LOWELL 69 LAKE ODESSA

SPARTA PLAYS HERE FRIDAY. EDUCATION WEEK, LYCEUM COURSE OPENS WITH GOOD PROSPECTS.

Lowell High football team played Lake Odessa at Belding Monday as part of the Belding American Legion Armistice day celebration.

The score at the end of the first quarter was only 7-0 and it appeared to be the beginning of a close, hard game.

Sparta comes to Lowell for a game Friday and the following week-end the team plays football. The place and date have not been decided definitely.

The American Legion, National Education Association, United States Bureau of Education, and the Department of Public Instruction unite in calling your attention to the program for American Education week, the date of which this year is November 18-24.

Special attention is called to the slogan for Friday: An equal chance for all children. A square deal for the country boy and girl.

Monday, November 19, 1923. Slogan: A Godly nation cannot fail. American Constitution day.

Tuesday, November 20, 1923. Slogan: Visit the schools today. America first.

Wednesday, November 21, 1923. Slogan: School and Teacher day.

Thursday, November 22, 1923. Slogan: Literacy day.

Friday, November 23, 1923. Slogan: Visit the schools today.

Saturday, November 24, 1923. Slogan: A sick body makes a sick mind.

Sunday, November 25, 1923. Slogan: Let us unite this year in making this week the greatest American Education week in the history of Michigan.

The first number of the local lecture course, which is under the management of the senior class, was well attended for a Saturday evening attraction.

The "Climax" company seemed very anxious to render satisfaction. Many favorable comments were heard in regard to the production.

Something new and different will be presented when "G" Smith comes Wednesday, November 21, to tell his stories of adventure into the animal kingdom.

Are you securing your money's worth from the lecture course? Such a course is not put on to make money. It is put on to instruct.

It might be worth while to mention that the "Climax" company presented their new High school auditorium in Traverse City before over eleven hundred people.

Our second number comes to us following an evening entertainment at Flinn.

Do you get the idea? OBITUARY—THELMA J. SMITH

Thelma J. Smith, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Smith, was born in Fremont township, Isabella county, July 3, 1907, and died Nov. 4, 1923, at the age of 16 years, 4 months and one day.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Nov. 8 at 9 a. m. from her parents' home, Rev. H. Harris officiating. Burial was made in Ferris cemetery.

GRIZZLY SMITH COMING NOV. 21

"Grizzly" Smith, noted hunter and trapper and guide, who will deliver on the local Lyceum course Wednesday evening, Nov. 21, a highly informative lecture on outdoor life.

Mr. Smith is a famed exponent of the great outdoors. He is an authority on wild animal and bird life in America. The Rocky Mountains from California to northern Canada have been his familiar haunts on various hunting expeditions in which he has captured more than one hundred black bears, nearly that number of mountain lions and thirty-two grizzlies.

His lecture is a most interesting and unique description of his thrilling experiences in some of the wildernesses of North America.

Delo E. Mook, president of the Northern Ohio Fish and Game Protective association, recently wrote, in part, concerning Mr. Smith: "Grizzly" Smith is exceedingly well informed with regard to the life, history and habits of the wild life of the United States and Canada.

FIVE BUSINESS CHANGES HERE

WAVELY SOLD, NEW HOTEL PROSPECT, WATSON SELLS TO SCHNEIDER, NEW COAL CO., L. ROOT BUYS

The Hotel Waverly building has been sold to Peter B. Vry of the Derby hotel restaurant at 357 W. Fulton street, Grand Rapids, who intends to take possession as soon as Mine Road Breezeina arranges to move elsewhere.

Mr. Vry, not having purchased Mr. Breezeina's equipment, the latter is considering a new location for continuing in business.

Young men are coming to the front in Lowell business circles, the latest candidate for public trade favors being Art Schneider, who has purchased the agricultural and seed business of Tom Watson & Son, taking possession November 8.

Mr. Schneider will have an auction sale of registered stock on the M. P. Schneider farm 5 miles south of Lowell, Wednesday, Nov. 28. See advertisement in this paper's issue of Nov. 22 for full particulars.

He expects to keep his residence at the farm for the present but will doubtless move to town in the Spring.

"Mike" Watson will remain in the business with the owner and the Watson family will continue to reside here indefinitely.

Here's success to the new and best wishes to the old.

O. A. Basmus of the Greenville Coal Co. has rented the Ecker switch opposite the Lumber Co. office and will open a coal business here at once with office first door west of Claud Staal's pool room. Telephone 193.

