SUGAR BOWL CLOSED--SOLD

CLAUDE STREETER NEW PROPRIETOR, SPUGUZZA IS IN TROUBLE OVER CHECK DEAL.

The Sugar Bowl, for several years owned by August Spugazza, which was closed under a chattel mortgage for several days, was sold Wednesday to Claude Streeter, who is now in possession.

The new proprietor is a former employe of the Standard Oil Company, and is well-known in Lowell and vicinity.

The Grand Rapids Herald of Tuesday had this:

Check Offense Charged.
August Spugazza, 575 Thompson

afternoon by Otto Heinsma, warrant officer, on a charge of violating the state check law. Spugazza is alleged to have issued a $25 check on the City State Bank of Lowell made out to M. J. Dark & Sons of this city. Lawrence Dark made complaint.

OBITUARY--DELBERT DAWSON.

Delbert Dawson, son of William and Jane Dawson, was born in Keene, Iowa county, on the 23rd of May in 1883. He came to Lowell with his parents at the age of eleven years. He has been a resident here since that time. He was united in marriage to Miss Ella Murray, November 28, 1911. For twelve years he has been employed at Gould's garage. Poor health forced his retirement from work in June of 1925. He was a member of The Loyal Order of Moose, No. 809. He is survived by his wife, two sisters: Mrs. Charles Burch, of Lyons, Mich.; Mrs. Andrew Tasker, of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. Tom Rouse, of Grand Rapids; and five brothers: Emory Dawson, of Okemaw Lake, Heman Dawson, of Sargaw, John Dawson, of Lowell, Charles Dawson, of Dutton, and Gilbert Dawson, of Salt Lake City, Utah. Services were held from the residence at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, with Rev. L. H. Nixon in charge.

MRS. T. M. DOYLE LAID TO REST.

The large auditorium of the Lowell Methodist church was comfortably filled for the funeral service of Mrs. T. M. Doyle, (nee Ethel Thomas) Saturday afternoon. Rev. B. H. Bready, of Port Huron, and Pastor L. H. Nixon officiated, the former discourses on "The Immortality of the Soul." Mrs. Herman Strong and Lynn Clark, of Grand Rapids, sang with Mrs. H. L. Weekes at the organ. The pall bearers were James McMahon, J. A. Archard, Herman Strong, H. L. Weekes, C. D. Hodges and Dr. B. H. Shepard. A profusion of floral tributes evidenced affection for the dead and sympathy for the living and the large attendance, entirely without denominational distinctions, betokened a unity of fellowship that was good to see. The burial was in the Thomas family lot at Oakwood cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral from outside were: Mr. and Mrs. William J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Strong, Mrs. John Bookley, Mrs. Charles Rollins, Lynn Clark, and Arthur Bready, of Grand Rapids; Miss Ida Vandusen, Battle Creek; Leo Walsh, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Billington, Detroit; Lyle Hartwell and Mrs. Ed. Golmer, Marshall; F. W. Gaudeman, St. Louis; Mrs. John H. H. Edwards, C. D. Byrne, Frank Byrne, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hefferan, Mr. Camillus Hefferan, Mrs. Joseph Gahan, Mr. and Mrs. George Gahan, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ledner, W. J. Burns, Michael Downes, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bressanini, Mr. and Mrs. Justin McCarthy, all of Parnell, Vincent Carey, Vergennes.

CLOVER LEAF CLUB.

The C. L. C. met in the home of Mrs. B. H. Shepard Tuesday evening, February 23, guests being the Junior members of the club. After the business meeting, Mrs. Shepard took charge and announced the following program:

Piano solo, Miss Lulu Belle Day, Reading, Mrs. O. J. Yeiter.

Solo, Mrs. Runciman.

