Over The Plate

Remember the good old base ball days when a ball over the plate meant a hit and a hit meant a score and a score meant a game? Well, those good old days are coming again with the war over and in the good time coming. In the mean time

THE COUGH

IT isn't necessary to name the kinds—from the hoarse, racking, scraping convulsions of a whooping, tearing cold to the nervous little "ahem" of some timid person in church with a tickling throat. They are all coughs and the worst ones are but samples of what the least may become if not stopped in the bud.

Our White Pine and Tar comes into consideration here. First quality—it is the quality, not the price, that cures the cough. This syrup is our special pet. Its quality is the quality of pure drugs and skilled labor.

SCHOOL LUNCHES

Now Being Served by Cooking Class at Lowell High.

A very successful lunch service is being conducted at the Lowell High school by Miss Edith Fair, Domestic Science teacher, and her cooking class pupils, with some assistance by other students. Now in its fourth week the enterprise is already an established feature of our school work, and one that is not adding to the taxpayer's burden, for it has proven self-supporting, costing the individual pupil but a trifle.

It is aimed to give the student a wholesome lunch with a hot drink and a varied menu is planned, costing the pupil about 10c per luncheon. The self-service cafe plan is followed and the pupils are judged by the following examples: Cocoa 1c, peanut butter sandwich 2c, baked beans 5c, creamed potatoes 4c, soup and crackers 5c, spaghetti and tomato sauce 4c, cookies 1c.

GREENE CIRCLE MEETS

The Greene Circle met at the home of Mrs. C. Lawrence Thursday night, Feb. 6, fifty ladies being present. At roll call a large sum of money was turned in. Seven new members were gladly admitted and ran the gauntlet. Mrs. Haynor of St. Johns came as a guest. For the evening's entertainment, the Family album was shown which contained many interesting and prominent portraits. A vivid description was given of each. This burlesque of ludicrous representations created much laughter. The album closed with a picture of dear old mother. Though his hair was as white as the snow drift, his strong personality and smiling countenance were none the less visible. After refreshments were served the evening closed and the departure of many faces bespoke the jubilant time enjoyed.

VILLAGE CAUCUS

Friday Evening, February 14. Important That You Turn Out.

The Citizens caucus for nomination of village officers will be held at the Council Rooms in the City hall building at 7:30, p. m., Friday. As under our one ticket program, the nomination is equivalent to an election, it is important that the voters turn out and elect the right men to take charge of the affairs of the municipality, which have grown to large magnitude and responsibility with care of a water system added to that of an electric light and power plant and all the other usual activities of town of this size.

The election is of further importance because we stand to lose the service of several old standbys, notably President W. S. Winegar, who has served the village freely and faithfully as trustee and president for seventeen years, thru many trying seasons, and who declares his determination to take a rest from public labors. Much as we would like to have him continue, we haven't the heart to insist upon it.

Then, there is Trustee Munge, who has been an old reliable on the finance end of the village business for a number of years, says he has had enough and is bound to quit. Be a good idea to shift him to the presidency for a term. Perhaps he would and may be he wouldn't. Worth trying, anyway.

The terms of Trustees Arehart and Lee also expire; and both have given good service. The former has been mentioned in connection with the presidency; and Dr. Lee is in Florida, and we do not know what his attitude is toward further service as trustee.

E. A. Anderson, Harold Weekes, Earl Thomas, M. N. Henry and J. A. Matern are all experienced in village affairs and would make good presidents. Mr. Anderson has already served acceptably in that capacity, but might be prevailed upon to serve again. The others are free to serve if they will.

Among others mentioned as official timber are M. C. Greene, H. J. Coons, Dr. F. E. White, J. J. Lalley, Charles Doyle, Ward Willette, R. T. Ford, F. B. McKay, R. D. Stocking and Theodore Mueller are all capable men. We hear it said that the laboring element would like to be represented and that the last named would suit.

For clerk, we have our trusty H. L. Shuter. No question here.

For treasurer, friends of U. B. Williams have him slated for the position; and we hear of no opposition. For assessor—omitted from the official call, which was not printed at The Ledger office—we still have our old friend and steady, Frank N. White, who like Barkis "is willin'."

Lastly, comes the appointment of the village committee. So, turn out; and in case of doubt, demand nominations by ballot, so that everybody will have a fair chance. Ballot all the way through, anyway. It takes longer; but it's better and safer. There's much at stake during the next several years. Let us take no needless chances.

To Build Saranac-Lowell Road in Spring.

State Highway Commissioner Rogers is planning on pushing work on the Saranac-Lowell state road early in the spring. As soon as the stretch from the Portland-Orange town line is built so as to connect with the state road already running into Ionia from Orange the Saranac-Lowell piece will be the only ordinary dirt road between Portland and Grand Rapids. With this completed the Grand Rapids trip is likely to be a popular drive for Portland motorists.—Portland Herald.

OLD VETERAN DEAD.

JOHN HILLIKER

John Hilliker, a veteran of the Civil war, died Wednesday night at the Holcomb sanitarium, aged 89 years. Uncle John, as he was familiarly known, had been in ill health for several years; and until recently had been at the Soldiers Home for some time; but the Lowell attachments were strong and he came back to be with his old friends here, spending the last several months of his life with Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Shear and going to the sanitarium but a few days before his death. Funeral services will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morse Friday morning at 9 o'clock; burial at Oakwood cemetery.

