A ROUSING MEETING

Lowell Board of Trade Annual Event Tuesday Evening. The annual meeting of the Lowell Board of Trade in the High school building Tuesday evening proved to be an enjoyable and inspiring meeting, in accord with the spirit of the times.

Luncheon was served in the gymnasium by the Domestic Science class with the following menu:

Fresh Strawberries
Meat Loaf Creamed Potatoes
Asparagus
Fruit Salad Wafers
Ice Cream Cake
Coffee Rolls

The following officers were elected: President, C. H. Runciman; vice president, J. J. Lailey; director, Harry Day to succeed F. E. White.

Several selections rendered by the Lowell Patriotic quartet, Messrs. Yeiter, Sterkins, Maynard and Sissen, with R. D. Stocking at the piano, won hearty approval and a rising vote of thanks.

President M. N. Henry conducted the program in his usual efficient manner and his opening address was full of good thought for the Board of Trade and good citizens in general.

The event of the evening was an address by Mr. L. Z. Calkin of Grand Rapids who spoke at length upon the causes of the war, chief of which was the desire of the German power to dominate.

This is a struggle for supremacy between democracy and autocracy two conflicting ideas, and all must help. The sacrifices are not all for the boys at the front. The war must be fought to a finish. Peace can be made with the faithful, brutal "thing" we are fighting. Let us all do our part in aid of all war enterprises, the Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., K. of C., etc.

Mr. Calkin closed with an eloquent tribute to Old Glory. "How much will you give to your flag?"

Long continued applause and a rising vote of thanks expressed the appreciation of his hearers.

Impromptu remarks were by Messrs. Dr. Anderson, F. W. Hinman, Mr. Kreiser of the Kreiser Auto company, B. G. Fales and F. T. King, the man declared by Mr. Calkin, to have a heart large enough for love and loyalty to two cities, Lowell and Grand Rapids.

President Henry then paid a well deserved tribute to our loyal old citizen S. P. Hicks, a veteran of the Civil war, who is doing as much in support of the war as any young man in the country. Mr. Hicks in response said that though 5 years past three score and ten, he hoped to so conduct himself in the few years left him that it may be said of him when he is gone: "He was true to his country." His address and the singing of America by the entire company brought the meeting to a fitting close.

OUR DECORATION DAY

Fittingly Observed in Lowell in Spite of Bad Weather.

Decoration day exercises in Lowell passed off pleasantly and successfully in spite of the rainy forenoon, which prevented the scheduled parade.

The graves at Oakwood were decorated and the band played several selections at the Soldier's monument during a full in the storm.

The afternoon proved pleasant and the band played several selections in front of the City hall after which with W. S. Winegar in charge an excellent program was rendered in the hearing of a crowded house.

Selection, "Over There," by the Reading, "Our Flag," Mrs. Mary Rolf.
Address, "The Unknown Dead," S. C. Mitchell.
Battle Hymn of the Republic, audience.
Gettysburg Address, Arehart Bank.
Selection from Wilson's War Message, Margerie Himebaugh.
Star Spangled Banner, Mesdames Doyle and McNaughton and audience.
Address, Rev. W. M. P. Jerrett.

Mr. Jerrett held his audience in tense attention for an hour in a masterly patriotic oration which richly merited the applause and praise it received.

The meeting closed with the singing of America by the entire audience.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The closing meeting of the Forum Literary association was held in Senior High Wednesday morning. A piano solo was played by Irma Odell and after the business, the following program was given: Council fire by the Camp Fire girls.
An act by the Boy Scouts.
A piano solo by Alice Bird accompanied by Miss Bernice Creaser.
Presentation of a picture from the Hesperides to the High school by Irma Kallinger.
Acceptance, Sue White.
Remarks by Mr. Mitchell.

The farewell meeting of the Hesperides took place at the school building Monday evening. Miss Blake, the faithful leader, was presented with a spoon in appreciation of her friendly efforts during the two years she has been with the organization.

