So the installation of a Pilot Lighting Plant is not an expense but an investment, paying daily dividends in added comfort, happiness and safety to your entire family. If you lived in the City—if you could take your house just as it stands today and transpor*'t bodily to any large town—you'd immediately make provision for greatest of City conveniences—good light and gas cooking. This is a convenience everybody wants. This would be your first thought.

Today these conveniences are brought right out to the farm home. Within the reach of everyone who installs the Pilot Lighting Plant which supplies a better light than City home enjoys and at lower cost. This service has been installed in more than 250,000 country homes and thousands more are taking advantage of it every year.