The club members then played a musical game. Refreshments which were served. The next meeting of the club will be March 2, at the home of Mrs. O. J. Yeiter. Club Reporter.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We have ordered The Ladies Home Journal sent to all regular correspondents for one year beginning with February or March numbers. Some are required to return correspondents and are receiving The Ledger regularly but are seldom heard from. If they wish to report regularly we will be glad to add their names to the list receiving The Ladies Home Journal. If they do not wish to write regularly they should notify us and let us stop sending The Ledger.

If all correspondents would sign each letter it would help us to know what each one is doing.

"WHAT PRICE GLORY."

"What Price Glory," the most talked-about play in the world, is to be presented at the Regent theater, Grand Rapids, during the week starting Monday, March 1st, with matinees Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. With one notable exception it is the most discussed play the world has ever seen--that exception being "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It is generally believed that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" brought on the Civil War which resulted in the freeing of slaves; and it is believed that "What Price Glory," by painting war as it really is, has brought about a revolution of feeling against war which will make future wars impossible.

The night prices at the Regent range from 50c to $2.50 in the balcony to $1.10 on the lower floor; while the matinee prices are but 25c and fifty cents. It should be borne in mind that this is the stage play, acted by a company of thirty people, and not a motion picture. Seats may be reserved by mail if a stamped envelope, self addressed, accompanied by remittance, accompanies the order.

LOWELL WINS TWO FROM GREENVILLE

Playing before a capacity house of 400 people, the local basketball team won two games from the fast Greenville aggregations last Friday night. In the first game of the evening the girls, after being outclassed in the first half of the game, came back strong in the final minutes of play to pile up a total of 20 points, while the visitors were garishing 11 points. Miss Hazel Lee proved the star of the evening by scoring field goals and two fouls making a total of 14 points, while Misses Jones and MacFarlane were the stellar defensive players. The Lowell girls played a fast floor game with the usual Lowell fighting spirit holding the Greenville lassies to a single field goal during the entire last half.

In the final game of the evening, the Lowell boys walked away with a check of 32-16 count. Lowell showed considerable improvement in offense and lots more pep and drive. Using a four and five man offense, the locals pumped into a six point lead which they maintained throughout the first half which ended 17-11 for Lowell. In the second half the home team gradually pulled away from the visitors to finally double the count at the final whistle by a 32-16 score.

Every man on the Lowell team was playing basketball every minute of the game with no hesitation on the offense. In previous games Lowell has used a three man offense with two men playing back on defense, but in the last game four men started a fast traveling offense which sifted through the Greenville defense almost at will. J. K. Moore and Henry were the leading scorers with 13 and 9 points each. Hewitt played the leading 7 points. Mr. Conger and Oatley, of Grand Rapids Central handled the games in satisfactory manner.

Next Thursday night, February 25, the Lowell seconds, of next year's varsity will play the Clarksville High school team. In the first game of the year the Lowell seconds lost to Clarksville on the latter score by a 13-10 score and mean to even the count on the same floor. The Faculty will also play the St. John's teachers who boast of two regular football games, who it is thought will do their best to go through a seven-foot doorway.

DOINGS OF THE LOWELL CHURCHES

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Lloyd H. Nixon, Pastor.

"Ten ways to hurt your Church," such was the title of an insert in the "Chimes" a church bulletin published by Dr. Russel Bready's church. Some of the ways are here given: "Broadcast the faults of the minister. Assume the silence of your hearers means they agree with you--and report it so. 2. Attend church only when an outside speaker is announced--and then shake hands with everybody that day. 3. Tell everybody the attendance is falling off, though you never got an official count. 4. Criticize your fellow members for things you do not care really of. 5. Give one third of what you can give. 6. Report your church lacks spiritual power, although your own life is like a ciner. 7. Park both your piety and intelligence at home when you attend church; then accuse the preacher of being 'heretical.' 8. Send your children to another church school, and publish the fact. Oppose the leaders of your school, always." Frank Wade Smith is the author of the above.

