, but the Lowell men got even in the third and thereafter had it their way, securing one or more runs in every inning except the seventh.

In the first of the three-game series between Lowell and Saranac, played here Monday afternoon Lowell was defeated by a score of seven to six Lowell batters—Spenger and Burdick, Saranac—Gerloski and Berger. Lowell scored in the first two innings in the fourth and fifth and one in the ninth. Saranac's first run was made in the fourth followed by one in the fifth and the fatal five in the seventh. The game was well attended and considerable interest shown.

The second game of the series will be played next Tuesday, Sept. 17th. If Lowell wins the third and final game will be played here on the following Friday, Sept. 20th.

SKINNED ON LEMONS

Grand Rapids Press Tells Why Prices Are High

Lemons at wholesale are selling at 5 cents each. It is the highest price paid in years. The scarcity of the California crop is given as the cause.

Yet it was the California lemon growers who appeared before congress when the Payne-Aldrich law was being drafted and asked for an increase in the duty on lemons, presumably to keep out the "paper" lemons of Europe so that the "infant" lemon industry of one state in the Union could grow up. It was a good joke. Congress authorized a 50 per cent increase in the duty and thereby a lemon was handed the country.

In the first place, any duty, to be justified at all under the protective theory, must be levied on an article which there is hope this country can produce in large quantities or in such quantities as to supply the home demand. It requires a vivid imagination to see in the future a great lemon growing industry in this country. It requires a vivid imagination to think of lemons growing in Michigan, Maine, Massachusetts or Montana. As a matter of fact, California is the one state in the Union which ever has or ever will produce lemons in any quantity. The crop there is not a fraction of what the country consumes.

The fact that in this little matter of lemons we see an unexcelled example of the way special interests manipulate the tariff. Because a few lemon growers in the far west wish to secure an increased price they levy tribute on a population of 90,000,000. It is probable that at this time of the year two families out of every three pay a tax to the lemon raisers of California. Hospitals and people with children pay the largest amounts. It is only a few cents a day, but when all the other tariff taxes are added the total is enough to make the average man realize why the cost of living is high. If he got it back in wages he would not

THE LAST SAD RITES

Herbert Oliver Laid to Rest in Oakwood.

The funeral services of Herbert R. Oliver were held at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Oliver, Friday, Sept. 6, conducted by Rev. L. E. Lemox, assisted by Rev. W. D. Ogg. Interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Herbert was born in Lowell March 12, 1892, was educated in the Lowell schools and received a business training in his father's store. He entered the employ of the Lowell state bank November 23, 1909, going from there to the Fairview Savings bank of Detroit January 29 of the present year, where he was recently elected to the assistant cashiership of the First State bank of Leesville, a suburb of Detroit, under the same management. At the time of his death in Detroit, September 4, he was in line for another promotion October 1.

Herbert was of a happy disposition, with a pleasant smile and a genial, unassuming manner, which endeared him to all whom he met. His taking away in the budding of his young manhood, while so many of the aged and infirm await death's call, is one of the inscrutable mysteries of Providence; but his bright, clean life so full of promise, must ever be a grateful memory to the stricken family. That they may be reconciled and soothed, is the hope of their many friends.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who extended the hand of sympathy to us in our recent affliction, and for the manifestation of the beautiful flowers to the memory of our very dear son and brother Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Oliver.
Floyd Oliver.