Cascade Pioneer Celebrates 89th Birthday.
Sunday, June 2, marked the 89th mile stone of L. S. Clark, one of the early pioneers of Cascade township. He was pleasantly surprised by forty-nine of the family, who called in at the old homestead, where he has lived since he settled in Michigan 65 years ago. He has thirty-eight grand children and twenty-seven great grandchildren. The children came with flowers for the occasion and were highly entertained by his singing and recitations, showing his acute mind and splendid memory. —[Com.]

ANSWER TO ATTACK

On Lowell by Writer in The Lansing Journal.

Lowell, Mich., June 1, 1918. The Lansing Journal, Lansing, Michigan. Gentlemen:—

In a recent edition of your paper there appeared an article entitled "Lowell is placed on black list by autoists." The facts in this article are so grossly misrepresented and the statements so manifestly untrue that it would be an injustice not only to the Village of Lowell but to the people of the City of Lansing and the state at large not to answer the same and to state the truth.

This article is so manifestly untrue that this Board of Trade deems its duty to call attention to the truth about these matters and clear the Village of Lowell from the stigma that a few people have attempted to place upon it, out of spite no doubt, because they were justly arrested for speeding.

The Main street through our Village of Lowell is the principal business street. It is paved for a distance of about eight blocks. The speed limit according to the ordinance is ten miles per hour thereon. This limit is not enforced and according to the records of our Justice Court no person from Lansing has ever been arrested for speeding who was not running at least thirty miles an hour. Very few persons from your city have ever been arrested and the largest fine that has ever been placed upon any person from Lansing for speeding is one dollar and costs are in this case the party was running forty miles an hour. All the other offenders have been fined two and three dollars and costs.

The statement in this article that an organized effort to plunder drivers of motor vehicles exists here is too ridiculous to call for serious contradiction. No such thing exists in this town. And the further statement that the officials of Lowell have been getting a medal ticket for some time on this account is absolutely untrue. The records of our Justice Court here show that not more than six people from Lansing in the last five years have paid fine for violation of the auto law and Five Dollars and costs was the largest fine assessed in any one case.

You also speak in your article about one party being held up recently who will defend the case and take the matter to the Governor of the state if necessary. We call your attention to the facts in case. This man was driving a truck between Ada and Lowell. Some people from Grand Rapids in a pleasure car were behind him. Upon reaching Lowell these people claimed that for at least five miles they had attempted to get by him by giving the proper signals but that he persistently refused to turn out and held the road. These parties were not residents of the Village of Lowell nor this vicinity, but resided in Grand Rapids. They went before a Notary Public here and made a sworn statement of their evidence. The man driving the truck was not arrested. The matter was placed before the Village Attorney and is still pending. You will observe that the officials of the Village of Lowell did not take the initiative in this matter but that the complainants were outside parties.

We wish to say to the people of Lansing and to the tourists of the state at large that this village has no other than the kindest feelings toward them. We have never taken the position of being small about these matters and have never arrested people driving recklessly and carelessly and at unreasonable speed on the Main street of this village. People who are driving carefully and at reasonable speed will certainly not be molested but will on the contrary be protected and welcomed here. And in all justice you must agree with us that we can not permit our main thoroughfare, crowded as it is with traffic, to be used as a speed way, especially by long processions of motor cars being driven from the factory. Life and property must be safe-guarded here as well as elsewhere and any vehicles detected in the act of driving carelessly or at an unreasonable speed on the main business street of this town must be stopped and punished by fine if necessary. This you must agree is just upon proper reflection of the case.

The threat in this article to blackmail Lowell certainly injures our pride and is unjust in the extreme. We know there is no foundation for it and trust that whatever effort has been made to circulate this unfounded story will be stopped and the proper measures taken to suppress it.

Will you kindly publish this letter and request other state papers to copy?

Very truly yours,
Lowell Board of Trade.
By M. N. Henry, Pres.
U. B. Williams, Sec.

Alvah M. M. Justice of the Peace.

