

Give Us a Chance

This bank wants your friendship and your confidence. It can obtain neither one unless you give us the chance. We are anxious to please you. Possibly we can't do it, because it's impossible to please everybody. But we would at least like the chance to TRY. Then if we fall down it's our own fault. Come in and let's talk it over. The latch string is out.

THE VILLAGE TICKET

President, C. Bergin.
Clerk, H. J. Taylor.

There were 89 votes cast and the contest for the last trusteeship was warmly contested, requiring several ballots. L. J. Post, John Roth and John Kellogg all had strong support; but Mr. Rhodes won out fairly.
As village committee the chairman named D. H. Owen, E. A. Thomas and F. E. White.

LITERARY CLUB

L. L. C. Entertained at Home of Mrs. C. H. Anderson.
The ladies of the L. L. C. were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. H. Anderson, Feb. 26. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. U. B. Williams. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Anderson as director, took charge of the program. Roll call was responded to with "Recent Books and Their Writers." In behalf of the health committee Mrs. S. S. Lee, gave a very interesting and instructive paper on "School Sanitation." Mrs. Earl McNaughton entertained the club with a fine piano solo. Mrs. A. B. Smith had a well written paper on "The Resources of the Philippine Islands." Mrs. Vesta Redmond in her pleasing way sang "Lovers in the Lane" from the Life of Rose, by Liza Lehmann. Miss Ferne Loomis in her charming manner gave the reading "Laddie" which was duly appreciated.
Mrs. Della M. Styles had a nicely written paper on "Women Philanthropists of America." Mrs. M. C. Greene closed a most profitable afternoon with one of her interesting reports. Adjourned to meet with Mrs. Treese M. Merrill, Mar. 11th.—[Cor. Sec.]

PAYNE STOCK SOLD

To Fred Burk of St. Johns. Opens Tomorrow.
The J. Howard Payne dry goods stock was purchased last Friday by Fred C. Burk of St. Johns, with several other buyers competing.
The store will be opened again to the public tomorrow (Friday), as per announcement on last page of this paper.
Mr. Burk is an enterprising and successful business man having the largest department store and business in his home city, where he has a reputation of being "on the level," and of selling the best in his line. He has an able and active partner in Mrs. Burk, who is assisting in the re-opening of the Lowell store.

DEXTER G. LOOK

To Succeed Himself as County Road Commissioner.
Remember the primary election Wednesday, March 5, for the nomination of county road commissioners. The present commissioners, Brown, Bloomer and Look, have given this part of the county a fair deal and with their experience are better qualified to continue the work than new men would be. If they are to be renominated fifteen per cent of last fall's vote must be cast for them, so a large primary vote is necessary. Lowell and vicinity voters, especially, should show their interest in their progressive townsmen Dexter G. Look and give him a creditable showing at the primaries.

Another Tie Broken

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Johnson returned Tuesday from Almont, where the former's brother Hugh S. was buried from the old home-stead Monday. Hugh was but 38 years old, had spent practically all his life at the old home and died in the room in which he was born. He was a musician of rare natural abilities and for many years had been one of the main stays of the village band. He was the youngest of six children and was the first to be taken. He leaves a wife and two young children, who will be unable to care for the farm, and the old homestead will pass into the hands of strangers, thus severing a tie that has bound the writer to the home of his childhood.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindly offices and sympathy so freely given during the illness and after the death of our beloved husband, father and kinsman, Lemuel Alvin Davis. We also tender thanks for the beautiful flowers.

GRATTAN RESIDENT

Death of Lemuel A. Davis, 41 Years a Grattan Resident

Lemuel Alvin Davis, aged fifty-two, died at his home in Grattan February 15, after a long illness. He was the son of A. C. and Emily Davis, was born in Otisco township, Ionia county, April 10, 1860, and with his parents, moved into Grattan township, Kent county, in March 1872.
He was united in marriage to Hettie Andrews February 15, 1884, and moved to the present home in April 1890.
He was one of a family of eight children of whom two brothers, Eva and Flora, have preceded him. Besides a wife, two daughters, Emily and Matilda, and son Alvin, he leaves a sister, Mrs. John Purdy of Smyrna and two brothers, Robert B. and Charles F. of Grattan, to mourn their loss.
He was an affectionate and devoted husband and father, beloved and respected not only by all his family and near relatives but by a large circle of friends and neighbors. He leaves behind him a reputation for sterling worth that will endure. He was one of those noblest works of God, an honest man.
Funeral services were held at the family home Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. W. Maxwell of Belding, and were attended by a large concourse of people. Mesdames George and Decker Hopkough of Smyrna sang appropriate music to accompany Mrs. Ed. Insey. The floral emblems were numerous and beautiful. Interment in Smyrna cemetery.—[Com.]

SCHOOL GIRL INJURED

Little Daughter of Rev. Osgood Over By Seigh.
Grace, eleven-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. D. Osgood, was run over by one of the rear runners of a bobsleigh loaded with logs, while on her way home from school Monday noon. The runner passed over her left limb below the knee, crushing it quite badly and causing a compound fracture. The bones have been set, and hopes are now sustained for their perfect knitting.
Grace, with a number of schoolmates, had ridden several blocks on the sleigh and, jumping off in front of the King block, fell backward in such a way that the leg was caught beneath the runner. The entire community sympathizes with the family in their anxiety and hopes for the child's early and complete recovery.

