Not Boasting...

We would rather boast than boast any time. We don't claim to be the whole works in the banking business. All that we claim is that our stockholders and directors are plain business men just like the rest of you; men who realize their responsibilities and expect that every customer shall be given a square deal. Further, we know that our bank is reliable, has abundant capital and surplus, and has an enviable reputation for fair dealing. If that's boasting then we have boasted, that's all; but it's all true.

A Check Book on the Farm

A check book is a most useful farm "implement." It is a source of profit and protection, and has been the indirect means of making many a farmer prosperous.

It means that the farmer has his money in the bank, where it is cultivating a friend for him; it means that instead of carrying currency, he draws his check when he pays out money, and the bank gives the exact amount to the person entitled to it.

The farmer's check book is his introduction to many success helps that are found only at a good bank. The Lowell State Bank extends an invitation to farmers to use this service.

WAS SHE A MAN OR BREACH OF PROMISE

Was He a Woman? Question as to Supposed Forger.

It is believed that an attempt was made to pass forged checks amounting to $775.00 at the Lowell State Bank last week Wednesday, when a woman heavily veiled, giving her name as Mrs. J. R. Turner and residence as "near Clarksville" presented two checks drawn on the Edwin Nash State Bank of Clarksville, one for $500.00 signed L. A. Scoville and the other for $275.00 signed Claude Scoville (cattle buyers at that village.) The size of the checks and the fact that they were signed in the same handwriting induced Cashier Mangle to telephone the Clarksville bank for information before paying the money. Meanwhile the woman demanded her checks, saying she had shopping to do and would return. That was the last seen of her there, though attempts have been made to trace her.

Among several suspicious circumstances were the facts that the checks, which were payable to "Mrs. J. R. Turner," were already endorsed, and that she demanded cash in full. She claimed that they were given in payment for live stock.

After the supposed forger left the bank she was seen hurrying toward the Pere Marquette depot about train time. Later communication between the banks renders it almost certain that the checks were forged, and it is believed by some that "she" was a man in disguise.

School Notes

Spring vacation next week. The basket ball season is over, championships have been won and lost and in its place are about to come the bright, balmy days of spring. No longer will we see the basket ball tosser showing his skill but to our ears will come the crack of the ash against the championship, the possibility of a home-ship and the base ball park will be the place of recreation and enjoyment. Both basket ball teams took their annual trip to Greenville and ended the season with a defeat although fighting hard to win. The boys after playing some of the strongest teams in the state have an average of 416 while the girls being defeated only twice and both times away from home, have an average of 714 winning five out of seven games.

Miss Florence King spent a few days of last week with Mrs. Robert Gale in Grand Rapids.

Prominent Lowell People Involved—Public Trial.

The Mock Court Trial to be given under the auspices of the Methodist Epworth League, at the City Hall, Wednesday evening, April 2, promises to be an event of unusual interest. Judging from newspaper reports of similar entertainments conducted by the present management, it would seem to be one of the most amusing things now offered for public patronage.

It will be an exact reproduction of a court scene in methods and procedure and on this account will be extremely interesting to those who have never heard a real trial. Best of all will be the refined fun of the whole affair.

With Judge Clement Smith of Hastings presiding over the court, Mrs. Bessie Henry appearing as the broken-hearted plaintiff, Dr. C. H. Anderson as the defendant, Col. A. V. Newton of Worcester, Mass., prosecuting the case and Attorney Shivel defending the accused, to say nothing of the brilliant array of court officers, witnesses and jurors, it is pretty certain we shall have all the comedy and reality of a court scene and plenty of wholesome fun.

The other participants are as follows: Clerk, H. J. Taylor; court officer, A. A. Scott; crier, Otto Andrews; witnesses—Mrs. Martha White, Mrs. A. G. Peckham, Dr. M. C. Greene, F. B. Rhodes, S. P. Hicks; jurors—J. B. Veiter, E. M. Johnson, Herman Strong, R. T. Ford, C. J. Bradish, A. B. Cadwallader, D. G. Look, W. S. Winegar, Jas. A. Scott, F. B. McKay, E. S. White, Earl McNaughton.

Equal Suffrage Speakers Had a Good Hearing

The equal suffrage meeting at the City hall Monday evening was fairly well attended and the arguments for woman's enfranchisement were ably presented by Mesdames Huntley Russell of Grand Rapids and E. V. Spencer of California, who were given an attentive and appreciative hearing.

