DR. SMITH HAS GONE ON AHEAD

PUBLIC OFFICIAL DIED SUD- DENLY SUNDAY MORNING. BURIAL WITH MASONIC HONORS TUESDAY.

Dr. J. C. Smith whose illness has been noted for the past several weeks, passed away from his home in this village Sunday morning, May 10, aged 40 years, 4 months and 9 days. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at his late home under Masonic auspices, Rev. A. J. Blair, officiating clergyman, with an attendance that overflowed the house and yard. The beautiful Masonic burial service was held at Saranac cemetery, the address being given by Past Master Hartman, attended by more than a hundred of the Masonic fraternity and a large number of sorrowing and sympathizing friends.

DR. J. C. SMITH.

John Caven Smith, son of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Blair Smith was born at Rosemont, Simcoe Co., Ontario, January 2, 1885. He graduated from Michigan State University in the year 1907, and immediately located in Lowell as a dentist. He was united in marriage June 13, 1908 to Alice M. Monks, who survives him.

He was present secretary and past master of Lowell lodge No. 90, F. & A. M., also a member of Hooker Chapter, No. 73, R. A. M. He was a member and Past Noble Grand of Lowell lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and trustee of the Modern Woodman.

PLAY FESTIVAL HERE, MAY 20

BIG DOINGS AT RECREATION PARK NEXT WEDNESDAY. RURAL SCHOOLS OUR GUESTS.

The third annual Play Festival will be held at Lowell Recreation park Wednesday, May 20. The first event is to start at 10:30 a. m. fast time. Pupils are to be classified according to weight and will compete in their class.

The athletic meet consists of about 17 different events made up largely of individual and relay races.

An emblem pin will be given each pupil winning points. Lowell school pupils will not compete in any event. The Play Festival is entirely for rural districts.

C. H. Runciman, chairman of the committee in charge, is consulting the weather man for a pleasant day so that all events may go off as scheduled. Make this day your community and school picnic. Recreation park at the island offers an unusually attractive place for you in every way.

SCHOOL NIGHT. Hundreds of parents and outside visitors attended "School Night" Tuesday evening at the central school. All grades above the fourth were in regular session from 7:30 to 9:30. In this time the procedure was exactly the same as what occurs from 8:30 to 10:30 each morning.

Besides patrons, a good number of teachers and pupils from rural schools were present. A large proportion of our patrons were from outside of the village which speaks well for parents of our non-resident pupils.

LOWELL DAYS REMEMBERED

MRS. CHARLES ATHEN'S BIRTH- DAY HONORED AT LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Jacob Schroder (nee Matie Athen) entertained at beautiful Bixby Park at Long Beach, Cal., with a picnic in honor of her mother's birthday, May 2, 1925. The day was an ideal picnic day. At noon friends came in autos and street cars with well-filled baskets. The tables were inviting with table linen, China and huge bouquets of roses in all colors. The center piece was a mammoth white birthday cake made by the guest of honor. It was surrounded by a ring of yellow wax tapers. Oh, there were ever so many, I did not stop to count them. A beautiful American Beauty rose in a crystal vase was in the center and several friends brought decorated birthday cakes. After the first course of hearties and Harry Hunter and Walter Johnson had been appeased ice cream and cake were served. Mr. and Mrs. Schroder and son Charles, George Force and Wilder Wiley did the transportation act and the eats and coffee kept moving along the two tables. After the feast, Edward Guest's poem "Friendly Faces and Voices" was read. Then an original poem written by Mrs. Emma Knight was read. It was a gem and follows.

To our dear friend, Mrs. Athen on her eighty-first birthday. Four score years old, we realize, our friend, That you are far past life's river's bend, Still, the shores of the past forever will blend With the shores of the future right on to the end. You must not be old, although you are gray, You must not like autumn leaves, wither away; But laugh and dance and sing and shout Like a boy in his freedom when school is out.

Then, as the days of your life unfold, You will be four score years young not four score years old. Mrs. Schroder then expressed her heartfelt gratitude for having her darling mother and so many loving friends to celebrate this memorial day.

Mrs. Athen was the recipient of numerous birthday gifts, and showered with gorgeous roses and other beautiful flowers. A large birthday card was passed around and the following Autographed it: Mrs. Charles Athen, Mr. W. P. Wakeman (her brother), Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schroder, Charles E. Schroder, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schroder, W. C. Schroder and son Billie, Miss Louise Schroder, Mrs. Evelyn Bell, Mrs. Nettie Wykes, Mrs. G. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Huntly (Helen Frank), Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johnson (Gertrude Fallas), Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter, Mrs. John Wingler, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley and children, Mr. and Mrs. George Rice, Mrs. Olive Blass, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Wells, (Minnie Blass), Mrs. Emma E. Knight, (Emma Lamb), Mr. and Mrs. N. M. MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE

ANNOUNCEMENTS BY AMERICAN LEGION AND AUXILIARY REGARDING SACRED MEMORIAL.

We print below a copy of a letter written by the local Charles W. Clark post of the American Legion to the Merchants' association of Lowell. The letter is in itself explanatory but we wish to add a note of our approval of their request for united Community action on this day.

Realizing the interference with regular every day work of holding such ceremonies on Saturday, they have expressed themselves as desiring only a couple of hours of our time—time we can well afford to take for the remembrance of sacrifices made for us on the field of battle. Two hours a year for the remembrance of our fallen soldiers of wars.