Obituary—Jesse Frost

Jesse Frost died at his home in Long Beach, Florida, Sunday, Feb. 2, 1919, following an illness of two years. He was born in Wayne county, New York, July 7, 1836. He was married to Mrs. Emily Weeks in the fall of 1858. To this union were born two sons, Jay D. of Moseley and George B. of Long Beach, Fla. They came to Michigan in the fall of 1879 and settled on the farm now owned by his grandson, Gordon Frost, at Moseley.

He was one of four brothers, who enlisted in Company 37, Second Battalion of Veteran Relief Corps, on Aug. 30, 1862, and was honorably discharged Oct. 21, 1864.

He was ever a kind and loving husband and father, and a patient sufferer to the end. He leaves to mourn his demise, two sons, one son-in-law, several daughters, several grandchildren and great grandchildren and one brother Henry of Webster, N. Y., besides hosts of friends.

The body was brought from the south arriving in Lowell Friday. Funeral services were held at the Alton church Saturday p. m., Rev. A. H. Lash officiating; interment at Alton.

Obituary—David Wilson.

David A. son of Anderson and Clarissa Wilson, was born in Carlisle, Torrington Co., Ohio, Feb. 5, 1845. At five years of age his parents moved to Verden, Mich., and settled on the farm where they spent the remainder of the lives. February 10, 1880, David was married to Frances K. Graham of South Lowell with whom he made his home in the village of Lowell until suddenly called from earth Friday, Feb. 7, two days after closing his 72nd year.

No children came to the union, but a nephew of Mrs. Wilson was taken into the home when an infant, and brought up as their own. Besides the widow and this adopted son, William M. Graham, now of Detroit, Mr. Wilson is survived by two nieces and one nephew, Mrs. R. K. Boomer of Coral, Mrs. Marvin Neise and Robert Blanding, both of Detroit.

Funeral services were held at the home on Saturday, Rev. A. H. Lash officiating; burial at South Lowell. And thus another pioneer has passed to the Great Beyond.—Com.

Obituary—Mrs. Emma Ford.

Emma Ford was born March 18, 1850, at Windham, Canada. At the age of 23, she was united in marriage to Richard L. Dawson. This union was blessed with two children, Aldis Merrill, born Jan. 15, 1882, and Carrie Belle, Sept. 13, 1885. June 11, 1897, her husband left his labor here and passed on to his permanent home.

In 1899, she was united in marriage to Geo. Ford. August 17, 1903, her beloved son Ollie passed away to a realm free from the sorrows and cares of this life.

Dec. 10, 1910, her second partner in life's joys and sorrows passed on to his final reward. Feb. 3, 1919, she, too, left us to go to her reward for a life of faithfulness and service.

The deceased has been a member of the Lowell Methodist church for more than 20 years. Interment was made February 6 in Oakwood cemetery, Rev. W. M. P. Jerrill officiating.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Earl Jones, she leaves one sister, three brothers and a host of friends to mourn their loss.—Com.

Private Ladd F. Wardell, who enlisted in the service the 12th of May, 1917, and was in Co. K, 126 Inf., arrived at his home here from France Friday, Jan. 31, having received an honorable discharge. At the battle on the Vesle River Chateau Thierry sector Aug. 6, he received a shrapnel wound in the right leg, also in the same battle, a freakish bit of shrapnel tore his gas mask from his face without so much as scratching his face but leaving him open to the gas which so affected his lungs and voice that he cannot run a block without being winded, and for a time could not speak aloud. Obituary—Robert Bush, Jr.

Robert Bush, Jr., son of Robert and Anna Bush, was born in Cascade township Oct. 17, 1890. He departed this life in Hackley hospital, Muskegon, Feb. 7, 1919, aged 28 years. His father, mother and two sisters, Grace and Hattie, and two brothers, Harry and John, have preceded him.

Robert was a boy with a musical soul and for the last few years he has put all his spare money and much of his time into his musical education. He studied for two seasons in Chicago, part of the time at the Moody Institute and partly with expert civic teachers, also studying with piano teachers as well.

The last three or four years he has dedicated all his talents to the service of God, and has spent much of the time in evangelistic work. One season he travelled with the Rev. John Irskine, evangelist, and two seasons with Dr. F. J. Betts and Mrs. Betts also doing some work in the Moody Mission in Chicago, besides laboring with these brethren, he has often assisted Rev. F. A. Hatch and worked much with Rev. S. P. Shaw, whom he usually consulted with on his religious activities. He had just finished three weeks meetings assisting Bros. Shaw and Hatch at Pentwater.

He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Richards and Mr. and Mrs. Shaw. Mrs. Richards was more than a sister, since the death of the parents, she has been a mother and has counseled and advised and cared for the family in their need; and in the Shaw home Robert always spoke to Mrs. Shaw as mother. Robert was soon to be married to Miss Helena Bates, teacher at the county Normal of Charlevoix county, and during his fatal illness, he did all a fiancé could do to help him get well, constantly by his side the last week of his illness.

He was a member of the Snow M. E. church, having recently received into this class by Rev. Shaw, when he was his pastor.

Besides his fiancée, Miss Helena Bates, he leaves three sisters: Mrs. Anna Richards of Saranac, Mrs. Devries of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Catherine Walrath of El Centro, California, and three brothers: William of Sand Lake, Henry of Grand Rapids and Jack of Fruitport, with many other relatives and friends to mourn their loss.—Com.
