PASSED AWAY IN HIS SLEEP

CHAS. O'HARROW ABOUT TOWN SATURDAY EVENING PASSED PEACEFULLY AWAY SUNDAY MORNING

Sunday morning, November 23, Charles R. O'Harrow, one of Lowell's best known and most respected citizens, was found dead in his bed at his home, 520 Monroe Ave., where he had passed peacefully to his eternal rest, apparently without a struggle. It was his custom to be the first to arise on Sunday morning and he was thought to be resting and his daughters would not disturb him. Finally, at 9 o'clock, they went to call him and found he had entered into that "Calin and undisturbed repose from which none ever wakes to weep."

During the last week of his life he had been doing some work on his farm in South Lowell and he was about town as usual Friday and Saturday evening.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the Methodist church, Rev. F. E. Chamberlain of Elsie officiating, assisted by Rev. L. N. Nixon, officiating at Oakwood cemetery under Masonic auspices.

Charles Raymond O'Harrow was born in Vergennes township Feb. 17, 1862, and moved to South Lowell at the age of seven years, where he lived until 1920, when he moved to this village.

On April 7, 1886, he was united in marriage to Lydia M. Behler, who passed away April 28, 1908.

May 8, 1901, he was united in marriage to Chloe M. Merriman, who passed away Dec. 23, 1921.

He is survived by four sorrowing daughters, Jessie, Beulah, Doris, and three brothers, Edson of Alto, Frank of Clarksville and Fred of this village.

Mr. O'Harrow served Lowell township very efficiently several years as highway commissioner, building some of the best roads in the county. In recent years he associated himself with M. P. Schneider in the building of highways for the state, a work in which they were eminently successful.

Four years ago he fitted up a beautiful home in Lowell for his family; but the death of his wife shattered his dream of a tranquil retirement for his later years and life lost its attraction for him, though he bore up and carried on for the sake of his daughters.

His last public service was rendered as a trustee in the Lowell Village Golf club, where he will be missed by his late fellow members.

A kind and indulgent father, a good neighbor and a true citizen has left us, better because we have known him.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE TO REST

Elizabeth, daughter of William and Catherine Lee, was born in Canada, Dec. 10, 1842. She was one of a family of eight children, of whom one, a sister, Mrs. Lena Fox of Traverse City, survives her.

She came to Michigan when 16 years of age, locating in Lowell, where she obtained employment, afterward working in Bowne township till, at the age of 18 years, she was united in marriage to John Leece, who had then come from England to make a home in Michigan. They started housekeeping on the farm where she has since always resided and from where she passed to her Heavenly home Nov. 22, 1924, after an illness of only five weeks, aged 82 years, 11 months and twelve days. To this union were born five sons and three daughters, three boys and one daughter passing to the great beyond in early life.

Mother Leece has always been a hardworking, Christian woman, often in her last illness expressing her faith in her Saviour's mercy, that He would not prolong her suffering.

Coming to this country when it was a wilderness, she endured all the privations of the pioneer women, but bravely worked for her family, ever cheerful under adversity, rejoicing for her family when more prosperous days came. Her husband preceded her in death, departing this life April 27, 1901.

She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother, her son, George, at the home, Lewis of Keene, two daughters, Mrs. Sam Keim of Clarksville and Mrs. Martha Layer of Alto, also nine grandchildren, besides a number of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock at Bowne Center church Monday, Nov. 24, and burial in the Bowne Center cemetery.

OLD RESIDENT RESTS IN O'KWOOD

Willard C. Denick, a resident of Lowell for 43 years, died at his home in this village Sunday at 1:30, p. m., after an illness of nearly a year, aged 64 years. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday at 3 p. m., conducted by Rev. L. H. Nixon; burial in Oakwood cemetery, where he was sexton nine years.

Willard C. Denick, son of David and Melissa Denick, was born near Syracuse, N. Y., May 24, 1860, and came in 1881 to Lowell, where he married Ida Ecker, December 23, 1885. Four children were born to them, Ethel, who died in infancy, Will and Lyle Denick of Lowell and Merl of Lansing, who with their invalid mother survive him, together with seven grandchildren.

Since his coming to Lowell, Mr. Denick has followed the trade of painter and decorator and his work has made him a familiar figure in many homes in Lowell and vicinity. Four years ago he had an attack of pneumonia, from the effects of which he never recovered; and he has been confined to his bed since last January. Mrs. Denick was an invalid before his last illness and they spent the long, weary months together, awaiting the end, tenderly cared for by their sons and their wives, who have borne their double burden cheerfully and uncomplainingly and now have the consolation of duty well done.

OBITUARY—MARY REED WHITE

Mrs. Mary Hannah Reed White died Nov. 19 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. B. Whitaker, in Lowell, after a long illness.

She was born in Lowell, Dec. 1, 1912, she married R. H. White of Three Rivers. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, Mrs. F. B. Whitaker, and a granddaughter, Evelyn Whitaker.

Mrs. White was a good Christian woman and died in faith.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to friends and neighbors for their kindness and help in our sad bereavement of our loved one, wife and mother, and to the beautiful flowers and to Mrs. R. B. Johnson for her help and kind words and to Rev. Buck and wife for their kind and comforting words which will never be forgotten.

