

It's Your Fight and My Fight.

We who are not in the thick of the fray are apt to think of this war as someone else's war. It's your war and my war. The men at the front are fighting for you and for me as well as for themselves. They can not win without your help and my help. They need our financial support as well as our moral support. Give to the Red Cross and the other war activities. Buy bonds, war saving stamps and thrift stamps.

Fourth Liberty Loan Drive Starts September 28.

LIBERTY LOAN RALLY

Lowell City Hall Friday Evening, Sept. 27. Turn Out.

A rousing Liberty Loan meeting will be held at the City hall in Lowell Friday evening, Sept. 27, on the eve of Volunteer day. A speaker—or speakers—from outside will discuss war issues and the Fourth Liberty Loan and there will be appropriate music and perhaps other enticing features. Come! Bring your friends and friends' friends. Help make this a great win-the-war meeting. We're beginning to believe this great battle for God and humanity can be won next year. If Americans everywhere do their duty; and the sooner and better we do it, the more of our boys will come home and the sooner. Let us do our full duty right here in true blue old Lowell and let us make this Liberty Loan rally tomorrow evening, September 27, a part of the splendid campaign against beastliness and diabolism, and for decency and human liberty.

Committees Appointed at War Board Meeting Friday Evening.

A meeting of the war board and citizens of Lowell was held at the City hall Friday evening and committees were appointed to take a war census of the village school district No. 1, and township. The record will be permanent and is intended to show the war activity of every family, including Liberty Loan bond and war stamp purchases, and contributions to the M. C. Y., W. C. A., K. of C., etc. Some discussion of Volunteer days, Saturday, Sept. 28, and Monday, Sept. 30, took place; and the hope was expressed that on those days the patriotic people of Lowell would line up in front of the banks and buy Liberty Loan bonds in such number as to make a drive by personal solicitation unnecessary.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED

For Fourth Liberty Loan Subscriptions September 28 and 30. Saturday, September 28th and Monday, September 30th, are designated as days for volunteer subscriptions for the fourth Liberty Loan. Lowell must not go over the top. All must do their best. The boys in France are watching—so is the Kaiser. What heartens the boys disheartens the Kaiser. Which do you favor? If the boys in France, turn out. If the Kaiser, keep out of sight. Further particulars later. Lowell War Board.

Congregational Church

Subject, Sunday 10:30, "The Thorn Crowned Man." Sunday School, 11:45. Evening subject, "The Gospel." A. H. Lash, Pastor. Puente, Cal., Sept. 10, 1918. Enclosed find three dollars for which give credit as far as it will go. We have taken The Ledger since 1893 or 1894. We cannot give it up now. It's like a letter from home and as regular as a clock and full of news from home. Live and let live, speak the truth no matter who it hits or what we like. We have two boys in the service and another to go soon. I am caring for lemon and orange groves and raising beans between the rows of trees. We have six orchards of lemons and oranges, five-year old trees. Such groves are selling from fifteen hundred to two thousand per acre. That seems a big price, but sales are made almost every day. W. H. Hoag. Miss Dorothy Blake who is at her home at Grand Rapids on a furlough from the Nurses' Training Camp at Poughkeepsie, New York, called on Lowell friends yesterday.

C. Kent Jakeway of Grafton, nominated by the Michigan democrats for auditor general, has been a member of the board of supervisors for a number of years. He also has served as a member of the board of school examiners. He is one of Kent county's leading democrats.

SOUTH LOWELL

Miss Ruth Laver of Flint and Mrs. Paul Tower and son Robert of Detroit are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Laver. Quite a number from this vicinity attended the fair at Grand Rapids last week. David Stierick of the Rifle Corps is home on a fifteen day furlough. Rev. Wright has been returned to this charge for another year. Freda Rittenger visited friends in Lowell a few days last week. Galess Sundays make the news scarce in this community. Mrs. John Behler entertained her uncle from Middleville last week.

FALLSBURG

Miss Miriam I. Harrison of Saginaw, after a two weeks vacation at Petokey, was a visitor at Mrs. J. Tower's over Sunday and Monday was accompanied to Grand Rapids by J. E. Tower and wife, where she spent until Wednesday at the home of Mrs. A. G. Skelton. Mrs. Etta Holway of Ada was a caller on Mrs. Chris Elert Saturday. John Kink and wife of Lowell were Sunday visitors of their sister, Mrs. Louisa Stanton. Ralph Whinnery, who has worked for A. L. Pant & Son of Keene this summer, with his wife, is moving to their home here this week. W. A. Quackenbush has been spending a time with his family here but will return to work in Grand Rapids soon. Chris Elert and wife spent Monday at Ada with Mrs. Etta Holway.

