No. 49

It is our desire to bring home to you how our bank can help you to a greater success in your material affairs. The price of prosperity is industry and economy, and those who will not pay the price reap only penury. We all make enough money, but only the few save it. Come in and let us talk these matters over with you.

Wall Paper Helps of Real

Value. Four Valid Reasons why WE should Supply you with Wall Paper

1st-We carry a very large stock of Wall Paper. We carry this stock because our large business demands it and because we desire to provide our customers with the widest possible choice.

2nd-We buy no JOBS or HOLD-OVERS-these go to the mail order houses.

3rd - We buy from the manufacturers for cash, in quantities entitling us to jobbers' prices, and our prices cannot possibly be beaten anywhere. We trim the paper if you so desire, take back any rolls you may have left and guarantee satisfaction in every way.

4th-We can help you with decorative ideas-this aid is often worth all the paper costs.

These are only a few of the many reasons why you should buy your Wall Paper of us. They are facts, and it will pay you to investigate.

Circulation

A place where the Leonard Cleanable Refrigerator scores big is on Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall and Freirigeration. Leonard Cleanables are not merely ice boxes-they are Refrigerators where a current of cold, dry air is circulating continually from top to bottom of the Provision Chambers and to every corner.

The picture at the top backs up this statement better than words possibly can. In the Leonard Cleanable, note how the cold air circulation is carried clear to the top of the provision chamber regardless of the level

But in the "siphon" arrangement see how the cold air is drawn up only to the height of the ice, leaving a dead air space at the top of th Provision chamber. Notice also how difficult those siphon-shaped slots

COLONEL GREEN IS STILL SINGLE

Despite the fact that he has received more than 5,000 proposals, Col. E. H. R. Green, son of Hetty Green, still was single when he passed through St. Louis the other day on his way from New York to Texas. Two and a half years ago the Colonel told the world through the newspapers of his desire for a modest, old-fashioned, stay-at-home, fireside wife, who would not worry about how much alimony she would get when the big row came. All the girls spoke at once. Or at least thousands of letters poured in upon the colonel from thousands of women who knew they were just what he wanted.

The colonel took a look at the pile of letters and became pessimistic because he felt that all the girls who proposed could not possibly be

There could not have been a greater contrast than between Lilith and Ada; the one proud, mirth-loving, self-willed; the other gentle, sweet and affectionate. In his heart Folsom knew that she had furretrivably lost him. He had found her out at last.
