A GOOD MAN GONE

Well-Known Boston Township Farmer Has Plowed His Last Furrow

M. T. STORY
 Matthew Thomas Story was born in Boston township, Ionia county, Michigan, April 1852, departed this life May 8, 1921, aged 69 years, 1 mo., 5 days.

He was united in marriage Dec. 8, 1875, to Emma L. Ware of Boston, who passed to the spirit world on June 13, 1920. Mr. and Mrs. Story lived with her mother one year after being married then on Jan. 1, 1877, started keeping home in their new home that had just been completed.

Four children were born to them, Ralph, Carl, Bessie and a daughter who lived only a few weeks to brighten the home and passed away Oct. 2, 1882.

Mr. Story has spent his life on the farm in Boston. Was a quiet unassuming man, dearly attached to his family and interested in the welfare of his community. He has deeply felt the loss of his beloved wife. After a brief illness he passed away at his residence on Sunday, May 8.

It can truly be said of Mr. Story "That good one has gone from our midst." He was loved by all who knew him.

He is survived by the sons and daughter, Mrs. Edward Kysar, of Lowell and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the home of his daughter in Lowell Tuesday at 2 p. m., Rev. A. H. Lash of Lake Odessa officiating.—(Com.)

WORK AT OAKWOOD

Lowell Cemetery Will be a Place of Beauty by Decoration Day.

The Lowell township board is considering the purchase of two-rod wide strip of land on the hill at the head of Monroe street, running north to the north side of the last cemetery purchase. This can be bought reasonably. Contains many fine burial lots and would afford a convenient site for a storage vault at the end of Monroe street, something that has long been needed here to provide against the difficulties and dangers of extreme winter weather burials.

Lots are being taken rapidly on the new plot and lot owners throughout the cemetery are arranging with the board for the care of their lots on terms as published.

Work of cleaning up the whole cemetery is progressing rapidly and will appear at its best on the coming Memorial day.

Township Clerk White, Justice Andrews and other members of the board are to be commended for the interest they have taken in this matter.

Obituary—Mrs. Charles Forman.
 Rose Dingler was born in Oneida township, Eaton county, Sept. 12, 1864, and died at her home in Lowell, Mich., May 9, 1921.

On Jan. 3, 1883, she was married to Charles Forman. To this union was born one son, Clyde J. Forman, whose home is in Newaygo.

Soon after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Forman moved to Lowell, and with the exception of 5 years, this has since been their home. Feb. 21, 1892, she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and was one of its devoted members.

She leaves to mourn her loss, besides her husband and son, four sisters, one brother, five grandchildren and a host of friends.

The funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon and the remains laid to rest in Oakwood cemetery. Rev. H. H. Harris conducted the funeral services.

TERRENCE CORRIGAN

Vergennes Farmer Found Dead in Bed Wednesday Morning.

Terrence Corrigan, a well-known Vergennes township farmer, aged 54, was found dead in bed at his home Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock.

Death must have been very sudden as he had not complained of being unwell and is known to have been alive at 4 o'clock.

Coroner Hilliker thinks death resulted from an organic trouble brought on by an injury to his back about a year ago.

Mr. Corrigan is survived by one daughter, Mrs. John Czerwinski, of Detroit, one brother, John of Grand Rapids, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Norton and Misses Libbie and Jennie Corrigan. Funeral services will be held at Parnell at 9 o'clock Friday morning.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Morning service 10:30. Topic, "The Elusiveness of Opportunity."
 "Once to every man and nation comes the moment to decide"—declares a well-known line. Is it true? Let us try to correctly measure the present opportunity of the church. Sunday school, 11:45.

Christian Endeavor, 6:30. Topic, "How to enjoy one's work." Eccl. I, 1:3-17, 18-20. Leader, Mrs. Clyde Mullen.

Evening service at 7:30. Topic, "What Lowell Needs." We will try fairly and sympathetically to suggest some things that will count for a bigger and better Lowell.

Law Sunday's Sunday school attendance broke the record. Three classes held their sessions out of doors.

