Industries.

(From "Michigan-the Land of Plenty.") No state in the Union offers greater opportunities to the manufacturer than Michigan. The history of the growth of the manufacturing industries of the state is proof conclusive of the truth of this assertion. While the growth of manufacturing industries has been closely related to the development of the splendid transportation facilities of the state, yet the rapid advance in manufactures dates back as far as 1825, when the Erie canal, affording connection with the eastern seaboard, was opened. The transportation facilities of the state at present, both by rail and by water, are excellent. With over nine thousand miles of railroad, Michigan is sixth state in the Union in its length of trackage. The state borders on four of the great lakes, which furnish splendid rail and water transportation facilities, the state is most fortunately located with reference to the great markets of the country. It should be noted that Michigan is located but a short distance from the center of population of the country, thereby giving the state remarkable market advantages.

Wheat is preyed upon by a number of parasitic fungi, three of which are classed as smuts. Two of these smuts are common pests in the wheatfields of North America, the other, commonly known as flag smut, is thus far unknown to this continent, though it is fairly common in Australia and certain other parts of the world where wheat culture has been in progress for centuries, says the department of agriculture.

Of the two smuts, bunt or covered smut of wheat, sometimes referred to as stinking smut, is found wherever wheat is grown, sometimes resulting in losses to the farmers of the United States of $20,000,000 or more annually. yielding 30 to 40 bushels per acre of the stack or shock exposed to the picked over and inspected. good wheat, will produce a crop of attacks of the grain moth and the covered smut amounting, in some cases, to as much as 40 to 60 per cent

This smut disease is caused by a parasitic fungus which attacks the growing wheat plant before the first leaf appears above ground. Once inside the attacked seedling it continues its growth and by the time the wheat begins to head the diseased plants produce a crop of smut. If we examine the heads of such a plant we find instead of normal wheat grains only a lot of smut balls. In other words, the materials produced by the living plant for the purpose of building up sound wheat grains have been consumed by the parasite in forming its masses of smut spores which finally occupy the exact position in the wheat heads that would have been filled by the kernels had they been allowed to develop. These smut balls consist of nothing but millions of spores inclosed in each case by a thin enveloping membrane. People Today Eat Too Much Cooked Food That is Frequently Lacking in Nutritive Qualities. It has long been a joke how cats and dogs, when out of sorts, fly to grass or some kind of green food for relief. The animal knows by instinct what only a few human beings are beginning to learn from experience—namely, that nature has provided vegetables of the leaf order, rich in mineral salts. These salts possess a double power—they not only combine with the acids and poisons in the body, rendering them powerless, but they also drive them out of the system altogether. It is not too much to say that no great mental, moral or physical progress can be made without an ample supply of this vegetable food. Salad is the one ingredient of our regular diet which we cannot afford to do without. ly important that the water shall not

Their Care and Cultivation

A Lavishness of Bloom Scarcely Believable.

GROW HARDY ROSES

By ELIZABETH VAN BENTHUYSEN The season of bloom of the "hybrid perpetual" can be greatly extended by intelligent cultivation and a proper selection of varieties. The sturdy bushes should carry their beautiful flowers way into the fall. We have come to think of roses in the fall as a delusion and a snare, excepting, of course, the hybrid teas, which have so long been regarded in America as the only everblooming roses. There are, however, a good dozen and a half that can be relied upon to give a second crop of bloom and be a thing of beauty in August and September. The Frau Karl Druschki, one of the very best and most popular plants teur. ever raised, has done more to redeem hybrid perpetual class. It adapts itself to almost any soil, and stands about a foot of the season's growth.

This week every dealer in CARTER'S UNDERWEAR from Maine to California is cooperating with the national magazines in bringing to the attention of underwear buyers the matchless quality and fit of these superb garments.

This underwear was given the GRAND PRIZE at the Panama-Pacific Exposition—the highest honor that could be conferred on any manfacturing concern, and if you will call and let us show you the garments you will not be surprised at this worthy tribute.