BIG SHOW COMING

D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World" Coming to Idle Hour Oct. 5-6.

"Hearts of the World" was eight months in the making. The production is not in any sense a war play, but a love story of the great war, with the conflict serving as the grim background. The battle scenes were taken on the battlefields of France by permission and with the assistance of the French and British governments. Mr. Griffith and many of his principal players, including Lillian and Dorothy Gish, and Mrs. Gish, mother of the girls; Robert Harron and George A. Siegmann, were on actual battlefields many times on one occasion for a period covering four hours. Mr. Griffith had to wear a steel helmet to protect him from shrapnel and a gas mask to protect his lungs during the taking of many of the stirring scenes. Many of the most striking scenes in the film owe their effects to the remarkable courage of Mr. Griffith and his interlopers. "Bill" Hitzer, who was with him under fire hundreds of times. Neither Mr. Griffith nor any of his company received injuries other than a slight wound in Mr. Griffith's arm from flying shrapnel. David Wark Griffith was the first American ever to set foot in the front line of a war. This was, of course, before the United States entered the war. There is no papier mache scenery, nor any artificial scenery of any kind used in the production; no "fakes" or artificialities whatsoever throughout the entire film. Mr. Griffith describes "Hearts of the World" as "A story of the great war, with the actual conflict itself serving only as a grim background for the unfolding tale of life in a small French village. The story of "Hearts of the World" was written by M. Maston de Tollnac, and translated from the French by Captain Victor Marier. The story is in two parts. advertisement.

WELL KNOWN CASCADE COUPLE ARE MARRIED

Rev. J. DeGraff, pastor of Joy Memorial church, Saturday afternoon officiated at the marriage of Robert L. Gregory and Frances M. Heschke. The Heschke family is well known throughout Cascade township. The marriage was performed at the pastor's residence, 459 Ethel street, of the French line, immediately by auto for Fremont, Earl Thomas and Miss Gladys Ferrall were in attendance at the ceremony. The couple will make their home in Cascade.—Herald.

NEW SUGAR PRICE WILL NOT AFFECT OLD STOCKS

Customers will not be affected for some time by the advance of 1 cent a pound in the price of sugar, which has been announced by the government. According to Guy W. Rouse, Kent County food administrator, the advance takes effect on new shipments only. The government will have the advantage of the advance on sugar in the hands of the refiners and all sugar now in the hands of the wholesalers and retailers must be sold to the people at the regular rates. Customers buying sugar are entitled to inquire of the grocer whether the sugar was bought at the new advanced price or is part of a new shipment. Any dealer raising the price before such a time as a new supply of sugar has been purchased will be liable to fine. Wholesalers must sell their present supply of sugar to the retailer at the present prices. Mr. Rouse states that the new price will be between 10% and 11 cents a pound.—Press.

Is it permissible for The Ledger editor to tell his friends, especially those who frequently call the office by phone, that his hearing has greatly improved? Has had no call to help to the phone for several months; and is glad on his own account and that of his patrons also.

Notice to Avery Studio Patrons.

Owing to the war our studio in Lowell is closed indefinitely. I would gladly appreciate having our former customers leave their amateur work at Willette & Hart's Shoe store where it will receive prompt attention. I can assure excellent work and good service. I wish all owing us debts contracted before March 29th, 1918, would call at the above store and settle at once. I wish to thank the people of Lowell and vicinity for their generous patronage in the past and I now solicit your amateur work in the future. Mrs. Norton L. Avery.

Ralph Kysar, wife and Miss Madeline Baker of Baltimore, Maryland, are visiting at Chas. Kysar's. The former will return to Maryland after his week's furlough expired. Mrs. Ralph Kysar has accepted the vacant position in the school here as her husband expects to be sent to California to oversee construction work there.

Notice to cream sellers. I am paying 60c per pound for butter fat.

OVERCOME BY FUMES

Jake Rhyn Lost His Life at Alma Pickle Plant.

Jake, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Rhyn, died of asphyxiation at Alma September 17, aged 21. Funeral services were held at the Congregational church Friday at 2 p. m., Rev. A. H. Lash officiating; burial at Oakwood cemetery. Jake was born near Berne, Switzerland, April 1, 1897, and came with his parents to Lowell, Mich., in April 1909. He was married on his 21st birthday, last April, to Ruth Mitchell of Alma, where they have since made their home. He is survived by his parents, sister Marie and his wife. On the day of his death Jake was engaged in painting the interior of the big pickle vats at the Libby plant and came out once complaining of dizziness; but returned to his work, where he was found dead by quitting time, evidently having been overcome by the fumes of vinegar and paint. The death of the son and brother in the morning of his usefulness, is a hard blow to his parents and sister. Card of Thanks. We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors for their loving kindness and beautiful flowers given in the death of our beloved son and brother Jake. Mr. and Mrs. Jake Rhyn. Marie Rhyn.

