We Can Say "No"

The banker or the business man who cannot, on occasion, say "no" and stick by his decision would soon find himself in deep water. We of this institution prefer to say "yes" concerning any question of credit or investment but our "yes" or "no" is always a direct result of our best judgment and honest opinion. Good banking practice can dictate no other course.

WESTERN STATE NORM. GLEE CLUB

Arrangements have been completed for the appearance of the Western State Normal Glee club of Kalamazoo in the City hall April 3, under the auspices of the High School Boys' Glee club.

The Normal singers come here on their annual Spring tour and will bring a program that has won wide favor in its earlier presentations. They are one of the largest and best known college groups touring the state and there is every reason to believe they will bring local music lovers entertainment aplenty.

The club was very successful in its tour through Western and Northern Michigan last spring, and secured an eager reception, it was decided to go over practically the same route this season. A little more than a week will be taken on the trip and then the club will return to Kalamazoo for its annual home concerts and several individual concerts in Southern Michigan before the state intercollegiate contest.

As in previous seasons the club is directed by Prof. Harper C. Maybee, head of the Western Normal Music department whose reputation as a chorus conductor is alone sufficient recommendation of the Glee club.

CLOVER LEAF CLUB

The Clover Leaf club met with Mrs. D. G. Mangle Tuesday, March 3. The program was given by the Junior club as follows:

Two piano trios, Phyllis Weekes, Elizabeth Shuter and Zeona Rivette, solo by Flora Ellis, accompanied by Mrs. Weekes.

Group of three piano solos, Dorothy Mangle.

Cantelations, Dora Jane Thomas, accompanied by Mrs. Mangle.

Folk Dances, Margaret Lalley and Maxine Simon.

Piano duets, Dorothy and Helen Lamplin.

Vocal solo, Frances Rosewarne, accompanied by Millicent Rosewarne.

Reading, Beth Lee.

Piano solo, Millicent Rosewarne.

Two vocal solos, Thomas Doyle, accompanied by Mrs. Mangle.

Group of piano solos, Katherine Steed.

Piano solo, Charlotte White.

Two piano duets, Dorothy Mangle and Lulu Belle Day.

Daily refreshments were served and the club adjourned, the next meeting to be March 24, at the home of Mrs. Charles Doyle and the following is to be held at the home of Mrs. Weekes at which time members may bring guests.

I wish to announce to all my friends and acquaintances that I am a candidate for the office of township treasurer. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

(17) Mrs. Lulu M. Bradish.

THREE SCARLET FEVER CASES YET

Carl Freyermuth is ill. The Bert Perry family is quarantined, a 10-month-old girl being ill.

Hugh Gardner's family was released from quarantine, two children who had been ill having recovered. Now a third child is ill and the quarantine has been renewed.

ANNOUNCEMENT

I wish to announce to the voters of Lowell township that I am a candidate for the office of treasurer, and shall appreciate your support.

Myrtle R. Springert.

TO THE TAXPAYERS

So many erroneous statements have been made concerning the fees of the township treasurer that the undersigned feel that the taxpayers are entitled to know the truth.

The average annual remuneration for the past eight years has been about $250 instead of $1,200 or $1,500.

Remember Mark Twain's words, "It is better not to know so many things than to know so many things that ain't so."

Frank G. Taylor, Treasurer. Myrtle R. Springert, Pross. Myrtle A. Taylor, Myrtle W. Hoagson.

FOR TOWNSHIP TREASURER.

I wish to announce to the voters of Lowell township that I am a candidate for the office of township treasurer. Your support will be appreciated.—Mrs. Minnie Clark.

VERGENNES DEMOCRAT CAUCUS

The Vergennes Democratic caucus will be held Tuesday, March 17, 1925, at the Alto Grand Hall at 2 o'clock, p. m., for the transaction of such business as may come before it. By Order of Com.

NOTES OF THE LOWELL SCHOOLS

Preliminary arrangements have been made for a concert by the Men's Glee club of Western State Normal. This concert will come either Thursday or Friday, April 2 or 3, during the Spring vacation and is being sponsored by the Boys' Glee club of the High school. The Western Normal Glee club is under the direction of Prof. Maybee and has a personnel of 25 men. This is the largest traveling college club in the state and should be a real treat for Lowell. With the club will be the Brown and Gold Four, an instrumental and male quartet.

