A Truism

Seneca, the ancient Roman philosopher, once said "Economy is in itself a source of great revenue," and he spoke truer probably than he knew.

Economy doesn't mean pinching nor does it mean hardship, it simply means good judgement and care in expenditure.

It means the elimination of the purchase of needless luxuries. It means watching the pennies, if you will. It isn't hard work and it is the source of a great deal of pleasure.

Economy and saving go hand in hand. will you permit us to assist you in the economical handling of your money and its systematic saving?

WALKER'S STATEMENT

CONCERNING HER CONTEST FOR POSITION ON LOWELL SCHOOL BOARD AND ITS OUTCOME

Complying with the request of the Ledger the undersigned submits the following statement pertaining to the case of Walker vs. Peckham.

Plaintiff was willing to accept court's decision and considers incident closed. She has endeavored to stand against such apparent discrimination and open the way for women in school affairs. She has waged no battle against individuals but presents this article because of a demand for same.

Proceedings were instituted after having received opinions of a number of prominent outside attorneys. Here is submitted one from the prosecuting attorney of Ionia county:

HAWLEY, ELDRED & GEMUEND
Attorneys
Ionia, Michigan

July 26, 1923.

Miss Grace B. Walker,
Dear Madam:

As per your request, I have examined the law and am herewith submitting our opinion based upon the facts as you have stated to us:

1. You were qualified to hold office on the school board under Section 5671 of the Compiled Laws of 1915.
2. There was no legal vacancy existing on the school board in question on the date that the appointee was appointed, under section 5669, Compiled Laws of 1915.
3. The assumption of appointment of the appointee to the vacancy in such office was void and not of legal force or effect.
4. You have filed a proper acceptance according to and within the time set by the statute.
5. The appointee has no right or title to such office, either as a hold-over, or an appointed official.
6. Our Supreme Court has held that technicalities will not be permitted to defeat the will of the electors, fairly and honestly expressed at the annual school meeting in the choice of a district officer.

Respectfully,
Eldred & Gemuend,
By H. H. Gemuend.

Proceedings were quo warranto and by that virtue took precedence over all other civil cases, yet it was impossible to get it set for trial until constituents took matter up with the Grand Rapids Bar Ass'n.

All briefs were filed with Judge Dunham and trial set to take place in his court.

Just previous to time of trial it was switched over to Judge Perkins' court.

Whatever it was it could scarcely be termed deliberative.

In his opinion given in court in speaking of property by which plaintiff qualified for office, the court said "It is subject to debts and whether there are any debts may not be material to this controversy.... The legal title to her proportionate share in this property undoubtedly was in the realty plaintiff."

[Court stenographer's notes.]

In regard to the first part of the above extract: An act of the legislature has been passed and in the law we find it:

"An act to amend section one of Act No. 348 of the Public Acts of 1917 entitled an Act to bar debts and obligations against deceased persons and the estates of deceased persons in certain cases and to repeal Act No. 256 of the Public Acts of 1915, the same being Compiler's section 14626 of the Compiled laws of 1915 and all acts or part of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act. Approved May 10, 1917.

The Board of Education refused to seal plaintiff elected by the people in an honest and legal election because of a slight technicality occasioned by the oversight of a tax assessor.

The secretary of the board was not at the time a legal member of the board, never having filed his constitutional oath of office as required by the constitution of the State of Michigan. Neither was he a legal member until in Oct. 1922, when he filed his oath of office from plaintiff (Grace B. Walker), and swore to same before a notary. Also P. C. Peckham, who was never on the board by an honest and legal election but by appointment, was not a legal member but had served several months unqualified, not having filed his constitutional oath of office.

We abide quickly by a court decision.

When a technicality is allowed contrary to the ruling of the Supreme court as given in section six of the Eldred and Gemuend letter printed above, the high sense of justice in the hearts of the people is offended. It would exalt an error of the law above property rights and make of none effect the will of people expressed in an honest and legal election.

Grace B. Walker.

GIBBS GETS EIGHT MONTHS AT IONIA

William Gibbs of Lowell, charged with possession and sale of moonshine whisky, was convicted in the Kent Circuit court Tuesday before Judge Royal Hawley of Ionia sitting in Judge Brown's court.

Yesterday he was committed to the state reformatory at Ionia for a term of from six months to one year, with a recommendation that he remain imprisoned eight months.

This was the case involving the sale of liquor to Lowell and Saranac school boys, who were found in an intoxicated condition.

