ARE YOU ONE OF THEM?

HOW true is the old saying, that "the grass always looks greener on the other side of the fence," and how apt we are not to be satisfied until we have GONE OVER THE FENCE, only to discover that we are STUNG, and begin kicking ourselves and wishing we were safely back on the good "OLD PASTURE" again.

IF by chance YOU happen to be one of the MISGUIDED victims of a BEAU-TIFUL trade mark, or the alluring Premium of the peddler man, just get back in the old FRESH ROASTED PASTURE, where you do not have to pay for anything but just COFFEE, and you will save enough in price to buy a Better premium in a Shorter time, and have better coffee ALL the time.

OBITUARY—J. D. BUTTRICK.
Joseph Daniel Buttrick was born at Ada, Michigan, Nov. 13, 1851, and died Sept. 13, 1921, being 69 years and ten months of age at the time of his death.

Nov. 24, 1879, he was married to Miss Julia Nye at Lansing, Kansas. Three children were born to this union, Clyde C., Daniel N., and Bertha.

With the exception of about thirteen years which he spent at Vinland, Kansas, his entire life was spent on the farm where he died, carved out of the wilderness by his father before him.

He was ever active in civic and community affairs, and a past master of Ada lodge, No. 280, F. & A. M., of which organization he had been a member for more than forty years. He was a member of Vesta Chapter, No. 202, O. E. S., and a past patron of the same.

He is survived by the widow, Julia Buttrick, two sons, Clyde C., of Ada, and Daniel N., of Grand Rapids, one daughter, Mrs. Harry L. La Barge, of Lowell, one grandchild, Norrene Lenore La Barge, and an only sister, Mrs. Marion Headley, of Ada.

MAN CRUSHED UNDER ROLLER AS HORSES BECOME FRIGHTENED.

Thomas Renwick, of Potter's corners, 62 years of age, died at 10 o'clock this morning when a heavy roller on which he was riding in a field ran over his head and chest. The tongue of the roller broke and frightened the team and he was thrown from the roller, dying almost instantly.

Renwick was in poor health and had rented his farm to a man named Johnson. He went out this morning to help Johnson for half a day. The team he was riding was a pair of driving horses which were full of life and started with a jump as the tongue broke. Renwick was married a few years ago to Miss Ida Butler, who was formerly a dress maker in Ionia. (Ionia Sentinel Standard.)

LOWELL STREET FAIR

Plans Maturing for Splendid Annual Event Oct. 12-13-14.

Chairman Anderson, of the advertising committee kindly makes the following announcement:
The Community street fair at Lowell, which will be held on our Main street, Oct. 12-13-14 will be a great success, according to all indications.

The premium lists are now in the hands of our local exhibitors. While the seasons have been rather unruddy this year with the cold and heat, moisture and aridity, coming in prolonged bunches, yet the hundreds of exhibits which will line both sides of our main street during fair week will prove to the throngs of visitors that Lowell is centered in one of the best farming districts in the state, where total crop failures are unknown.

The Michigan Agricultural college is greatly interested in the development and success of our community fair.

This year the college is sending five experts to judge the exhibits, while on Farmer's day, Oct. 13, Dean Shaw will give an interesting lecture on "General Farm Conditions."

VERGENNES BIRTHDAY CLUB.
Thursday, Sept. 15, the Vergennes birthday club met with Mrs. Maggie Ford at the home of her son, Roy Ford. A visitor, Mrs. Chris Wittenbach, was with us. The meeting was called to order by the president and some business was attended to. Then there was a very good program of reading and discussion of the need of a wife in a home and the training of children. The rest of the afternoon was spent in visiting, and after partaking of a very fine supper which was enjoyed by all, we separated, hoping to meet again soon.

LOWELL OUT OF BIG TOURNAMENT.
Pope & Heyboers and Hallard Will Battle for State Championship.