Obituary—Mrs. George A. Raymond
Sarah Elizabeth Sayles, daughter of Elias and Hannah Sayles, was born in Dunfree, Canada, May 11, 1843, and died in Saranac, Mich., May 26th, aged 75 years and 15 days.

At the age of 18 months, she immigrated to Keene township where she lived till her marriage in 1867 to George A. Raymond. They lived on their farm in Keene until two years ago when they moved to Lowell, Mr. Raymond passing on from his home there in 1916.

Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, four of whom, Frank G. of Lowell, Fred N. of Saranac, Harry Hunter of Saranac and Mrs. Mert Sinclair of Bowne survive.

For over 70 years Mrs. Raymond has lived in this vicinity, the last two years having been spent with her daughters. At the age of 15 she united with the Methodist class at the Sayles schoolhouse and later with the Methodist Episcopal church at Keene, remaining a consistent Christian till death called her to the God she worshipped.

After a decline of two years and an illness of several weeks, the patient sufferer was called home Sunday evening, May 26th, 1918. —[Com.]

HE TALKED ABOUT

CHINESE INTERROGATION POINT

"This is a riddle. Under his presence," China is denoting the events of the New York Tribune last week when the riddle of government was put in the hands of General Feng Kwoching. Things have happened in a pretty dramatic fashion ever since; but the bitter words of self-reproach that accompanied Feng's management of his duties as a riddle from the presidency seem to indicate that the riddle was not a riddle of rather than because of any mystery in himself. His mandate was filled with such self-reproach as to say: "My duty from my very beginning was more misery; my hope to save the situation resulted in more confusion," and "I am too weak to do anything."

Apparently, President Feng is still, as Mr. Athelstoupe says, "an interrogated point of Chinese politics." Of his past, which he says is simple, the writer continues: "He was born in the province of Chihli, in the prefecture of Hsuehlo. He went through the Imperial Military Academy in 1905. His command march to the presidency of the Peers' Military Council, which is a near miracle in that position of all manner and kind, was the result of a series of circumstances. The following year he was at the head of the Imperial Guards."

Yuan Shih-kai, his chief dry good stood upon the shoulders of four stalwart pillars. They were called by his diary: General Feng Kwoching was one of them.

MARTIN, BOSS OF CONGRESS

Congress has a boss, and he is Thomas Staples Martin, of Virginia. As the majority leader of the senate, the Virginia senator wields a power which holds the entire war congress in line. Theoretically, Senator Martin has no power over the house of representatives, yet his word bears great weight so far as his practical control of both branches is concerned.

HELPING THE FRENCH

To help restore the peaceful relations between the United States and France, the American and French governments have established through the efforts of the French and American governments to Mr. Benjamin Carr of Baltimore and New York, organizer of the society.

BURIAN, TOOL OF THE KAISER

When Count Goron found the situation in Austria Hungary too much for him and resigned from the office of foreign minister, the diplomat in the Kaiser's cabinet, the diplomat was rather anxious about his successor. But when Baron Burian was named they were content. For the baron always has been entirely subservient to the Kaiser.

FOR THE WOMEN

Up-to-Date Fashion Hints—Cooking and Baking Recipes—Prepared for the Lady Readers of the Ledger

Suit of Jersey for Summer

These days we do not make frosted cakes except on state occasions and even white cakes should be used sparingly to save our sugar.

Lighting Cakes—Beat half a cupful of butter substitute to a cream, add a cupful of sugar, the yolks of four eggs beaten light, three tablespoons of milk and one cupful of oven flour sifted with a teaspoonful of baking powder. Gradually add the milk and flour, and whites of the eggs, add gradually three-fourths of a cupful of sugar, and beat until the mixture is thick and shreds and shreds all through. Spread this mixture over the cake, cut in squares and bake thirty minutes. Cut in strips for serving.

COMPANY GOOD THINGS.

More Good Saving Dishes. As potatoes are plentiful this season as well as cheap, we may use more of them in our cooking. Here are a few suggestions for their use.

