MEETINGS CONTINUE

Synopsis of Monday Evening's Sermon at Baptist Church.

The unique song features and soul stirring sermons are creating great interest. The special southern selections as sung by Messrs. Morse and Gretzinger are attracting unusual attention. Sunday evening every available place was used in seating the largest crowd gathered for an evening service for years. Solos, duets, and a quartet were the special features. Evangelist Cook was just beginning the sermon when word was brought to him that his seven year old daughter was suddenly taken ill, and he had to leave before finishing. Monday night the church was well filled and Evangelist Cook's sermon, "Some things that will happen when Jesus comes" was well received. Synopsis of sermon:

"In the first place I want you to notice that all the prophecies concerning Christ's coming were actually fulfilled and that they were fulfilled to the very letter. His supernatural birth, his healing powers, trial, sentence, stripes, wounds, crucifixion and last but not the least, his resurrection; every one of these things were prophesied hundreds of years before he lived. Now, then, if the words of others were fulfilled concerning him, don't you think that his own words will be? And again in Acts, the first chapter, we read that the angels told the disciples that this same Jesus would in like manner come again. In like manner, he will not in some other manner, as some would have us believe. Some say that he comes at death, and others, that he comes at conversion, but I believe he is coming some day in the very same manner that he went away. In the 3rd chapter of II Timothy, we read: "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come, for men shall be lovers of their selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to their parents, unthankful, unholly, without natural affection, truce breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, and despisers of them that are good; traitors, heady, high minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God." This is a description of the times just before His coming. I have asked several teachers and superintendents, and they all say the same thing regarding the disrespectfulness of the youth these days, and you know yourselves how disobedient to their parents children are today. Men shall be lovers of pleasure, more than lovers of God. These days are the lovers of sweethearts of pleasure more than lovers of God. Not only in this country, but all over the world. Last year I heard Mrs. Booth Demarest, and speaking of England, she told us that a preacher is not popular there unless he allows the men and even the women to smoke, while he discourses on some popular theme. She told us that America, with all its strikes, walk outs, and riots, was heaven, compared to the condition of the British Isles. But God's word tells us that the wicked shall wax worse and worse. As in the days of Noah, so shall the coming of the Son of Man be. And tell me, will you, when I ever before, was there a time when there was so many scoffers. They scoffed at Noah, but they were left. And if you scoff at the coming of Christ you also, will be left. It is true that one can not open his mouth on this subject, without some one saying that he is a fanatic. Over in James, the fifth chapter: "Go now ye rich men, weep and howl, for your miseries are upon you. Ye have heaped treasures together for the last days." Here the apostle is speaking of the signs of the times and of Labor and Capital. Is not this the day of great riches? Look at old John D. Rockefeller. If Adam had lived all these days since he was created and had received an income of $10,000 yearly, he would not have as much today as John D. In Matt. 25, the 40th verse we read: "There shall two women be in the field, the one shall be taken and the other left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill, the one shall be taken and the other left." I Thes., 4:17-18: "For the Lord, Himself, shall descend from heaven with a shout with a voice of the archangel and the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ shall arise first, then we, which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet them, in the air so shall we ever be with the Lord." There will be definite separation at the time of the Rapture. Two men shall be in a factory, the one a Christian, and the other unsaved. The one shall be taken and the other left. Two men shall be on a street car, perhaps a Godly motor-man and an ungodly conductor, the one shall be taken and the other left. Two shall be in bed, perhaps a Godly wife, and a Godless husband, some morning the husband will waken to find his wife gone. Two shall be in an office, perhaps a Christian employe and an unsaved employe, the one shall be taken and the other left. I want to tell you another thing, one minute after Christ comes, he will be a childless world. I believe in child salvation through the atonement and believe that he will take the children when he comes for his bride. One time after preaching this sermon a person came up and asked me if I believed that all children who died before the age of accountability went to heaven, what I did with those scriptures regarding election, I told that person that if some of my children died that if I could not believe that they went to heaven, I could not serve a God that would send them to hell. This will not be a childless world, but the Holy Ghost will be withdrawn, for in II Thes., 2:7 we read: "For the mystery of iniquity doth already work, only he, who now letteth will let it until he be taken out of the way. It would be hell on earth to be left here with the godless and the damned. I take the scriptures literally, I believe death will be removed from the graves of ones whose graves we visit and we live in the hope of meeting them some day. Wrinkles and gray hair and all the frailties of the flesh will disappear. Phil. 3:20: "For our conversation is in Heaven, from whence, also, we look for the Saviour, the Lord, Jesus Christ, who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body. I remember a dream that I had once, concerning the rapture. I dreamed that the heaven opened, and I saw the Lord coming for his bride. I turned to tell my wife the good news, and lo! the earth was disappearing below me. I thought I would watch how my body was changed like to his glorious body, and I looked at my hands,

ALTO BUGLE NOTES.