Sunday services for February 28, at 10:30 the pastor preaches, "Judgment for the Church," will be the theme. Mrs. Charles Doyle will sing at 11:00 noon. The church school will meet. The church school orchestra, under the direction of Richard Mangle, is getting "Better and Better." At 5:30 p. m., the vesper hour. Special music, Good interest. Fine attendance. Join us. The young people meet at the close of vesper.

Will you be there Tuesday evening at 7:30? If you do not know where, look elsewhere in this paper.

Thursday evening at 7:30, Lenten devotionals. This is the season when religious convictions are renewed and refreshed, this service will help you.

Your attendance at the cottage prayer meetings is desired. We meet with Mrs. A. M. Andrews on Wednesday at 2:30 and with Mrs. Young on Friday.

Your pastor is as near to you, for all matters of service in which he may be of help, as is your telephone. Call him while you think about that case of need.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

A. J. Blair, Pastor.

Sunday services.

Morning worship at 11 o'clock.

Subject: "The Value of Prayer." Talk to children. Good music.

Church school at 10 o'clock.

Young People's society of Christian Endeavor at 5 o'clock.

Topic: "America's Spiritual Wastelands."

We are anxious that all the young people of the church be present.

Mid-week service on Thursday evening at 7:30. We have now entered upon the Lenten season. It is a season for drawing us nearer to God, for the deepening of the spiritual life; and for drawing us nearer to, and uniting us with Him for ever.

This service will prove a help in the direction of all these objectives.

Mr. Moore has organized his Sunday school class of boys. They have taken the name of "Pioneers."

The following is a list of the officers:

President: Junior Runciman; vice president, Irving Alexander; secretary, Gerald Mullen; treasurer, Arthur Siles.

The Thursday afternoon group of the Ladies Aid will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the Parish house. All are urged to be present to help with the work and plan for their fair carnival in April.

The Sunday school will hold a winter picnic in the Parish house Friday evening, March 5, at 6:30 p. m.

A program will follow the supper consisting of a number from each class. A reading, a song, or whatever stunts the class may choose.

All friends of the church are invited.

Bring sandwiches for yourself or family, and one other thing.

Be on time as the supper will be served at 6:30.

Rev. Russell H. Bready, pastor of First Methodist church, Port Huron, has refused a call to Broad Street Methodist church, Columbus, O., at a proffered increase of $2,000 over the salary he is now getting. Loyalty to the church to which he was sent only last Fall was his reason for declining the offer. Evidently, it is not always true that the "call" is strongest where the pay is biggest.

John Lasby was 75 years old Sunday, and, as if that were not good enough, the family had to go and remind him of it with a big dinner and two birthday cakes with candles, and all the "Me" managed the affair at the ice cream parlor, laying plates for ten, the company including Happy Allen's family, from McCoris. Elizabeth Shuter was chief entertainer, and the occasion was a pleasant one for all concerned. John's many friends hope that he may have many more like it.

Rewards of Friendship
This communitating of a man's self to his friends works two contrary effects, for it reboundeth joys and cutteth grief in halves; for there is no man that imparteth his joys to his friend, but he enjoyeth the more; and no man that imparteth his griefs to his friend, but he grieveth the less.— Bacon.

SUGAR BOWL CLOSED--SOLD

The Sugar Bowl, for several years owned by August Spangola, which was closed under a chattel mortgage for several days, was sold Wednesday to Claude Streeter, who is now in possession.

The new proprietor is a former employe of the Standard Oil Company, and is well-known in Lowell and vicinity.

The Grand Rapids Herald of Tuesday had this:

Check Offense Charged.

August Spangola, 575 Thompson ave., SE., was arrested yesterday afternoon by Otto Reinsma, warrant officer, on a charge of violating the state check law. Spangola is alleged to have issued a $25 check on the City State Bank of Lowell made out to M. J. Dark & Sons of this city. Lawrence Dark made complaint.

OBITUARY--DELBERT DAWSON.