Lewie Root has bought the new Reed building opposite the Ypsilanti-Reed factory and will put in an up-to-date restaurant equipment there. His former stand on Riverside drive is closed while the new place is being made ready for its opening day about November 24.

MORE CHICKENS STOLEN. LOCK UP AND WATCH. Chickens, three sets, about a dozen large Plymouth Rock hens from Ernest Fullington's river road barn just north of the village limits Friday night. They beheld the fowls in the barn, cutting them off close to the bodies. Judging by the tracks there were two of the culprits and they walked away, as there were no car tracks visible, carrying the fowls in sacks, thus leaving no trace of blood.

This is the third time Mr. Fullington has been visited by chicken thieves and with him "patience has ceased to be a virtue."

PLEASANT SURPRISE. The neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Richmond very pleasantly surprised them Saturday night, Nov. 10, on their twenty-first wedding anniversary.

Pedro was staid till midnight, then a pot luck supper was served. All expressed themselves as having a nice time and wished them many happy returns of the day.

The Epiphany Sunday school class will hold its monthly meeting Friday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the church parlors. Mrs. W. S. Winegar's division on charge.

The recent session of the state Sunday school convention held in Grand Rapids is now something of the past. There was the largest attendance in its history and the inspiration and helpfulness received by those present will long be felt in the Sunday schools throughout the state.

Congregational Church. Bond No. 2 will meet with Mrs. Harvey Bussner Friday afternoon. The meeting of Mrs. White's class has been postponed to Monday, Nov. 17. The class will meet with Mrs. Bussner.

A pot luck supper for the enjoyment of the Sunday school is being planned to be held Thursday night, November 22. Edith of the State Sunday school convention will be heard. Bring contributions and one other article of food. Come prepared to have a good social time.

At the close of a fine Armistice address, Mr. Cochran presented his resignation to the church to be taken effect at the close of three months. The church has prospered under the leadership of Mr. Cochran. Tho' able to give but part of his time to the work, both membership and property have increased. We can already hope to find a successor who will fill the pulpit so well, our papers and best wishes go with Mr. Cochran in his chosen field of endeavor.

Lowell Baptist Church. Come and hear Mr. Becker, assistant superintendent of the City Rescue Mission of Grand Rapids, at 10:30, Sunday at the Baptist church.

Christian Science Society. Sunday services are held at 11 o'clock a. m. over the Lowell State bank. Subject of lesson-sermon for Nov. 18 is "Mortals and Immortals." Everyone cordially invited.

ANNUAL ARMISTICE DINNER. It is a certain fact that everyone had a really good time and enjoyed a very delicious meal at the Armistice day dinner, given by the members of the Charles W. Clark post of the American Legion and their Auxiliary in honor of the G. A. R. post and the G. C. Both of these latter named organizations had a splendid representation and helped so materially to link the spirit of '01 to that of '17.

It was indeed an honor to be privileged to entertain these boys and their staunch helpers, and we can do no better than follow the example they set for us in the time of stress between two parts of our country and in the years of reconstruction following. We sincerely hope that next November 11 will find all of us together for another rally such as we had Monday evening.

A great deal of credit for the success of this event belongs to Mrs. E. S. White, who worked untiringly for several weeks, and to her corps of able and willing assistants. Every member of the Auxiliary who was able to be present did her share of the work and it was all a regular game—yes, even the dish washing.

A number of very helpful and humorous remarks were given by the present and past officers of the G. A. R. post, the G. C. and our own organizations. We just seemed like one big family gathered around the table and interested in the same cause. Music added zest to the occasion as the good old songs, so dear to the boys "Over There," echoed thru the room.

The dinner was ended by a salute to Old Glory and the guests were then invited to an Armistice day dance given in the hall upstairs. We can only thank the members of the G. A. R. and the W. B. C. and say "Come again."

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY NOTES

The first regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary for the month of November was held at the City hall with a very good attendance. Let us keep the ball rolling and see that every absent member is in her place next time.

The Legion, with the help of the Auxiliary, will entertain the W. R. C. and the G. A. R. at the annual Armistice day dinner next Monday evening. Dinner will be served at six thirty promptly and Mrs. White has a splendid corp of workers selected to help with this affair. These dinners have always been a high success and this year's promises to be up to the standard of excellency set by the Legion in all its endeavors. Let every member called upon do her part as it has been planned and make the chairman's work show the best of results.