(Too Late for Alto Page.)

Mrs. Orley Burns spent a few days last week visiting her parents and other friends in the City.

Miss Salsbury and De Bryant made a business trip to Hastings last Friday, accompanied by Mr. Kennan and Arthur Clarke.

The third and fourth degrees were conferred on a class at the Bowne Center Grange last Saturday night. Refreshments were served, ninety-one being present. A few short months ago this Grange was considered dead.

An effort is being made to organize a poultry club around Bowne Center.

Arthur Clarke sold a Holstein herd sire to William Knuffman, of Bowne Center last Monday.

Did you see the grand display on Monday night? It looked like the Northern lights on a frolic. It was grand.

Robert Johnson, of Grand Rapids, is spending a week's vacation with his grandparents near Bowne Center.

Come in to McQueen's and have Frank Schwacha look your car over before going on a long trip. It may save you trouble and expense on the road.

YPSI-REED BEGINS

Operations at Lowell Factory April 5th. 200 Helpers Wanted.

Manager Buck, of the Ypsilanti Reed Furniture company was in town Monday with a party of men who were unloading material at the company's Lowell plant and announced that it intended to begin operations here on Monday, April 5, and that our former townman, Fred Jacobi would be manager of the Lowell factory, news that will certainly please the many old Lowell friends of Mr. and Mrs. Jacobi. Mr. Jacobi says he is glad to get back to the old town; and, although he is leaving a fine home in Ionia, he is already looking for one here; and old Lowell people know that the property he gets will look better after he gets it than it does now. Mrs. Jacobi joined him here on a house hunt Tuesday; and they took an option on the Hick's residence property.

Wednesday, Mr. Jacobi informed us that he had "cinched" his deal for the Hick's property and feels there are possibilities for a handsome home there.

Renovating and painting of the factory are already underway and applications for positions are already being made, assuring the management that there will be no difficulty in securing the amount of help required.

Mr. Jacobi said further that the people of Lowell may be assured that they have secured a permanent industry and one that will mean much to the community in many ways. Also that work will have steady employment and pleasant working conditions.

See advertisement bottom of this page calling for 100 men and 100 women and get your applications in early.

MATRIMONIAL NEWS

Two Lowell People Found Mates in Ionia.

HALSTEAD-MAYNARD.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Maynard and Ford Halstead took place Saturday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage, of Ionia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Branch, and the couple were attended by the brother of the bride, Carl Maynard, of Pontiac, and the groom's sister, Mrs. Lottie Bogart. They went at once to their home, which was in readiness for them. Walter Maynard, Hazel's father, also attended the ceremony. The groom is employed by the Ypsilanti Reed Co., of Ionia.

COLE-HABERSTUMPF.

Miss Luella Haberstumpf, and Earl Cole, were married Wednesday at 3 o'clock p. m., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haberstumpf, in Ionia, in the presence of about twenty relatives and friends. Rev. Beach, pastor of the Baptist church, performed the ceremony, and the couple was attended by the bride's brother, Alfred, and his lady friend. The wedding march was played by Miss Freda Colton, and the house was beautifully decorated in pink and green. Mr. and Mrs. Will Markle attended the wedding, from Lowell. Mr. and Mrs. Cole will make their home in Lowell, where the groom is in business.

GOT THE GLAD HAND

Hearty Reception Given to Rev. and Mrs. Cochran.

The Congregational church and society held a reception for Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Cochran Friday evening, March 19, at the home of Mrs. Hattie Peckham. The house was prettily and tastefully decorated in honor of St. Patrick's day. The program in charge of Mrs. F. White also carried out successfully the St. Patrick's day feature.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Runciman assisted in receiving. After all had given the glad hand of welcome to the new pastor and his wife the brown-eyed people were requested to pass into one room and the blue-eyed people into another. A bright and interesting social program followed the two. The brown-eyed folks under the leadership of Mr. Runciman won by one score over the blue-eyed folks, under the leadership of Supl. Anselton.

