DAY WELL SPENT

Decorative Day Exercises Successfully Carried Out in Lowell.

Memorial Day exercises passed off nicely in Lowell, the sacred observance calling many former residents back to the burial places of their loved ones. No sports marred the patriotic sentiments inspired by the occasion. The solemn parade with the band music, the colors, the feeble remnants of the G. A. R., the stalwart veterans of the World War, the speaking, the music, and memorial exercises, these, with the decorating and visiting of burial places and the meeting and greeting of old friends—all these were and are sufficient for the day.

Noteworthy in Rev. Blewfield's address was his protest against the spirit of lawlessness that followed the late war and his appeal to the men of the American Legion everywhere to stand for law and order and good citizenship.

The Decoration Day management has been gloriously distinguished by the Grand Army post, whose local membership has dwindled to about a dozen aged men and has been taken up by the American Legion and the Auxiliary organization, by whom the annual observance will be ably and freely carried on.

Names of former Lowell residents who came to the old town for this occasion will be found in the local and personal columns of this issue.

DIED IN HER SLEEP

Miss Helen Dickey Passed Peacefully Away in the Night.

Miss Helen Dickey, a much respected Lowell lady, was found dead in bed at her home in this village Tuesday morning, having passed away during the night without a struggle, after an illness of but two days.

Funeral services will be held at the Congregational church at 10:30 a. m. Friday, her pastor, Rev. E. R. Cochran and former pastor, Rev. A. H. Laah, of Lake Odessa, officiating; burial at Marshall, Mich.

Mrs. Frank Dickey, of Marshall, and A. B. T. Moore, Jr., of Oak Park, Ill., will accompany the body to Marshall.

Miss Dickey is survived by her aunt, Mrs. Fannie Pratt, who made her home with her father, A. B. T. Moore, of Oak Park, who is in California, and unable to be here for the funeral.

WHY THE HOME WITH CHILDREN IS HAPPIER

By Mrs. Reuben Lee, Winner of Ledger's First Prize on Above Topic

The sweetest thing in all this world is the love of a little child. It softens the hard places, brightens the work-a-day life and the courage, cheerfulness and undaunted hope and faith expressed in the face of a boy or girl are a never failing source of inspiration.

People who have few resources in themselves, who crave change and excitement and the real joy of living, with griefs and disappointments set up in ministering to the needs of a little child.

Think how it broadens your own views, what a knowledge of character you acquire and what a fund of ideas of all sorts you have to draw upon.

Many an adult mind is broadened by reading and discussing subjects brought up by the questioning of eager children. An interesting story read to the children is a pretty good antidote for the "blues." When your mind is occupied by the good times of other people it is easier to forget trifling annoyances.

Children prevent many and many a home from being wrecked on the morrow shallow shoals in the matrimonial sea—lack of a definite aim in life.

A woman was heard to say "Oh, dear, children are so much trouble to bring up and when you have slaved for them you are never sure that they will not disgrace you in the end." There is no denying the fact that it means toll of course, and toils, suffering, anxieties, nights of watching, times of scheming to provide properly for all. It isn't the victory won nor the defeat that counts—it is the battle itself. The biggest and best capacity in the world is the capacity to fight for the right, and win, perhaps, or fail, but at any rate to try to win. The joy of standing up to the world and wrestling with it for the good of our boys and girls. This alone is a sufficiently great reward for any sacrifice.

By all means, if you have no children of your own, beg, buy or borrow some and know the meaning of a truly happy home.

Mrs. Reuben Lee.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Birman and daughter Harriet, of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Birman and little son of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Witzel, of Iowa, and Mrs. Howard, of Grand Rapids, spent Memorial day with their sister, Miss Emma Ransford and other Lowell relatives.

E. D. McQueen has bought the G. P. Hill residence for a home and will take possession about the middle of June. Doc says he has lived on the west side so many years, he doesn't know whether he can get used to taking his meals on the east side; but they will be regular Lowell meals, had the same, and we think he will survive.