ROAD COMMISSION MEN MUST OBEY AUTO LAWS

County road commission employees must observe the laws of the highway, according to an edict announced yesterday by the commissioners. Employees discovered driving faster than 35 miles an hour, the maximum speed allowed by state law, will be dismissed and employees flagging in automobile accidents which are the result of their own carelessness, will be required to restore the cars to their original condition.—Grand Rapids Herald, Nov. 21. Will the order be made retroactive also?

OVERCOME BY GAS IN BUS

ALTO MAN ARRIVES IN GRAND RAPIDS UNCONSCIOUS. RECOVERS AT BUTTERWORTH HOSPITAL

Abe Wilson, 61 1/2 Euclid ave., S. E., and Charles Bancroft, 45, residing near Alto, were overcome by carbon monoxide gas while riding from Alto to Grand Rapids in an autotour bus late yesterday afternoon. At Butterworth hospital, where they were taken, it was stated last night they had recovered consciousness. It is expected they will recover.

According to E. E. Jenks of Hastings, driver of the Hastings-Grand Rapids bus, the two men alone were occupying the smokers' compartment at the rear of the bus.

"I know both of the men very well," Jenks said last night. "They boarded the car at Alto and on my way in I noticed that they were smoking. I turned on the heat at the blacksmith shop on the Cascade road, six miles east of Grand Rapids."

"Arriving at the autotour station on Bond ave., N.W., an attendant opened the luggage compartment at the rear of the smokers' section and removed the baggage. The other passengers, who had been riding in the front of the bus, left and then I discovered the two men, apparently sleeping. One was leaning against the door and I was unable to open it. I stepped into the luggage compartment and climbed over the seat to awaken them. They found them to be unconscious and I hurried them to Butterworth hospital, where I remained with them for perhaps an hour and a half."

Jenks said he was unable to account for the presence of the gas in the bus.

"The attendant did not notice the odor of the gas when he opened the luggage compartment," said the driver. "I was in the partition which separates the smokers' compartment from the front section was ajar and the passengers in the fore part of the bus were not affected."

"The hospital officials tell me the men were suffering from gas poison. I must accept their statement, although the gas certainly was not noticeable."

"If there was gas in the section, it must have come from a leak in the heater. The awnings were down and I have an opportunity on Monday to examine the heater and the exhaust pipe."—Grand Rapids Herald, Nov. 21.

APPRECIATION

We were overwhelmed with the kindness shown during our great sorrow and wish all our friends to know how grateful we feel.

P. M. RAILROAD HEARING DEC. 4

The Michigan public utilities commission has notified the county road commission it will hold a hearing at Lansing Dec. 4, on petitions to require the Pere Marquette railroad company to improve Hudson st. at Lowell and to install a flasher signal at the crossing on a 1-1/2 one-mile east of Alto.—Grand Rapids Herald, Nov. 22.

NOTES OF THE LOWELL SCHOOLS

The Ag-H. E. association is to have its annual banquet Tuesday, Dec. 9. The past two years it has been a Father-Son affair, but this year, with the girls of the home economics department included, it will be a Mother-Daughter-Father-Son occasion. Charter members to the association consist of Juniors and seniors who are regularly enrolled in either department. Sophomores and freshmen are being voted in upon application.

With a bad break against them at the beginning of the game, and minus the services of Finels, Lowell was forced to take the small end of a 12-6 score at the hands of Zeeland last Friday afternoon on the latter's aridron. Lowell received the ball on their own twenty-yard line and on the first down, a hand pass from center gave the Zeelanders their first touchdown. Lowell received again and the backfield composed of Jole, Kiel, Heschke and Foster piped through the heavy Zeeland line on long and steady gains. Cole carried the ball over the last stripe on a wide end run. Schneider failed at goal. The second period, the ball was in mid-air most of the time with neither team gaining ground.

The second half Zeeland opened up with three successful passes which were good for 50 yard of gain, placing the ball on Lowell's 12 yard line. The Zeeland line, Lowell recovered. Kiel stood between his goal, passed and coolly punted to the 45 yard line.

The fourth quarter, Capt. Hewx of Zeeland placed the pigskin on Lowell's 45 yard line but lost the ball. Kiel punted to the 30 yard line. After a series of fumbles on both sides, Capt. Hewx ran and stumbled through a broken field for their second counter. The game ended with Lowell trying desperately but failing to tally by the aerial route.

Lowell played a great game and is to be commended on its fighting spirit because it never gave up but fought gamely and bravely against great odds to the final whistle.

Friday afternoon, the High school observed National Education week with a program in accordance with the suggestion of the American Legion and the National Educational association. The idea presented was that education, in order to be complete, cannot be one-sided but must take in all sides of the individual in order to be completely satisfactory.

Temple of Nike Apteros on the Acropolis, Athens

The Temple of Nike Apteros on the Acropolis, Athens, although now in ruins, shows the architectural construction of a mausoleum of an ancient Greek period. Many of the modern tombs have been patterned after this remarkable example.

