WAR SAVING STAMPS

Now on Sale at Lowell Business Places.

War-Savings stamps are on sale at the following business places in Lowell: Lowell Specialty Co., D. G. Look, A. L. Coons, W. S. Winegar, Pere Marquette ticket office, R. Van Dyke, M. N. Henry, Lowell State bank, City State bank, A. W. Weekes & Son.

In offering "War-Savings Stamps" to the public the United States Government has made available for every man, woman and child in the country a profitable, simple, and secure investment.

War-Savings Stamps are the answer of a great democracy to the demand for a democratic form of government security. They are "little baby bonds." Like Liberty Bonds, they have behind them the entire resources of the Government and people of the United States. They have the additional advantage that they steadily increase in value from the date of purchase until the date of maturity, and this increase is guaranteed by the Government. These stamps are issued in two denominations, the 25-cent stamp and the $5 stamp.

For the convenience of investors a "Thrift Card" is furnished to all purchasers of 25-cent stamps. This card has spaces for 16 stamps. When all the spaces have been filled the Thrift Card may be exchanged for a $5 stamp at post offices, banks or other authorized agencies by adding 12 cents in cash prior to February 1, 1918, and 1 cent additional each month thereafter.

Those who prefer may buy a $5 stamp outright. These will be on sale from March 1 to March 31. They automatically increase in value a cent a month every month thereafter until January 1, 1923, when the United States will pay $5 at any post office or at the Treasury in Washington for each stamp affixed to a War-Savings Certificate.

When you purchase a $5 stamp, you must attach it to an engraved folder known as a "War-Savings Certificate," which bears the name of the purchaser and can be cashed only by the person whose name appears upon the certificate, except in case of death or disability. This certificate contains 20 spaces. If these are all filled with War-Savings Stamps between December 3, 1917, and January 31, 1918, the cost to the purchaser will be $82.40, and on January 1, 1923, the Government will pay the owner of the certificate $100—a net profit to the holder of $17.60. This is based on an interest rate of 4 per cent compounded quarterly from January 2, 1918. The amount of War-Savings Stamps sold to any one person at any one time shall not exceed $100 (maturity value), and no person may hold such stamps or War-Savings Certificates to an aggregate amount exceeding $1,000 (maturity value).

If the holder of a War-Savings Certificate finds it necessary to realize cash on it before maturity he may at any time after January 2, 1918, upon giving 10 days' written notice to any money-order post office receive for each stamp affixed to his certificate the amount paid therefor plus 1 cent for each calendar month after the month of purchase of each stamp. A registered certificate may be redeemed, however, only at the post office where registered.

In other words, the plan is simple, straightforward, and certain. The holder of the certificates can not lose and is certain to gain. He is buying the safest security in the world in the most convenient form in which the security of a great Government has ever been offered to its people.

GOOD WOMAN GONE

Tribute to Memory of Mrs. C. W. Parks.

Agnes E. Hoag, daughter of Sidney E. and Almira Snow Hoag, was born in Vergennes, Michigan, May 7, 1864, and was called from this earth March 3, 1918. She was united in marriage with Clarence W. Parks Sept. 28, 1882, and to this union was born one son, Clarence Vere. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, son, daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edith Parks, two granddaughters, Dorothy and Betty, her step-mother, Mrs. S. E. Hoag, whom she greatly loved, a brother, Warren B. Hoag of Kimberly, Idaho, a number of more distant relatives and a great company of friends in Twin Falls, Idaho, and in Lowell and vicinity.

Mrs. Parks has been a great sufferer for the past nine years, but her faith and trust in God never wavered. Her cheerfulness and fortitude have been the wonder and inspiration of all who knew her. She was distinctively a home woman and her family was always first in her thoughts; but she also remembered the sick and unfortunate in her community.

She has been personally and most tenderly cared for, day and night, by her devoted husband during her long illness. The little granddaughters were like sunbeams in her home. Her daughter-in-law most kindly says: "To her last day her interest in her home, community and her country never failed, and every day she did her bit."

Her pastor says: "Mrs. Parks was the finest type of Christian womanhood, always cheerful and optimistic, most truly one of God's noble women."

The chords which bound her to family and friends are severed—God's finger touched her and she rests.

"Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep, From which none ever wake to weep."—[Com.]

WAS A RATIFICATION

Village Caucus Nominees Unanimously Chosen at Monday's Election.

Twenty-nine patriots turned out to the Village election, counting the members of the board and one man who was so busy—and so darn mad—scratching his ticket that he forgot to put his x in the circle, and so voted for no one.

Of course, it was a foregone conclusion, though we suspect that "Doc" Smith had an idea that some one would try to bet him out of his job.

The following got 28 votes each and were duly elected:

President—W. S. Winegar.
Trustees—C. H. Runciman, J. C. Smith, P. C. Peckham.
Clerk—H. L. Shuter.
Treasurer—Vern Ashley.
Assessor—F. N. White.

Recent Letter from State Sanitary Engineer on Water Service at Lowell.

Mr. W. S. Winegar, Village President, Lowell, Michigan, Dear Sir:

You will note from the enclosed report that the sample of water sent by you has been safe for drinking purposes, which would indicate that sufficient chlorine is now being added to the water. It would not be advisable, however, to inform the public that the water is safe for drinking until this could only be determined by frequent and systematic examinations. They should continue to boil the water to be on the safe side.

Will you please arrange to send a sample of water every few days to the Laboratory of the State Board of Health, Lansing, so that we may know that the chlorine is being properly applied.

Very truly yours,
O. E. Eckert,
Ass't State Sanitary Engineer.

A Card From the "Old Gent" Abner M. Johnson of Milwaukee to his brother Wesley Johnson, who has been spending the winter at Mascotte, Florida. "The kid," who is only seventy years old, is very fond of fishing and "The Old Gent," who is seventy-two and evidently knows the tricks of the trade, writes in his customary vein giving "the kid" some very useful suggestions on the subject as follows: The farmer is the only one Alvin" now who has much fun. He plants his corn in early spring. And then he doesn't do a thing. But watch it grow and grow and grow. Till it is almost time to snow. And then, if it is not too green, He trades it off for gasoline. And speeds away to a southern clime.

Where it is summer all the time, Excepting when the frost alas! Is nipping at the garden sassa. And every one's afraid "a freeze" Is going to kill the orange trees. And still the alligators smile And fleas are biting all the while. And on the bugs have such a knack Of crawling on a "feller's" back. Still he can catch a lot of fish. Or buy a big one if he wish. And oh it makes him laugh and laugh. To think about a photograph Which he will take of it and send. Away to some good northern friend. And he will tell him o'er and o'er. Though it weighed fifteen pounds or more. It wasn't half so big and fine As, one which broke his hook and line. And now he's trying every day To catch the fish which got away. And he is, mostly in the nights, "Agittin' lots and lots of bites."

THE man who has never thought much about his hats ought to try a Stetson this Spring.

HE needs the service of this Store—if only because we serve the most critical men of this city, and know how to suggest to each man the block and color to emphasize his personality.