Mrs. Hazel Fletcher then sang "Mickey" and for an encore "The Tumble Down Shack." Rev. H. H. Harris, in a fine spirit of comradeship welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Cochran in behalf of the Methodist people. Dr. White, in a few well chosen words, extended the hand of welcome from the church and society. Rev. Cochran responded in his own happy and earnest fashion. Both ministers emphasized the great responsibility now resting upon the church and its people in building and upholding the kingdom of Christ in the community. Mr. Runciman sang "Shannon Rose" and for an encore "Our Yesterdays." Mrs. Arthur Armstrong recited two Irish pieces, "Roy's Kissing School," and as an encore, "Where There's a Will There's a Way."

Mrs. Runciman sang "Mother McCree," and, on being called back, "The Little Irish Girl."

Upon arrival the guests were requested to register. During the month of their birth and at the close of the program, the months were invited to the dining room in sections, where they were served with ice cream and cake. The waiting members enjoying a lively time with games and trying stunts in which Mr. Runciman and Rev. Cochran distinguished themselves.

There were over one hundred present and all departed carrying with them the memory of a pleasant evening, a warm feeling of Christian fellowship and promise of a fruitful work for the coming year.

Lyle Gardner is working in Grand Rapids, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives here. F. H. Misner, of Grand Rapids, drove through from Detroit one day last week and was a supper guest in town. William Singer, of Amherst, Penn., joined his wife here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bergin Saturday night for a week's visit. Mrs. H. L. Weekes and Mrs. B. H. Shephard attended the Mary Free Bed Guild concert at Powers theater Wednesday evening. Willis Merriman, of Alto, and daughter, Miss Ellen, of Grand Rapids, spent Sunday with the former's sister, Miss Ida Merriman. On account of inability to heat the Strand theatre because of water in the basement all shows will be held at the Idle Hour until further notice. To all those holding U. S. coupon bonds of the first, second, third and fourth issues, who have not placed them in the safe keeping bond department of the City State bank, are now invited to do so, as the bonds of the above issues now held, are only temporary ones and must be exchanged for permanent bonds with all subsequent coupons attached. Such bonds placed with this bank are covered by insurance, besides the free service of collecting the interest and looking after all the necessary details of getting the temporary bonds converted into permanent ones. Call today or in the very near future and leave your bonds. ADV. YOUR HOME CAN BE MADE MORE COMFORTABLE WITH WINDUSTITE EQUIPMENT. Regardless of how well the sash are fitted, there is a great leakage of air, dust and water about the windows and doors. And the sash will rattle. Even though the house be well heated, the space near the windows will be cold and draughty. The window sills, curtains and even the furniture will be covered with dust. Leakage of water may cause, during storm, more damage than the entire cost of windustite. The greatest heat loss is through the crevices about the windows and doors. You can save from 20% to 40% on fuel bills by preventing this waste. May we demonstrate, from models, our method of installing Windustite and quote you cost without obligation? The equipment is entirely of metal, installed by our own experienced mechanics on a guarantee to correct any defects in material or workmanship and to do no injury to the premises or furnishings in performing the installation. Windustite is the most efficient equipment for wind, dust and water protection. Yours very truly, AMERICAN METAL WEATHER STRIP CO. See advertisement. ARE YOU INSURED? How about fire, cyclone and automobile insurance? Are you taking any chances? Better be safe than sorry. Ask R. B. Boylan, Lowell's old-timer, about it. He'll fix you up right. The Tie That Bounds. THIS IS LEONARD WOOD. The Man Who Won the Unqualified Endorsement of Theodore Roosevelt, Greatest American of His Time. —and the man who should get your vote in the Primaries, April 5th. A vote for Leonard Wood is a vote for Roosevelt's principles, for the very same things that Roosevelt would be advocating if he were alive today. A vote for Wood is a vote for a candidate whose backers have pledged themselves to see that the voice of the people of Michigan is heard in the state and national conventions. Wood is fighting for the nomination, not merely to get up delegates to be transferred to some other candidate when the party leaders decide that the psychological moment has arrived. General Wood, in his public utterances, has shown a thorough understanding of the farmer's problems and a warm sympathy for the farmer. He says: "Our stability rests largely in the agricultural population. The red flag never flies over the house of a farmer who owns his farm. If the American farmer had not played the game as they did, we would have lost the war, because we would not have been able to feed our Allies in the field as well as ourselves. If the American farmer had struck, the Germans would have won the war. The farmers sent their sons to war, and in spite of the shortage of labor they, by tremendously increasing their efforts, gave the world the biggest crop in history. Agriculture is not only the principal source of our wealth, it is the groundwork of our most stable citizenship. We must have a department of agriculture conducted for the farmer by men who really know farming from the furrow to the crop. It should be the intention of the national government at Washington to make farming conditions such that there would be fewer tenant farms and more owned farms." Theodore Roosevelt said of Leonard Wood: "He has made all good Americans his debtors by what he has done." LET US KEEP ROOSEVELT'S SPIRIT MARCHING ON THROUGH MICHIGAN. This advertisement paid for by Leonard Wood League of Michigan. F. M. Alger, President; Walter C. Piper, Vice-President; Chas. A. Weissert, Secretary.