Delbert Dawson, son of William and Jane Dawson, was born in Keene, Iowa county, on the 23rd of May in 1883. He came to Lowell with his parents at the age of eleven years. He has been a resident here since that time. He was united in marriage to Miss Ella Murray, November 26, 1911. For twelve years he has been employed at Gould's garage. Poor health forced his retirement from work in June of 1925. He was a member of The Loyal Order of Moose, No. 809. He is survived by his wife, three sisters: Mrs. Charles Grand, Lyons, Mich.; Mrs. Andrew Tasker, of Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. Tom Rouse, of Grand Rapids, and five brothers: Emory Dawson, of Chippewa Lake, Ontario; Dawson, of Saranac, John Dawson, of Lowell, Charles Dawson, of Dulton, and Gilbert Dawson, of Salt Lake City, Utah. Services were held from the residence at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, with Rev. L. H. Nixon in charge.

MRS. T. M. DOYLE Laid to Rest.

The large auditorium of the Lowell Methodist church was comfortably filled for the funeral service of Mrs. T. M. Doyle (nee Thomas) Saturday afternoon. Rev. B. H. Bready, of Port Huron, and Pastor L. H. Nixon officiated, the former discourses comfortably on "Immortality." Mrs. Herman Strong and Lynn Clark, of Grand Rapids, sang with Mrs. H. L. Wickes at the organ. The pall bearers were James McMahon, J. A. Aehart, Herman Strong, H. L. Wickes, C. D. Howard and Dr. E. H. Shepard. A profusion of floral tributes evidenced affection for the dead and sympathy for the living and the large attendance, entirely without denominational distinctions, betokened a unity of fellowship that was good to see. The burial was in the Thomas family lot at Oakwood cemetery.

Among those attending the funeral from outside were: Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Strong, Mrs. John Bookiey, Mrs. Charles Rollins, Lynn Clark, and Arthur Hoag, all of Grand Rapids; Miss H. D. Doyle, of Detroit; Leo Walsh, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Billington, Detroit; Lyle Hartwell and Mrs. Ed. Golmer, Marshall; F. W. Gentlemen, St. Louis; Mrs. John Byrne, Mrs. Edye G. Byrne, Frank Byrne, and Mrs. A. J. Hefferan, Mr. Camillus Hefferan, Mrs. Joseph Gahan, Mr. and Mrs. George Gahan, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ladner, V. J. Hyrnie, Michael Downs, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Bressman, Mr. and Mrs. Justin McCarthy, all of Parnell, Vincent Carey, Vergennes.

CLOVER LEAF CLUB.

The C. L. C. met at the home of Mrs. B. H. Shepard, Tuesday evening, February 23, guests being the Junior members of the club. After the business meeting, Mrs. Shepard took charge and announced the following program:

Piano solo, Miss Lulu Belle Day, Reading, Mrs. O. J. Yeiter, Solo, Mrs. Runciman.

The club members then played a musical game, after which daily refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be March 2, at the home of Mrs. O. J. Yeiter. Club Reporter.

NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We have ordered "The Ladies' Home Journal" sent to all regular correspondents for one year beginning with February or March numbers. Some are enrolled as correspondents and are receiving "The Ledger" regularly, but are seldom heard from. If they wish to report regularly we will be glad to add their names to the list receiving "The Ladies' Home Journal." If they do not wish to write regularly they should notify us and let us stop sending "The Ledger."

If all correspondents would sign each letter it would help us to know what each one is doing.

"WHAT PRICE GLORY."

"What Price Glory," the most talked-about play in the world, is to be presented at the Regent theater, Grand Rapids, during the week starting Monday, March 1st, with matinees Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. With one exception it is the most discussed play the world has ever seen—that exception being "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It is generally believed that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" brought on the Civil War which resulted in the freeing of slaves; and it is believed that "What Price Glory," by painting war as it really is has brought about a revision of feeling against war which will make future wars impossible.

