Lowell Citizens Call For Enforcement of Federal Liquor Laws.
An informal meeting of the citizens of Lowell was held at the City hall on the above date, the Rev. E. R. Cochran, presiding.
The object of the meeting was stated by the chairman to be for discussion of the enforcement of the laws in the Village and make such recommendations as might appear expedient.
On motion H. J. Coons was elected secretary.
After a discussion of law enforcement it was the sense of the meeting that resolutions be adopted supporting the Village Council in their efforts for rigid enforcement of the laws, especially the liquor laws, and the Chair appointed the following committee to draft suitable resolutions: D. G. Look, F. M. Johnson, H. H. Harris, C. W. Appleton, M. Yetter.
The following resolution was presented:
Whereas it has come to the attention of the citizens of Lowell that there are flagrant violations of the Federal and State liquor laws in Lowell and vicinity, we hereby pledge our hearty support to all public officials, county, state and federal, for a more strict enforcement of said laws.
Moved by P. C. Peckham, seconded by John A. Arehart, that the resolution be accepted and adopted. Carried unanimously.
A motion was made by John A. Arehart, seconded by C. H. Runciman, that the village president be authorized to appoint such men as he may select from those present to serve as special deputies for the enforcement of the laws in the village.
Carried.
The village president, M. N. Henry, made an appointment of ten men from those present to serve as special deputies, Martin Schneider, C. P. Neff, W. J. Will, W. P. Laux, Lewis M. Yetter, C. L. F. Williamson, Edgar R. Cochran, Harry Holland, R. T. Ford, H. J. Coons, and they were duly sworn in as officers by E. N. White, notary.
Moved by Earl Hunter, seconded by M. N. Henry, that the Chair appoint a committee of five to investigate a proposition that would provide a place, or places, of entertainment along the line of club life for our young people and submit a recommendation. Carried.
Moved by M. N. Henry, seconded by W. C. Doyle, that the Chair be authorized to increase the number of the committee to ten, including five ladies. Carried.
The Chair appointed the following committee: R. E. Springett, C. H. Runciman, J. M. Hutchinson, O. J. Yetter, F. J. Macknor, Mrs. P. C. Peckham, Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. M. N. Henry, Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mrs. C. P. Neff.
On motion the committee was approved.
Moved by Earl Hunter, seconded by M. N. Henry, that a public meeting be called for next Friday evening, Sept. 17, at the City hall to receive the report of the committee on club entertainment. Carried.
On motion the meeting adjourned.
H. J. Coons, secretary.
Edgar R. Cochran, chairman.

BOY SCOUTS BAND

Proposition to Start It Off With Public Subscription.
The matter of the Boy Scouts band should be taken up at the public meeting at the City hall Friday evening. Most of the difficulties in the way have been taken care of and a public subscription with everybody helping a little will start things off in good shape.
It is time the work should be started if the boys are to play in public next summer, for, from the scales up is a long way.
The Ledger proposes a general public subscription, and if so desired will lead, receive, and acknowledge contributions for such purpose.
Let's don't let the Board of Trade do it all. Here's a game all can take part in, village and town, and vicinity people, and even our many good friends who have moved away, but still have a warm heart for Lowell and her boys.
The band room with a good man in charge is a good place for boys, if you keep the smoke out; and we'll take the subscriptions with that understanding.
Come on, good people, big and little, old and young. A few hundred subscriptions at from 25c to $5.00 will do the trick and give everybody a chance to help.

FOUR GOOD ONES

Lowell Lyceum Course Opens Friday Evening, Oct. 8.
The first number will be Harold Proctor, eminent Irish tenor, called by some, a second John McCormack, supported by Miss May Rees, violinist and Miss Fleta Lawrence, pianist. Mr. Proctor has sung throughout the British Isles and the United States. For two years he was tenor soloist at the Temple Baptist church, Los Angeles, the largest church west of the Mississippi.
Dr. Hagerman, the second number, Nov. 5th. He discusses our present day problems in the language of the people. He had been a deep student of American and American problems and is especially qualified to discuss the philosophy of democracy. A pleasing and forceful speaker.
Mrs. Otto Fiecht's original Swiss singers and Yodlers. A unique musical organization that combines novelty with real musical merit. They were organized in Innsbruck, one of the most picturesque places of the Swiss Tyrol. They appear in the picturesque and beautiful national costumes of their people, the most attractive in all Europe, making two complete changes of costume during the program. Lowell people remember with pleasure the Yodlers on our Chautauqua and will be pleased to receive this announcement.
Next, "Gatling Gun" Fogleman, "The Billy Sunday of Business." He is a dynamic magnetic lecturer, famous for his rapid-fire delivery, which he frequently speeds up to 300 words a minute on the great fundamentals of success in business and life. "A master orator." "A whirlwind speaker," inspirational and compelling. [Com.]

