EARLY MORNING FIRE

Three Other Tomatoes Driven Out.
Fire destroyed the Sam Rice restaurant building Saturday morning and inflicted heavy damage by smoke and water upon Mrs. Nelson, who occupied the second floor of the adjoining building as a home. Most of the goods were ruined and she had no insurance. She has five children and should have help.

The owner, Mr. Rice, was smothered out of his coal office in the adjoining building as was D. S. Simon, who had about fifty seats to reclaim and sustained loss of about $75, with no insurance.

The two-story one will be repaired. The other one may be rebuilt, although nothing but the floor timbers and foundation remain for a starter.

The fire originated with an oil stove in the restaurant kitchen, and the goods of the occupant, Mr. Fieldsted, were a total loss, insured for $250. He has gone to a farm near Grand Rapids.

The Rice office, Simon tailor shop and Mrs. Nelson's family are temporarily occupying the lower floor of the millinery building recently vacated by Mrs. Ecker.

A JOINT MEETING

Lowell Literary and Clover Leaf Clubs Enjoy Union Program.
The Lowell Literary club and the Clover Leaf club held a very enjoyable meeting Saturday afternoon at the pleasant home of Mrs. S. S. Lee. First on the program were two instrumental selections, Ballade in G, Minor—Chopin and "At Dawning, I Love You," Charles Wakefield.

Mrs. Allen Bennett, chairman, then introduced Mrs. Alvord, of Detroit, President of the State Federation of Women's clubs, who gave a very interesting talk. The General Federation was organized in 1883 and Maine was the first state to organize the State Federation, and Michigan organized the State Federation in 1885.

Problems are sure to arise and life in general is a life of adventure. Our grandmother did not worry about international movements, but in this age we must all try to keep in the great world-wide movement.

Great advantages are offered in the clubs, in music, literature and art.

The club papers of value are the individual original thoughts. Art can apply to attractive front yards, shrubbery, etc. In community service work we must have in mind the future generation and look after the moral education of the young people. Boys and girls with nothing to do are most likely to be juvenile delinquents, and there should be a club in every town. Mrs. Alvord closed her splendid talk by saying: "We should all learn to forget the petty things in life and make for the world forward movements."

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. C. H. Runciman, April 26.

OLD BOYS AND GIRLS

Here's a Starter From a Friend of Long Ago.
South Tacoma, Wash., April 15, '22.
P. M. Johnson, Lowell Ledger, Lowell, Mich., Dear Sir—

Two weeks ago you sent out an S. O. S., and frankly told a few what you wanted and hinted to the rest.

As I was a pupil in Miss Jennings' school in 1856-7, that ought to qualify me as an old-time Lowell boy. You asked: Where are all the old Lowell boys, and what are they doing?

We are located at No. 5842 South Cedar street, South Tacoma, Wash., 47 degrees, 15' north latitude, 122 degrees, 15' West longitude. We have had the sun only twice this month. This location may be a few seconds off as we have had to run a dead reckoning, but it's near enough, so any old Lowell boy or girl that ever studied longitude and time under the late S. P. Hicks can locate us.

Occupation, mostly killing time, getting away with the fog-end of the mealy third party winter we ever had on our hands. When we can get in a few minutes between showers we plant potatoes, corn and beans. All hardy vegetables are up and have been hoed. So expect to have peas and new spuds in June at the latest.

Thirty-five years ago today we first hit Washington, then a territory, so we have seen the changes, but the big change in that time is there.

Where I used to call nineteen out of twenty by name there are six in business that I know, and perhaps twice that number outside that I remember. Therefore, please don't skip them in the "Long Ago" items, as there are a few seated in this corner of the room that those items are more to, than all the rest of the paper.

Respectfully, J. Cal Maynard.

CHILD IS CRIPPLED

Little Robert Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern M. Leary, of 1577 Plainfield Ave., Grand Rapids, lost his left arm in an accident which occurred at the home of his uncle, Ralph Kinyon, of Caledonia, where he was caught in the cog wheels of an electric pumping system, and his arm drawn in and mangled to the shoulder.

He also lost two fingers from his right hand and his palm was crushed.

The child, who is but 2 1/2 years old, was rushed to Hagedt hospital, where surgeons are trying to save his right hand.

Mrs. Chel Leary, Vern's mother, was called to Grand Rapids, to do what she could for the distracted young parents, and returned bringing their other child John, to stay for awhile.