From Monday's Herald:—
The state independent baseball championship depends upon the result of the game next Sunday at Bamona Athletic park between the Holland Independents and the Pope & Heyboers, of Grand Rapids, as a result of the semi-finals in the state tournament yesterday afternoon before the largest crowd that ever attended baseball play in Grand Rapids. In the first game the Holland Independents downed the Reed City Independents, 2 to 1. The second went to the Pope & Heyboers, 6 to 1, every one of the six runs being gifts through Lowell misplays.

Steve Ocker, who enjoys the distinction of being one of the city's best bowlers as well as its star pitcher, pitched the game of his lifetime in a holding of the Lowell American Legion hitless and not allowing anything that bore the semblance of a hit, even with the most liberal scoring. Errors by Sager and Barratt gave the Lowell players their lone run and robbed Big Steve of the distinction of a no-run as well as no-hit game.

Misplay Beats Lowell.
Lefty Stuart, of whose delivery but one run was scored in the two games previously won by Lowell in the state championship tournament, was robbed of the glory of pitching another game perhaps as brilliant as his other two through coach's misplays by Second Baseman Dresser. The game really was won in the fifth inning, when a scoreless tie was broken through a costly error by Dresser on the easy chance, allowing Jewell and J. Champion to score after they hit safely.

Three more were scored in the seventh directly through two bats by Dresser and one by Chuski, the latter making a perfect throw to the plate. Ocker and Bines singled during the inning and Jewell drew a pass. Stuart retired in the ninth after Jewell and J. Champion hit safely, the train of his discouraging support telling on a man. Neve of Coral, who shut out the Pope & Heyboers in a game at Coral the Sunday before, finished the ninth inning scoreless but for an error by Ashley, who formed Neve's lottery partner, as he does at Coral.

The errors by Dresser that killed Lowell's hopes were on easy chances. He voluntarily retired in the seventh inning and Jack Bannister finished the game out on second base in such a way as to lead to the belief that it would have been a worked out second if the entire game, Dresser is one of the Lowell team's most reliable players. His old day cost the Lowell team at least $200 and perhaps $1,000, besides several thousand dollars made in wagers by Lowell fans.

After the game the crowd overflowed the field, everyone seeming to be anxious to shake Ocker's hand and congratulate him upon his remarkable pitching feat. Lowell fans by the hundreds showed what clean sports they are by joining in the congratulations, although broken-hearted over the loss of the game which meant no more to them.

Rimes Stars in Field.
Outside of the Lowell errors, which fairly tossed the game away, it was a wonderful contest. Two long running catches by Rimes, one of them a one-handed grab at a hit which he gathered in off the daises, Jewell's short-stop play and a sensational running catch by Clement were outstanding features. Hapeman played a grand game on third for Lowell and during the first minute of play First Baseman Chadwick pulled off a sensational catch that drew round after round of applause.

The break did not come until the fifth inning and from then on Lowell's chances went glimmering. The Pope & Heyboers played an article of hot hitting that would have been creditable to a league team and backed up Ocker's splendid pitching as it deserved to be. Jewell led both teams at bat with three hits.

ATTENTION MOOSE.
Commencing with the month of October, meetings will be held every Tuesday evening, instead of Wednesday. This brings first meeting October 4. Initiation, Refreshments will be served. Be there. A light is to be installed in front of club rooms to be used when same is open.

A Splendid Story by a Great Writer

No Defense

By Sir Gilbert Parker
Seldom do you get an opportunity to read a story by Gilbert Parker in serial form. As a rule they appear as novels, the minimum price of which is $2.00. Only recently has the great Canadian author consented to their publication otherwise. We have taken advantage of the opportunity and secured for our readers "No Defense," one of his most popular tales. It is a real Parker romance with the high lights and deep shades, swiftly moving plot, unexpected and unusual developments, the warm human love and absorbing interplay of soul upon soul, which distinguish his writings above all others.

Reflections Commercialized.
Mirrors fascinate a good part of the world, including the Manchurians. A looking-glass is an absolute essential for a Manchurian nutcracker; for without it she would never achieve her elaborate coiffure. No really smart young man of Manchuria will consider the purchase of a cigarette case or a purse unless it contains a small looking-glass, in which he may frequently observe his image.
