LOWELL'S MAN ABOUT TOWN

COMINGS, GOINGS, AND DOINGS OF PEOPLE YOU KNOW MOSTLY YOUNG-UNS. Robert D. Horn, graduate of Lowell High school, in the class of 1917, is attending Summer school at the University of California, at Berkeley, California. Mr. Horn was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1921, and has been a member of the faculty of that institution for the last four years, as an instructor in Rhetoric. In June, 1924, he received an advanced degree of that of Master of Arts, from the U. of M. He spent that summer traveling in Europe, returning to the University that fall. He recently resigned his position at Ann Arbor, and beginning this September, will work at the University of Oregon, as an assistant Professor of rhetoric, studying at the same time for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy, the highest scholastic degree conferred by American Universities. While at Ann Arbor, Mr. Horn achieved an enviable record for intellectual brilliance and acumen, and his new position at Oregon is a remarkable one in its opportunities and the youth of its holder.

UNCLE DICK'S 80th BIRTHDAY

A very happy event took place on Sunday last, July 6th, when about forty relatives and old friends gathered together in honor of the 80th birthday of Richard Murphy. After a sumptuous picnic dinner, which was served on the lawn in Lowell, a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed by all. Four generations of the Murphy family were present, also several friends of fifty years standing. Mr. Murphy, who is enjoying the best of health, received the congratulations and best wishes of his many friends and all expressed the hope that he may be spared to spend many more such happy reunions with them. Among the out of town guests were the following: Mrs. Sarah Welch of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Albert White of Grand Rapids, Harry McCallough of Algona, Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen of Lansing, Emerson Wieland of Portland, Miss Bessie Findlay, of Detroit, M. J. Williams of Flint, Miss Frelia Rittinger of Grand Rapids. The other guests included members of the family and friends of Lowell and vicinity. Com.

Going Knowledge

An ancient philosopher insisted that man's first duty to himself was to know himself. The best way he can gain an estimation of himself is to know something about the aims and ambitions, the joys and sorrows, the trials and triumphs of other men. Knowing them he can better know himself.—Orin.

HOTEL WAVERLY WILL RE-OPEN

The Hotel Waverly property has been sold to Louis H. Harmon of Grand Rapids who will fit it up for re-opening in the coming Fall by a brother Frank and the brother's son. Mr. Harmon is a druggist at 750 Butterworth, Grand Rapids, and has extensive real estate interests and is confident that his newly acquired Lowell property can be made to pay. It is proposed to run the hotel on the cafeteria plan said the former owner, Mike Driscoll of Grand Rapids, who was in town Wednesday. This will be welcome news to the business people of Lowell as well as the traveling and touring public who have found the closing of our only hotel a great handicap; and Landlord Harmon will be greeted with a glad hand. Lowell Free Chatauqua, July 28, 29, 30 and 31.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

On account of the change in train service we must go to press early. We ask our correspondents to get their items in early, Monday if possible. If your copy is late we will not be able to get it in when it is news. Thanking you for your past co-operation and hoping you will bear this in mind in the future. Thanks. The Publisher. Lowell Free Chatauqua, July 28, 29, 30 and 31.

BOY AND DOG
STYXIS—Kate Cahoon, "Critic Kates" owner of the "Critic Kates" store at Oxford, yesterday afternoon, while sitting in a chair in a room where she presides before a jury of admirers, was talking to a young man who had just come in. "I'll have trouble enough getting her," she told him, "the best I can do is to get her out of the house."

With a start and a white of the eye, she looked at the man who was sitting in the chair. "I'm not a diver," she said, "but I'll have to be if I'm to get out of this house."

She looked at him with open mouth and eyes wide open. "I'm not a diver," she said, "but I'll have to be if I'm to get out of this house."

She looked at him with open mouth and eyes wide open. "I'm not a diver," she said, "but I'll have to be if I'm to get out of this house."

CHAPTER V
What Nance Found.
Nance found the man who was sitting in the chair. "I'm not a diver," she said, "but I'll have to be if I'm to get out of this house."

She looked at him with open mouth and eyes wide open. "I'm not a diver," she said, "but I'll have to be if I'm to get out of this house."

OBITUARY—WILLIAM SCHMIDT
After a illness of five weeks duration, which he was confined to his bed, William Schmidt was called to his eternal home July 1, 1925 at the age of 86 years, 1 month and 6 days. He had been in failing health for over twenty years.

He was born in Byer, Germany, May 26, 1839, and when two years and three months old came to this country with his parents who located first in Hitesher, N. Y., and later in Michigan, on their farm in Lowell township, Kent county, when the deceased was 16 years old. Here he grew to manhood and married Ariadna Alpharetta Cole, 60 years ago last Christmas, locating on the farm adjoining his father's where he lived until the time of his death. To this union three children were born, Mary, William and Philip, the only surviving one.

Besides being an devoted and grief-stricken wife; two grandchildren, two great grandchildren, a sister, Louisa Thier of Harbor Springs, a brother, John Smith of Ada, and many other relatives, as well as many friends remain to mourn his departure.

He was a life-long Christian, being faithful to the last.

Funeral services were held at the home on Friday afternoon, Rev. A. J. Blair officiating clergyman.

OBITUARY—MRS. F. H. MISNER
Belief in death came to Mrs. Frank H. Misner, Friday, June 26, 1925, at 6 a. m., after 19 months of the most intense suffering (which she bore so patiently) of cancer of the head. Zella Carr was born near Lowell, Oct. 24, 1864, and lived in this vicinity nearly all her life with the exception of a few years spent at Marine City, Sylvester and Belding. She was married to Will Cogswell April 28, 1887. One son Everett, was born to this union. Mr. Cogswell died Dec. 3, 1906, leaving the wife and son. Nov. 8, 1911, she was again married to Frank Misner of Lowell. They moved to Grand Rapids in 1918. Mrs. Misner lost her mother in September of that year, at which time the son was serving with the 310th Engineers in Archangel, Russia. In 1923 her oldest sister passed away very suddenly. The same fall she became ill and gradually failed from that time on until she passed away, although cared for by a loving husband, son and daughter-in-law and an only sister.

It was to no avail. God's will, not ours to be done. She leaves to mourn her loss the above mentioned, also three nephews, Geo. Hatch, Irwin Fox and Cecil Warner and many other relatives and friends. Her many beautiful floral pieces in which she was laid away. Funeral services were held from the late home, 421 Adam St., Grand Rapids, Monday, June 29, at one o'clock and from the Methodist church of Lowell at 2:30. Rev. Klapp of Grand Rapids officiating. Burial at Oakwood cemetery.

OBITUARY—GLENN S. CONKLIN
Glenn S. Conklin, son of Fred Conklin, born June 17, 1903, died at the Sunshine hospital, Grand Rapids, at the age of 22 years, Tuesday, June 30.

He was a well-known Lowell boy, and well liked by everyone who knew him. He went to the Ware school until the age of 14 then to the Lowell High school until stricken with an illness which caused him to lose one leg. He has been at the Sunshine hospital, Grand Rapids for the last four years.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his father, Fred Conklin, Grand Rapids, one brother, Claude Conklin, Lake Odessa, and four sisters, Flossie Bultmore, Marymore Lake, Mrs. Henry Bakberry, Grand Rapids, Mrs. Arthur Morrey, Ionia, Miss Ruth Conklin, Grand Rapids, also hosts of friends and relatives.

Funeral services were held at the Lowell Methodist church, July 2, 9 a. m., Rev. C. Buck officiating clergyman, in absence of the Pastor, burial at Oakwood cemetery. Com.
