LOWELL COMMUNITY FAIR

Thursday and Friday, October 23-24, Two Big Days.

A community fair will be held in Lowell Thursday and Friday, October 23 and 24 and the business people of Lowell will be behind the enterprise as boosters.

This was decided at a meeting of the business men of Lowell in the Council rooms Monday evening, over which President Lalley of the Board of Trade presided with Supt. of Schools Appleton acting as secretary.

The action followed the report of a committee on street fair project at the meeting of September 8, Messrs. Appleton, E. S. White, Gero Hinebaugh, C. H. Runciman and W. V. Burras, and a general discussion of the matter.

The following committees were appointed: Exhibit and Soliciting—G. A. Hinebaugh, R. T. Ford, C. H. Runciman, W. V. Burras.

Entertainment—J. J. Lalley, J. C. Smith, M. N. Henry. Concessions—H. L. Shuter, O. J. Yeiter.

Advertising—Harry Day, David Mange, E. A. Anderson, J. Borgerson, Parade—W. C. Doyle, Ralph Chase, J. M. Hutchinson, C. W. Appleton.

G. A. Hinebaugh was appointed to secure a judge of exhibits from the Michigan Agricultural College. Watch this paper for lists of exhibits and prizes and complete announcements of entertainments and arrangements for the Lowell Community fair of Thursday and Friday, Oct. 23-24, 1919; and make all your other dates accordingly, for all roads will surely lead to Lowell on those dates.

THE AMERICAN LEGION.

Lowell Post Will Organize at City Hall Friday Evening.

A meeting of all ex-service Army, Navy and Marine men will be held in the Council rooms, Lowell City hall Friday, Sept. 26, 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of reorganizing a local post of the American Legion.

The American Legion means to the "Vets" of the World War what the G. A. R. does to the Civil War veterans. Every eligible man is earnestly requested to be present at which time officers will be elected and a general organization effected. Mr. Porter, State Organizer, has left application blanks and forms with Lieut. W. J. Kropf at Con's store. Any one desiring to enroll now may do so by obtaining blanks and filling in necessary information.

JOINT GRANGES MEETING.

Pomona and Vergennes Members to Hear Master Ketcham Sept. 26.

Kent county Pomona grange will meet with Vergennes grange Friday, Sept. 26, and the principal speaker will be John C. Ketcham, master of the state grange.

The program will include community singing led by Hattie Russell, a recitation by Mrs. Collier of Sparta grange; address, "Building Up Soil Fertility," with discussion by D. A. Long, J. W. Spangenberg, Sparta grange. Carleise grange; music by Grattan grange; discussion, "Child Welfare," solo by Mrs. Hattie Baneroff, South Lowell; piano solo by Mrs. J. M. Hutchinson; recitation by Freda Wittenbach, duet by Lois and Mary Allen James; reading by Mrs. M. B. McPherson; piano solo by Janet Jenkins; recitation by Marion Both; duet by Adelle Bennett and Evelyn Kraft; and recitation by Bertha Althaus.

Literary Clubs Opening Days

The Lowell Literary club will hold its first meeting of the club season with Mrs. J. C. Smith, Wednesday evening, October 1. Directors' meeting. All members urged to attend.

The opening day of the Glover Leaf club will be held Sept. 30 at the home of Mrs. Harry Day. An excellent program to be given by a number of Grand Rapids artists has been prepared by the musical committee and a full attendance is desired.

N. L. AVERY SELLS STUDIO.

Norton L. Avery, Lowell's popular photographic artist, but recently returned from U. S. service overseas, has sold his business to J. P. Hill, of McDonough, New York, who comes highly recommended and has had several years of studio experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery will spend the winter in Chicago, where the studio will be connected with a large studio, and next spring he expects to resume business for himself somewhere in Michigan. As Mr. Avery expresses it, he is "Strong for Michigan."

Here's best wishes for him and his.

REV. LASH LECTURES ON MOOSE HEART.

At the City hall Monday evening Rev. A. H. Lash delivered an excellent address on the Mooseheart home for the orphans and aged of its membership, following his trip of investigation to Mooseheart, Ill., as a guest of Three Island Lodge, Local Order of Moose. Rev. Lash will also accompany a delegation of Lowell Moose Thursday evening to Grand Rapids, where he will repeat the address before the Moose of that city.

Mr. Lash is not remunerated for these services, which are rendered in appreciation of his trip and for the benefit it may be to the order and society in general.

HAYES-IONIA CO. WOULD COME HERE

Manager So Assures Lowell Board Of Trade Committee.

