REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE

President, Senate, House, State and County, East, North and West. Only Solid South for Cox.

WARREN G. HARDING.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

It was a Republican landslide from Maine to California and from the Lakes to Mason and Dixon's line, or beyond. Harding and Coolidge have apparently carried every Eastern, Northern and Western state, except possibly Arizona, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma and the Dakotas. The new president will have good working majorities in both Senate and House. Reports of overwhelming Republican majorities come from New York, Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania and other states. It is the same way in Michigan, Groesbeck and the entire State and Legislature Republican tickets are elected by unheard of majorities. Even our "Good Grey" Governor Ferris, went down in overwhelming, if honorable defeat. As in the nation and state, so in the county, everything on the Republican ticket went through with a whoop and if there had been a "black sheep," running for dog warden, he'd be a goner too, for that "was the order of the day." And Lowell, good old Lowell, trotted out 1002 voters in the face of a young blizzard and gave 723 of them to Harding, and but 223 for Cox, 598 to Groesbeck and 375 to Ferris, 750 to Mapes and 207 to Jarvis, 671 to McNaughton, and 224 to Schmidt, 730 to George H. Miller, and 223 to John Laneke and 734 to Judge Higbee, and 227 to Edgar A. Maher. The votes of other state and county candidates corresponded. Nothing got away from the Republicans, not even the squeal. In Lowell the Socialist ticket got 21 votes, Prohibition 16, Socialist Labor 1, Farmer Labor 5, and Single Tax, none. The Prohibition amendment is voted down, 2 to 1 in the state. Kent county voted against it very heavily. Lowell's vote was 381 for 485 against. Lowell was decidedly opposed to empowering the legislature to raise state salaries, the vote being 220 yes to 519 no. The Lowell voters also voted against the other proposed amendments, and the results on that large were in doubt. Republicans Win Iowa. Iowa, Nov. 3.—The returns now in assure a large Republican majority for all candidates. Foss O. Eldred, for this city, was elected state senator from the Eighteenth district. Fred L. Warner, of Bedford, was re-elected to the legislature. The Republican county ticket is elected throughout as follows: Probate Judge Montgomery Webster; Sheriff, Mark Hoppough; Clerk, William H. Dibley; Treasurer, Desie M. Galloway; Register of Deeds, Daniel W. Lind; Prosecuting Attorney, Harry Gemund; Court Commissioners John Nichol and E. A. Murphy; Drain Commissioner, Chas. E. Goodwin; Coroner, Matthew G. Bradley and Benjamin J. Boynton; Saveroy, Allan M. Williams. Ferris loses this county, which

ESCAPE DEATH BY A MIRACLE

Two Women Plunge Off Grand River Bridge. Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Emma Brenner, of Grand Rapids, escaped death or even serious injury in a miraculous manner about 10 o'clock Tuesday forenoon when the Hudson Sedan car, the former was driving, smashed through the guard planks on the east side of the south end of the Lowell upper Grand river bridge and landed on its top in several feet of water, twenty or more feet below the bridge, having turned end for end. Several men working on the north end of the bridge saw the accident, and hastened to the rescue of the women, who were taken to Hotel Waverly and attended by Dr. Shepard, who reports their injuries confined mostly to cuts and bruises. Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Brenner, the latter a former Lowell school teacher, were driving home from Saranac. They approached the dangerous bridge curve, evidently at a considerable speed, swerved to the west side of the bridge and then to the east side to their fall, as before stated. They owed their escapes from being crushed to the sturdy car top, which took the force of the long fall to the water, and then escaped death from drowning or long exposure to the cold water by their prompt rescue. Dan Williams, R. S. West, N. Ross, workmen for the State Highway department. The car was taken from the river by Bennett's garage men in a badly damaged condition. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Fitzgerald and Miss Brenner still remained in their rooms at the hotel.

ROVER MAY LAUGH

How Do They Get That Way? "Every Dog Has His Day." The new state dog tax law was severely criticized Tuesday afternoon by a board of supervisors session when it was ruled that Sheriff Peter Viergever was the only man in the county, under the law, who would have the right to kill an unlicensed dog. This included the city of Grand Rapids, according to the interpretation of the act made Tuesday afternoon. Supervisor McPherson, of Verjennes township asked that the prosecutor, sheriff and county treasurer be called upon to explain why the dog taxes throughout the county had not been collected in entirety and why the sheriff had not taken steps to kill the unlicensed animals. William A. Riley, county treasurer, explained that the entire trouble lay in his office because it had been unable to get out the delinquent dog tax report to the prosecutor and sheriff's office. The report was due June 14. Riley explained that one township, Cannon, had not yet filed its dog tax report. The sheriff and the prosecutor, it was explained, could not act until the report from the treasurer was forthcoming. "There is no use in becoming unduly exercised over the situation," Prosecutor Hoffius said, "because I am a new one and because I firmly believe that at the next legislature we will have another new dog law. We get one almost every session. This law is bad because it does not exempt Grand Rapids. Wayne county is exempted, but the legislators did not see fit to treat us thus. According to the provisions of the law the supervisors should have reported the unlicensed dogs to the county treasurer's office June 1 and his report should have been made by June 15. That has not been done, but the reports should be forthcoming as soon as possible."—Grand Rapids Press.