Scalloped Potatoes and Ham.—Put a layer of potatoes in the bottom of the dish, then a layer of cooked ham, then a layer of potatoes, and so on, until the dish is full. Bake in a hot oven for one hour.

Girl's Jacket-Dress of Voile

White stockings and low black shoes are the accessories for this attractive little dress. It is durable and inexpensive and it is not all difficult to make.

CHILDREN'S BONNETS.

In the daintier types of children's bonnets are extremely adaptable for drapery, although it is hard to see how the pattern allows in the edges of the bonnet to be made into a headband.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

"I see this age 'has been' written on it." "Well, sir?" "Am I to infer that the date is 1402?"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THE LEDGER'S FARM ADVICE

Carefully Compiled Information That Will Be Of Help To The Progressive Farmer

GOOD TILLAGE IS ESSENTIAL TO BEST DEVELOPMENT OF ANY PEACH ORCHARD

When cut worms appear among tomatoes there is no better plan than to distribute poisoned bait over the ground. The formula is as follows: Sift together one pound of half grown and 20 pounds of bran. Add half a gallon of molasses or sugar and a little water, then stir in three oranges ground in a food chopper, mixed with the bran. This may be broadcast over two to five acres.

IS NEED OF CO-OPERATION

Shipments of Fruit in Carried Lots by Organized Growers. Dr. M. A. C. M. Say.

AN EFFICIENT OUTFIT FOR TILLAGE OF ORCHARD WHERE TOPOGRAPHY IS MUCH BROKEN AND FERTILITY IS HEAVY.

There is comparatively little difference of opinion in regard to the tillage of peach trees. The conviction of the best growers is practically all peach-growers is in favor of the continued successful maintenance of a peach orchard.

High Collar on Coat Suits.

Another movement in the apparel of the season is the high collar. It is the introduction of the high collar at an hour when the high fashion is in the ascendant.

Low Neck For Day Use.

Another interesting detail of fashion is the low neck. It is a departure from the high collar which has been the rule for some time.

BROWN SWISS GOOD GRAZERS

Animals Are Mild and Docile and Rank Well in Milk Production—Records of Cows.

SPARE TIME IN GARDEN

What does it cost to raise a bushel of potatoes, beans, tomatoes? It is not as much as you think.

METHODS OF PRUNING GRAPE

Important Work, Both as Regards Quantity of Fruit and Cost of Production.

Good Type of Brown Swiss Breed.

Huckles are quite to the fore, perhaps an echo of military fashions. These buckles are usually small and of a color harmonizing with the garment.

Same Slim Lines.

America still looks to Paris for its fashion. The slim lines of the present season are a carry-over from the last season.

WIN THE WAR WITH POTATOES

The enemy is out-eating us in potatoes—out-potating us. Here are the figures—per capita weekly consumption.

We can beat them at their own food—which really isn't theirs; it's a native American crop. We must eat more potatoes, and that right soon, or much of our record crop of last year will be wasted.

Use a knife or a fork. Bake about 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven (205 degrees C.—400 degrees F.) Make eight large or twelve to sixteen small muffins.

Potato Biscuit
Using 1 2-3 cups instead of 3 cups of flour.

1-3 cup liquid.
1 1/2 tablespoon fat.
2 tablespoons syrup.
1 egg.
1 cup mashed potatoes.

1 1/2 cup whole flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
4 teaspoons baking powder.

Add the liquid, melted fat, syrup and beaten egg to the cooked potato. Sift the dry materials together and add to the first mixture. The dough will be too stiff to mix easily with a spoon.

A New Kind of Announcement.
A young wife, wishing to announce the birth of her first child to a friend in a distant city, sent the telegram "Isiah 9-6," beginning: "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given."

Her friend, more literal and less familiar with the Scriptures, read the message and said to her husband:—

"Margaret evidently has a boy, but why on earth did they ever call him Isiah? He must be healthy, though, for he weighs nine pounds and six ounces."