LAST CALL TO DELINQUENT SUBSCRIBERS.

The U. S. Government Industries Board has issued an order to Weekly Newspapers that no subscriber can be carried on the list who is over three months in arrears. At the end of 60 days a report will have to be made by the publisher showing that the order has been carried out, in order to be able to procure print paper. We respectfully urge subscribers to help us to comply with this order with the same cheerfulness with which they observe other war orders by paying up arrears and getting carried on the list who is in advance. If you wish to save the 25c that will be added to Michigan subscriptions or the 50c to outside subscriptions, get your renewal in by Sept. 21. We have been printing these notices for several weeks and there can be no further extensions. We haven't time to see everybody personally and it ought not to be necessary or to spend many dollars for postage on statements as we have already done. Read the date on your address label. It shows when your paper is paid to. We have been carrying several hundred subscribers for from a few months to as many years and Uncle Sam says we shan't do it any longer. This is the last notice before a lot of papers will have to be stopped and bills entered for collection. Please remember that stopping the paper does not discharge your obligation until the arrears are paid in full. Right here we want to thank the many hundreds of our good subscribers who have helped us to meet this trying situation by paying up past dues and a year or more in advance. These are 'Friends in need who are friends indeed.' Frank M. Johnson, Publisher.

WAS PATRIOTIC DAY

Clover Leaf Club Opens Season of 1918-19.

The opening meeting of the C. L. C. was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Fallas Wednesday afternoon. This was guest day and the attendance was large. President Mrs. C. J. Bradish called the meeting to order and the regular business was transacted. Some of our members have left town and new ones are coming to fill their places. We voted to give every alternate meeting this year to some kind of war work, with a committee to have charge. We will make tea towels at our next meeting Oct. 9, at the City hall. The program was in charge of Mrs. A. G. Peckham, chairman: Piano duet, National Medley, Mesdames C. D. Hodges and H. L. Weeks. Mrs. Peckham then introduced Mrs. Paul Jones of Grand Rapids, who spoke of woman's part in the financial work of helping to win the war. We were told of the wonderful work that the women had already done, saying that we had but just begun. She thrilled us by picturing some of the horrors of the German atrocities and it was evident that she felt the truth of her statements. A very earnest appeal to the women in regard to purchasing Liberty bonds was made. Vocal solo, "The Heart of a Rose," Mrs. R. T. Ford, accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Weeks. An encore, "On the Road to Dreamland" was given. Mrs. Hendrickson, chairman of Kent county war board, was then introduced. She spoke of the imminency of the war and the fourth war loan. Said the women were to raise 50 per cent of the $6,000,000,000 so we must get busy and raise it, as it is up to every one of us to help. This work is going from the school children up and not from the rich man down. Miss Greaser then favored with a violin solo, "Serenade," Mrs. D. G. Mangle accompanist. Mrs. Peckham urged the members of the Club to be ready for the "Loan Day" and to volunteer their talents as a privilege and duty. A rising vote of thanks was extended Mesdames Jones and Hendrickson for their patriotic addresses. The president of the C. L. C., Mrs. Hutchison extended an invitation to the Club, at an invitation to the C. L. C. to be their guests Oct. 1st, at the home of Mrs. W. S. Winegar. Adjourned. Press Rep.

WAR STAMP PRIZES

Interest in The Ledger's missing word contest continues good. Mrs. C. F. Kysar scores first this week and Mrs. Geo. Lee, second. Following were the ads concerned and the words omitted: Miller & Harris—amazed. D. S. Simon—and Durand Creamery—if Vandivick—and help us to meet this trying situation by paying up past dues and a year or more in advance. These are 'Friends in need who are friends indeed.' Frank M. ## The Enemy Is Watching

By NEWTON D. BAKER, Secretary of War

The supreme moments of our struggle with Germany have now come.

We have carried our first armies across three thousand miles of ocean and joined the issue of battle with the military power of a nation that has been for forty years preparing its plans and its weapons for its present attempt to dominate the world. We have had to put forth an immense effort and spend a fabulous sum in order to make, in so short a time, an adequate beginning for our gigantic task.

But it is only our beginning. We must follow it with greater energy and support it with increasing power. Men, munitions, ships and supplies must go to Europe in a larger and larger stream. We must redouble our blows and add constantly to the strength of those blows, if our initial effort is not to be wasted.

This Means That Our Fourth Liberty Loan Must Be Larger Than Its Predecessors, More Enthusiastically Supported and More Quickly Than Ever Subscribed

The enemy is watching anxiously for the first sign that we are faltering.