Mrs. E. A. Anderson continues critically ill at the Lowell hospital. At her request the services of her daughter, William Schaeffer, which had been planned to take place in June, was postponed at her bedside last Sunday. Mr. Anderson and Mrs. Anderson are in the sick room and the outcome is anxiously awaited by their many Lowell friends.

THE RADIO IS HERE

Detroit Programs are Plainly Heard in Doyle Lowell Home.

A very successful radio receiving service is being enjoyed at the home of Will C. Doyle in this village and speaking, preaching and musical programs in Detroit, Pittsburg, Indianapolis and elsewhere are heard distinctly.

Early last week C. H. Rucimann received a letter from a friend stating that on the 24th inst at a certain hour she would sing at the Detroit News broadcasting station. At the time stated Mr. Rucimann went to the Doyle residence and heard the lady sing four songs and recognized her voice—through 139 miles of space.

Sunday evening The Ledger scribe was privileged to listen in on a Detroit Episcopal church service which included a chorus of a hundred voices.

Mr. Doyle has the best amateur radio receiving outfit obtainable and has installed and manipulated the same with little or no assistance. He is much enthused with radio accomplishments and sanguine over expected developments which include the broadcasting of portraits of criminals wanted, the use of telephones as accompanying or accessory equipment and even of moving pictures of far away events seen right in the homes.

No wonder that Norma Talmadge says "After radio, I believe that anything is possible."

ONE LINE ADV. SELLS 15,000 BARRELS OF SALT; READ ON!

Howard, S. D.—Peristien, consistent and insistent advertising is the theory of Dave Theophilus, a local grain elevator operator who has carried the single line reader "Dave Theophilus sells salt" continuously in the Howard papers for the last twenty-four years. Mr. Theophilus has received bills to show that in nearly a quarter of a century the ad has cost him approximately 800. He estimates it has been the means of selling thirteen thousand barrels of salt, besides indirectly aiding in many other sales.

NOTICE.

The committees appointed from the Boy Scouts—Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts, for the sale of tickets for the cantata benefit, are requested to meet at the City hall promptly at 8:30 Saturday morning.

CATCH MEN THIEVES

Two Stanton Men Arrested Here Saturday. Lodged in Jail.

Two confessed chicken thieves from Stanton were arrested in Lowell Saturday morning by Village Marshal Bowes, when they were selling a mixed lot of chickens packed 58 in a crate and so crowded that one had smothered to death.

They gave the names of Louis and Gilbert Hood of Stanton and were held on advice of the Montcalm county sheriff who claimed that they were old offenders long under suspicion.

The men were accompanied by a twelve-year-old boy, son of one and nephew of the other of the men. Separated, they confessed to having stolen the chickens between Stanton and Lowell, the boy catching the chickens.

In the afternoon, Sheriff Curtis and a detective of Montcalm county came and took the men to Stanton where they were lodged in jail.

We were also glad to have present at the morning service, several members of a Boy Scout troop from Grand Rapids, who are camping a few days on the island. A good example for all folks during their vacation, to be found in some house of worship on the Sabbath day.

Children's Day, the second Sunday in June. The program to be used for this service is: "The Road to the Golden Age." This is unique. In that it is planned for all present to have a part in the service.

Though the walls of the new church are only partly up, and the floor lining laid, yet the Phila A. Clark circle used it as a place to serve refreshments at their Flower party, last Friday afternoon.

D. W. GRIFFITH Presents WAY DOWN EAST

Based on Miss A. Brady's Famous Story by Lottie Blair Parker and Joe R. Grinnell

A simple, old-fashioned story of plain people, capturing the human interest.

A story of love—his and woman—mother and child.

A great ball hitting humanity.

A story of laughter—revelation, romance.

Quaint "characteristic and original" say "best of the best" of the human mind.

Love's voice—sweet and low—strong and indomitable—urgent, bold and mighty.

In the end, "making sense, March down, in the end, David carried with hissing, from the bottom of the sea."

Music by Spaulding's Orchestra
Admission 25c and 50c
Special Matinee Saturday