The cast for the Senior play, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," has been picked and has started work under the direction of Miss Buchanan and Miss Senneman. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" is a clever farce in three acts based on the old saying "Truth is stranger than fiction." Did you ever tell the truth and find yourself accused of stretching facts? If so, you can sympathize with Mrs. Temple in the opening scene of the play. The cast: Mr. Temple, William Foster; Mr. Fuller, Andy Burdick; Mrs. Temple, Edith Fletcher; Mrs. Fuller, Frances Dailor; Capt. Sharpe, Harry Edgington; Dorothy Temple, Vivian Haysmer; Wigson, Vassar Rosewarne; John Brown, Morris Peckham; Mrs. John Brown, Lucille Visser.

As a finish to the home season, the local high school team won three victories last week; the team boys taking the Freeport scalp by a 16-8 score. The Freeport lads put up a game fight, but could not stand the force set by the local Freepreppers. The Freepreppers were excellent for so small a school and with more experience could give any school of its size a real game.

In the second encounter of the evening, the local teachers took the measure of the St. John faculty by winning 25-17. The game was close and interesting from the first whistle. Clark, playing center, dropped in a counter. A minute later, Edgington put one through the hoop for another ringer. From then on, the scoring was about even until the final period when Peck adjusted his glass eye to the correct shooting range. In a few minutes of play, the "whirlwind" started up commanding lead, which the locals maintained until the final whistle.

The last and final game of the evening started at 9 o'clock with Lowell and St. Johns as the participants. The game was well played and clean, with the locals having the edge on team work and handling the ball. Lowell gave as pretty an exhibition of floor work and passing as could be seen anywhere; but the ball just seemed too large to go through the hoop. Moore, Maxson and Finels played a clever offensive game; while Henry and Kiel kept the St. Johns lads from scoring. Finelier, who substituted for Kiel, ably filled the position at stationary guard.

Visitors at Lowell High school last Friday were the principal and agricultural instructor from Fremont and Supt. Wallace from Morley. As they put it, they were here to make observations and to get some new ideas.

CITIZENS' TICKET IS RATIFIED

With only one ticket in the field the Lowell village "election" Monday proved to be the usual ratification meeting, and not a contest as feared in any case, but 107 votes were cast, of which, not being marked, three were thrown out, this being about the usual number who are too proud to ask to be shown an otherwise unable to learn, and so go on disfranchising themselves.

Of the 104 ballots counted 90 were straight, and the following officers were duly elected:

President—Orlo J. Yeiter.
Clerk—J. Caven Smith.
Treasurer—Vern Ashby.
Assessor—Frank N. White.

PASSED AWAY IN HER SLEEP

Mrs. Jacob Callier passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Kinyon, Friday, March 6, aged 56 years, 3 months and 26 days.

Although afflicted with a heart difficulty, Mrs. Callier continued her daily routine of life to the last.

Recently she spent several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Hartley of Detroit, and since her return has spent a considerable time with Lowell friends, cheerful and apparently feeling well. Thursday evening she accompanied her son Harvey to the Strand theater, where she enjoyed the screen exhibit, and returning to her daughter's home retired for the night, during which she passed from her nightly sleep to her eternal rest without a struggle. When found next morning by her little granddaughter she had been dead several hours.

Funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Blair officiating clergyman; burial at Oakwood cemetery.

Jessie Burgess was born at Manistee, Mich., Nov. 8, 1868. At the age of three years she went to Greenville to live with her grandparents, and a few years later moved to Fallsburg.

October 9, 1884, she was united in marriage with Jacob Callier and made her home with him in Lowell, until his death four years ago. Six children were born to them, three of whom died in infancy.

Left to mourn her loss are Harvey Callier and Mrs. Clyde Kinyon of Lowell, Mrs. Jack Hartley of Detroit, three grandchildren, other relatives and many friends.

We hope that, as we approach the Passion week commemoration of our Lord's suffering, our people will draw closer to Him. Attend this service in the power of the house of the church. It is here the deepest fellowship can be felt. All Christians ought to be glad to set aside an evening when God's people meet with Him in such fellowship.

Thursday evening at 7:30, the young people's service. The pastor will be the leader. Let us have a rallying of forces to this service. All are welcome.

Dr. H. H. Nixon, pastor of the Methodist church, with the members of the Pulpit Supply committee of the church and upon invitation of Dr. John Paul, president of Taylor University of Indiana, also president of the National Holiness association, spent March 3-8 in Marion, Ohio, as one of the workers in a series of Coast to Coast conventions. He had the privilege of association with Dr. John Paul, Dr. John Owen, a preacher of nationwide reputation and Rev. Paul Reese of Pasadena, California. It was an inspiring sight to see members of all the churches of the city join in a series of services where the deeper things of God were profoundly presented.

