NOT FOR SUN. BALL

Rev. Russell H. Bready States His Position on Sunday Sports.

Frank M. Johnson, Editor Lowell Ledger, My Dear Mr. Johnson:

I have your request for a more definite statement concerning my attitude toward Sunday baseball, a further explanation of a recent interview with the Portland Review, and copied from that paper by the Lowell Ledger, by which it might be inferred that I am in favor of Sunday ball games. I desire to say, that I have in mind of noisy demonstrations on Sunday, such as base ball games are. My platform is, that I am for the common folks first, and that I decline to join any movement for the suppression of Sunday ball, unless there goes along with that movement a movement for the right kind of hours for the laboring classes. The time should come when all business for the week is completed by noon on Saturday, and the balance of the day dedicated to sport and recreation, and Sunday be maintained for a day for the church, and the family, and quiet recreation. Our country is in great need of maintaining the family life, father and mother and children strengthening the home ties, Sunday is the day for this. We have hundreds of people who desert the home life, and their hands on an automobile steering wheel all day Sunday, while the poorer man who cannot afford the auto is attending the ball game. That is, when our ministers have the courage to face the merchants and the manufacturers that are in their pews, and who can drive their fine cars all Sunday afternoon, and tell them that if they want Sunday observed the way it ought to be, that they must be willing to grant more industrial freedom for the toiler, and the clerk, then I shall be glad to join with them in the suppression of Sunday ball, which I believe is wrong but there are conditions that are not to be believed it to be the duty of all people who are against public Sunday games to cease thinking that they have performed their duty by society by stopping Sunday baseball, unless they have the courage and the high sense of justice that our Lord had, when he said that the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath, and if we take away the recreation of the toiler has on Sunday afternoon, who has his nose on the grind stone all through the week, to insist that he shall have the right at another time, when we interfere less with the welfare of the two institutions that are so vital to the of America, the home and the church, for recreation, that shall bring new inspiration into his life. I am against Sunday base ball, and for a universal half holiday: beginning Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, and so far as I am concerned the movement against one must be coupled with a movement for the other, and I will join any time when my co-religionists are ready to face all opposition that business, both big and little may offer to this kind of a program. Therefore, if anybody says that I am in favor of Sunday ball it is false. I merely decline to join an active campaign of suppression, unless that campaign includes the willingness to struggle for a reconstruction of present conditions, and to face the opposition of these tight wad souls who are afraid that they will lose a dollar, if they do not run their institutions six full days a week, some of them until midnight Saturday nights, and turn out an army of clerks, and then, even not content, will operate most all day Sunday. This question cannot be settled, unless it is settled in the spirit of justice, especially for toilers, for those who scarcely have a vacation is, have no automobile to ride the rest of the day, after attending the morning church service. For all these I covet the Saturday half holiday, for amusements, and a Sunday that shall be dedicated to public worship, to reveling in the literature, and in the inspiration of music, and the fellowship of these hours, when the friends drop in, a day that shall be a joy to childhood in its happiness and cheer, and the cultivation of the sanctity of the home. This is the kind of a day, God hath given us under the Christian dispensation. If you desire to give this statement space in The Ledger, I assure you that it is always a pleasure to say a word to the people of Lowell, and with this sermonette I send my love to everybody in town, both Protestant and Roman Catholic.

Fraternally Yours,
RUSSELL H. BREADY.

Western Michigan Oddfellows and Rebekahs Picnic Here Saturday.

Community singing and music by the Alto band will be features of the Oddfellows picnic, which will be held at Island park, Lowell, Saturday, August 14.

Picnic dinner at noon.

Speakers: Rev. E. R. Cochran, Lowell; Fred Cutler, grand recorder; E. Forbes Emery, chaplain; F. A. Rodgers, secretary, and Rev. M. H. Girard, of Ionia.

A program of races and sports for slim men, fat men, fat ladies, boys and girls, including sack races, 3-legged races, base ball, quilt pitching, smoking contest, tug of war, has been arranged, and suitable prizes will be given.

Speaking begins at 1:30. Come and bring your friends. Will the merchants please decorate their stores?

AMERICAN LEGION

Day at Ionia Free Fair Will be Big Event.

Tuesday, August 17, will be a great day for the American Legion in Ionia county, because it is on that day the Ionia Free Fair management is to entertain all the Legionnaires in Ionia county and the Ionia free fair never does things by halves.

The free fair management is working hand in hand with the committee from John Girard post of Ionia, in an effort to locate and extend a cordial and hearty invitation to every ex-soldier and ex-sailor and ex-marine in the county.