We bespeak for them the hearty co-operation of Lowell. May 9, 1925. Wm. F. Murphy, President. "Gentlemen,"

May thirtieth was originally set aside by the Grand Army of the Republic in 1868 as a day for decorating the graves of their dead. Their organization has faithfully respected that order until this day—so faithfully, in fact, that in many states it is now a legal holiday and everywhere we believe, has become a day of National rather than of an organization action.

"The American Legion as heirs to the traditions and the duties of the Grand Army of the Republic has carried on with this day as one of tribute to the men who fought and died in the Armies and Navies of America in all her past conflicts. They are now making plans for Memorial Day, 1925.

The township of Lowell has just completed a permanent mounting in concrete for the old cannon at the cemetery and the Legion has furnished a fifty foot steel pole from which will fly a splendid flag donated jointly by the G. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps, and the Legion Auxiliary. It seems that in many ways it is especially fitting to dedicate these on Memorial Day this year.

"With this program in view and with the purpose of making such commemoration and dedication one of community celebration, Charles W. Clark Post in the name of all veterans, therefore sincerely invites the Merchants' association of Lowell to close their places of business during the hours of 9 to 11:30 on the morning of May 30th and to join with them as an organization in simple ceremonies. These to start with a parade from the park on the west side of town to the cemetery and concluding with the decoration of the graves and the dedication of the flag staff and flag.

Very truly yours, Charles W. Clark Post, No. 152, The American Legion.

AUXILIARY NOTES. The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held at the City hall, May 4. Thirty-one dozen cookies were received for the boys of Roosevelt hospital at Battle Creek and a quilt was placed for the Children's Bilet at Otter Lake. An informal report was given of the Fifth District meeting at Rockford, where Lowell was represented by Mrs. H. P. Godfredsen, Mrs. Pat Bowes, Mrs. Oscar Brezina, and Mrs. Norman Borgeson.

It was noted to join with the G. A. R. and W. B. C. in buying a flag for the Legion's new flag pole in oakwood cemetery.

A pot-luck supper is to be held May 18th at 6:30 p. m. Each member is to bring a guest, eligible for membership in the Auxiliary—a wife, mother or sister of a soldier, come and help to the quilt and get your poppies for Memorial day.

E. P. HOWELL, PIONEER IN ADA TOWNSHIP, DIES. Eugene P. Howell, 74, of Ada township, died Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Clancy, 535 Charles ave. SE. Mr. Howell was a lifelong resident of Ada township, but the son of Hezekiah Howell, who settled in a farm on Robinson rd. in the early nineteenth century.

He was a graduate of Oberlin college, a member of the Ada Congregational church and has held several township offices. Besides his daughter, he is survived by a widow, a son, Hezekiah, Ontonagon, Mich., and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the residence of his daughter Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock with burial in Martin cemetery.—Grand Rapids Herald.

WHO REMEMBERS GEORGE WORDEN Is there any one in Lowell who remembers George Worden, who ran away from Lowell in 1870 when he was a boy of 17? A Seattle paper published a large picture of an elderly man wearing a silk plug hat, a gray satin suit carrying a diamond-studded cane and wearing a diamond breast pin. This is what he said: "I ran away from home in 1870—that was in Lowell, Michigan. Did seven turns in old High Henry's Minstrel and marched in the parade every day too. I was 9 years old then. It was a cross-road show. Sometimes we moved by train, but generally by wagon, with 14 clowns clowning along the roads and everybody happy." We have interviewed a number of "oldtimers" but have found no one who remembers this long-lost lad of 55 years ago.

Its The Same in Grand Rapids and in Ionia

Personally, have you a friend who would like to buy a very poorly constructed out-of-style suit today at even $10?

Or, have you in your acquaintance a woman, any age, who would think of purchasing a bygone unfashionable hat at any price?

It's the same in Grand Rapids, Ionia or Saranac, and it's the same in Lowell.

The people are demanding style--they are insisting on quality and when a store delivers both at a value giving price, it finds business too good to worry about.

Meat Buying Made a Pleasure You're bound to smile when you see those tempting cuts of meats in our shop. Always the best, priced to make your pockets smile. Our Motto--Service and Quality Monarch Dill Pickles and Lux Krost in bulk. W. J. Gibson's Cash Market On the West Side

Teeth, eyes, skin, hair, nails and-- women are now recognizing a "sixth" personal responsibility NO well groomed woman would think of neglecting her teeth, eyes, skin, hair and nails. Yet, she often neglects her feet, thereby robbing herself of a graceful poise, bringing wrinkles to her face, and making it almost impossible for her to enjoy things as she should. Active, vigorous, comfortable feet are the right of every woman. They are indispensable if she wishes to get the most out of life. And the woman of today is securing them by wearing the Arch Preserver Shoe. This shoe doesn't let the foot arch sag and become strained. It doesn't pinch the nerves, bones and blood-vessels of the forepart of the feet. Yet it is smart in appearance. It's the shoe you will wear when you get acquainted with it. Other beautiful Shoes in Patents, Satins, Brown Calf and Two-Tones. Just the patterns you been looking for and the price ranges from $3.00 to $7.50. Rollins Hosiery In vogue, but not extreme--Smart, yet sensible, and every pair perfect fitting. That's what Women say about Rollins Hosiery. Come in and see the new one this week.