New style—new color—new values in
Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

KEEPING PRICES DOWN BY SELLING MORE

THAT'S the big idea in this store. We want to sell more goods so that each article will have to bear less of the cost of such items as salaries, rent, heat, light, taxes and insurance.

But we're not so anxious to sell more goods that we'll sell poor goods. That's why we stick to such things as Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes and hats and furnishings of similar high quality. They are cheaper in the long run.

These suits have the London swagger, more width at the shoulders—less at the hips; easy drape; wider trousers and fuller cuffs. The colors are parrot blue, lava gray, London lavender and many other new shades. The prices for such quality are extraordinarily low—so it means great value for you at

OBITUARY—LEWIS THOMAS
Lewis Thomas passed away Sunday morning after an illness of eight months at the home of his step-son, O. L. Beebe, in Lowell. Funeral and burial services were held at Mulliken Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock, p. m. Mr. Thomas was born near Mulliken, Rossand township, September 8, 1848, and spent all his life in and around Mulliken with the exception of the past two years which were spent in Lowell.
He is survived by two sons, Ollie and Everett Thomas, one brother Edwin Thomas, of Grand Ledge, and one sister, Mrs. Hoover of Charlotte.
IN MEMORIAM
Harriet L. DeVoie entered life eternal at her home in Lowell, Mich., Sunday, Mar. 1, 1925, at three-thirty in the afternoon, aged 90 years and 6 days.
January 9 she fell and fractured her hip and from that time to her death she laid helpless in bed, her suffering at times amounting to torture. But for quieting medicines she and we who cared for her could not have endured it.
She received many letters and cards of sympathy; but was able to read only a few of them by reason her failing eyesight. This added to her sufferings, for being totally deaf there was no way of communicating with her. It was a great comfort to us that after death all traces of suffering passed from her face and she lay in her casket like one quietly sleeping, looking twenty years younger.
She is survived by an adopted daughter, Hallie M. DeVoie, one sister, Mrs. Katharine Woodruff of Cazenovia, N. Y., and a number of nieces and nephews. One niece, Mrs. J. F. Haines of Enumclaw, Wash., and Henry Needham of Seattle, Wash., were cared for by Mrs. DeVoie during their school years.
The funeral was held from the home at 2 p. m. Tuesday, March 3. Miss Anna Maynard sang her favorite hymn, "Abide with Me," and Mr. Haight, an evangelist, gave a very convincing sermon on death. Many beautiful floral offerings were sent and she was laid to rest by her husband in Oakwood cemetery.
Harriet DeVoie was born in Cazenovia, N. Y., next to the oldest in a family of seven children. She was converted at fourteen years of age and united with the Baptist church of which her mother was a member. Through earnest efforts she acquired an education, being considered one of the most promising students at the old Methodist seminary of which Cazenovia is justly proud. She began teaching at an early age and taught until her gradual loss of hearing obliged her to give it up.
She, with other members of her family, came West and settled in and around Lowell of which she has been a resident over fifty years.
On May 6, 1873, she married John DeVoie of Dwight, Ill., and they made their home on one of the beautiful hills of Lowell. Mr. DeVoie died Feb. 15, 1898, and was buried in Oakwood cemetery.
Mrs. DeVoie's life has been one of great struggle and self-sacrifice for others and we feel that when her spirit entered the presence of the Great Judge of all the earth, she was greeted with those blessed words: "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." K. W.

Correcting A Mistaken Idea
There seems to have been a mistaken idea left in the minds of some people that there are more than one grade of SELBY ARCH PRESERVER SHOES and that because our Selby Shoes are priced from $2.00 to $5.00 cheaper than the same shoe can be bought for in Grand Rapids that ours are an inferior grade.
We want it understood that whether we buy one pair or fifty pairs of a particular pattern of Shoe of the Selby Shoe the quality is the same and the price is the same to one dealer as to another. The Selby Shoe Co. makes but one grade of Shoes in any particular style and that the best. So that the cost price of their shoes outside freight, is the same to the dealer in New York City, Seattle, Grand Rapids or Lowell.
We want every Woman, interested in Arch Preserver Oxfords, or any other Selby Shoe to know that they may purchase Selby Shoe Co. products here with the certainty that they are FIRST QUALITY and that they will invariably save money over purchases of these shoes elsewhere.