S. P. Hicks presided over the meeting and Llewellyn Hutchinson of the Senior class, Lowell High school, gave his prize oration, which was appropriate to the occasion. A class of High school girls contributed a vocal number to the program.

Onan-Dennis

Ray E. Onan and Miss Beatrice May Dennis, both of Vergennes, were united in marriage last evening at the Congregational parsonage in this village, Rev. W. D. Ogg officiating. The couple will make their home near Alton, in Vergennes township.

GRANGE HAD BIG TIME

Bad Roads Couldn't Keep the Crowd Away.

The County Grange held with Whitneyville Grange last Wednesday, will go down in history as one of the best ever held in southern Kent county. The theme was Rural Education and the program was full of food for reflection.

Fine papers were read by Mrs. Chas. Veiter and Mrs. Dan. McVane. The addresses given by some of our best educators were full of excellent thoughts and high ideals: D. E. McClure, assistant secretary of the State Board of Health, on "Rural Education," J. H. Skinner on "Agriculture in the Public Schools," Allen H. Freeland, "The High School Education for Our Girls and Boys," B. S. Shaw on "Hidden Forces in the Education of the Home Life." Also, Mrs. Stewart of Chicago gave a few boiled-down thoughts on Equal Suffrage.

Fine recitations were given by Arthur Clark, Mary Cook, Minnie Cooley and Leota Bancroft, also solos by Miss Esther Clark and Herbert Thompson. All enjoyed the excellent music rendered by the Whitneyville orchestra and a trio from Thornapple Valley grange and the spley entertainment given by Bowne Center grange.

Alto and Morse Lake schools had some excellent art work on exhibition, illustrating the efficient work done in our rural districts.

Although the roads were very bad there were over 200 present.

The Grange is fast forging to the front, educationally, socially and morally and should have the earnest support of every farmer. It means better homes and better citizenship.

MICHIGAN automobile owners will be interested in a decision of the supreme court declaring unconstitutional the act of 1909 which made the owner and not the driver of a road machine liable for damages in the case at issue. William S. Thomas of Grand Rapids sent his machine to a repair shop. An employee of the shop in driving the machine home struck a woman, who brought suit for damages against the owner of the machine and secured a verdict from the circuit court. The supreme court claims that Thomas was not to blame or responsible and reverses the decision of the lower court; holding further that under the act, the owner of a machine would be responsible for damages inflicted by a driver who had stolen the machine. Had the machine been driven by an employee of Thomas, the claim for damages would have held.

EVERYWHERE in Christendom the centennial anniversary of the birth of David Livingstone, March 19, has been observed with remarkable unanimity and enthusiasm. As a Christian missionary and explorer in the wilds of Africa, where he paid the price of martyrdom for his faithfulness, his fame grows brighter with passing years. Sir Henry Stanley, who first discovered him, confessed himself an infidel, professed conversion through the influence of Livingstone during his four months association with him in the African wilds. Comparing this centennial observance with that of Napoleon, whose fame rested upon force, usurpation and bloodshed, we may agree with Milton that "Peace hath her victories, no less renowned than war." It may be remarked, too, that the world is growing away from Napoleon's ideals and is approaching those of Livingstone.

They are the best friends of woman suffrage, who make their pleas on the ground of right, justice to the people, tramping, hiking and other unwomanly exhibitions with their consequent neglect of home duties, which ought always to have first consideration, are poor arguments with which to convince the real friends of womanhood.

MRS. GARDEN SASS offers timely suggestions to our readers. There are many in Lowell all who have proven them good. Now is the time to plant for well-kept lawns, some flower beds and a vegetable garden. The healthful outdoor exercise and pleasure are worth all the cost; the products will be all to the good. Let's try it out.

As To state-wide prohibition. Mr. Legislator, this much is sure: The people have a right to vote on it, and you have no right to deny them the privilege. This is true whether you believe in prohibition or not. It's the people's business. Let them settle it. "Nuif sed."

The President's foreign policy, in a nut shell, seems to be: "Mind our own business." The jingoes won't like it, but the people will be willing to try it out for a change. This running around with a chip on the shoulder is expensive business.

Many honest opponents of woman suffrage, fear that women in politics will be less womanly than women in the home. Hence, suffragettes who act in an unwomanly manner, are a hindrance to their own cause. The President's announcement that he will make no speeches during this year, may be taken to mean that he proposes to devote himself exclusively to the great duties to which he has been called.

Time to settle on how our paved street is to be kept clean.
