Confidence

THE man who has money, who knows where he can get it, has confidence in himself. He is not afraid of the present or the future, and the confidence which he has in himself inspires confidence in others. His peace of mind enables him to seize an opportunity if it comes, for he is not the slave of the dollar earned each day, and does not live in dread of tomorrow's need.

CANCEL $3000 CHURCH DEBT

METHODIST LADIES' AID SOCIETY UNLOADED LARGE OBLIGATION IN FOUR YEARS.

Regular monthly meeting of M. L. A. S. was held at the Church House, Friday evening. About sixty members and visitors were present. One special feature of the evening was the cancelling of the $3,000 pledge with $27,250 interest, which had been made in March, 1922. Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Harris, who worked so untiringly, physically and financially to "put across" the building of the annex were present and gave kind words of cheer and encouragement to the members of the Ladies' Aid Society, who had worked so faithfully to pay their obligation. Mrs. Devering gave a "toast" to Rev. and Mrs. Harris, and Mrs. Charles Doyle read an original "poem" to the Aid Society. Rev. Way, of Albion, who was in the village working with Rev. Nixon in the interests of the endowment fund for retired ministers was present and gave a most interesting and worthy work, asking the Ladies' Aid Society to establish a precedent by taking an amount which would be favorable to the society. After an intermission the subject was liberated upon resulting in the pledge of $500 by a unanimous vote of the Ladies' Aid Society members. Rev. Nixon expressed his thanks and appreciation to the ladies for their splendid work in the past and his assurance that the good work would go on.

LOWELL LITERARY CLUB.

A regular meeting of the Lowell Literary club was held at a class room of the High school at 7:30 on the evening of February 3. After its business session and an announcement that Mrs. Quigley would be the speaker on Americanization Day, February 11, at Mrs. John Archard's. The meeting adjourned to the High school auditorium for the Valentine Whimsy, "A Masque of Old Loves," ably presented by Mrs. Charles Doyle and her assistants. The members and guests were also favored with two songs: "The Little Danzelle," Novello; "The Blush Rose," O'Hara, by Mrs. Doyle. Also two selections by the High school orchestra.

CITIZENS' CAUCUS.

The Citizens' Caucus for the Village of Lowell, county of Kent, State of Michigan, will be held in City hall, village of Lowell, Monday, Feb. 15, 1926 at 7:30 o'clock, p. m. for the purpose of placing in nomination the following officers: One president, one treasurer, one clerk, one assessor, three trustees for two years each and a committee on business as may properly come before said meeting. MARY PICKFORD IN "WILD WEST" STUNT Plays "Sheriff" in Satire on Circus for Benefit of Child Film Actors.

There are laughs galore in Mary Pickford's new United Artists Corporation production, "Little Annie Rooney," coming to Strand theater. One of the funniest scenes is a satire on a "Wild West Show," staged by Mary, as leader of a gang of boys, and her pals. Mary impersonates a sheriff in this skit, wearing long trousers, a big star and a cowboy hat. She rides into the scene on a saw-horse, with a broom for a tail. The shouts of derision that greet this entrance from the "hard-boiled" tenement kids who are the audience, lead to more humorous situations, until the "circus" culminates in a howl of laughter. Miss Pickford is right at home in these scenes, and her clever clowning, together with the antics of some of the most talented youngsters in the movies, make a screen classic. "Little Annie Rooney" is the type of picture that "The World's Sweetheart" excels at. It is a photo-drama that should make the hit of the season at Strand theater Friday and Saturday, February 12 and 13.

OBITUARY—MRS. WILLIS CLARK.

Died, Feb. 8.—Mrs. Mary A. Clark, at her home in Lowell. Rev. E. L. Buck conducted the funeral service at her late home, and at the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Clark leaves to mourn their loss, her aged husband, W. G. Clark, one son, L. B. Lyon, of Ludington, Mrs. Ida Sutton, Lowell, five grand children and seven great grand children. She was carried to her final resting place in Oakwood cemetery by her five grand sons. Those from out of town to attend her funeral were: L. B. Lyon and wife, Morris Lyon and wife; Armond Lyon and wife; Harlan Lyon and wife; all of Ludington; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Christianson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Morgan and son, Mr. and Mrs. D. Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Quirk, Mrs. Moon and Mrs. Johnson, all of Grand Rapids, and Mrs. Dominic, of Middleville.