Following the trip of Messrs. Look, Henry, Smith and Lalley, Board of Trade committee on the Hayes-Ionia company matter, to the Ionia headquarters of the concern, Mr. Look and Mr. Lalley went Thursday to Grand Rapids, where they met Manager H. P. Webber at the factory in that city.

They were well received and shown through the factory, where were employed that day 940 people. Mr. Webber said that the company would like to locate a branch in Lowell, if satisfactory arrangements could be made.

Lowell is midway between the Ionia and Grand Rapids plants and all their metal parts are trucked through Lowell. They must have another plant somewhere and they feel that Lowell is the place for it, and will be glad to entertain any proposition Lowell may make.

Further than this the committee is not prepared to report at this time.

OBITUARY—MRS. S. A. WARE.

Mary J. Kysar was born in Saginaw, Mich., Sept. 1, 1852. With her parents she moved to Berlin township, Ionia county, where she resided until her marriage with Daniel Misner, of Lowell, Nov. 28, 1869. To this union was born one son, Edward D. Misner, lately of California. After the death of her husband in 1879 she made her home with her parents until her marriage with Stephen A. Ware, of Boston township, Ionia county, which occurred Sept. 28, 1888. To this union was born one daughter, Jessie. Audie Ware, who preceded her mother to the better land in her 17th year, Oct. 7, 1908 and for whom she has always mourned, her great consolation in her last illness was that she would soon be with Jessie. She peacefully fell asleep to awake in her heavenly home, Sept. 20, 1919, aged 67 years and 19 days. She leaves to mourn: Her devoted husband, two stepsons, for whom she cared with a mother's love, her son Edward and wife, who has proven a tender and loving daughter, being her constant and devoted attendant in her last illness, one grandchild, Gerald Misner, and one grand-daughter, Verriette, who has been a joy to her parents. She is survived by two brothers, Charles Kysar, of Lowell, and Albert Kysar, of Buffalo, N. Y., who mourns a loving and beloved sister, several nephews and nieces who will miss the kind words of Aunt Maud, as she was familiarly called, also a large circle of life long friends and relatives who pay tribute to her kind and loving disposition, always thoughtful for the comfort and welfare of others. Their consolation: what is their loss is her gain.

OBITUARY—GEORGE HART.

George Hart was born in Herkimer county, New York, February 3, 1839, and departed this life September 14, 1919 at the age of eighty years, eight months and eleven days. He came to this state with his parents when a small boy settling on the farm that has ever since been his home. He served in the Union army from August 1862-65. In 1866 he was united in marriage to Mary Ann Carvel, who preceded him in death on Nov. 3, 1882. To this union were born four children, three of whom survive, Mrs. Mary Hull of Oakland and Clarence and Elmer Hart, of Keene. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Denton, of Eagle river, Wisconsin.

OBITUARY—MRS. MARGARET JOHNSON DEAD.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson died this Thursday morning at the Kent County home, Funeral services at the home of Ray Hand at 2 p. m., Friday. Burial at Oakwood cemetery.

MOTOR GARMENT CO. PROSPERING

Places Open for One Hundred More Women and Girls

Roy Beardslee of Greenville, manager of the Michigan Motor Garment company, was in town Monday looking after the interests of the company's Lowell factory.

He stated that business is booming and that the company is prepared to double the capacity of the Lowell plant and employ a hundred more hands as fast as they can be secured and trained.

The women and girls now employed are making excellent wages and will do still better as they become more expert at the work.

Women and girls desiring steady, clean and profitable employment, will do well to investigate the Motor Garment Company's proposition. See advertisement in this issue.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Newsy Items From Lowell's Greatest Industry—Brain Factory.

The sixth grade enrollment has increased to twenty-eight. Junior High is also filling up fast.

The fifth grade has elected its officers. Linden Appleton has been chosen for president, Richard Morgan secretary and Merle Dawson treasurer. The dues are five cents a month. The money to be used for books and pictures for the fifth grade room.

The fifth grade has added a new name, Hildegard Link, to its roll.

The Freshman class had a Latin test last Wednesday. The results were pleasant for some but very sad for others.

The Freshman class held its first meeting and organized for the year. Warner Oberly was made president, Duane Keith, vice president, Bernice Bittenger treasurer and Mildred Peckham secretary. Purple and white were chosen for the class colors. Watch for the boys' sweaters.

Seventh and eighth grades, where are your officers? Wake up! The fifth grade has beaten you.

Sewing Class I has started their quest for the Community fair. A new furnace has been installed in the East Ward school. The autumn chill makes this pleasant news.