GIRLS' CONFERENCE

Lowell School Notes Reporter Shows Fine County Meeting Here

The second annual Kent County Girls' Conference was held Saturday at the Lowell High school. In all, about 200 girls registered: 60 came from Rockford, 12 from Caledonia, 15 from Sparta, 7 from Grandville, 9 from Alton.

At 9:30, Miss Roe led the assembly in community singing. Mrs. H. H. Harris gave the invocation. The program proper began with a hearty welcoming speech by Miss Thelma Clark, the vice president of the association.

The first speaker was Mrs. Truax of the Grand Rapids Vocational Training School. Her subject was "A High School Girl's Social Life." Mrs. Truax was an exceptionally interesting talker. Her subject seemed to suit her and one could tell from her talk that she believed in what she said with all her heart. She advocated the forming of a taste for good literature, and advanced many other good ideas.

The Lowell High Girls' Glee club then very appropriately rendered "For get me not." This was so much enjoyed that they were forced to respond with the encore, "Pussy in the Cell."

The last thing on the program in the morning session was a talk by Mrs. Charles French of the M. S. N. C., Ypsilanti, Michigan. Mrs. French was one of the most pleasant talkers I have ever heard of. She talked on the "Progress of Women." She told how one by one different tasks have been taken out of the home until it would almost seem that the modern woman has little to do, but she said that to keep one's home running smoothly and to be always ready to do what one's husband wishes, one has plenty to keep busy. Mrs. French was animated and full of fun and altogether, her talk was very enjoyable.

At 12:15 a dinner was served which words fail to describe. In fact, the dinner alone was worth the price of admission. The ladies from the other churches who were responsible, surely deserve a hearty vote of thanks. During the dinner the High school orchestra rendered some pleasing selections.

The afternoon session opened with fifteen minutes of wide-awake peppy community singing led by Miss Roe. A business meeting was then held at which the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Alice Eastman, Lowell, president. Dorothy Clark, Rockford, vice president. VanDusen, Caledonia, second vice president. Gladys Gant, Sparta, secretary and treasurer.

Sparta then extended an invitation to the assembly to meet with them next year. This was heartily accepted.

Miss Jessie Phelps from the M. S. N. C., Ypsilanti, Michigan, gave a very instructive talk on "The Meaning of Womanhood." She said that, contrary to general opinion, high school girls were naturally serious minded; that everyone should treat serious things seriously and light things lightly. She also contradicted the idea that our school days were the happiest of our lives. She said that if we were not making every day happier than the preceding one, we were making a failure, not success, of life. We should be constantly learning how to be happier.

Miss Roe then sang a solo, "Spring is here" and responded to an encore with "Little Mother of Mine."

Miss Harriet Hurrey, Industrial Secretary of the Y. W. C. A., Grand Rapids, gave an extremely interesting talk on "The High School Girl's Religious Life." Miss Hurrey was not only full of life but also of her subject. She pictured religion as something we all could live and enjoy and not as something for a chosen few. She showed how it could be applied in our every day school life to a great advantage.

The conference closed by the assembly singing "America" and by a short prayer by Miss Hurrey.

SCHOOL NOTES

A Senior High school picnic will be held Monday afternoon, the grounds to be decided on later. The entire Senior High school and Senior High teachers will go. A field meet will take place. Each class must enter five contestants in each event, no single contestant being allowed to enter more than two events. The class winning the meet will receive a prize. Prizes are also offered for individual winners.

The girls will take part in the following events: Eight-pound shot put, standing broad jump, standing high jump, basketball throw, baseball throw, hop skip jump. The boys will participate in these events: Hundred yard dash, twelve-pound shot standing jump, running jump, standing high jump throw basketball, throw baseball. Points are given, first place five, second place four, third place three, fourth place two, fifth place one. The girls will carry box lunches which will be sold to pay for the picnic expenses.

The nutrition class, which has been organized by Miss Pease with the assistance of the Lowell physicians, has been meeting at the Lowell High school every Tuesday afternoon. All children who are underweight have been urged to join the class. At present there are fifteen members. The children are given a lunch in the morning and the afternoon by the girls of the Domestic Science department. Already results have been obtained. The children not only gained in weight but have shown marked improvement in their physical conditions.

CEMETERY NOTICE

The township board has secured the services of Alfred Anderson and he has been appointed sexton of Oakwood cemetery.