Comrades are asked to meet at the Ionia court house square at 1 o'clock p. m., Eastern time and form in line. Each post and ex-service men within the post's jurisdiction forming separately. The line when thus formed will march to the fair grounds where free entertainments and grandstand privileges will be given. Free tickets will be delivered to the line when formed at the court house square. A silk flag will be given to the American Legion post having in line the largest number of members of ex-service men based upon the percentage of the membership of the post. Another prize of $50 will be given to the post presenting the best appearance in formation on line of march.

At a meeting of the Free Fair management and representatives of the various posts in Ionia county, held at the Elks' temple last Tuesday evening, the posts accepted the invitation of the Free Fair management to join in the parade, August 17, and the free fair management offered two splendid prizes for the posts participating in the parade. Fully 1,000 men are expected to take part in this parade, and most of them will probably be in uniform, although that detail is left entirely optional with each man himself. But the post having the most uniformed men in line will surely receive the appearance prize and since a cash prize of $50 goes to the post presenting the best appearance in line, the officers of the various posts will make an extra effort to have as many of their men as possible in full uniform.

Lake Odessa post and Portland post have already sent notice they will bring their own bands with them so the committee is already assured of the services of six bands for this opening parade.

An invitation has also been extended to the Spanish War Veterans and to the G. A. R., and cars will be furnished for the use of the G. A. R.

The G. A. R. orchestra has generously donated its services for a special American Legion dance at the Elks' temple Tuesday evening, Aug. 17, at 9 o'clock, and the Elks have gladly donated the use of their beautiful temple for the occasion.

NORTHSIDERS WON

Only One Accident. Ask Will Doyle What It Was.

In the game last Thursday afternoon between the Northsiders and the Southsiders, the Northsiders won by the close score of 4 to 3, it being one of the snappiest games seen here in years. The game was full of sensational plays throughout, and several times the fans were brought to their feet by phenomenal plays; Runelman made a long run and catch of a hard hit which, if it had not been captured might have been a single. Storm-zand, the Northside shortstop, dug several up out of the dirt, starting two double plays.

The run getting started in the first time at bat by the southside getting one run, but they were not out until the second time they put the game on ice, by annexing two more in the second. Then, yours truly, James I. McMahon, settled down to his old time form, and with the help of his old time receiver, Old Fox Shivel held them safe the rest of the game.

The Northside got one run in the first, and added two more in the third by clean hitting. The old speed artist, Speaker, then tightened up and managed to hold the game out of the question, but in the seventh inning the northside worked one more across in a very spectacular play; with a man on first, they worked the squeeze play successfully in the following manner, the batter hit to the pitcher, who, in hurrying the play, threw low to catcher Doyle, making him stoop low to receive the throw which caused him to split his trousers, and only having one hand to make the play, the runner slid into a report of the game would not be complete without mention being made of the masterful way in which Umpire Manning handled the game. Had it not been for the fearless way in which he called men out the game would have had to be called on account of darkness.

Former Lowell Company Disposes Its Business Interests.

The Loveland & Hinyan Co., one of the largest operators in potatoes in the state, has sold its string of about 40 warehouses and elevators, business and good will to Carl Benier and Clyde Dennis, who will continue the business under the style of the Grand Rapids United Marketing Co., occupying the same offices in the Michigan Trust Co. building.

The Loveland & Hinyan business was established about 20 years ago by Ralph B. Loveland and F. W. Hinyan and upon the death of the former and his son, Glenn Loveland, came into the business. Mr. Loveland has purchased the old Hinyan farm of 110 acres near Alto and will operate it. Mr. Hinyan will spend the winter in California. He is widely known in the potato trade, having been president for two years of the state association.

DARKIES WON BY ONE

Lowell Lost to Colored Athletes in Nip and Tuck Game.

Aug. 8, Lowell lost to the Colored Athletes of Grand Rapids, 2 to 1, before the largest crowd of the season. Both pitchers were in fine form, allowing three hits each, it being a snappy game from start to finish, and a hard game for the boys to see as he breezed 12 men to Mabin's 9.

Had the boys put up a tight game with him, with a little more hard work on the bases things would have been different.

Athletes made their first run in the first inning. After Weyer struck out, White, their captain out short stop to first. Callahan hit one over short for one base, stole second. McQueen let Matthews roll past and Callahan scored from second. They annexed another in the seventh. Strowder, first man, up hit for a base down the third base line, stole second, while Jones was breezing. Roberts had two strikes called when one rolled out of Rooney's glove, he recovering it, threw low to third base to catch Strowder stealing the ball taking a bad bound and they getting the second.

