THE CABINET

A sweet temper is to the household what salt is to the body.

THE DAY OF THE BAG

New York. It is the hour to talk colors and fabrics. We have been given a comprehensive outline of what to expect in the new fashion, and we have made our minds to accept or reject, as we choose, observers' prominent fashion authority.

Wearing Colors Keeps Up Morale

Philosophy, psychology, history of wars and peace at war enter into the color of the clothes we wear. It is the psychological quality in human nature that is basic in the argument about accepting colors.

WAYS WITH LEFTOVER FISH

HERE are so many ways to use up those fish bones and heads which are so plentiful in the kitchen.

THIS IS PICKLING TIME

IT does not want to make pickles, but it will make a fine relish. Take a quart of vinegar, one quart of water, one quart of sugar, and one quart of salt.

Have a Ribbon "Tam"

HANDS of gray grosgrain ribbon will put together with heavy gray silk or black silk.

LET US CAN WHAT WE CAN

SEASONABLE GOOD THINGS. This year there is essential to the winter wardrobe.

Something New on Fashion's Horizon

BEAVER trims this smart coat of velveteen and fur, and there is a bag of beaver to match.

SOMBER COLORS MARK HATS

EDITED FROM PARIS LEAVES NO DOUBT that dark shades will prevail in Autumn Millinery.

Ability of the Aged.

It has often been said that a man cannot learn a new trade after he is forty, but this statement has frequent been disproved. Peter S. Du Pua was eighty when he wrote his valuable treatise on the Cochiti Chinese language, and had only then recently taken up the study; and the late John Bigelow was still an author turning out a book when he passed his ninety-fifth birthday. — Philadelphia Public Ledger.