LOST TO PORTLAND

Sunday Was an "Off Day" for the Lowell Team.
Everything went democratic in the game between Portland and Lowell Sunday, Portland winning the second game 8 to 2. All our boys had a glove on one hand and their positions in the field with an occasional bat in the hand which was too heavy to swing.
We all have our bad days, and it seems that the players had theirs all the same day. However, they have it out of their system, and they will be in tune to give us their best Sunday, September 19th, when Otsego plays here. Bissonett was unshakable and there was only one against him which he made himself.
The Portland team acted as if they were at a banquet and accepted of Stuart's benders with greed, getting eleven hits for a total of sixteen bases, pilfered eight sacks and assisted by seven errors.
Score by innings:
1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Portland 0 0 0 0 2 0 2 0 2
Lowell 1 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 2
Portland 8 11 1
Lowell 2 7 7
Batters for Portland, Bissonett and Coykendal; for Lowell, Stuart and Roney.
Struck out by Bissonett, 6; by Stuart, 6.

THORNAPPLE RIVER POWER DEVELOPMENT IS PLANNED.

H. George D. Nutting, consulting engineer, in a communication to the city commission asks officials to authorize the investigation of his proposal to develop electricity from the water power of the Thornapple river at a point nine miles from the city. He declares that he will have a maximum of 1,300 electrical horsepower to sell to the city for lighting and pumping station purposes at a saving of from $10,000 to $25,000 over the present rate. It will also mean the conservation of considerable coal, he states.—Herald.

GETTING NEXT

There are lots of people right here in Lowell who do not know that my coffee is ROASTED in this building by MYSELF EVERY DAY. It is absolutely fresh, that is WHY it is better.

I buy it GREEN, from the importer, saving you the whole-salers' and the roasters' profit and the cost of a can or carton as well. That is why it is cheaper.

TEA? I have four grades, from 50c to 80c per pound. Also MEATS and a hundred other things.

COONS

MEMORIAM—MRS. L. L. GIBSON.

Rhoda Belle Westbrook was born in Vergennes township, Sept. 5, 1877.
After her father's death, she, with her mother and family, moved to Cascade township.
She was united in marriage to Lorán L. Gibson Oct. 6, 1897, three children were born to this union, Ida B., Paul L., and Norma L.
Her home was in and near Potoskey, Mich., until the spring of 1910, when they removed to their present home in Thornapple township.
Mrs. Gibson's health has not been good for several years, and on Sunday, Aug. 29, with the hope that she might get health, she went to the hospital for treatment, but in the evening of Sept. 12, she departed this life. She leaves to mourn her going the husband and children, together with her mother, Mrs. Melissa W. Denison, of Grand Rapids, two brothers, Fred of Chicago; Ira, of Cascade; three sisters, Laura Carter, of Irving; Bertha Thompson, of Grand Rapids; and Alice Moll, of Royal Oak; one half-sister, Mary Kerr, of Middleville; and two half brothers, Charles, of California; James, of Caledonia; and a host of friends. While living in Potoskey, Mrs. Gibson was a member of the First Christian church of that place. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the M. E. church, Middleville, conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. K. Lewis, interment in the new I. O. O. F. cemetery. [Com.]

Choosing Your Bank

is a personal matter. In selecting this institution as their banking home, our patrons have been influenced by one of several reasons.

Some came because of the recommendation of their friends; others at the invitation of the bank to try its service. Some selected us because our location was convenient; while others were willing to come a little out of their way in order to utilize our excellent facilities.

Everyone is here because "we satisfy." That is a pretty good reason for selecting a banking home.

METHODIST CHURCH

The 85th session of the Michigan annual conference is being held this week in Battle Creek. Few conferences have ever been favored with so great a program, as the one planned for this gathering. Three bishops and many other leaders of the church will participate.
No preaching service next Sunday, as the pastor is attending conference. Sunday school will begin at 11:30. The services will be held one week from Sunday, Sept. 26, as usual.
Prayer meeting on Thursday evening, 7:30.
The Eudorian Sunday school class, will hold their monthly business meeting, and a pot luck supper at the basement, Friday afternoon.
Last Thursday afternoon 39 boys and girls of the primary department of the Sunday school gathered at the parsonage for a good time and a picnic supper. To understand the joyful manner in which they entered into the games and later the bountiful supper, one needed to have been an eye witness. It can't be described.
The Young circle, formerly the Maynard circle, held their business meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. Clerton, Wednesday afternoon.
The Green circle, held a business meeting Friday evening, Sept. 17, at the church. Let every member consider this as a personal invitation and be present.

Two Portland district schools are trying the experiment of sending their pupils to the village schools, where they can get better service than they can run their one-room schools. That's a better way out for them than building township high schools at present costs.

What might have been a serious fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McLaughlin, of David O. Harris, averted by the quick action of neighbors, and the fire department. Some melting paraffin boiled over and made such a smudge that the house and all its contents were terribly smoked and some things ruined. The whole interior of their house will have to be re-decorated.