Two days next week have been set apart for the collection and packing of canned fruit for Roosevelt American Legion hospital. The members of the Auxiliary will call on every one in town that they can, but they cannot possibly go to every home in the short time allowed for collection. That, however, will not excuse any of our loyal townspeople from contributing their share towards this worthy project. To facilitate this work, the Auxiliary room at the City hall will be open next Thursday and Friday, Nov. 15 and 16, to receive your fruit and to deliver to you empty jars in exchange for full ones. Remember, Thursday and Friday of next week. A report has somehow been more or less circulated that this fruit never reaches our boys. Just forget this as you do all other unfounded gossip. The same menu is served to hospital staff and patients alike and any visitors to the institution are served tinned fruit from stores. Several hundreds of patients pass thru this hospital yearly and you will want to see that they get the best of foods that we can help supply to them, won't you?

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be held at our meeting room Monday evening, Nov. 19, at eight o'clock. Be sure to be in your place. At our last meeting, we followed as well as we could the form adopted for opening and closing the meetings. Our song books have not yet arrived but we shall have the other numbers planned. Come and do your part to make this new departure a success.

The election of officers for the coming year will not be held until January. Until then the present officers will hold their present places.

Plans are further under way for the annual fair. We will do our best to help everyone have a good time, so be on hand. Our committees are now at work and will need the help of every member to put this affair over.

Christian Science Society

Sunday services are held at 11 o'clock a. m. over the Lowell State bank. Subject of lesson-sermon for November 11 is "Adam and Fallen Man." Everyone cordially invited.

MUSIC DAY IN CLOVER LEAF CLUB

Mrs. McPherson, president of the club, opened the meeting with a short business session, calling for responses at roll call with musical quotations. A large number of guests and club members were delighted with a musical program given by Mrs. L. Parcell of Grand Rapids. Mrs. Wachtelhauser chairman of the day, introduced Mrs. Parcell, who announced the following splendidly rendered program:

"The Shepherd's Boy," by Graninger; "Clair De Lune" and "Improvisation" by MacDowell; a group of cantillations, work and accompaniments, "Play Make Believe," "Life is What You Make It" and "Cheer Up, Honey," words by Edgar Guest. Piano solo, "Minnel in G," Paderewski; "Dreams of Love," Liszt.

Cantillations: "Nonsense," "Jeremiah," "How She Frowned at Him," "Two Lovers," and "Say Oah." The music for these numbers was composed by Mr. L. Parcell and was very pleasing.

She then gave us "Egeria" by Kroeger and "The Thrush" by Nevin. As the company greatly appreciated her cantillations, she gave us a group of "Heart Songs," the words of which were of Mr. Parcell's authorship. They were "Sunshine of May," "A Little White Rose," "When I Ain't Got You" and "Little Brack Sleep." The last part of her program was "Prelude 23rd" and "Prelude A Flat," both by Chopin.

Her closing number by request was "The Sand Piper," by Celia Husky. Mrs. Parcell is a very fine musician and executes with perfect technique.

Our next regular meeting will be Nov. 20 at the home of Mrs. T. M. Doole. Those wishing to study piano, mandolin, guitar, etc., will meet with Mrs. H. P. Gouffredson Nov. 13, at 2:30 p. m.

 The next meeting of the Clover Leaf club will be with Mrs. H. P. Gredson instead of at Mrs. Doyle's. This is "Louvain" day and our club will have an opportunity to share in the restoration of the Louvain library which is an American memorial to our soldier dead in Belgium. adv
 Thomas Meighan and Theodore Roberts in "If You Believe It, It's So," a great picture at Strand theater Friday and Saturday. adv
 Married at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. H. H. Harris, Wednesday forenoon, Nov. 14, Leonard R. Kerr and Ruth Fero. These are among the choicest young people of Vergennes township. They were accompanied by the bride's sister Alice and Geo. H. Kerr, brother of the groom. The happy couple will make their home in Lansing. adv
 Mr. and Mrs. MacVean's home proved to be the scene of a busy schoolroom, when all the members of the Teachers' club and the Board of Education and wives responded to the call of the school bell and assembled for review the various school subjects and to have a general good time. An interesting address was given by Supt. Fisher of Ionia in which he set forth the great aims of our public school system and the duties of the teacher to the school children. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games, suggestive of school subjects. Refreshments were served by Miss Hartman. The aim of the club is being accomplished by being both educational and recreational.—President Teachers' club. adv

High Bridge.
 "I stood on the bridge at midnight," hummed the humorous mosquito as it began to operate on the sleeping girl's aristocratic nose.—Boston Transcript.
 Bad Habits.
 A bad habit persists because the bad habits are natural, while the good ones are mostly artificial.