G. A. R. AND W. R. C.

Lincoln program was given on dinner day last Thursday, which was largely attended. Three of the "Old Boys" being present for the cats. Mrs. Devering, our Patriotic instructor, called for a song by the crowd. A reading by Merrill Seyles, also Mrs. Flanagan, and Mrs. Chubb, and then our old friend, Heman Dawson, (84 years old last Christmas day), sang us a song. Several visitors were present, and a few applications for membership to the W. R. C. were handed in. Miss Long, our County nurse, was a guest of the W. R. C. at dinner last Thursday. We are pleased to announce the illness of Mrs. D. O. Shear.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN! SHALL WE PLAY A LOSING GAME?

Lowell stands to lose by sharply advancing rents at an inopportune time.

The Superior Furniture company on the eve of moving its manufacturing business to Lowell is confronted by a rental situation here that makes its task of bringing its skilled workmen and their families, now comfortably housed in Grand Rapids, still more difficult.

The prospect of leaving their present homes, many of them owned by their occupants, and coming to inferior dwellings at advancing rentals is not enticing, and skilled workmen, such as are needed as a nucleus for a working force in a factory of this kind, are apt to look elsewhere for employment—in their own Furniture City.

The Superior Furniture company is already considering the matter of driving the workmen to Lowell, in which case Lowell houses will not be in demand at any price and Lowell business men stand to lose the trade of some fifteen or more families, with all that that means to the rest of the community.

In view of the fact that the Superior Furniture company has come to Lowell on its own capital and initiative, bringing its own established business, made a large investment and is planning for a progressive future that will mean much to Lowell, and above all, asking for no favors, it seems that the least that could be expected of Lowell would be loyal co-operation and a hearty welcome, making it as easy as possible for them to make the transition.

Mind you, no one objects, or will object, to house owners getting a fair return on their investments, everybody expects that, but unreasonable demands will simply defeat their own ends and be detrimental to the best interests of our good home town.

Men and brethren, it behooves us to think well on these things.

REGULAR MONDAY LUNCHEON.

Lowell Board of Trade to Meet Twice a Month.

A meeting of the Directors of The Lowell Board of Trade was held at the City State bank, Wednesday, February 10, at 10 o'clock a. m. The full board was present. E. R. Kniffin was re-elected secretary.

Vern Ashley was re-elected treasurer. A committee of two was appointed to arrange for a noon day luncheon meeting of the entire Board of Trade to be held Monday, February 15, at the City hall.

Matters of importance and of interest to every member are to come up during the present year and the regular holding of noonday meetings every two weeks on Monday has been deemed advisable by the directors.

The committee will endeavor to call on every member of the board prior to the meeting on Monday, the 15th. If any should be missed please notify the secretary of your intention of being present, and places at the table may be arranged for.

LEGION DOINGS.

Next regular meeting Monday, February 15, 1926. A good turnout is hoped for as we have some important matters to take care of.

Everything is all set for the big party Friday night, and a good time is assured for all as there will be all kinds of dances and lots of them, good music, and don't forget there will be cats and cats and cats.

Walter Gruel, who was recently by Edward Hines, Jr., hospital, at Maywood, Ill., through the efforts of Charles W. Clark Post, writes he is receiving very good care and enjoys the cats, also the radio, as the hospital is equipped with a radio receiving set. From which 925 head sets are attached, one at each bedside, also ten loud speakers, one in each of the recreation rooms.

Walter wishes to thank the boys for the money and the interest the Post has taken in him.

Walter had his back broken six years ago and has not been able to take a step since. He hopes to be able to get around with crutches when he comes home. Here's hoping.

Mrs. Lingley, of Grand Rapids, prominent Americanization worker and P. T. A. Head to Address Lowell Literary Club.

On Tuesday, Feb. 16 the L. L. C. will meet with Mrs. John Archard. Mrs. W. H. Lingley and Mrs. J. B. Nicholson, of Grand Rapids, will be the speakers of the afternoon. A good attendance is desired to hear these exceptionally interesting speakers.

The Electron battery charger—ideal for home use. You will get twice the satisfaction from your radio with one. $18.50. Stocking's Radio Department.