The night prices at the Regent range from 50c to $1c in the balcony to $1.10 on the lower floor, while the matinee prices are but 25c and fifty cents. It should be borne in mind that this is the stage play, acted by a company of thirty people, and not a motion picture. Seats may be reserved by mail if a stamped envelope, self addressed, accompanied by remittance, accompanies the order.

LOWELL WINS TWO FROM GREENVILLE

Playing before a capacity house of 400 people, the local basketball team won two games from the fast Greenville aggregation last Friday night. In the first game of the evening the girls, after being outclassed in the first half of the game, came back strong in the final minutes of play to pile up a total of 20 points, while the visitors were garishing 11 points. Miss Hazel Lee proved the star of the evening by scoring field goals and two fouls making a total of 14 points, while Misses Jones and MacFarlane were the stellar defensive players. The Lowell girls played a fast floor game with the usual Lowell lightning spirit holding the Greenville lasses to a single field goal during the entire last half.

In the final game of the evening, the Lowell boys walked away with Greenville by 32-16 count, Lowell making considerable improvement in offense and lots more pep and drive. Using a four and five man offense, the locals pumped into a six point lead which they maintained throughout the first half which ended 17-11 for Lowell. In the second half the home team gradually pulled away from the visitors to finally double the count at the final whistle by a 32-16 score.

Every man on the Lowell team was playing basketball every minute of the game with no hesitation on the offense. In previous games Lowell has used a three man offense with two men playing back on defense, but in the last game four men started a fast traveling offense which sifted through the Greenville defense almost at will. J. Moore and Henry were the leading scorers with 13 and 11 points each. Hewitt played the leading 7 points. Mr. Conger and Outley, of Grand Rapids Central handled the games in satisfactory manner.

Next Thursday night, February 25, the Lowell second varsity will play the Clarksville High school team. In the first game of the year the Lowell seconds lost to Clarksville on the latter's floor by a 13-10 score and mean to even the score in the same floor. The Faculty will also play the St. John's teachers who boast of two regular leabod Granes, who it is said have to duck their heads to go through a seven-foot doorway.

Lloyd H. Nixon, Pastor.

"Ten ways to hurt your Church," such was the title of an insert in the "Climes" a church bulletin published by Dr. Russel Bready's church. Some of the ways are here given. "Broadest the faults of the ministers are assumed the silence of your hearers means they agree with you--and report it so. 2. Attend church only when an outside speaker is announced--and then shake hands with everybody that day. 3. Tell everybody the attendance is falling off, though you never got an official count. 4. Criticize your fellow members for things you, are guilty of. 5. Give one third of what you can give. 6. Report your church lacks spiritual power, although your own life is like a cinder. 7. Park both your piety and intelligence at home when you attend church; then accuse the preacher of being "heretical." 8. Send your children to another church school, and publish the fact. Oppose the leaders of your school, always." Frank Wade Smith is the author of the above.

Sunday services for February 28. At 10:30 the pastor preaches, "Judgment for the Church" will be the theme. Mrs. Charles Doyle will sing. At 12:30 noon the church school will meet. The church school orchestra, under the direction of Richard Mangle, is getting "Better and Better." At 5:30 p. m., the Vesper hour. Special music. Good interest. Fine attendance. Join us. The young people meet at the close of Vesper.

Will you be there Tuesday evening at 7:30? If you do not know where, look elsewhere in this paper.

Thursday evening at 7:30, Lenten devotions. This is the season when religious convictions are renewed and refreshed, this service will help you.

Your attendance at the cottage prayer meetings is desired. We meet with Mrs. A. M. Andrews on Wednesday at 2:30 and with Mrs. Chelton on Friday.

A pastor is as near to you, for all matters of service, as he may be of help, as is your telephone. Call him while you think about that case of need.