It certainly seems that the Leary family has had more than its share of trouble. Our good townsman Chel, lost a hand several years ago, but has bravely continued at work, when he had it to do, with a steel hook in its stead, and but part of a hand on the other arm, and Mrs. Leary has had hard sledding during the long period of factory closing. The family have the sympathy of many friends in this new and great misfortune.

LOWELL METHODIST NEWS.

The Circle gatherings for the week are meetings for work of both the Triple C, and the Phila A. Clark circles. The former meeting with Mrs. Orlo Yeller on Tuesday afternoon and the latter with Mrs. Cholerton on Friday afternoon.

The attendance at the meeting of the Fellowship class Monday evening was not large, but all present had an enjoyable time. The students were very successful, the supper excellent, and Rev. Harvey Pierce, Alumni secretary of Albion college, gave a short talk. He also spoke to the students of the high school Tuesday morning. Subject, "Being Prepared."

The Women's Missionary society, with the help of a large number of the young people, will give the past year, "The Birth of America's Home," sometime during the month of May.

The Easter cantata sung by a chorus of twenty-eight voices, with piano and orchestra accompaniment, will be repeated at 8 o'clock, next Sunday, 3 o'clock, next time.

Rev. Freeman, superintendent of Clark Memorial Home, occupied the pulpit last Sunday morning, and at Vergennes in the afternoon. He gave a much interesting concert of the home and a larger idea of the purpose of the church in caring for its aged. At the morning service, Miss Hayward sang the solo, "A Little While." In the evening service for the Christianized song, "The Way of the Cross Leads Home."

The service Sunday evening will be a union meeting at the City hall. Dr. Poole, of the state board of health, will give the address.

Remember, Wednesday evening, May 2, 8:30 p. m. the Sunday school banquet at the City hall. Stunts, singing, not lack supper, and address by Dr. W. F. Kendrick. Each class will be allowed five minutes to go on their stand. Each class decorates its own table, and provides for its supper and dishes. Remember the date and be sure and be there.

BUILDING & LOAN ELECTION.

D. S. Simon Chosen President, H. L. Shuter Secretary.
At the annual meeting of the Lowell Building & Loan association Monday evening, D. S. Simon, was elected president to succeed Dr. M. C. Greene, whose stock has matured, and H. L. Shuter, secretary to succeed J. B. Yeller, resigned, on account of ill health.

The official report from Lansing shows that only one Building & Loan association in the state has paid better, according to its assets, than that at Lowell, a fact due in part to its low operating expense.

Dr. F. E. White and Miss M. A. Taylor were elected vice president and treasurer to succeed themselves.

MRS. PORTER DEAD

Old Resident of Vergennes, Ledger Scribe for 28 Years.
Mrs. S. Carrie Porter died at her home in Vergennes April 22, aged 75 years. Funeral services were held at the Alton church Sunday at 2 p. m., burial at Alton cemetery.

S. Carrie Morrison was born Dec. 25, 1847, in Grand Rapids, where she attended the public schools and afterward taught school herself.

She was married to Calvin H. Porter, of Muskegon, June 12, 1876, and they moved to Vergennes in April 1880. Mr. Porter passed away March 17, 1910, since which time Mrs. Porter has lived alone.

A friend pays her this tribute: When about thirteen years of age she united with the Congregational church in Grand Rapids and later with the Alton Christian church, where she had been a faithful worker in the church, especially taking a great interest in the Sunday school. She leaves to mourn their loss a host of friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Porter was a correspondent of The Ledger almost from the first, now nearly 29 years ago; and has always been faithful and reliable. Very few of her thousands of items ever required correcting. If she was to be from home for any length of time, she arranged for a substitute, and even in her last illness saw that the work was kept up, and a successor provided.

The kindly care given to Mrs. Porter by her neighbors and friends was at once a testimonial of their regard for her and for the life she lived and the character she bore.

CEMETERY NOTICE.

A number have requested to have their cemetery lots taken care of this year, who were not on the list last year. Perhaps there are others. If so, let us know by mail or personally, as soon as possible, that we may have them in proper shape by Decoration day. The price is $5.00 for the season, including water-er. Those who paid for lots being cared for last year need not apply. We will look after them.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

10:30 morning worship.
11:30 Sunday school.
7:30 evening worship.
Read No. 3 notes Friday afternoon with Mrs. L. W. Albertson. April ladies pro the business.

