"Spend Less Than You Earn"

Never was better advice given than this. It is absolutely essential if you expect to achieve financial success.

That is why during THRIFT WEEK, now being celebrated in this country, the above slogan is being urged upon the people of America as their battle-cry and watchword for 1921.

Cold Remedies

There are cold remedies and cold remedies. There is plenty of difference in their quality. We sell the best. The much advertised kinds are in our stock, though we do not always recommend them.

Our best cold remedy is Hobson's Laxative Cold Tablets and we warrant it to knock out the cold in less time more effectually than any other remedy. The price is, it does not act in the harsh and severe manner of kinds, but is less unpleasant and more certain.

GOOD WOMAN GONE

Mary C. Ecker Passed to Her Reward. Well-known Christian Worker.

Mary C. Ecker was born in Lowell, Michigan, May 2, 1858, and died at her home in Lowell, January 17, 1921. Having lived all her life in Lowell she was well known by nearly every one in this vicinity. For nearly 40 years she was affiliated with the First Baptist church of this village, where of late years she was treasurer, and also teacher of the primary class in the Bible school.

Words fail to express the loss that her departure brings to her many friends and acquaintances. Her daily life was always consistent with her Christian profession and many have felt the tender ministrations of her willing hands as she followed the example of her Christ and "went about doing good."

She is survived by her sister, Mrs. Ida Denick, and her family, and by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Ecker, and her family. Friends without number regret the passing of this beautiful life, so much of which has been spent in services for others.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m. Vincent C. Webb, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Interment in the family lot in Lowell cemetery.

OBITUARY—LEWIS KINON.

Lewis Kinon was born in Lowell, Mich., Sept. 27, 1874, and died at Edmore, Jan. 12, 1921, aged 46 years, 3 months and 14 days.

His early life was spent in Lowell and vicinity, but 11 years ago he and his sister Mary purchased a farm four miles east of Remus, and this has since been their home.

Mr. Kinon had been in rather poor health for about a year, but on Jan. 4, it was found necessary to have an operation for appendicitis, and he lived only eight days after the operation.

He leaves to mourn his loss a father and mother, seven sisters, one brother, and a host of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held in the home of his parents in Lowell, and the remains were laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery.

Rev. H. H. Harris was the officiating clergyman.

CARD OF THANKS.

For the sympathy and kind assistance of friends and neighbors in our bereavement we wish to express our grateful thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kinon and Family.

CLOVER LEAF CLUB.

The Clover Leaf club met at the home of Mrs. David Mangle on Tuesday, January 18, the Lowell literary club being guests for the afternoon.

After a short business meeting the president, Mrs. A. M. Andrews, introduced Mrs. C. L. Thompson, of Muskegon, who gave a most interesting and educational lecture along the lines of "Civic Improvement, Community Welfare and Americanization."

The meeting closed with a piano solo by Mrs. Harvey Haysner, after which the company joined in singing America.

Vergennes Grange will meet Friday evening, Jan. 21. Let all members make an effort to attend this first meeting with our new officers. Meeting called at eight o'clock, standard time.

LOWELL METHODIST CHURCH.

The sympathy of our church is extended to the members and friends of the Baptist church in the death of Miss Mary Ecker, who has for so long a time been a faithful leader and worker in that church.

The social gathering that the young ladies class gave last Wednesday evening, at the home of Miss Pauline Behler, in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Davidson, was surely a real success. There were eighteen present. The refreshments were delicious and the games planned by Miss Hazel Stocking, were very enjoyable. This is a splendid class and they are anxious to add more to their number. Mrs. Davidson will be away for several weeks on a visit, and Miss Esther Kiel, the assistant teacher will have charge of the class.

The Euodian class will meet with Mrs. A. M. Andrews on Friday afternoon for a business and social hour. All members of the class are urged to be present.

The Vergennes Ladies Aid society will meet at the parsonage on Thursday for a pot luck dinner and business meeting.

VERGENNES CO-OPERATIVE

The January meeting of the Vergennes Co-operative club was held with Mrs. C. M. Himebaugh.

Meeting called to order by the president, Mrs. C. M. James. Roll call, quotations from Tennyson. A lively business meeting followed full of "pup" and "promise" as befitted the New Year. The electric light committee was authorized to work, and work some more. The subject of a more convenient voting place for Vergennes was discussed, and a committee appointed to investigate the "Who Knows her neighbor?" was another live question. A committee of the whole was appointed and instructed to call on the bar.

The director, Mrs. G. B. Fero began the program with a song by the club chorus.

Mrs. Allen Bennett read Tennyson's beautiful poem, "Crossing the Bar."

"The Human Touch," a poem just fitting the spirit of the day was read by Mrs. Fero.

Several humorous articles were read by different members and parliamentary discipline was lax.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet Feb. 3 with Mrs. M. L. Bailey.

Roll call, quotations from Lincoln.

CARD OF THANKS.

The undersigned wish to thank their many friends for kindness and sympathy during our recent illness, especially the Cheerful Dones, for their beautiful flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Howl.

KENT SOLONS O. K. STATE TROOPERS.

Kent county board of supervisors Tuesday morning by a vote of 33 to 13 passed a resolution providing the police came after a sharp lift between Supervisor Will Thompson of Cannon township and Supervisor Oscar Kilstrom, of Grand Rapids. Thomas asserted the city supervisors want the police simply as a source of "fat jobs for their favorites."

"A majority of the farmers does not want the constabulary," Thomas asserted, and it seems very strange to me that all the city supervisors should favor them when they are so amply protected by the police and sheriff's force."

Kilstrom warned the abolition of the constabulary will mean the adoption soon of a conscription law forcing all young men to take military training.