A. J. Blair, Pastor.

Sunday services.
Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Subject: "The Value of Prayer." Talk to children. Good music. Church school at 10 o'clock. Young People's society of Christian Endeavor at 5 o'clock. Topic: "America's Spiritual Wastelands."

We are anxious that all the young people of the church be present. Mid-week services on Thursday evening at 7:30. We have now entered upon the Lenten season. It is a season for drawing us nearer to God; for special acts of devotion; for the setting up of certain things which tend to draw the heart away from God; for the deepening of the spiritual life; and for drawing us nearer to, and uniting us with Him for us.

This service will prove a help in the direction of all these objectives. Mr. Moore has organized his Sunday school class of boys. They have taken the name of "Pioneers." The following is a list of the officers: President; Junior Runciman; vice president, Erving Alexander; secretary, Gerald Mullen; treasurer, Arthur Stiles.

The Thursday afternoon group of the Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the Parish house. All are urged to be present to help with the work and plan for their fair carnival in April.

The Sunday school will hold a winter picnic in the Parish house Friday evening, March 5, at 6:30 p. m.

A program will follow the supper consisting of a number from each class. A reading, a song, or whatever stunts the class may choose.

All friends of the church are invited.

Bring sandwiches for yourself or for one other thing.

Be on time as the supper will be served at 6:30.

GERMAN M. E. CHURCH.
John Claus, Pastor.

Preaching services Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Subject: "Does Christ claim to be very God?" Bible school at 11 o'clock. You are cordially invited to attend these meetings.

CHURCH OF NAZARINE.
Rev. E. L. Duck, Pastor.

Sunday school at 10 a. m.
Preaching at 11 a. m., and 7:45 p. m.

Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at 7:45 p. m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the "Little church with the big welcome."

BAPTIST CHURCH.
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Preaching, 10:45 a. m.
Preaching, 7:00 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Wednesday evening, 8 p. m.

Subject of morning service: "The Origin of Sin." Rev. Caslow in charge.

D. Venet has charge of evening service.

LEGION DOINGS.

Next regular meeting Monday, March 1. At the special meeting last Monday night it was decided to engage the "Olivet Band" for the party St. Patrick's night. The Band is composed of college students, two of whom are local boys. V. H. Matthews has been chosen general manager of the next party.

We are wondering how many of the boys and girls of the schools are working on the "Patriot's Flag Creed" contest. Remember they must be in by March 16, 1926.

For further information regarding the contest see the Adjutant or Commander of the Legion.

CHAPTER XIII

In Which Things Happen at Maybrick Hall.

Had the Italian come up five minutes sooner—his million—would have been well. At it, as the very moment when Drummond's crawling look on the point of the jaw with mathematical precision and his mathematics began to operate elsewhere—was the law of gravity. Something fell from a ceiling onto a table in the room below that ceiling, even as in days gone by an apple descended into the eye of the discoverer of that law.

Two-Piece Frock Draws Attention

Blouse, in New Form, Often Becomes Tunic—Attire for Resort Wear.

The south of Europe and of the country in a playground to which the fashion designers have been flocking cordially are putting their best ideas into the elaborate wardrobe for the spring of 1925. An active and fashion-conscious woman in the New York Times, who has been following the fashion in the south of France, writes: "The two-piece frock is the most popular of the new styles. It is a blouse, in new form, often becoming a tunic, and a skirt. The blouse is usually of a light color, and the skirt is of a darker color. The two-piece frock is a very attractive and comfortable garment for resort wear."

Spotlight of World Turned on Minister

The minister is looked upon as the leader of the community. He stands at the head of the church, and he is the one who is responsible for the spiritual welfare of his flock. He is the one who is called to give the word of God to his people, and he is the one who is called to lead them in prayer and praise.

Star as Photographer!

A beard of forestry was catching two friends in the widest part of the forest. The photographer was standing on a log, and the star was standing on a log. The photographer was taking a picture of the star, and the star was looking at the camera.
