Mr. Bennett was a resident of Syracuse, New York, before coming to Michigan to claim his bride. They were married on the Yerkes homestead, where they now reside, by the Rev. J. M. Fuller.

There were none of the guests present who attended their wedding, they having all past to the Great Beyond.

In the great war they were disappointed. He spoke briefly of his plan to aid the boys and girls of the mountain districts in an educational way, which is the object of his tour.

He was greeted with friendly enthusiasm, his remarks applauded; and many improved the opportunity of shaking hands with our distinguished guest.