The Grand Rapids Press has this: "The jury trial of William Gibbs, 60, of Lowell, charged with possession and sale of moonshine whisky, was begun Tuesday in circuit court before Judge Royal Hawley. Gibbs was charged by several boys of Lowell with selling them moonshine after they had been found in an intoxicated condition on the main street of the village. Paul Dawson, 17, Lowell youth, occupied the witness stand during the entire opening session. He testified he had purchased liquor from Gibbs and had acted as a go-between for several other boys who had procured liquor from the same source."

Deputy Sheriff Pat Bowes, who has been actively interested in the case, was at the trial from start to finish.

PLAY FESTIVAL FRIDAY, MAY 23

RECREATION PARK, LOWELL, TO BE SCENE OF JUVENILE ATHLETIC EVENTS

The annual play festival to be held at the Lowell recreation park Friday, May 23, promises, from all indications, to be "the best ever."

This play festival is for all school children of any district, rural or village. We have ample room and all arrangements to care for a thousand boys and girls. Parents, too, will have a play festival in just watching the young folks in games and athletic events. It is open and free to everybody. The more the merrier. Come and have a real good time. This play festival is out through the efforts of the Lowell schools in co-operation with the local Y. M. C. A. committee and sponsored by the Kent County Y. M. C. A. and commissioner of school.

District school officers should urge their teachers to come with the pupils. A few automobiles will care for each one. It is an activity throughout the county and recommended by A. M. Freeman, commissioner of schools.

The festival starts at 9:30. Preliminary events for the rural students will take place in the forenoon. In the afternoon high school and grade events will alternate.

The classification will be the same as last year: Class I, boys under 80 pounds; class II, girls from 60 to 80 pounds; class III, girls from 80 to 100 pounds; class IV, girls over 100 pounds; and boys from 111 to 123 pounds. Separate classes and events will be given for boys and girls.

For high school students the events will be open to all and competition will be for points between grades. Some of the events are the 50, 75 and 100-yard dashes, potato races, running broad jump and high jump. Further events may be given for high school students. It is planned that ice cream and hot coffee will be served at noon. We hope to have the band out for the parade at noon also. Bring your lunch, wear your ordinary school clothes, anyway not your best, and come for a big time together.

The Lowell High school base ball team added another victory to its list Monday when it defeated Cedar Springs 12 to 1. The game was a spectacular but was marked by the steady working co-operation of the whole team.

BOY OF BOY IS FOUND SHOT THRU HEART

When Mrs. George Glick, living a mile and a half southeast of Saranac, called her 15-year-old son from the barn Friday for dinner, he did not answer. Mrs. Glick went to the barn to get him. In a narrow passageway between the stalls, where the horses are kept, she found Clare's body on the floor. Through the heart was a bullet wound. On the floor nearby lay a revolver with one chamber discharged. The boy was dead. Clare was the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Glick and attended school about a mile from the farm. He helped his father with the farm work.—Lowell Standard.

NEWS OF THE HOME CHURCHES

Lowell Methodist Church

"Garments of righteousness never go out of style."

The Euodion Sunday school class will have its May meeting in the church house Friday afternoon.

The Standard Bearers had a very enjoyable meeting with a good program at the Foster home Monday evening.

The annual convention of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Grand Rapids district will be held at Hastings May 22 to 24.

A large attendance was present at the church house last Sunday afternoon and greatly enjoyed the cantata "The Gospel of Easter." Many words of appreciation were expressed by the people of that community for the musical feast which this chorus from Lowell brought to them.

The Ladies Aid society of the Bailey church will meet with Mrs. Fred Roth Thursday afternoon.

Matthias' class fittingly attended in the services last Sunday with special music by the choir and sermon by the pastor while in Sunday school the following program was given:

Song, "Happy Little Mothers," girls of the primary.

Recitation, Sammy Yeiter.

Recitation, Phyllis Weekes.

Song by boys, "Tied to Mother's Apron Strings."

Recitation, Naida Kuhn.

Recitation, Gilles Sinclair.

Song, Thomas Doyle, "Mother's Best of All."

Congregational Church

"The church service breaks the monotony of the week, gives new atmosphere, new friends, new ideas, new power against aggressions and the daily grind."

The pastor's subjects for next Sunday will be: Morning, "Grasshoppers;" evening, "The Second Mile."

The mid-week service will be held this week Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Last Sunday, at Sunday school, the following committee was appointed to take charge of the program for Children's day: Mrs. Hall, chairman, Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Hartman.

The sacred concert given at the church Sunday evening by the Belting Choral Union was evidently greatly appreciated. The seating capacity of the church was taxed to the limit and many unable to secure seats stood in the vestibule. The offering, which amounted to over $25, was turned over to the treasurer of the union. At the close of the service the pastor and his family were pleased to meet a number of their friends from Belting who came over to hear the concert.

