WALKER VS. PECKHAM CASE

OUTLINE OF CASE SINCE ANNUAL ELECTION OF DIST. NO. 1, JULY, 1923.

Editor Lowell Ledger:
The case of Grace B. Walker vs. Perry C. Peckham was tried in the circuit court on Monday and Judge Perkins, presiding, ruled that the claim of Miss Walker was not well founded. Her petition to be placed on the board of education was dismissed and the position taken by the board sustained.

At the annual school meeting of last July, Miss Walker was apparently elected, she having received the largest number of votes, but her qualifications were not held sufficient. The law provides that to be a member of the board of education in a graded school district, that one must be an elector in said district, his name must appear upon the assessment roll at the time of election and he must own in his own right the property in which he is to be elected.

The board of education was informed soon after election that Miss Walker did not own any real estate and that her name was not on the assessment roll, and on her refusal to sign the affidavit setting up these facts as provided by law, the board took the matter up with the attorney general and superintendent of public instruction.

O. J. Yeiter, president of the board, made a trip to Lansing for this purpose before any action was taken by the board. The superintendent of public instruction on gave the board written instructions that it should not accept Miss Walker on the board under the circumstances and the board followed the written instructions of Mr. Hoffius, prosecuting attorney, and the attorney general of the state of Michigan in making the appointment to the board.

As brought out at the trial, Miss Walker's name was not on the assessment roll at the time of election, but about nine days later Supervisor Yeiter erased the name of Clarissa Walker and inserted with pencil the name Grace Walker. This was done at the request of Miss Walker or by another acting as her agent.

From the testimony it was further shown that Miss Walker did not at the time of election own this property or any other real estate. The real estate which was changed to her name on the roll still belongs to her father's estate, he having died many years ago and there are three surviving heirs.

The board of education at its meeting August 27, over a month and one half after the election and after being fully advised by the attorney general, superintendent of public instruction and prosecuting attorney, appointed Perry C. Peckham to fill the vacancy, he having received the next highest number of votes at the election.

Judge Perkins in rendering his decision voiced his regret at this matter having been brought into court. He ruled that the laws providing qualifications of school officers must be strictly construed, and that Miss Walker was not qualified for two essential reasons: First, that her name was not on the assessment roll at the time of election, second, that she did not then or now own property in her own right.

The board of education has made every effort to make each and every step taken in this action correct and has made each step under the directions of the highest legal and school authorities in the state. Their acts in the entire matter and the appointment of Mr. Peckham was fully sustained by the court.—(Con.)

CLASS OF '24 VALEDICTORIAN
Victor Algernon Peckham, son of Mrs. Hattie Peckham, has been chosen valedictorian for the Senior class of 1924. He has served for four years of high school work is 98 1/2-14.

Victor has always gone to the Lowell schools, except for one year when he attended Junior High School in Grand Rapids. He plays a saxophone in Royden Warner's orchestra, in the High School orchestra, in the Congregational Sunday school orchestra and in the Lowell band. He has always taken an active part in school affairs and was president of the Junior class.

His plans are to enter Olivet college next fall and later to take up law at the University of Michigan.

LOWELL MAN FINED
Edward Hagen, 46, of Lowell, pleaded guilty to a charge of cruelty to animals before Justice Harry L. Crowell Thursday and was fined $50 and cost of $2.75. Hagen was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Frank Vosburg, the county humane agent, and charged with neglecting to feed and care for two horses to which he left in a barn in Lowell. Hagen was arrested by Pat Bowen, marshal of Lowell, several weeks ago on the same charge. He was released after paying the costs of court and promise to care for the animals.—Grand Rapids Press.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends and relatives for the cards, letters and beautiful flowers while at the hospital.
Miss Anna Layer.