We have adopted a new plan, for Lowell at least, all money received for the sale of lots, for opening and closing graves, for foundations for monuments, special care of lots and water will be paid to the township clerk, he giving a receipt therefor. All bills will be paid by him giving order on treasurer. The price for special care of lots including water $5.00. Those desiring please notify the clerk. It is our aim to put the cemetery in the very best shape we can with our limited amount of money for that purpose. We are considering a receiving vault which matter will be discussed later.

Respectfully,
 Frank N. White,
 Township Clerk,
 Lowell, Mich., April 19, 1921. tf

SPORTING NEWS

Spring time has come and athletic sports have returned with it. The Lowell baseball team's first game of the season will be played with the Freeport Independents at Lowell Sunday, May 15. The game called at 3:30 p. m.

Stuart and Dresser are engaged to twist the ball for us this season and old horse Ronney will do the receiving behind the bat.

Not much change in the line up from last year, just one new face which resembles a monkey face. Turn out and see who it is.

We are sparing no time or money to put the ground in first class shape. There were seventeen good faithful fellows working on the diamond Monday night until almost midnight getting it in good shape.

Have eight games booked at present with the fastest teams in Western Michigan.

Another section of the grand stand is to be built soon?

We have arranged to take care of your thirst as the hydrant at the grounds is in good repair.

Ionia will play their first game here May 20.

The management is trying to get a game for some Thursday afternoon but it has been impossible to get a team as yet, on a week day, owing to the players on surrounding town teams being busily engaged at this time of the year.

VOCATIONAL TOPICS

Discussed by Principal Geo. Frazee Before Lowell Literary Club. The regular meeting of the Lowell Literary club which convened at the home of Mrs. B. M. Shivel on May 4, found about seventy-five members and guests present.

After a brief business session, Mrs. Shivel, chairman for the day, took charge and announced the following program.

Victrola selection, "Home to our Mountains," sung by Caruso and Schuman-Heink.

Vocal duet, "Come Sing to Me," Thompson, by Madames Henry and Doyle. Encore, "Absent," Metcalf.

Mrs. Shivel then introduced Mr. Geo. Frazee, Jr., principal of the Grand Rapids Vocational Training school who gave splendid address on Vocational Counseling. After telling his experience along different lines of work he said he found his vocation as a "happy school teacher" which he has followed for twenty years. Very forcefully did he picture the disaster for one to spend time and money learning a profession and then fail as a doctor, engineer or teacher because he had not known the demands that were to be made of him and was therefore unable to cope with the situation when he met it.

He further stated that he thought it a good idea for the child to begin as early as the sixth or seventh grade and study the different phases a profession presented—learn its demands, its favorable and unfavorable aspects and thus avoid the tragedy of finding himself at the end of his long career unfit for the profession for which he had fitted himself.

Mr. Frazee was heartily applauded and was requested to speak longer with the club, giving a brief outline of the work of the school of which he is principal.

The Grand Rapids Vocational Training school is supported by the United States government, the state government and the city and is under the supervision of the board of education.

There two classes of students. The Junior continuation, which includes boys and girls between the ages of fourteen and eighteen, and the Senior continuation which includes those between the ages of eighteen and sixty. They may take any course course and stay as long as they want to.

The school especially welcomes the returned soldier. Mr. Frazee cited the case of a soldier who came to him. He had been gassed and was suffering from shell shock and had practically lost his memory and could no longer read nor write. But under the ever encouraging efforts of the school he had become a book-keeper and self-supporting. Without this training he would soon have become an idler.

Mr. Frazee has a pleasing personality and is a fluent speaker. The ladies appreciated his address and enjoyed listening to him was shown by their rapt attention and hearty applause.

To conclude the program, Mrs. L. W. Rutherford sang, "A Song of Sunshine," A. Goring Thomas, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. T. Webb and Mrs. Raymond Bergin, served delicious punch and assorted wafers.

The club adjourned to meet on Wednesday, May 18, at the City hall at which time the president, Mr. Chas. Doyle, will give a concert in song, assisted by Mrs. H. L. Weekes at the piano.

The Clover Leaf club is invited to this, our last meeting of the year. Press Reporter.
