THIEVES ESCAPE $100,000.000. THREE CONVICTED IN HOLDUPS AT TOLEDO SLUG WAY OUT OF COUNTY LOCKUP. KNOCK TURKEY UNCONSCIOUS. Jail Physician Prevents Others From Getting Away By Locking Door of Corridor.

Toledo, O.—Three of the $100,000,000 Toledo postoffice robbery band escaped from the Lucas county jail Labor Day afternoon after overpowering a turn-of-key, Deputy Sheriff James J. Williams, Sheriff J. J. Williams, William Shaprio, jail physician. The escape was made without revolvers or other weapons.

By EDWARD B. CLARK. Washington.—There is an old law, passed by congress in 1874, which provides that former federal officials shall not appear as lawyers to prosecute cases against the government arising from their official duties within two years of the office. This law has been disregarded for years, but it is now being enforced.

Mr. Burns went with the second release from 1880 until 1907, and was considered during a great part of that period as the most efficient of the first big jobs, and perhaps the biggest that he has to his credit in 1908.

Dr. Shaprio prevented the escape of the other eight members of the band by leading into a cell with corridor keys and locking the door.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Shear are spending the week with relatives at Carson City.

Magazine subscriptions received at The Ledger office and prompt attention guaranteed.

Mrs. R. C. English, of Grand Rapids, came today to receive several days at Seven Oaks. Mr. English will join her Saturday for a week-end visit.

Maj. Gen. John G. Emery, of Grand Rapids, national commander of the American Legion is expected to act as judge of the post parade at the Lowell Community fair.

Next Sunday will be the last week of the conference year for Rev. H. H. Harris' pastorate of the Lowell Methodist church; but he will not be the last of Lowell for the worthy pastor and his wife, if Lowell people have any influence in the matter. They are a good team and their work prospers.

Miss Katherine Towley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Towley, formerly of Lowell, is highly complimented by the Grand Rapids papers as the star in the local dramatic production of "Step This Way" presented in that city. Mrs. John Lashby witnessed the play and is warm in her praise of Miss Towley.

A Grand Rapids-Detroit bus line is running through Lowell, where a car is due every hour, with fifteen cars between Grand Rapids and Lansing, where transfers are made. The cars stop at Hotel Waverly and the fare to Detroit is about $5.25. Sedans are used on the Lansing-Detroit drive. Time for thru trip about five hours.

Mary I. Phillips, widow of Jerome E. Phillips, whose estate is a stockholder and depositor in the Farmers and Merchants bank, has filed a protest in circuit court against the allowance of any claim of the depository committee for its services. This is the third paper of the kind to be filed in this case in two days.—Herald.

Rev. D. F. Warner will leave soon to accept a pastorate in Minneapolis, his health having been restored so that he feels able to take up regular work. Nothing like country air to set ailing townspeople on their feet. Mr. Warner is not burning his bridges behind him; but is keeping his Lowell property as a safe retreat when needed.

The Ledger's next serial story will be "No Defense," a romance by Sir Gilbert Parker, author of "The Seats of the Mighty," "Right of Way," and other famous novels. It will follow "The Wreckers," which will soon be finished. "No Defense" is largely Irish in its characters and setting and the time is that of the French revolution. It is a state of unusual action and interest and was personally selected by The Ledger Editor from a number of serials as worthy of Ledger homes and readers.

Prosecuting Attorney Hollis made a sound judicial suggestion when in speaking to the special officers' traffic squad of the Safety Council this week he urged that offenders against the new state speed law on country roads be punished more severely than in the past. When the limit was 25 miles an hour the authorities were inclined to be lenient and to permit motorists to travel 30 and even 35 miles an hour so long as they exercised care. But 35 miles is fast enough for anyone at any time. Speeders who go beyond that limit are a menace to country motoring.—Herald.

Whitneyville woman halts Negro's attack with gun and broom. With a whisk broom and a rifle as her weapons, Mrs. Stevens, 35, successfully repulsed attacks made upon her by a Negro who entered the kitchen of her home near Whitneyville yesterday morning, according to reports filed to Sheriff Peter Viergever yesterday.

Mrs. Stevens told officers the man entered her home through a front door while her husband was away and seized her. Beating her assailant in the face with a small broom, she succeeded in breaking away. She ran into a dining room, she told officers, seized a rifle of small caliber and fired it at the man, who immediately ran out of the house, jumped a fence and disappeared.