We appreciate the courtesy of the pastor and people of the Methodist Episcopal church in giving up their Sunday evening service.

The third Annual Michigan Congregational Young People's Training Conference will be held at Olivet June 20-28, 1924. Objectives: To give our young people a happy, wholesome vacation; to reveal to them the joy of Christian Fellowship; to broaden their vision, inspire them with new purposes; and to train them for the service of Christ and our churches, to help them solve their problems.

It is hoped that our Sunday school may be represented at this conference by several of our young people. For information and registration blanks, apply to the pastor.

SUPERVISORS VOTE TO "FIX UP" JAIL

A sum not to exceed $6,000 will be spent at once for repairs to the present Kent county jail. Five thousand dollars of this will be spent for new furniture as suggested by architects who have visited the jail during recent months, and approximately $1,000 will be expended to make the building as near fireproof as possible. This resolution was adopted by the board of supervisors Thursday at their final session of the spring meeting. A resolution read by William Oltman asking that the proposition of a new jail building would entail a bond issue of $600,000 be submitted to electors at the fall election lost when voted upon by the board. The result was 25 yeas and 22 nays. Twenty-five votes were necessary to carry.

Spirited verbal clashes marked the closing session during the afternoon and the time was entirely given over to the jail subject. Supervisor William J. Thomas of Cannon township, leader of the opposition to the erection of a new structure, introduced the motion adopted which ordered the expenditure of the sum of the old jail. The finance committee was then ordered to proceed with the repair work at once. None of this appropriation was authorized to be spent on improvements of the detention hospital, although Mr. Oltman in his appeal for a vote of the people, designated the building as a fire trap and one of the greatest fire hazards in the city.

The report of the building and finance committee which was presented as a resolution for the erection of a new jail, outlined a structure as copied after the one now in use in Pontiac. Each member of the jail committee who made the tour of inspection of jails in Detroit, Pontiac and Toledo, spoke before the vote was cast. Messrs. Walsh, Peterson and Lamoreaux spoke against the resolution and Mr. Oltman and Mr. Quinlan favored the project. Mr. Quinlan, however, qualified his speech by saying he was not sure that the proper time for a bond issue had yet arrived.—Press.

From Our Point of View.
Expert borrowers but poor returners—Most communities have them. They remind one of the old-timer who became so adept at always returning less than she borrowed.

Here and there, the salaried class is facing increased pay, regardless of the fact that the public is paying for it. If granted, it is increased living expenses, and still higher taxation, which—to the farmer, struggling to keep his nose above water—will be an unwelcome proposition.

That most brilliant evening star in the West is Venus, our nearest planetary neighbor. Its diameter is 7810 miles and its year is equal to 224.7 of ours.

Canada's immigration nearly doubled in 1923, the number being 137,681 to 70,153 in 1922. With the United States restricting immigration, while Canada welcomes it, our long border line will require more adequate policing than during the past century.

Warning may issue that no horses will be allowed on the streets of Lowell, Ont., in five years more. Old Dobbin is too slow, as became his fellow the ox half a century or more ago.

Departure of almost two convicted of violation of prohibition and narcotic laws is asked of congress by the Methodist Episcopal General Conference. Disfranchisement of American citizens for a third offense against the prohibition laws was also proposed, but not recommended.

A compulsory school law, the like of which has already been declared unconstitutional by the Federal District court in Portland, Oregon, must again be fought out here in Michigan, where it has already been defeated two to one; and where the up contentiousness among townsmen, neighbors and friends, whose only differences are religious, wherein most have an undoubted right to differ.

Having been declared a "Trillion to his party and the best interests of the republic," by J. Tabor, master of the National Grand, Dr. Butler of Columbia University, is likely to learn something of national sentiment regarding his proposition to insert a "V" sign in the Republican platform. From here in Michigan, he can learn.

Damage done here has been paid in California for $100 to $17 each, many going at $10 each and others to be had for the taking—$100. "This is a far cry from the days of the Forty-niner, when horse thieves were hung on sight by the vigilantes."

There is a warning that cannot be repeated too often: "In the past three years 711 persons have been killed at Pennsylvania railroad crossings."
Allowing an average life of 35 years, a loss of 24,885 years of life is shown, mostly because drivers thought to be safe a few seconds time by beating the limit of endurance and published in the town paper a notice for them to "hurry up and get through" so he could tell what was going to have left. Then, there are the loomed books that never come back. Every town should have a "Return Borrowed Books Day."