VOCATIONAL INFORMATION

BEING SOUGHT BY LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS. CITIZENS TO HELP.

The plan for helping students to choose their own careers, the number for their life work is going forward and is receiving much interest and co-operation. Not only have the students themselves shown a marked interest in this vital problem, but many of our adult people of the community also are showing much interest.

Joint assemblies of the Junior and Senior high students have been held at which the nature of the plan was stressed. Mr. Hillman, of the Old National Bank of Grand Rapids; C. H. Runciman and Mr. Mayne, secretary of the Grand Rapids Y. M. C. A. addressed the students upon different vocations.

The personal characteristics, qualities and preparation necessary for success in anything were brought out. The need for carefully analyzing one's self and securing information about various occupations were emphasized. Also many examples were cited on both sides; those who had prepared for and pressed on toward a particular goal in life and on the other hand those who had no aim and drifted from this to that until old age found them helpless and in need. Students have shown by their attention and response that these addresses have been of much interest to them.

They have been brought face to face with life work problems. They appreciate more its seriousness and the need for definite preparation more particularly in this age of specialization and keen competition. Following all this, the girls and boys who desire to have filled out self analysis questionnaires which help indicate the proper choice of life work.

Over a score of our men and women of the community are offering some of their time for personal interviews with these students to give as much information as possible about particular occupations which they are most familiar with or in which they are engaged. These business and professional people do not expect to attempt to tell the young people what to do, but will try to give sufficient information as to preparation and experience so that the pupil will make a more intelligent choice for themselves.

Mrs. Metzger, county boys worker, and Mrs. Metzer, county girls worker are largely responsible for this movement. They are working in conjunction with a local committee consisted of Mrs. R. E. Springle, Harvey Coons, Esther Banker, Russell Baker and Miss Rouse. The H-Y boys are also indirectly sponsoring the plan.

Such a procedure will by no means solve every problem of life for our out girls and boys but it should be materially help in this vital matter.

A Nation's Tribute

Washington and Lincoln lived for the ages. The world joins the Nation in paying tribute to the memory of these men who gave unreservedly of themselves that certain ideals of right might prevail and that this country might live and find a place of high esteem among other nations of the world.

Great as were these men, the homely virtue of good common sense was at the bottom of the power that enabled them to carry the country successfully through one crisis after another. The practice of thrift in the broadest sense of the term was widely advocated by both Washington and Lincoln, and surely if these two men found thrift a practice to be commended, you and I will find it equally good to follow.

Squirrel's "L"

A telephone wire might be termed a public highway, but rather a highway of speech than one for transportation.

However, this fact does not seem to be generally known, at least not among our animal friends. From Wilmington, Del., comes the story of a squirrel that travels a mile every day by telephone wire for his meals, crawling all the distance along the wires. William Krause, a grocer, some little time ago coaxed the squirrel down from a telephone pole by offering it nuts, and since then the squirrel has made its appearance every day. Out of curiosity, Krause followed it one morning and found that its nest was in the woods fully a mile distant. Telephone Service Bulletin.

Matterhorn Wasting Away

The Matterhorn, the famous mountain in Switzerland, is slowly wasting away. On an average day in thawing weather, hundreds of tons of dirt, clay and rocks slide down the mountain side. On some occasions thousands of tons of dirt slide in a day.

WHY HEAP TROUBLE ON YOUR FEET?

They Are the Foundation of Your Building and You Know a Building Without a Foundation Will Never Stand.

A Shoe for busy mothers—

Comfortable, vigorous, useful feet make a mother's work more pleasant, help her care for her children and get real joy out of living. The Arch Preserver Shoe is the only shoe that combines comfort and foot health with style. This is a different shoe. Come and see it for yourself.

THE ARCH PRESERVER SHOE

The day is slowly passing when women feel that they must take a light, flimsy, spike heel, dress shoe, bought for dress occasions only because of its dainty appearance, and finish wearing it out for their every day work. Give your feet and body a good foundation to stand on and see the difference when night comes.

You do not need to sacrifice appearance for comfort either, for we can show you Arch-Preserver Slippers in both patent leather or kid similar to the one pictured above.

We carry Selby's Arch-Preserver Kid Oxford in stock in three widths all the time.