Deputies Bolt, Johnson, Wyman and Jannenga scoured the vicinity but failed to find the man. Mrs. Stevens said she believed the shot had taken effect. No mark of the bullet was found about the house by the officers.—Grand Rapids Herald.

CHOICE OF HERDS DIE

Cattle Owners are Game Losers as Tubercular A valuable Herd are Sacrificed

A "good losers" convention was held at the Wilson slaughter house, north of the city, yesterday, when 12 tubercular cattle were killed by Kent county.

Roy C. Blackburn, of Cedar Springs, saw two of his thoroughbred Holsteins, valued at $600 apiece, sacrificed to the betterment of the public health. W. H. Whittier said good-bye to his "Molly's Pride," a registered animal valued at $700.

The owners did not exactly lose with a snarl, but they joined with city, county and federal officials present in commendation of the cure by the knife.

The public slaughter was planned as a practical method of firing the best gun in a campaign toward purifying the county's milk supply. Officials and farmers exchanged views at an outdoor meeting held during the morning at the slaughter house.

Prosecution of the campaign depends upon the appropriation by the county of a sum of money sufficient to carry it through. The state has offered to detail a trained inspector to assist in the campaign.

County Agricultural Agent R. G. Carr says that the farmers seem enthusiastic on the subject of insuring pure milk and willing to stand any loss which may be their lot in operations upon the herds.

Commissioner Julius Tisch and Treasurer Elenius De Vries represented the city at yesterday's demonstration. Dr. W. B. Schmeer, also among those present—Grand Rapids Herald.

CALEDONIA PAYS TRIBUTE TO SLAIN DEPUTY SHERIFF; CROWDS ATTEND FUNERAL. Caledonia business places were closed yesterday and the entire town paid a last tribute to Deputy Sheriff Charles Forward, slain Sunday morning when he attempted to arrest Edward Simmons, alias Hubert E. Delaney, farm hand.

Hundreds attended funeral services at the Methodist church in the village and many were unable to gain entrance. Members of the Odd Fellows lodge marched en masse to the services which were attended by a delegation of Grand Rapids officers in honor of those present were Sheriff Peter Viergever, Under Sheriff Edward O'Donnell, and Deputies Jannenga, Bolt, Johnson, (Shinski and King. Burial was in Lakeview cemetery.

At Butterworth hospital, the condition of Simmons continued to improve and the injured man, guarded by officers continually, pleaded to be removed to the county jail. Physicians have not believed his removal advisable.—Herald.

SIXTY YEARS WED

Cannonsburg Couple Celebrated Anniversary Sept. 7. From our Cannonsburg Scriber: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Ward, aged 82 and 80 years, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary September seventh, 1921.

There were forty guests and a bountiful dinner was served on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Herrington, the latter being a daughter of the aged couple. Those from a distance of friends and relatives were: Mr. and Mrs. Chris Choats, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Choats, Mrs. Frank Boyde and Fred Benton, all of Belding, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hoadley, of Cedar Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Ward and son Claude, Mrs. Helen Carlson, of Courtland, Mrs. De Long, of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. H. De Long and family, of Elberta, Benzie county, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. George Wilde and daughter Emma, of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward and family of Grattan; Mr. and Mrs. Q. M. Hudson, of Lowell; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilde, and Mrs. H. A. Herrington, Cannonsburg. One daughter, Mrs. S. E. De Long, of Rockford, Ill., was unable to attend on account of illness.

The Rev. J. Church, of Belding, was master of ceremonies, with fitting and pleasing words, presented Mr. and Mrs. Ward with two rocking chairs and numerous other articles. The color scheme was red and white asters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward have resided in Cannon township since 1881. They retired from active farm labor five years ago, and have lived in Cannonsburg during that period.

Their many friends and neighbors extend congratulations, wishing them a happy union the remainder of their days.

CARD OF THANKS. I wish to express my sincere thanks to the Chertoff Doers, the birthday club, and to my neighbors and friends for the beautiful flowers, also for the many acts of kindness shown me during my illness. Especially to Mrs. Frank McGlocklin for the delicious strawberries. Mrs. Rose Ford.