WERE ROYAL HOSTS

Merchants Association Well Treated by Clarksville Business Men. Clarksville merchants gave the visiting merchants a fine banquet and program Friday evening, Oct. 22. The banquet was served in the auditorium of the Congregational church by the Ladies' Aid society, with chicken pie pumpkin pie, and everything of the very best, and with musical accompaniment. After banquet cigars were passed and the men met in Clarksville hall, where M. Lenhard introduced the association president, M. N. Henry, of Lowell, to act as chairman. The following gentlemen appeared on the program: Mr. Braund and Mr. Blakeley, president and secretary of the Grand Rapids Credit Men's association, who spoke on business conditions. Hazard Riley, of Grand Rapids, sang "The End of a Perfect Day." Prof. Holmes, manager for the state school for the blind, address was "What the United States Needs. Better Schools, Better Co-operation, Better Americanism." Prof. Holmes is a very entertaining speaker. Impromptu remarks were made on topics pertaining to all classes of business, mercantile, agricultural and manufacturing. Meeting adjourned to meet with Middleville merchants early in November, all feeling that Clarksville merchants were royal entertainers.

METHODIST CHURCH

Services at the usual hours next Sunday. Let's show our appreciation of the church by being present. I'll be there, will you? We will expect you. Your presence will cheer us all. The Greene circle will have a pot luck supper in the basement of the church next Tuesday evening. Later in the evening, they will take "A Trip Through Michigan," and the public is invited to go with them. Not by Ford, or Buick, or aeroplane, but by steroptic, and it will be very interesting. The Aid society will hold their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Weeke, on Friday afternoon. The committee has some original and unique plans for the program. The Euodian class has challenged the Men's Bible class for an attendance contest, to last for ten weeks, on a basis of three to one. A supper will be given by the losing side. Each side seems confident of victory. The men are so sure of coming out ahead that they are now planning that the ladies furnish three pieces of pie for each man. The ladies are wondering what kind a supper the defeated men will serve. We will watch the contest with interest.

KENT SALARIES NEXT YEAR TO BE $200,833.

According to the annual budget which was adopted by the board of supervisors Thursday the salary of Kent county officials will cost $200,833 next year. This appropriation made by the finance committee includes all of the increases granted by the board at the October session. The office expense, it is estimated, will cost the county $62,328. Other items in the budget are the $50,000 appropriation for mothers pensions, $10,500 for woodchuck, rat and other bounties, $46,000 for the city's contagious disease fund, $4,000 for the township contagious disease fund; $15,000 for a contingent fund. The superintendent's of poor were allowed $8,000 while the good roads sinking fund was given $30,000. One of the largest single items in the budget was the $69,854.04 ordered spread upon the rolls to take care of the county's share of the Covert road assessments.—[Grand Rapids Press.

WHAT CREDIT MEN THINK OF PAYING BY CHECK. "Every effort should be made to have checks become more completely the Nation's real currency; the circulation of currency for the payment of accounts, when checks would be safer and more adaptable, is unwise and unsafe." The above is the conclusion reached by the banking and currency executive committee at a recent meeting of the National Association of Credit Men. MONROE BANDITS SPEEDILY CAUGHT BY STATE POLICE

SIX DEPERADEOS WHO ROBBED DANBARK BANK ARE ROUNDED UP

CASH AND RING ARE RECOVERED

It was nine o'clock in the morning and the doors of the Danbark bank of Maine had just been opened for business. There were a few persons on the street but the majority of merchants were taking care of their early morning trade or getting things into shape for the day's business. A woman who conducts a store in a portion of the building which the bank occupies had just entered the bank and was securing from Cashier Bill Bar the money from her cash drawer, which had been locked up for the night.

Unnoticed, a high-powered motor car had driven up and stopped a few feet from the bank. A man in a dark suit and a woman in a dark dress stepped from the car and entered the bank. The man was armed with a revolver. The woman was holding a small bag. The man went to the cashier's desk and the woman went to the teller's desk. The man took the money from the cashier and the woman took the money from the teller. The man then went to the door and the woman went to the door. The man and the woman then drove away in the motor car.

The State Police were notified of the robbery and they immediately set out to find the robbers. They found the robbers in a field near the Danbark bank. The robbers were taken to the State Police station and they were held there until they could be identified.

The State Police were able to recover the cash and the ring that had been stolen. The robbers were charged with robbery and they were held in jail until they could be tried.

THE DREAMS OF YOUTH. I wish I had my dreams again. Before I had heard the call of men and I learned to follow in their ways. For their life was glorious with honor, crowning every hill. And coming home victoriously was just a feat of strength and skill.

I learned no foe those days of old, there were no pits for us to tread. Nor summer's heat nor winter's cold could hurt us. I saw the lights of glory lining me, and I thought without one hurt or pain I could conquer my world.

I had no thought that I might err, that folly must be mine to know that I could not see the end of the road I wished to go. It was pleasant to defend the right, and there was naught I couldn't do.

But now at times the road seems long and facts are other things to face. It is not easy to be strong, one cannot stop step mean, discipline. I've learned among the haunts of men that hate and hurt are everywhere.

I wish I had my dreams again. I wish I had my dreams again. I wish I had my dreams again. I wish I had my dreams again.