Are you already for the pot-luck supper at the Parish house Friday at 8 o'clock. If you furnish the table, the committee in charge will do the rest, and we promise a good time. Come and help the boys and girls enjoy themselves.

Last Saturday the members of Mrs. Jones' class gave a party in the Parish house for several of their young men who are to be away for a long time.

The American girls of Mrs. Bennett's class held their monthly meeting at Edith Peterson's. A pot-luck supper and a good time furnished the occasion.

Mrs. F. E. White entertained her Sunday school class at her home Monday evening. One of the enjoyable features of the evening was the presentation of a new book by the members of the class.

Miss Mary Horn, in a very pleasing manner gave an interesting talk to the Sunday school of the Parish house at the annual picnic trip to the North shore of Lake Michigan, and while in the South took a 30-mile tour, including Tampa, Clearwater, Beach and St. Petersburg.

Members of Clearwater Beach who are their lunch sitting on the sand under palm trees, with the memory of a program, which was a truly broken experience.

We wish guests to express our appreciation of the school of the congregation. It adds greatly to the enjoyment of the game.

The Christian boys will hold their regular monthly meeting Monday evening, May 7, at 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. B. Yeller and Mrs. C. H. Runciman.

FOUR STILLS AND 45 GALLONS ARE SEIZED ON FARM IN COUNTY.

Federal prohibition officers yesterday asserted that they had wiped out one of the largest farm distilleries discovered in the county by raiding the farm of Joseph Ozinski, near Englishville.

Four 15-gallon stills were found, two operated in the home and two in a secret cellar dug beneath a chicken coop. An oil stove and 15 jugs filled with moonshine also had been stored in the subterranean liquor plant. In all, 70 gallons of mash and 45 gallons of moonshine were confiscated.—Herald.

COUNTY WOOL POOL DATES.

Dates for wool pooling in Kent county are May 31 at the Caledonia farmers' elevator, June 1, at the Grand Rapids growers' association and warehouse and June 2 at the C. H. Runciman elevator at Lowell.

No wool will be received at the Grand Rapids growers' warehouse prior to June 1.—News.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

Christian science services are held every Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. in the Christian Science service rooms over the Lowell State bank. The subject for lesson sermon for Sunday, April 30, as found in Christian Science quarterly is "Erling-Punishment." Reading rooms are open in connection with the church service rooms every Saturday afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock.

40-FT. BOULEVARDS. Density of Traffic to Be Expected in Area. Forty-foot main highways stretching between the principal cities of the state and veritable boulevards because of the wonderful possibilities of beautifying these arteries by roadside tree planting and conservation, were visualized by Kent county's township highway commissioners at their annual meeting here yesterday. Willard M. Bryant, of Kalamazoo, secretary of the Michigan State Good Roads' association, predicted that within a decade the Detroit-Grand Rapids trunkline must accommodate upwards of 15,000 motor vehicles a day. Similar heavy traffic will necessitate 40-foot roads not only between the two largest cities, but also from Detroit to Saginaw and Bay City and from Detroit toward Chicago. Demands Better Value. The good roads man also frankly told the commissioners they have not been giving dollar for dollar in road construction and was emphatic in asserting they must make the money to further in road construction and maintenance. These immense roadways could be made veritable boulevards by proper planting suggested Commissioner Julius Tice, who also touched upon the benefits farmers would derive from reforestation of their land in a small way. City Manager Fred H. Locks urged co-operation of the city and county in road work and Warren Townsend, chairman of the Kent road commission, spoke briefly upon the importance of collaboration between county and township officials in all county road work. Engineer O. S. Hess, of the Kent commission, dwelt upon the advantages of the township commission for assistance in their engineering problems, saying the engineering department always stood ready to do its utmost in getting township roads started right. District Engineer, C. E. Foster talked on construction and maintenance. L. C. Palmer, forester of the road commission, discussed methods of maintaining roadside trees and shrubbery. Most of the township commissioners had brief bits of experience. The cost of teams and day labor was considered at length. It developed that with the exception of districts lying quite close to Grand Rapids, the prevailing price for day labor is $2.50 and for a man and team, $5. Twenty-two of the 24 township commissioners were in attendance. Present also were Commissioner L. H. Nielson, of Lansing, and J. P. Kenyon, chairman of Barry county road commission. Besides the morning and afternoon sessions in the county building, the dinner at the Browning hotel took on the nature of an educational meeting. Alvah W. Brown, former chairman of the Kent county road commission, was toastmaster. Grand Rapids Herald.