Sir Gilbert Parker

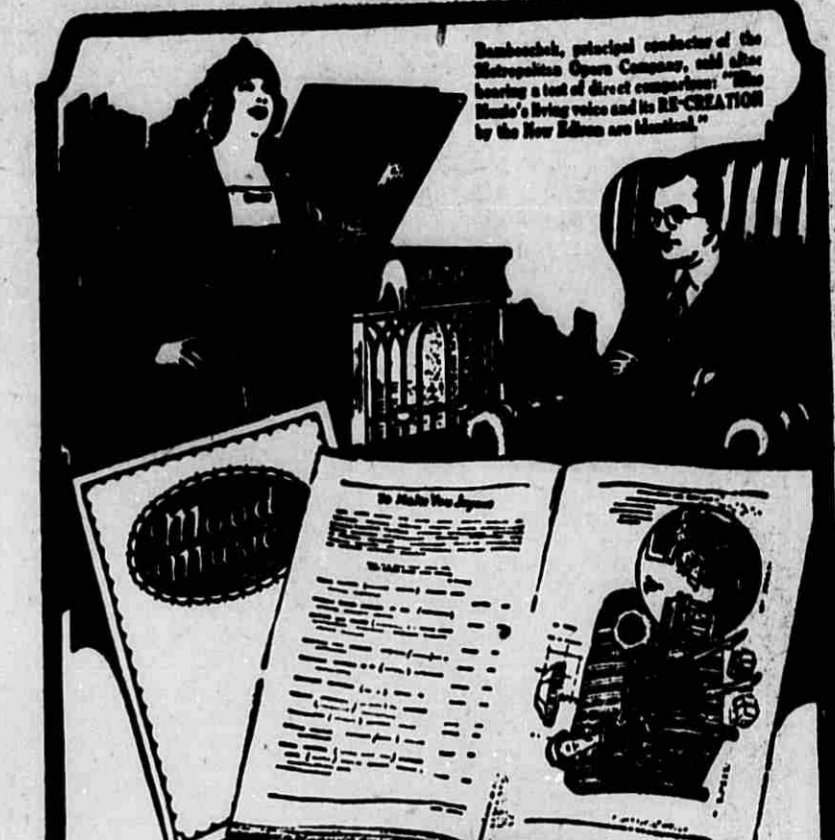

Only a very limited number of Canadians have received the distinction of knighthood. Among them Sir Gilbert Parker stands out most prominently, for he has the unique record of acquiring the honor solely as a recognition of his literary gifts.

Since making him a knight in 1909, the British Empire has conferred additional honors upon him. He was created a baronet of the first class in 1914, a privy councillor in 1916 and later made honorary colonel of the ancient and aristocratic Kent Royal Garrison artillery. He also has a collection of regular and special college degrees.

To most of us he is more impressive as plain Gilbert Parker, one of the foremost novelists of the day, when Sir Gilbert stands out in his own right to his present prominence through the sheer force of ability.

He has written about thirty novels, a book of poems, several successful plays and some books on travel. It was the great Canadian story, "The Right of Way," which established him firmly. This paper has secured one of his very successful stories, "No Defense," for serial printing. It will start soon. Do not miss it.

Mr. Edison announces MOOD MUSIC

BRING or send the coupon. Begin to use music in the remarkable new way developed by Mr. Edison. Everybody admits music's power to banish unpleasant moods, relieve fatigue, bring peace and joy. But no one has been able to tell you which selections to play when tired, which when depressed, etc. Famous psychologists, associated with Mr. Edison, have been working on this problem for two years. They found certain Edison RECORDINGS which brought all these wonderful benefits of music. These they arranged under headings such as "To Make You Joyous," "For More Energy," etc. Get your copy of "Mood Music" at once. Bring or send the coupon.

Who will be next? HIGH SCHOOL FOOT BALL TEAM BEGINS PRACTICE. The Lowell High school ball practice began Monday with eight letter men out for positions, besides a bunch or more of less bushes, who are looking forward to taking the place of the three or four veterans lost by graduation. In all some twenty men reported.

A set of signals are being worked out and the prospects are good for another championship team under Coach Boyce's management. Manning Jones, last year's full back and captain, is assisting in getting the "goldrunners" in the condition for the first game which will probably be played about the last week in September.

At the meeting of the school board held Monday night it was decided that an application for membership be made to the Michigan Interscholastic Athletic Association. If the membership is received it will be the first time that the Lowell High School athletes for the teams can enter in tournaments for state championship in class D, and will play a much better class of schools.

Of course, we all are cognizant of the fact that when one is constantly looking for choice bits of gossip and contention they may be readily found in any community, but if South Boston can be beaten as a desirable rural place in which to wear and the clubbing price of the Herald and Lowell Ledger and Alto Solo will be $5.50 for the regular 10-page Ledger-Solo.
