HOME TALENT? WE'LL SAY YES!

LOWELL REBEKAH LODGE MADE MISS BOB WHITE GREAT SUCCESS

Splendid Audience Applauded First Performance of Musical Comedy. Another Show This Thursday Evening.

"Miss Bob White," as presented by the John B. Rogers company under the personal direction of Miss Mae Kelly and the auspices of Lowell Rebekah Lodge was certainly a winner, reflecting credit on all concerned, the capable and energetic directress, the actors and singers and the Rebekahs for their efficient and painstaking management.

The term "home talent," is no misnomer in this case, for the work done in the brief time spent in preparation by busy people engaged in the various active walks of life, was certainly surprising and pleasing to their many friends.

Mrs. Charles Doyle, whose vocal gifts have long delighted her auditors, showed in "Miss Bob White" an unusual dramatic ability.

Elmer White and Dan Simon as tramps were a whole show in themselves. R. T. Ford as Duke of High Titles and Clifford Stinchcomb as Lord Bashful did well in different roles. Mrs. Elmer White as Miss Autumn fully sustained her reputation as an entertainer.

All the parts were well taken as shown in the following cast of characters:

Lord Bashful, Clifford Stinchcomb. Friend Roddy, Mrs. Dan Simon, Phyllis (his daughter) Gladys Roe. Jack (her sweetheart), Orrin Stevins.

Duke of High Titles, R. T. Ford. Miss Autumn, Mrs. Elmer White.

Archie Tre Billon, Dan Simon, Billy Van Millon, Dan Simon, Maggie (the maid) Mrs. O. J. Yeiter. Claire Livingston (Miss Bob White), Mrs. Chas. Doyle.

O'Yankemin (Irish Policeman) Rob. Ford. George Washington DeVere, Clyde Spencer.

Participants in the several musical numbers were as follows:

Fox Hunters Chorus, Oswald Bank, Harold Anderson, Lawrence Aldrich, Morris Miller, William Appleton, Bud Moore, Gerald Henry, Carl Flugus.

Colonial Dames Chorus, Mrs. Wm. Flynn, Mrs. Dan Simon, Mrs. Maude McNaughton, Mrs. Don Phillips, Mrs. Jay Ellis, Mrs. Lewis Jones, Mrs. B. H. Shepard.

Bob White Chorus, Hazel Stocking, Pauline Marston, Marion Anderson, Dana Dalloway, Frances Leonard, Ethel Morris, Merle Jacobson, Edith Charles, Evelyn Curtis.

Milkmaids and Farmers Chorus, Alice Taylor, Marion Draper, Mildred Peckham, Alma Burdick, Bernice Rittenger, Elsie Rittenger, Mary Cameron, Vera Pattison, Beatrice Pattison, Olive Kropf, Lorna Dowe, Vivian Haysmer, Hazel Borgerson, Thelma Dyk.

Jackies Chorus, Thelma Clark, Olive Gaunt, Lenora Gardner, Lila Kyser, Marion McMahon, Alma Wingeier, Erna Odell, Abbie Odell.

Not the least pleasing feature was the Bubbleland chorus in which sixty little girls participated with Lenora Gardner as solo dancer.

The following musical numbers were given:

Opening Chorus, Fox Hunters. Swing Song, Phyllis and Jack. One Only-at Dames, Miss Autumn and Chorus.

An English Sparrow Me So, Duke, Lord Bashful, Miss Autumn and Chorus.

By Chance We're Both Willies, Tre and Van.

There was Once a King, Duke, Lord Bashful, Miss Autumn, Dames, Charming Song, Bob White, Phyllis, Van, Tre, Lord Bashful.

A Tramp Has Ups and Downs, Tre and Van.

O, Mr. Policeman, Ensemble. Rap-a-tap, Milkmaids and Farmers Chorus.

Peggy, Ensemble. Finale, Mystery of Love, Laughing Chorus.

Meet Me in Bubble Land, Bubble Land Chorus.

In Society, Bob, Tre and Van. I Can't Leave the Girls Alone, Lester Bailey and Chorus.

If You Would be a Jackie, Jack and Chorus.

Finale, Ensemble. Miss Florence Nelson very capably accompanied the musical numbers at the piano.

Warner's orchestra furnished several popular selections during the evening.

The performance will be repeated this (Thursday) evening.

A matter of special interest to the people connected with this enterprise was the participation of the charming directress Miss Edith Mae Kelly of Cincinnati to Mr. Charles Stalter of New York City, which took place in Grand Rapids Wednesday at 10:30 a. m.

From there they will go to a play and from there to New York city, where they will make their home.

ROCKFORD AND ALTO BOYS WILL TOUR GRAND RAPIDS

More than 100 boys of Rockford and Alto high schools will come to Grand Rapids Friday for an educational trip through the city, under the leadership of W. E. Milliman, Kent county Y. M. C. secretary.