Lots of local and vicinity news matter on insert pages. Mrs. R. T. Ford made a business trip to Belding Tuesday. George Pant, of Zeeland, is visiting relatives and old friends this week. James Wright has bought the Eli Denny place. Mr. Borgerson must move again. Mrs. Bessa Hatch visited her sister, Mrs. Misner, in Grand Rapids, part of last week. A complete surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jones Saturday evening by a company of friends and neighbors. At the Democratic caucus the following township committee was appointed: R. T. Ford, Ray Berlin, Walter Blakeslee. Dry wood $2.50 per cord delivered. This low price subject to withdrawal and is for immediate acceptance. Leave orders at Henry's drug store. Phone 30. adv. The Civil Service Commission announces examinations for typist and clerk with knowledge of stenography to be held April 9. Information may be obtained at post-office. The weather man is showing great consideration for Grand River valley folks and if he continues his good work with alternate thaws and freezings Lowell vicinity will escape what might easily have been a record-breaking flood. When it began raining Monday night, most people thought we were in for the time of our lives; but thank goodness, it didn't last long. Some basements had a few inches of water Wednesday morning, the water having raised about four inches during the preceding day. The Tuesday night freeze brought the water to a stationery point Wednesday; and most people agree that, they couldn't have done better themselves.

E. R. Jones was a Grand Rapids visitor one day last week. Howard Gould returned from Detroit the first of the week. U. B. Shear was a Grand Rapids visitor the first of the week. The opening of all new smart hats, March 24 and 25. Mrs. Ecker, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lewis returned Monday from a week's visit in Detroit. Our former cheery townsman, Chauncey Townsend, now of Grand Rapids, is in town today. Mrs. N. A. Grinnell, of Benton Harbor, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Nellie Beadle for a few days. Subscriptions taken for over 2,000 magazines and newspapers. Club offers of any reliable concern duplicated. Lasby & Son. According to the calendar Saturday is the beginning of Spring. We hope it tells the truth. Guess we've had enough Winter to last all Summer. This Thursday morning, Mrs. Gold entertained the Wilmsons. This is much better and is enjoying the flowers sent by The Ledger Press club. Our old veteran citizen, C. Kniffin had "a bad spell" at the Post-office Wednesday; and was taken to his home by Postmaster Hunter and Dr. Greene. Good all-year position for a reliable man to act as street commissioner for Village of Lowell. Apply to President M. N. Henry or any member of Common Council. The Citizens' township caucus called for Saturday was so slimly attended, the committee decided public interest did not warrant organization, and the meeting was dismissed without action. Mr. A. H. Stormzand and Mr. Dell Dawson have taken over the repair department of the Murphy garage in the Overland building. They will specialize in repairing Dodge and Ford cars. Mrs. F. J. Carroll and four children, of Kalkaska, visited the former's aunt, Mrs. L. Taylor a day or two this week on their way to a new home in Livingston county, where Mr. Carroll and two sons of the "Greenbacks" Lowell's independent basket ball team were again successful last Friday evening. Trimmed the South Grand Rapids independents to the tune of 35-14. The Grand Rapids team came to Lowell misrepresented and the members of the Greenback team won't ask that the disappointment of last week be forgotten. The Greenbacks promise a big quarter's worth for March 19, the Bethany's or a team of the same caliber.