The resolution as drawn by Prosecuting Attorney Cornelius Hoffman and finally passed reads: "Whereas, the governor of the state has a definite program of consolidation for the state departments which would require the services of such an organization as the state constabulary in commendable and useful police work, therefore be it resolved, That this board approve the program, as outlined by the governor in his message to the 1921 legislature and that the legislators from the county of Kent be requested to use their best endeavors to retain the state constabulary in the line of work as recommended by the governor."

E. V. Colby, manager of the Alto creamery, made The Ledger office a business call Wednesday.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH NOTES.

At a call of the Sunday school board the superintendent, teachers and their assistants met at the home of C. P. Neff Friday evening. Warm discussions were held and interesting plans formed to be worked out in the near future.

The Mens' class, C. W. Appleton, teacher, which in its beginning numbered only three members, last Sunday reached the goal of 26 enrolled members. A lively enthusiastic bunch they are too.

Cheerful Doers, this means the long postponed banquet. Date to be given out next Sunday. C. H. Runciman and H. J. Coons, proved excellent scouts in the general round up.

If we are to receive as lively a quiz each Sabbath as our assistant superintendent gave us last Sunday, it is very evident our Sunday school lessons must be well prepared beforehand.

No. 2 will meet with Mrs. Arthur Armstrong Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Come and bring your thimbles and scissors.

All members who failed to attend the coffee served by Division Four at Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stocking's last Friday missed not only a good feed, but an enjoyable time socially.

Christian Endeavor Sunday evening at 6:15. The meetings are especially interesting and everybody is cordially invited to attend. Come and see how we are going to help the church this year.

Morning service 10:30. Topic, "Open-mindedness and Hard Headedness." All hard headed people are especially invited to be present.

Evening service in charge of Mr. Claffin, a former pastor of the First Congregational church at Pittsburg. He comes in the interest of Olivet college.

TOM BROWN'S SCHOOL DAYS

By THOMAS HUGHES

Condensation by William Fenwick Harris

Tom Brown was a new world for Tom. He was a sturdy, and comely, archaic, able to fend for himself on his own hand; yet it was a great boon for him to be taken into the hands of a boy of his own age, but a bit ahead of him at Rugby. The first night he was in his room, he was a little shy of the crowd of youngsters who looked quite as if they owned the place. One of these young heroes ran out from the rest and accosted Tom. "Hi, Tom! You're a new one, aren't you? You're a new one, aren't you? You're a new one, aren't you?"

Revising its work which was dropped several months ago the Ionia county chapter of the American Red Cross has obtained a new executive secretary. Mrs. Alice I. Hunter, and a community nurse, Miss Lily Young. Social service and a health program will be undertaken at once, it is said.

Decision on the transfer of the state trunk line from the Plainfield avenue road to the Coit avenue road will await an inspection by State Highway Commissioner Rogers, the Kent county road commission has decided. The Kent county commissioners are understood to favor the proposition. One hundred resident in Coit and Plainfield avenues attended a meeting in the court house to discuss the advan-

Take a good look at these prices— they're the lowest we can offer to men this season

Here is plainly the most important clothes-selling event of the season, because we have cut prices to the lowest possible level. It's a giving-away affair. Our profits are not only ignored—they are lost. You couldn't ask for a better opportunity.

War on immorality and statutory offenses, of which there is said to be an epidemic in Ionia county, has been declared by Prosecutor Harry H. Gemund. Four men have already been arrested and warrants will likely be issued for several more, it is stated. State police plain clothes men are assisting in the roundup. All cases will be vigorously prosecuted, says Gemund.

Wednesday was a day for small blazes. In the morning the roof of the engine room of the Chase Furniture factory got afire; but two or three pails of water fixed it. In the afternoon fire was discovered in Will Wood's tool house, being used to smoke some meat. It got smoked all right, and the fire department was called out. Damage to building about $50; meat mostly lost. In the early evening another alarm was sounded on account of fire in engine room of the Michigan Bent Rim company. Fire department responded. Loss small.

GRAND RAPIDS.
Coroner Simeon Le Roy has ordered an inquest into the accident, which caused the death of James Ellis, a farmer. Ellis was struck by an automobile driven by Walter O. Krieger, and died a few days later without gaining consciousness. A week ago Veronca Woronicki, 16 and pretty, told her father Florin Woronicki, she was going down town to see a friend. She has not returned, and all trace of her has been lost. Police have been asked to aid in the search. John Hedberg, 54, was severely burned about the hands and face in an explosion in the boiler room of the plant at which he was employed. William H. Colyer, Cedar Springs farmer, has been fined $300 by Judge W. B. Perkins for selling dis-

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Every Ford Owner Should Know

Just what Ford Service is, and why it is different from ordinary garage service, and why it is more profitable to patronize the Authorized Ford Dealer?—The Ford Dealer is a part of the Big Ford Family. He carries a large stock of genuine Ford parts for repairs and replacements so you don't have to wait while he sends for them, and he uses only genuine parts because he knows the imitation parts aren't dependable and don't wear.

He has a thoroughly equipped up-to-the-minute garage with tools that enable his Ford Mechanics to efficiently and properly make any repair—from a minor adjustment to a complete overhaul. And when the work is finished, his bill represents the reasonable, standard Ford prices.

Now, we are Authorized Ford Dealers—a part of that great Ford organization which was formed chiefly to put within each community a dealer who would have more than a passing interest in Ford repairs and adjustments. We are prepared and equipped to render prompt, careful Ford service. Drive in or 'phone and we'll come after your car.

We have several good used cars on hand. See us at once for bargain prices