They will visit the fish hatchery, filtration plant, museum, Grand Rapids Press Printing shop, and will be allowed the privileges of the Y. M. C. A. physical department and swimming pool.

In the afternoon the Grand Rapids fire department will stage an exhibition in fire fighting for their benefit near No. 1 engine house.

The visit is one of the activities of the Kent county "Y" educational program and is led in the cities by the following committees: Rockford, E. H. Chapple, superintendent of Rockford high school; E. B. Thurston, Lee Fears and Dick Kimm; Alto, E. F. Lee, superintendent of schools, W. H. Watts and Charles Brown.—Grand Rapids Herald.

LOWELL SCHOOL NOTES

The Junior play, scheduled for Alto on Saturday, was postponed until Tuesday night on account of the severity of the weather. The Juniors played to a capacity house. Thurston Springstead, playing the role of Peter Hartleigh, was sick and Frank Morse filled the part, playing admirably.

Senior play practice was postponed until next week because of the production of Miss Bob White at the City hall, in which several seniors take part.

Arthur Getty, a former student, visited the school on Wednesday. Miss Fair was ill during the past week.

BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

Annual Meeting Re-elects Former Officers. Secretary's Report Shows Prosperity.

At the annual meeting of the Lowell Building & Loan association Monday evening the following trustees were re-elected: J. B. Yeiter, F. G. Taylor, F. M. Johnson and Earl Hunter. The board of directors re-elected the following officers: President, M. C. Greene; vice president, F. E. White; secretary, J. B. Yeiter; treasurer, M. A. Taylor.

The secretary's report showed the association to be in a prosperous condition. The 39th series of stock which matured in January was worth $101.71 per share; and the 40th series matures July 1. The great need of the association is more investing members, to meet its demands for loans. Fine opportunity for young people to make profitable investments of savings.

$5.00 a month deposited here will amount to $1,000 in a few years. New percales at Collar's. adv

BUILD GRAND STAND

Board of Trade Committee to Investigate Plans, Costs, Location, Etc.

Members of the Lowell Board of Trade enjoyed one of Mine Host Brezina's extra good suppers last Thursday evening. Followed a smoker which most of the fellows enjoyed and a few endured—martyrs, we'll say.

President C. Doyle presided over the business meeting that followed, which took the form of a free-for-all talk.

The Grattan-Parnell good road project: At Mr. Coon's request D. G. Look was substituted as chairman of the committee owing to his road building experience. Mr. Coons remains a member of the committee.

M. B. McPherson quoted as thinking the road can be built as a county and Kent take-way was quoted as doubtful.

Lowell horsemen want some race meets this season. Will keep track in good condition, want automobiles kept off and desire co-operation of the Board of Trade. Friendly spirit shown.

American Legion will sponsor base ball this season and will build a grandstand if B. of T. will find the material. Change of location to west side of park advocated. As committee on grand stand D. G. Look, C. H. Runciman and J. J. Lalley were appointed.

Mr. Look advocated a "Grand Stand" opening day, with races and base ball attractions, to help pay for the building. Good suggestion. Use the Boy Scouts band for this too. Pay for the stand? Sure thing.

Chase Manufacturing company reported as fulfilling its contract with the B. of T., employing from 10 to 15 men at this present slack time.

The matter of placing stock for the Michigan Motor garment company was referred to a committee of which D. G. Look is chairman. (See note below.)

E. A. Anderson advocated an early start on Lowell Community fair advertising and October 12, 13, 14 were the dates selected. Action in the matter left up to the B. of T. officers and Messrs. Anderson, Look and Lalley.

H. J. Coons presented the matter of the Chautauqua and asked the co-operation of the B. of T. in response a vote favoring such action was taken.

Note—The committee has since received and is reviewing local business men they find it impossible to float the necessary subscription under present conditions. There is no lack of enthusiasm and good will for advertising in question and it is only the present unusual financial and business conditions that make it impossible for your committee to obtain favorable results in the matter.

In his letter about the matter to the Motor Garment company, President Doyle, stated that it is quite likely that following recovery from present financial pressure local business men would gladly purchase some of the preferred stock.

CEMETERY NOTICE

The township board has secured the services of Alfred Anderson and he has been appointed sexton of Oakwood cemetery.

We have adapted a new plan, for Lowell at least, all money received for the sale of lots for opening and closing graves, for foundations for monuments, special care of lots and water will be paid to the township clerk, he giving a receipt therefor. All bills will be paid by him giving order on treasurer. The price for special care of lots including water $5.00. Those desiring please notify the clerk. It is our aim to put the cemetery in the very best shape we can with our limited amount of money for that purpose. We are considering a receiving vault which matter will be discussed later.

Respectfully, Frank N. White, Township Clerk. Lowell, Mich., April 19, 1921.