You can stretch Carter's Underwear two and one half times its width and it will come back into perfect shape. This shows how well it hugs the body and also the strength of yarn the fineness of which does away with awkward bulkiness of most underwear. It's the kind of underwear you would order if you were having your under garments made to order.

Try Carter's this winter—you will never wear any other.

This Organizaton has a national reputation for this great work in the interest of women, and has already paid into homes of deceased and distressed members over twelve million dollars, every dollar going into some home in time of want and distress. We cannot begin to record the deeds of loving kindness and sympathy that have gone hand in hand with these disbursements.

This Organization has risen to high position in Fraternal Insurance through the hearty co-operation of its members and has built up by the management of its officers, a reserve of over eight million dollars.

SYNOPSIS.

Confederate Sergeant Wyatt of the Staunton artillery is sent as a spy to his native county on the Green Briar by General Jackson. Wyatt meets a mountaineer named Jem Taylor. They ride together to a house beyond Hot Springs. In the house Wyatt and Taylor meet Major Harwood, father of Norcen and an old neighbor of Wyatt, who is sent to bed while the two other men talk. Wyatt becomes suspicious, and finds that Taylor has murdered Harwood and escaped. Wyatt changes to the U. S. cavalry uniform he has with him, and rides away in the night, running into a detachment of Federal cavalry, to whom he identifies himself as Lleutenant Raymond, Third U. S. cavalry, by means of papers with which he has been provided. Captain Fox finds Harwood's body and follows Taylor's trail. Fox and Wyatt believe Taylor to be old Ned Cowan. The detachment is ambushed. Wyatt escapes to the Green Briar country and goes to Harwood's apparently deserted home where he finds Norcen. Confederate Sergeant Wyatt of the Harwood's apparently descrited home where he finds Noreen Harwood alone. She does not recognize him, and he introduces himself as Lieutenant Raymord.

Buying It Green and Roasting It for Oneself is Always Advisable-Material Never Should Be Placed in Tin.

Buy your coffee green and roast it yourself. Therein lies the main secret of the good cup of coffee. Coffee after having been long roasted loses its aroma and delicacy of flavor. From ready ground or ready roasted coffee the best results are impossible.

But if the roasting is not done proporly the brew may be worse than the worst made from prepared coffee. If roasted too much the flavor is spoiled and the beverage injuriously affects the digestion. To prevent the decomposition of the acid, gum and resin in the coffee bean it is necessary that the roasting proceed uniformly without excess of heat. It is better to employ a closed receptacle, which should be shaken thoroughly about every ten minutes to prevent scorching. It should be removed from the oven in about forty-five minutes, when the coffee is reddish brown. An expert can tell by the odor when the roasting is sufficient.

At Hixon, they found that receptive of less than three months ago seem paradoxical and fantastically unreal. Only about the courthouse square where numerous small holes in frame walls told of fusillades, and in the interior of the building itself where the woodwork was scarred and torn, and the plaster freshly patched, did they find grimly reminiscent evidence.

Samson had not met them at the town, because he wished their first impressions of his people to reach them uninfluenced by his escort. It was a form of the mountain pride-an honest resolve to soften nothing, and make no apologies. But they found arrangements made for horses and saddlebags, and the girl discovered that for her had been provided a mount as evenly gaited as any in her own stables.

When she and her two companions came out to the hotel porch to start. Here Is One Man Who Does Not Believe the World Will Give Up Sleep.

Mr. Edison says sleep is a bad habit, and that we shall some day get over it. Like drinking and smoking, it is to be among those things which we shall try in time to give up on the first of the year. He says people called him crazy when he said electricity would supplant all other motive power in transportation, and one therefore hesitates to say that he is crazy about anything. However, we will hazard a guess that if he is off his box anywhere, it is with respect to the pleasant custom of indulging ourselves in a good sound snooze. How else we are to refresh ourselves from the day's work we cannot imagine. The trouble with this objection, as it applies to Mr. Edison, is that he doesn't think we are wearled by the day's work. He and some of his associates worked at something for a given period of time "I Want You Two to Love Each 21 hours a day, and they all gained weight!