Our Government Loans should go "over the top" as eagerly as our soldiers do, in order to carry with them the terror of furious attack. Our dollars must rain upon the enemy as overwhelmingly as our hail of bullets or our storm of shells.

We are fighting for the liberty of the world, for the triumph of our ideals of democracy and self-government over the last great advocate of force upholding injustice. We are buying with our Liberty Loans the security and joy of our people for generations to come. No price could be too high to pay for such a victory—no cost too great for such a purchase.

LETTER FROM E. A. A.

London and Paris, as Seen by Yankee Eyes.

Paris, Aug. 28, 1918.

Mr. F. M. Johnson, Lowell, Mich.

Dear friend—

Greetings and best wishes to you and my friends I am sending from this beautiful and historic city of France. My trip across seas was uneventful. I have spent some little time in London. As yet, the average British gentleman knows but little regarding America—our ideals, our customs and our geography.

I met with this inquiry: "Where are you from?" Answer—"Michigan." Response—"Is that a large city?" Reply—"Second to none." However they are learning fast. Among the educated and business classes the usual habitual reserve is giving way to a friendly, inquiring manner.

To be appreciated, Paris must be seen. It cannot be described. Sufficient to say that the entire history of France, her legends, her chivalry, her poetry and her art are interwoven in the construction of the boulevards, parks, public buildings, towers and bridges. It is no wonder that the best blood of France was spilled to save this city from spoliation by Hunnish hands. This city is not only artistic but is modern in many respects. The subway system is very similar to the New York underground transit lines. The hotels have the same accommodations we look for in the hotels of our own cities.

For some people I know, London would seem a veritable paradise. During my whole stay there I only saw two dogs. One was chained up, the other was sneaking down an alley trying to get out of sight. Before leaving London, I must mention that the inhabitants of the greatest city in the world have the highest esteem for our great leader, President Woodrow Wilson. In Hyde Park—the great British open air forum—I overheard a local politician commence his address with these words "It is just as President Wilson says, etc., etc."

As to Paris, London may be the greatest, but Paris is certainly the most beautiful city in the world.

While food is plentiful at about the prevailing prices at home, pastry, such as pies and cakes, are taboos on account of scarceness of sugar and wheat flour only being used for bread. While the men of France have been doing their part in fighting back the invaders, the women of France have uncomplainingly taken up the labor of the fields, the work shops and everywhere where the usual work of a man. Some argument for our lady suffragists at home. I think, when this war is ended, no one will deny the justice of the woman suffrage cause. Here's a little incident showing the spirit of a French wife and mother.

Her husband, wounded at the front, was coming home on a hospital train. Carrying her infant boy, she was at the gate (depot) to meet him. The train rolled in. With blankets and stretchers, the Red Cross workers tenderly carried the sufferers into the waiting rooms, there to be classified and hurried to the various hospitals. The woman with the baby was unable to locate her loved one. One of her husband's comrades, who knew her, finally mustered up courage and gave her a sad message—her husband had died enroute and had been taken from the train. She straightened up, held her baby aloft and cried out "Vive la France!"

I stood in a subway car this morning. A French soldier came in, evidently on his way to the front. There were no vacant seats. Immediately a young woman arose and gave her seat to the soldier who accepted it in a matter of fact way. At the next stop a woman with a baby entered. The soldier at once gave up his seat to the mother. The incident speaks for itself.

The one thing which our people back home may be proudest of, is the spirit and grit of our American soldier in France.

The boys are well behaved, orderly and making and will continue to make, a fine record for themselves. Some day when publicity is permissible America will be mightily proud of the boys who fought behind the Stars and Stripes in France—and Germany. Guess this is enough for a while. Regards to all. I am in the motor service. Expect to leave Paris soon.

Yours sincerely,
Eustace A. Anderson.

Letter from Ernest N. Shields to His Mother, Mrs. N. E. Shields, Dartford Kent, Eng., Aug. 18, 1918.

Dear Mother: Just a few lines to let you know that I've changed my address. Was transferred from Lincoln and arrived last evening. This is a beautiful place in the south of England. I am in an American hospital again and thank the Lord, quite a change for the better. We get more to eat here, also cigarettes are issued. I don't know where I'm going from here but will let you know when I find out.

Ernest N. Shields.

The Knit-tex Coat

FOR the man who drives his own car the Knit-tex coat is a REVELATION.

It GIVES with every movement of the arms or body, but falls back instantly into shape. When you bend forward to turn a switch on the dash board—or raise the wind shield—when you throw her into second—or make a sudden sharp turn—there's no binding, no pulling, NO DISCOMFORT.

The Knit-tex coat is as light as a feather and as warm as toast. It seldom needs pressing and will OUTWEAR the average overcoat 3 to 1.