D. O. Shear, attending the reunion of the First Michigan Engineers and Mechanics at Grand Rapids, where he met 42 other survivors of that famous regiment, received this notice from this Thursday's Herald: One of the features of the day was the presence of four generations of the family of David O. Shear, of Lowell, one of the veterans. With Mr. Shear, was his daughter, Mrs. O. T. Hogan, his granddaughter, Mrs. William J. Glasgow, and a great-granddaughter, Mildred Glasgow.

The Kent County Community board has secured full information as to speakers available on the University of Michigan Extension list and also material that is available through the same source for discussions or debates. Three hundred extension lectures are offered the state by the University of Michigan.

The University library is maintained for two general purposes; first, for the use of the students, and second, for the use of the citizens of the entire state. It is part of education today to learn how to use the resources at hand—and to learn how to secure the use of the University library is of the utmost importance.—News Bureau.

The Lowell Community council is proud of the women who took the leadership work under the direction of Miss Anna Vaughan, recreation specialist from the Michigan Community Council commission. Play hours have been held every Tuesday afternoon during vacation, with from three to five volunteer leaders and from 60 to 75 children in attendance. It would be hard to say whether the leaders or the children enjoyed the afternoon the most. A fine spirit of originality is developing among the youngsters in the mind and morals of the youngsters after school begins will be carefully noted.—(News Bureau.)

The building of the new fronts for the Look and Lallely stores is held up by non-arrival of the masons, putting those enterprising business people in much inconvenience with their temporary fronts and cramped quarters. Perhaps they will enjoy their improvements all the better when they get them, and in the meantime their patrons are not complaining.

New applicants from other cities are appearing at the Ypsilanti Reed Furniture company's Lowell factory. Work in the cities is slackening up, and there will be more people here soon than can be cared for. Some one should open and operate the Lowell hotel buildings as a rooming house. Restaurant facilities are ample for the present and can be increased. The housing proposition is pressing; and those having unused or convertible buildings should make repairs for good tenants. There are also numerous vacant buildings in the vicinity that might with profit be taken down and re-erected on some of the many available Lowell village lots.

About 12,000,000 boys and girls, comprising nearly half the school population of the United States, are members of the Junior Red Cross, which is helping the children of Europe, while at the same time it is doing an important work here at home. Kalitan Chetwold, who wears the glowing smile shown in this picture, is the son of an Indian guide and trapper. He is the youngest Junior living in the neighborhood of Juneau, Alaska—and he sends greetings to fellow Juniors of the United States.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS IN PEACE TIME With the Soldiers

There remain in army hospitals throughout the country more than 25,000 soldiers still being treated for wounds received overseas. Red Cross workers give them the same sort of friendly aid—only more of it—that was given during the war. Furthermore, the Red Cross is teaching these late occupations at which they can later make a living and is keeping in touch with their home folks in order that no dependents may suffer for lack of funds.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS IN PEACE TIME

When looking for the big news don't overlook the bits right in front of you.

If Abraham Lincoln split with a starter, who's landing do you ask for in life's race?

When some men marry they take to allipers and the easy chair, and then take themselves that getting married ruined their chances.

Some men won't let an employer help them buy homes, but will go down town and let a total stranger sell them a house as well as financing it. "We got that the employer should be strong to buy them homes."

Some men won't let an employer help them buy homes, but will go down town and let a total stranger sell them a house as well as financing it. "We got that the employer should be strong to buy them homes."

Members of the State Police are still busy engaged in enforcing the new dog law. Their activities have taken an educational trend and they are endeavoring to explain the new law as well as enforcing it. "We got that many persons are unfamiliar with this law, which accounts for its being disregarded," says Maj. Marsh.

The Great Luncheon Mystery

Follow the Travels of the Famous Medal Designed to be Worn by the Person Proving the Right to be Known to the World as the Biggest Luncheon.

EPISODE VIII When the Man who LIFT OTHERS DO HIS OWN THINKING to find out covered that he was wearing the BIGGEST LUNcheon Medal he was in a bad way for in this case he had to DO HIS OWN THINKING to find out WHY he had the Medal.

But he was THE WINNER for he found out that HE HAD A BRAIN OF HIS OWN and he found out that he HELPED HIMSELF when he used his OWN BRAIN and started in to DO HIS OWN THINKING.

When he STARTED TO THINK he found that HE could see things JUST AS CLEARLY as others could see them. He found that IT PAID HIM to form HIS OWN OPINIONS about his work and his life; that it PAID HIM FAR MORE than to have OTHERS using him for THEIR OWN PURPOSES. He found that HE HAD BEEN THE LOSER many times in the past by letting others do his thinking. He decided that he would be HIS OWN LEADER and not be ONE OF THE FLOCK for some other man.

And having found that he was DOING HIS OWN THINKING he went out and planned the BIGGEST LUNcheon HEAD Medal on the MAN WHO WAS ALWAYS BARBASTIC.