Simple designs in monument work are now in demand. We execute orders for the various forms of cemetery work at short notice. Our skill in erecting fitting memorials and in executing all kinds of cemetery work is well known in this community. We are worthy of your trust.

NOTES OF THE LOWELL SCHOOL
Talk, Illiteracy, Glennis Lee, James Marsh.
The next part of the program was from the standpoint of hygiene and physical education and was furnished by the pupils of Miss Evans, Mr. Edgington and Mr. Poulson under the leadership of Roger McMahon.
The program ended with a talk by Mr. MacVean on education and its benefits.
Wednesday morning, the Junior High school had the following Thanksgiving program in its room:
Song by Glee club.
Thanksgiving song, Junior High.
Reading, Grandma's Soliloquy, by Mary Jane Hill.
An Original Story, Bernice Lee.
Song, Lester Rogers and George Sterkins.
Reading, The City Maid's Room, Agnes Kallings.
Poem, The Story of the Pilgrims, Jack Peckham.
On Original Story, Evelyn Yeiter.
Reading, Aunt Hopsy's Thanksgiving, Florence Washburn.
Play, Columbia's Thanksgiving.
The teachers of the Lowell Public schools were given a reception at the Methodist church by the Ladies' Aid society of that church Tuesday evening, Nov. 18. The public school teachers appreciate a welcome from such an organization which has as its aim a constructive program for the betterment of mankind. Teachers need the church; not necessarily any one denomination, but any church which stands entirely for the worthy purposes of such an institution. Aside from the personal benefits, teachers here find an opportunity for further service, for broader acquaintance and for promoting good fellowship through the various activities.
The work of these two great institutions, the school and the church, is quite similar. Each is interested in the development of good citizens in its broadest sense. The school has become interested in education for character as never before. The church is making more of a contribution educationally than ever before. The school is interested in the success of the church in its various enterprises because the best results of the school hinges to some extent upon the effects of the church. Surely the church is interested in the success of the school in its various enterprises. Twentieth century civilization presents a tremendous challenge to education. The three great contributing institutions, the home, the school and the church, are joined in a triangular relation in the responsibility of this task. A better understanding through contact with each other aids toward harmonious working together; and there is sufficient work for all.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our most heartfelt thanks to our relatives, many friends and neighbors for the kind messages, flowers and fruit sent to Mrs. Huffman during her illness and for the tender sympathy given us upon the loss of our darling baby Jean Dortheaean. Those comforting words and deeds will never be forgotten.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huffman
Lena, Marie and Rachel.

Freak Lightning
A freak bolt of lightning struck the upraised shovel of a workman at Salem, Ohio, split into three parts and jumped to three different houses. In one house it stunned six-month-old twins. Weather boarding and plaster were torn from the second house. The third house was a tomato, just completed, which was damaged slightly. The workman was unharmed.

Not Natural Cleavage
The parting of a husband and wife is like the cleaving of a heart; one half will flutter here, one there.—Tennyson.

Trade in your old tires for new ones at McQueen Motor Co's.
David Loyer, aged 66, well-known farmer living just south of the Sweet church corners, who suffered a light stroke November 15, is now recovering and is able to get about the house. He says it is all right; he needed a rest anyway.

Our Public Forum
Mr. F. M. Johnson, Lowell Ledger, Lowell, Mich.
Mr. dear Mr. Editor:—
I appreciate very much your sending me a copy of your paper, because I certainly enjoyed your leading editorial and agree with every line of it. We want the thought and ability of all the newspapers. The viewpoint of the metropolitan press is very generally warped by surroundings that are not conducive to clear thinking, and it would be a poor state if we were obliged to forego the splendid influences of the editorials that come from outside of our large centers. I do not know of a paper that yields any influence that does not have a good editorial column.
With kindest personal regards, I am
Sincerely yours,
Fred W. Green.

American Post Office
The beginning of the American post office proper was in February, 1691. From 1707 to the year before the Revolutionary war the general post office in London controlled the postal service in America. The period of activity in the establishment of postal facilities began when Benjamin Franklin was appointed postmaster at Philadelphia in 1737.

Bulldogs Get Name Rightly
In the old days butchers used certain ferocious and tenacious dogs to catch and hold bulls ready for slaughter. Hence the name "bulldog," which has been handed down. These dogs could with apparent ease seize and hold a large animal by the nose, and either hold him perfectly still or draw his head to one side, at the order of his master.

Mark Twain Pioneer
The first author to use a typewriter in the preparation of manuscripts is believed to have been Mark Twain.

ADVERTISERS... CONTRIBUTORS
Copy should be in the printers' hands by Monday noon. All advertising copy not in by Tuesday night must take its chances of getting in that week. In case of reasonable excuse, our printers will do their best, but can not guarantee insertion.
Please remember—Copy Monday to accommodate us, and all advertising copy in by Tuesday afternoon. Late news of importance taken, if possible, up to closing forms at 10 a. m. Thursdays.
Our subscribers require regular delivery. This we can not give them when advertisers and contributors persist in bringing copy in Wednesday with the old "I forgot" excuse.
Yours for good service,