EARLY DAYS ARE RECALLED

There may be some old residents in the south part of the township of Lowell about Morse Lake and Whitneyville whose memory will reach back to about the year 1860 and recall a peculiar character, a Pottawatomie Indian named Tanner, who was there. In those days there was an old-time tavern and its barroom at Whitneyville which Tanner patronized, and when I was yet a small boy they used to point out scars on top of the bar made by whiskey glasses in the hands of this child of nature in some of his drinking bouts. Tanner was a big, stalwart fellow, and when full of firewater he used to make things howl around the old tavern. My father at one time ran a sawmill down there and relates many wild stories of the natives who in those days inhabited the country about Thornapple creek.

At the time my parents arrived in Michigan, 1863, Tanner had returned and given up his drinking habits and was preaching. I remember him as conducting protracted meetings in the old schoolhouse at Morse's corners and the open-eyed wonder with which we kids looked upon our first Indian.

Tanner was some "pulpit-pounder" of the old school. His ponderous frame and voice that could be heard at Morse's corners and the open-eyed wonder with which we kids looked upon our first Indian.

OFFICERS ARE APPOINTED

At the Council meeting Monday evening, Pat Bowes and Gene Carr resigned their resignations as Village Marshals many acres was accepted. President Coons appointed Charles Lawyer for Marshal and Bert Carr for Night Watchman. The appointments were confirmed by the Council.

SHUTER SELLS SELECT SHOES

SUNNY HARRY SUCCEEDS HOSLEY & VAN DYKE IN CORNER SHOE STORE

Hosley & VanDyke have sold their shoe business to Harry L. Shuter, who took possession Monday morning. The new proprietor is no stranger to the people of Lowell and vicinity, having been connected with the business interests of our town for twenty years, since coming here as a clerk for D. G. Look. From that trade he entered a partnership with John J. Lalley in the clothing business under the firm name of Lalley & Shuter, from which the latter engaged with the Lowell State bank, where he has remained until now entering business "on his own hooks."

For several years he was a very efficient clerk for the village of Lowell, which position he resigned to take the secretaryship of the Lowell Building & Loan association, which has taken a new lease of life under his management.

We welcome Mr. Shuter to the ranks of live Lowell business men and wish him good health and prosperity in his new venture.

Messrs. Hosley and VanDyke (long and now) retire with the good will of the people of Lowell. Neither is in danger of any immediate want and the former's health demands a good long rest. Mr. VanDyke is too active a man to remain idle long and we predict that after a reasonable rest, he will break out in another place, right here in Lowell.

DOINGS OF THE LOWELL SCHOOLS

The presentation of the Senior play "Welcome Home, Jimmy," at the City hall was well received by large and appreciative audiences. It is estimated that four hundred and twenty-five people were present last Thursday night. The financial returns were good and will be of great assistance to the seniors in putting out their annual. Music was furnished by the High School orchestra. Mr. Clark gave a clever Scottish skit and the Boys' Glee club sang the recent song hit "It Ain't a Goin' to Rain No More." The members of the cast took their parts well, each person fitting the roll which he or she represented. Alma Wingeier as "Peggy" took in an excellent manner the part of a saucy girl of 16. Stanley Taylor's drawl was ideal for a country boy. As George Pierce, Crandall Flogaus made a good country lawyer. Margaret Marsh carried her part well as the old maid. Hosella Link was a kindly, partially helpless old lady. Her part was done very naturally. Frieda Wittenbach made a very vivacious maiden of twenty. Donald Weekes, in the part of the city fellow on the farm, furnished the major share of the fun. Lester Mang, in one of the leading parts, did himself very great credit as the young lawyer. Opposite him Orpha Bunker showed a very pleasing personality and fine stage presence.

It is planned to take the play to Freeport May 21.

How long since you visited your High school? This is your opportunity. It has been arranged in the evening for the purpose of giving

NEWS OF THE HOME CHURCHES

Congregational Church
"The only enemy that can do you irreparable injury is that one called Fear who sits upon your shoulder and whispers in your ear, 'You can't do it! You're afraid to try!'"