MARIA B. GILES DEAD. Mrs. Maria B. Giles, widow of John Giles, a former well-known business man, died Saturday at her Grand Rapids home, 9 Crescent street, N. W. She is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Edward Killeen, of Grand Rapids; Mrs. J. E. Roberts, Mrs. J. D. Comiskey, and Miss Margaret Giles, of Chicago, and Sister Mary Cecilia, of the Dominican Order; two sons, Frank Giles of Jacksonville, Fla., and Claude Giles, of Springfield, O. She was a resident of Kent county for 76 years. Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Edward Killeen at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning and at St. Patrick's church, Parnell, at 10 o'clock. DOES IT PAY? Does it pay to pass all pleasures on our journey through this life? Does it pay to hoard vast treasures, causing others pain and strife? Does it pay to leave behind us All the good friends that we meet, Breaking all the ties that bind us, To the joys that make life sweet? Does it pay to grab and plunder, Seeking only fame and gold, Rending hearts and homes asunder? To secure what neighbors hold? Does it pay to climb by walking Over weak souls on our way? Does it pay to dash on, mocking Those who falter?—Does it pay? Charles Horace Meiers. Worth the Money. Let The Preacher Practice. The war taught Americans many lessons, but we seem to be as adept at forgetting as we are at learning. With several millions more able-bodied men engaged in industry than was the case when we reached the peak of output under the pressure of war, there has been a slump in production all along the line, coincident with a shortening of hours and an increase in wages that has caused the price of commodities to mount to terrifying altitudes. Many and varied are the suggestions advanced as a cure for this condition, but it must be patent to anyone who has given the subject any thought that one of the short cuts to the desired end is to give an honest day's work for an honest day's pay, instead of raising wages and with them the cost of every commodity. The desirability of this course is beyond question. The hitch comes in determining who will take the initiative. It is much easier to preach industry and thrift than to practice these virtues, but all the arguments that can be advanced will never amount to anything unless they are backed up by deeds. The need of the nation right now is that we spend less time telling what ought to be done and devote more of our energies to doing, regardless of what others may or may not be accomplishing. When this is done the existing causes for complaint will be done away with, and the unrest that now endangers our country will die a natural and unlamented death.

"Spend and Be Spent" (From a speech by Theodore Roosevelt in New York, March 20, 1913) The leader for the time being, whoever he may be, is but an instrument, to be used until broken and then to be cast aside; and if he is worth his salt he will care no more when he is broken than a soldier cares when he is sent where his life is forfeit in order that the victory may be won. In the long fight for righteousness the watchword for all of us, is spend and be spent. It is a little matter whether any one man fails or succeeds; but the cause shall not fail, for it is the cause of mankind. We here in America hold in our hands the hope of the world, the fate of the coming years; and shame and disgrace will be ours if in our eyes the light of resolve is dimmed, if we trail in the dust the golden hopes of men. If on this new continent we merely build another country of great but unjustly divided material prosperity, we shall have done nothing; and we shall do as little if we merely set the greed of envy against the greed of arrogance, and thereby destroy the material well-being of all of us.

GERMAN M. E. CHURCH.
Next Sunday, (Palm Sunday) at 10 a. m., a catechism class of twelve scholars, six boys and six girls, will be confirmed. A special song will be rendered by the class. Their names are as follows: Emil M. Roth, Rosella V. Link, Fritz C. Fuss, Emma G. Heim, Fred W. Wittenbach, Olive A. Kropp, William A. Roth, Florence E. Althaus, Augustus Abel, Frieda M. Wittenbach, August E. Wingeler, Alice B. Bierl. Evangelistic meetings were held the past week and will continue during the next week every evening at 7:30, closing Easter Sunday evening.

MEETINGS CONTINUE.
(Continued from first page.) when, behold, they were already like his glorified body. I thought I would watch the change; when I should drop these earthly clothes and he would put on the robe of righteousness. I looked, and behold, it was on me already, and I knew for certain, that I was a party of the bride, rising to meet him in the air. I knew then, why His coming was called the rapture. If I could have boiled down all the joy of my life into one moment it could not have begun to compare with that blest moment when I knew I was going to meet Him. The rapture will be a day of music. I remember one Sunday morning of attending the First M. E. church in Grand Rapids. As I sat there waiting, the music of the organ pealed out above us and then it changed and seemed to come from below us, and then, from all sides, and back of the balcony and finally from all sides at once, when it rolled and vibrated and re-entrained, until I was overcome with it. But earthly music will not compare with the melodies of that hour when the angels and the redeemed sing his praises together. My friend, tonight the danger signal across your path is the Lord Jesus Christ. Tonight he wants to be your Savior. He is your intercessor, your advocate. Some day he will be your Judge. He is using all manner of means to bring to your notice His coming. PROGRAM FOR THE LAST WEEK

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
March 28, 10:30 a. m., "The Valley of Decision." A plain discussion of when folks should declare their loyalty to Christ and the church.
7 p. m., "The Importance of God." Many people have forgotten the claims of God upon their lives. However, great our success may be, does it pay to leave God out of our thought and lives? Let us think this over together.
Important—We will complete our canvass for the annual budget next Sunday. At the morning service we will check up tents received during the week.
In the afternoon three teams will make personal calls upon complete the task. The grand total will be shown on the blackboard at the evening service, and there is no doubt, but that there will be a nice surplus. Last Sunday, without special effort the congregation subscribed $2,072, leaving a balance of $1,428, most of which is now in sight.
EDGAR R. COCHRAN, Minister.

METHODIST CHURCH