HUSBAND TIRED OF SEEING HER SUFFER

Prescribed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which made His Wife a Well Woman.

"I had had headaches, I had got several colds, I had had my stomach so bad that I could not eat on my best days and I had organic inflammation in my body that I was not able to do my work. I could not get a good meal for my husband and one child. My neighbors had thought my suffering was terrible. My husband got tired of seeing me suffer and one night went to the drug store and got me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told me to get it. I can't tell you all I suffered and I can't tell you how much relief it has done for me. I was greatly benefited from the first and it has made me a well woman. I can do all my household work and I am content with my friends as well. I think it is a wonderful help to all suffering women. I have got several to take it after seeing what it has done for me."—Mrs. DANA EMMERSON, 215 East Main St., Middlebury, Vt.

The Pinkham remedy is a grand and victorious one. It is a record of constant victory over the obstinate ill of woman—its ideal cure for all ailments of the female system. It is an established fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored health to thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it if you need such a medicine?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham, at her home, 233 Central Building, Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a female doctor and kept in confidence.

Synopsis: The Mexican were wild in Spain, and then the smoke blew across the river, and they saw the field; the dust and the noise, three Mexicans, hooded and on horseback, a few dismounted stragglers racing on foot for the bank, and a squad of riders circling below the trail. Hamlin seized the mingled awe and blood out of his eyes, smiled grimly, and glanced back into the coach, instinctively slipping fresh cartridges into his rifle.

"That's one time those fellows ran into a horse's nest," he commented quietly, all trace of excitement vanished. "I never saw boys, or we're not through yet—they'll only be more careful next time. Anybody hurt?" "Somebody's cracked, but not a word not through yet—they'll only be more careful next time. Anybody hurt?"

"The Defense of the Stage." The Mexican were wild in Spain, and then the smoke blew across the river, and they saw the field; the dust and the noise, three Mexicans, hooded and on horseback, a few dismounted stragglers racing on foot for the bank, and a squad of riders circling below the trail. Hamlin seized the mingled awe and blood out of his eyes, smiled grimly, and glanced back into the coach, instinctively slipping fresh cartridges into his rifle.

"That's one time those fellows ran into a horse's nest," he commented quietly, all trace of excitement vanished. "I never saw boys, or we're not through yet—they'll only be more careful next time. Anybody hurt?"

Now, as he struggled to his knees, gripping the iron foothold with one hand, his chin in his armpits, the other hand pressed against the side of his head, he saw the Indians, numbering at least thirty, hidden recesses of the canyon, to the right and left, as their ponies' hoofs struck the turf, and were now rushing toward the stage, firing and yelling and brandishing their guns. The very reckless advance of their advance expressed the conviction that he had the situation in his hands, and that he was the only man who could save the passengers would be helpless victims.

"Somebody's cracked, but not a word not through yet—they'll only be more careful next time. Anybody hurt?"

BOYS GOVERNMENT WITH ABRAM

It was with recent years it was first asserted that Abram's battle, as recorded in Gen. 14, had not one whit of glory. The archaeologists have not only recognized the apparent truth of the statement, but they have also raised a question of the accuracy of the record. Abram's battle is a story rich with typical suggestions.

"I'm sorry," he said. "I'm sorry," he said. "I'm sorry," he said.

For Hair Health

If Rezell "93" Hair Tonic does not improve the health of your scalp and hair, we will pay for what you use during the trial.
We could not so strongly endorse Rezell "93" Hair Tonic and continue to sell it to the same people if it did not do all we claim. Should it not prove entirely satisfactory our customers would lose faith in us, we would lose their patronage, and our business would suffer.
If your hair is falling out or you suffer any scalp trouble, we believe Rezell "93" Hair Tonic will do more to eradicate the dandruff, give health to the scalp, stimulate new hair growth and prevent premature baldness than any other human agency.
We want you to make us prove this. We ask you to risk no money whatever. Buy a bottle of Rezell "93" Hair Tonic, use it according to directions for thirty days; then if you are not entirely satisfied, come and tell us and we will promptly hand back the money you paid us for it.
We won't ask you to sign anything, nor even to bring the bottle back. We won't obligate you in any way. We will take your mere word. Could anything be more fair? Could we do anything more to prove our belief in Rezell "93" Hair Tonic and our honesty of purpose in recommending it to you?

The basket ball games last week were played before a fair crowd and each team tried hard to win. The girls were more fortunate than the boys in this respect however, and whited the Greenville girls by a sufficient margin of points to show their ability in basket ball shooting. The boy's game was played as if a championship remained at stake rather than the mere honor of winning. Each team fought desperately and although Lowell was beaten down during the last half their play was characterized by speed, quickness and the spirit showed in fighting an up hill game. Score: Girls' game, Lowell 28, Greenville 7; boys' game, Lowell 15, Greenville 28. At the close of the game a banquet was served the visiting teams by the Lowell teams.