Lowell had a chance of winning in the fourth, Hapeman first up hit, thru second, Rooney in sacrifice him to second reached first, while Mabin was trying to pick up the second. Hapeman was in a slump, the center fielder had the pill on him for an out. Hutting sent a grass cutter through short for two bases, Rooney going to third. McQueen struck out, and the catcher dropped the third strike, and in throwing to first to get him Rooney scored, Hutting going to third, Banan fled out to left fielder. Com.

Board of Trade Hears Factory Manager Tell of Great Need.

An interesting supper session of the Lowell Board of Trade was held at Hotel Waverly last Tuesday evening. The Chautauque, Lowell Street fair, band and housing matters were discussed and several committees appointed.

Manager Fred Jacob, of the Ypsilanti-Reed Furniture company's Lowell factory, corroborated a recent report in The Ledger as to that company's willingness to enlarge its plant and employ 500 people, if necessary housing for new residents could be provided. As a committee to confer with Fred Green, of Ionia, secretary of the company, D. G. Look, W. C. Doyle, M. N. Henry, P. C. Peckham and H. L. Wickes, were appointed.

The sentiment was general that more of these supper meetings should be held; and announcement was made that the Lowell Street fair would be held in October. Watch for dates.

SCOUTS BANQUETED

By W. R. C. Wednesday Evening and Presented Flag.

The W. R. C. tendered a banquet to the Boy Scouts and Campfire girls at G. A. R. hall last evening, in behalf of the W. R. C. Mrs. O. B. O'Brien presented the Scout boys with a flag giving a little history of the W. R. C. organization, and was responded to by Scout Master R. E. Sprungett, in his interesting and pleasing manner in which he gave some good advice to the boys.

Rev. H. H. Harris also made a fine address in commendation of the American flag. The company then sang "America," with Miss Lena Lehto as accompanist. During the serving of the supper, which was plentiful and well served as the W. R. C. suppers always are, the ladies sang war songs with Mrs. W. R. Andrews at the organ. All voted that it was an occasion long to be remembered.

RELIGION AND FRIENDSHIP. What his religion is quick says. As we observed him walk in by An' show, says Ezra Brown to me.

Why ask what tempest they attend? In church or out a friend's a friend to create this old world would be if men were slaves to bigotry.

FAVORS FOR DEBILITATED. Brew Allison is free. Allison was about the most conspicuous figure in the city.

SAME OLD STORY. The newspapers have another story to tell of a girl who accepted a stranger's invitation for a ride in a motor car.

FROM TROPICAL ISLANDS AND FOREIGN COUNTRIES, a collection gathering of the most beautiful and valuable plants and flowers.

"I guess so," said Wick. "That's where his room is. It's only been here in the Granddick a few days."

"And that's all you know about it?" said the detective, turning to the agent.

"I don't know," said Wick. "I don't know much about it."

How to Prevent Bees Swarming

Advice and Suggestions on Subject Given by Professor Conrad of Clemson.

Brood Chamber Too Small

Emigration of Honey Gathers Can Be Greatly Reduced by Proper Management—How Swarm May Be Hived to Best Advantage.

One of the most important of the beekeeper's duties is to prevent swarming.

There was nothing for me to do but sit tight and wait until my flight as philosophically as I could until I could get in touch with my bees.

LIFE'S LITTLE JOYS

AS IT APPEARS.

The baby of Birmingham, speaking on the subject of charming, told of her heart's desire.

"It's either," said the second child, "that Thompson has another baby, or that she has a new dress."

"I don't know," said the third child, "but I think she has a new dress."

FALL HATS

In the language of the vegetables.

The new Fall (Stetson) hats we're showing this week are 18 "carrots" pure from bow to beam.

And you can't help but "turnip" under a winner unless you try them on up side down.

"To-mato-a" man to the new models takes less time than it does to get shaved—and when we get thru' with our part of the performance you will look and feel as fresh as the first day you drove your own car.

Will you "lettuce?"

(Stetson) Fall Soft Hats $7.00 to $10.00.

Clever Fall Caps, $2.00 to $4.50.

Dog Highly Prized in Alaska.

Nowhere in the world has the dog such unrestricted right of way as in Alaska.

In winter, when more than 600,000 square miles of territory are sealed up in solid ice, dogs are almost the sole means of getting from place to place—in fact, they seem necessary to life.

Cats and Dogs at Peace.

There is one place near Philadelphia where cats and dogs dwell together in peace. It is at Francville, and contains many handsome tombstones.

Why Indeed?

A boy of eight was dining with his father at a hotel where the manners of the guests were not remarkable for their elegance.

Soon after they had seated themselves at the table, the youngster piped up with, "Daddy, why do all the men say 'whoop' to their soup?"

With Reservations.

Jeanette always expects something when her father comes home. One day just as he entered she said: "What have you got today, daddy?" He gave her a package of gum and said: "That is for you and brother."