The pastor's subjects for next Sunday will be: Morning, "The Virtues of Motherhood;" evening, "The Ministry of music."

Hereafter the Sunday school will commence promptly at 11:45. Band No. 2 will meet with Mrs. Hattie Peckham Friday afternoon.

The Belding Choral Union will give a sacred concert at the church Sunday evening, May 11, at 7:30. The Union is composed of forty voices, directed by Prof. Holder of opportunity which no one can afford to miss. A silver offering will be taken.

Mid-week services in the Parish house on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The Eighty-second annual meeting of the Michigan Congregational conference will meet with the church at Charlotte May 20, 21 and 22. A program of exceptional merit will be presented.

The men's class of the Sunday school has effected an organization. It has started with 19 charter members. It is expected that this number will be greatly increased before long. Officers were chosen as follows: Teacher, C. H. Runciman; president, Dr. F. E. White; vice president, M. Court; secretary, Carl Jansen; treasurer, H. Coons. The members of this class are real live wires, so we shall watch the development of this organization with interest.

Lowell Methodist Church
"Every young person owes more to their parents than they can ever repay of service and love."

Remember next Sunday is Mother's day. The morning service will be appropriate for the time. A short program will be given at the opening of the Sunday school. Because of the concert of the Belding Choral Union at the Congregational church which many wish to hear, there will be no evening service.

The Women's circle will meet for work at the church house Thursday afternoon.

The next meeting of the Missionary society will be held at the home of Mrs. Davidson Friday afternoon.

The annual mite box opening and a good program is being prepared.

The Thank Offering service last Sunday evening was a very interesting meeting. The musical program for the opening was greatly appreciated and the address by Mrs. W. Tweedie of Lucknow, India, on "Mohammedan Women" was instructive and impressive. Mr. and Mrs. Tweedie are in the United States for a year's furlough and will spend most of the time studying at Chicago university.

The folks of the Bailey church are having an egg show this week for the Bronson Methodist hospital at Kalamazoo.

The cantata that was given here Easter Sunday evening, will be repeated next Sunday afternoon at the Bailey church, beginning promptly at 3:30 p. m. It is a feast of sacred music and everyone in the community should hear it.

From Our Point of View.

A PLEA FOR MIRTH
 By Edgar A. Guest.

Sorrow there is plenty
 For ever the old world,
 So long as you're brave and twenty.

And give us the joys we need,
 Sing of the joys you're reaping
 And give us the joys we need,
 Sing of the joys you're reaping

For who have come to weeping
 Have need of you, mirth today,
 Sorrow and grief are many,
 As even the young shall find.

And give us the joys we need,
 Sing of the joys you're reaping
 And give us the joys we need,
 Sing of the joys you're reaping

Don't add to our hours of grieving
 Or open our wounds of old,
 Come around with your merry
 And steal every care we hold.

We have and we would share your play,
 For who have had to sorrow
 And that the world is full of

FOUR AWARDED VAIL MEDALS

Unusual Acts in Line of Duty and Public Service Win Praise For Ten Others

Heroes of civil life, those who act without thought of self, for the benefit of others, usually are allowed to go unremembered. But four persons, however, who have done so, are due to receive recognition for their heroic services to humanity during the past year.

The four are: Miss Anna J. Watson, 1923. They have been selected as worthy of the Vail Memorial medal in usual service for specific acts of unusual service.

Other members of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company have been named by the award committee for meritorious mention. They will receive letters of commendation from the vice president and general manager of the company, George M. Welch.

If these values don't arouse you to action we'll throw up both hands!

A Broadway novelty store displayed the following sign:

"If this clock won't wake you up, call the undertaker"

Same idea here. If values such as we are offering for this spring are skipping by your nose in the newspaper and slipping by your eyes in our windows, it must be that you don't need anything we have in this fine stock—for the values are certainly plain enough and wide enough.