The Senior class in Agriculture are starting the study of soil.

Western Michigan fair is over and we are glad to see the Lowell Community fair, October 23-24.

Grain judging will now be the order of the day for the class in Farm Crops.

The animal husbandry boys will begin the study of balanced ration for the farm animals this week.

Seventh and eighth grade agriculture classes were out with their hoes this week getting the school garden ready for its winter cover crop.

The flower beds planted along the front of the building by the grades last spring have been much appreciated by everyone this fall.

Excuse one waiter for the Lowell Community Free Fair October 23-24.

The Modern History class is studying the Feudalism, especially its connection with German History and how it formed the foundation for the present military system. Later, feudalism in other European countries will be studied.

The Sophomore girls are to meet Wednesday evening to organize a club for the girls of their class. The object work carried on is to be both literary and social. The names of the officers will be announced later.

Because of the short hours for practice and the inexperience of the players it has been hard to develop a football team but we expect to put up a good fight in our first game with Sparta at Lowell October 3, 1919.

The American History class is beginning the study of the Inter-colonial war.

One night last week the Junior girls hiked out to Mrs. Johnson's and enjoyed a Frankfurter roast.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson Dead. Mrs. Margaret Johnson died this Thursday morning at the Kent County home. Funeral services at the home of Ray Hand at 2 p. m., Friday. Burial at Oakwood cemetery.

BANK ROBBERY AND SHOOTING

Daylight Hold-up and Murder at Grandville Avenue Bank. Bandits Caught.

Three Detroit and Toledo bandits held up the Grandville avenue branch of the Grand Rapids Savings bank Friday morning, took nearly $5,500 and murdered Gerritt Streelman, a huckster and bank customer.

The robbery was daring and cold blooded.

"Give me five cents, please," said a stranger to Peter Leetsma, the branch bank's manager, shortly after he had opened the bank Friday morning.

Leetsma stooped to get the bills and when he looked up, it was to find an automatic pistol leveled at his head. He yelled.

The bandit poked his pistol closer and growled.

"One more yell like that will be your last."

Two more men entered the bank. Leetsma complied with directions to lie prone on the floor while the robbers hurriedly gathered up the currency in the bank.

As they approached the door to escape, Streelman and C. W. Parker, the latter a farmer, residing near Hudsonville, entered. Streelman looked for the door, but as he turned, he was shot and fell to the sidewalk just outside the bank. Parker remained in the building, but was twice fired upon. He was not injured.

Bandits Hold Off Pursuers. Several minutes before the robbery, a large auto with wire wheels, had driven up in front of the bank. The top of the car was up and all the curtains in position. It was raining.

When the men came out of the bank, one of them got into the rear seat and one went to the wheel. Then the man who was carrying the sack of stolen money leaped into the car.

P. J. Haan, proprietor of a nearby drug store, heard the shots, saw the bandits jump into the car. He drew his knife and ran out into the street behind the machine. One of the robbers saw him and held him at bay with his revolver.

The automobile was driven north toward the downtown business district. No one followed and it soon had made for Detroit or Toledo.

Ten minutes before the robbery, Conrad Pell, a clerk, left for the downtown headquarters with the branch bank's surplus funds.

'Fool Your Neighbors'

Put your Edison on your porch some evening and give the neighbors a real concert.

No other make of machine ever fools any one for you know what it is when you hear it, but there are many instances where the New Edison has really been mistaken for the real thing, they thought they heard someone sing, or perhaps an orchestra playing.

This is not mere advertising talk, it is simply the undisputed facts, and only requires demonstrations to prove it.

If you want real music in the home "buy an Edison"

THE LEADER'S FARM PATENT HARROW

Carefully Compiled Information That Will Be Of Help To The Progressive Farmer

Mexican Bandits Raise New Question of Ethics
WASHINGTON—President Wilson's cabinet split wide open on the following question: Was Captain Matlack justified in beating the Mexican bandits out of $50,000 of the ransom for the two army aviators? With the professors of ethics who supervised military operations during the war demoralized, there has been no authority to turn to for Wilson, who instructed the senate committee on the ethics of the capture of the two aviators, who were held captive for a long time, to call upon to decide this moral issue for the cabinet.

Boiling the mollusks to be used in soups or omelets makes them taste richer and eat smoother.
Add a table-spoonful of vinegar to a quart of water and add to a fish while boiling. It will keep the fish white and makes it more flaky.

THE CHARM OF MANY FLOCKS IS EMPLOYED BY THE SHARP-EYED AND CAREFUL COMPANY.
The charm of many flocks is employed by the sharp-eyed and careful company. Drosses of simple down are stamped exclusively by a novel color of printing in a zig-zag line. This gives a clever way of opening the down and allows the wind to carry it to show their ruffled faces to the world.

Yankee Saleswomen to Sell Goods to Harem Women
THE American women's chamber of commerce, the first organization of its kind having national and international scope is trying to do these things: To send a complete catalogue of American school teachers by mail surveys; extend through the Southwest and middle West a truck delivery of fresh vegetables, milk and other farm products, with truck drivers in charge of the trucks; popularize American hand and toilet articles among the Sultan's daughters and popularize American shoes among the women of China.

As a Good Loyal Citizen of Lowell

Kuppenheimer and Michaels-Stern Value First Fall Suits and Overcoats $25 to $50 Stetson Hats Ide Collars Carters Union Suits Ireland Gloves

I believe it my duty to come out point blank with the unadulterated truth about men's and young men's clothing conditions this Fall.

Sheep's wool WAS NEVER HIGHER, talented labor NEVER RECEIVED A FATTER PAY ENVELOPE. Linings, trimmings, hair-cloth, padding and everything else that goes into the manufacture of a man's suit or coat either commands a high price or carries a low standard of quality.

Today, the man about to buy new clothes has only two choices: Either he must pay a fair price for a good article at a reliable store or suffer the after effects of an unsound bargain that is as unsafe an investment as dabbling in a salted gold mine.

SPEAKING STRICTLY FOR OURSELVES AND IN GUIDANCE OF CUSTOMERS, we want to go on record by saying that this institution will continue to be the home of QUALITY and VALUE and that now or in the future there is or will be NO DANGER of our deserting those high standards of woollens and workmanship that the people of Lowell look to me to uphold.

Bank Robbery and Shooting (Continued from first page.) Three of the four bandits who looted a branch of the Grand Rapids Savings bank Friday morning, killing a customer who attempted to interfere, were in the hands of the Detroit police at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. All three are said to have confessed, following identification by witnesses. The fourth man is believed to have escaped from the state. The police are in possession of his name and description. The men were arrested singly, largely on information furnished by James Bright, a porter in a Grand Rapids restaurant, who had overheard the plans of the robbery, it is said. The porter, on reading of the hold-up in the Friday newspapers, had given the police what information he had. The Detroit authorities were notified that Toif, or Tom Leon, 28 years old, was scheduled to arrive in Detroit Friday night with part of the loot. Known to the Police. Leon is well known to the police, having formerly operated a shady barbershop on the east side. Detroit. He was arrested near the shop early Friday evening, by detectives under Sergeant Al Kramer. More than $800 was found on his person. At first Leon denied all knowledge of the hold-up. During several hours of cross-examination, he refused to divulge anything. At 1:30 o'clock Saturday morning, John Meritige, 26 years old, of 181 Clifford street, entered the detective bureau and told the police that he was the driver of the large blue touring car which the bandits had used during the hold-up and escape. Confronted with Meritige, Leon is said to have broken down and confessed. The third man, Aly Hamden, 26 years old, was arrested on Elizabeth street Saturday afternoon. More than $1,700 in cash and several hundred dollars in Liberty bonds were found in his room at 184 Lafayette boulevard. Making Third Arrest. Detectives Sturgis and O'Leary, of Grand Rapids, aided Detroit department in making the third arrest. With the Grand Rapids officers was Bright, the porter, who identified all three men. Another man, said to have been inside the bank at the time of the robbery, confirmed the identification, it was said.

Mertige, the driver of the bandit machine, who gave himself up to the police, is a Detroit taxi-driver. He is not believed to have been one of the original planners of the robbery, but was hired especially, it is said, to drive the automobile. Beaver's new autos are for hire. Each of the trio is charged with the murder of Gerritt Streelman, who was shot as he entered the bank. A possible motive for the Streelman murder is the fact that the victim was formerly a regular customer in Leon's barbershop, and probably recognized him at the hold-up, according to the police. The murder of Streelman is laid to the fourth man of the party by each of the bandits now in custody, it is said. Louis Galy, proprietor of a Grand Rapids restaurant, was arrested Saturday by the police of that city on suspicion of connection with the bank hold-up. Patrick McGrabin, a 17-year-old employe of the restaurant, told the police that he and a waitress had been ordered to procure railroad tickets for Leon and three other men Thursday afternoon, and that he had overheard the quartet planning the robbery in a room above the restaurant.
