All Men Are Created Equal

Thrift is most successfully practiced by those who have learned to save each week a definite amount, and if you will open a savings account at this strong bank and consistently deposit a part of your salary, you will soon find that you are in a position to take advantage of the opportunities that our forefathers had in mind when they said "All men are created equal."

MEMBERSHIP APPROVES INVITING FORMER LOWELLITES TO COME BACK TO OLD HOME TOWN.

The semi-monthly noon-day luncheon of the Lowell Board of Trade was held at the City hall Monday, March 29, abundantly served by Harry Holland, followed by the invocation by Rev. A. J. Blair and the call to order by President J. A. Archard. Visitors were introduced: Dan Vergier, Grand Rapids, by C. H. Runciman; Mr. Mulligan, Grand Rapids, by Harry Hoag, Mr. Hammerstein, Grand Rapids, by Floyd Steed.

An eloquent religious address on "Christ, the Magnet," was given by Rev. L. H. Nixon, and warmly applauded by the membership.

A short talk on the hotel situation was given by Mr. Hammerstein, representative of Albert Pick & Co. of Chicago, hotel furnishers, who recommended re-decorating and re-furnishing of the Hotel Waverly property, outfitting twenty-five rooms to start and using the present hotel lobby as a restaurant, as a better project than building a new hotel.

M. N. Henry, chairman of the highway, Lowell sign committee, reported progress and asked for more time. Request granted with power to act.

Matter of Home-Coming week introduced by F. M. Johnson. Matter supported by H. J. Coons, who advocated uniting Home-Coming with the Free Chautauqua.

M. N. Henry moved that we have a Home-Coming.

Meeting closed by singing American.

LEGION DOINGS

March being a month with five Mondays, the Adjutant made a mistake in announcing a meeting for Monday, March 29, which will instead be Monday, April 5, as all regular meetings are the first and third Mondays of each month.

Since announcing that only one student had competed in the "Patriotic Flag Creed" contest, it has come to our attention that several had sent their essays into National headquarters but had failed to send copies to the local post by not understanding the rules.

If there are others who sent their essays to National headquarters in time to reach there by March 16, a copy may still be submitted to the local post to complete in our contest.

Buddies, how about your government insurance? It MUST be renewed or changed over by July 2, 1926. If you are in good health, it is a simple thing to have it renewed. The adjutant has a large supply of circulars and information about it. Better investigate it at once.

The adjutant still has a good supply of membership cards which he would be very glad to fill out.

CLOSING NOTICE.

OPPOSES NEW COUNTY JAIL

WILLIAM THOMAS, CANNON TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR, DISCUSSES PROJECT FROM TAXPAYER'S STAND.

On April 5, 1926, the voters of Kent county will be given the opportunity to vote money to build a new jail to replace the present Kent county jail. Much is being said by the papers of Grand Rapids in favor of a new jail. I have also read with interest a report of a visiting committee from Lowell, published in the Lowell Press, in which they say that it is "unsafe and unsanitary and has an odor." In addition to this, the Grand Rapids papers say that it is vermin infested and a terrible disgrace to Kent County. That there is an odor and that there may be vermin, I will agree. There is more or less of an odor to all public institutions in which people are confined; disinfectants must of a necessity be used and an odor or smell must result from their use. There may be jails free from vermin, but I know of none, for you may destroy all vermin one day and the next it comes a lot of prisoners some of whom are old or small must result with vermin.

That the present jail is "unsafe," I do not agree with your committee. You do not give a single reason as to why it is unsafe. How many years has it been since there has been a single "jail-break"? It is never locked, all steel and concrete. If this is not a proper material for a jail, what is?

To be unsanitary, not ventilated and antiquated, let us consider this. This jail is built on a fine plot of ground, high, dry and well drained; constructed of steel and concrete; no underground cells; one large window to every cell. It certainly can be no hardship to lower or raise these windows. How are your own homes ventilated? There is also an air shaft at each end of the jail block. Kent county furnishes a supply of soap and disinfectants, all needed, and plenty of men to do the work, and in my opinion, the sheriff sees to it that this work is done and well done.

One argument used against the jail, and it seems to be the greatest one, is that it was built fifty-six years ago; a poor argument, if it is still serviceable and filling the purpose for which it was intended. In the first place the jail proper was not built until long ago. The residence part was built in 1872 and is still in fine condition, reconstructed last year. There seem to be plenty of people anxious to occupy it as a sheriff's residence.

It is said that the jail has been condemned. Who condemned it? The State Welfare Commission is quoted as saying that a part of it was built 54 years ago, and out of date. In what way? That it is over-crowded. At times this may be so, and if so, there is an abundance of room to build another wing, a part of which can be used for a detention hospital if so desired. This without doubt can be done at a cost of one-tenth of what it will cost to wreck the present building and build a new one. Right here let me ask what will you do with the hundred prisoners while you are building a new one—take them to some hotel and board them perhaps. It would be about as sensible as some of the suggestions made along the line of the care of prisoners.

There seems to be a lot of sympathy for criminals. There may be occasionally some one confined there for trial who is innocent, but the chances are that they get bail at once. It is a well-known fact that when winter commences and it is uncomfortable out of doors, there are plenty who commit some crime in order to get a jail sentence for the winter, a place that is warm, steam heated, plenty to eat and nothing to do.

I notice that the committee says that the exterior is not a thing of beauty. I never knew before that jails were built for beauty and comfort. I supposed their purpose was for confinement and punishment. If it is just a jail and that is what it should be, not a palace, not a thing of beauty.

I am opposed to raising $500,000 for a new jail, which probably before it is completed will cost $1,200,000, and when built will take double the expense to take care of it; opposed to it because there is no sense in wrecking a building which at the present time is easily worth $200,000 and to which an addition can easily be made to meet the needs of the county for years to come. How easy it is to spend the public's money and then kick about taxes. It is said it won't make much difference in our taxes; possible, not, but I happen to know that the total tax, both state and local, for Kent County for the year 1924 amounted to $43.02 per capita for every man, woman and child in his county. This should be a sufficient argument for at least an effort to reduce instead of increasing an already enormous tax for an unnecessary purpose.

From Our Point of View

Last year the call for a Lowell Home-coming was heard from numerous former Lowell people who dispersed, who told the folks back in the old home town that their hearts were yearning for an opportunity to return again to the scene of their childhood and to meet again their old friends, many of whom they had not seen for long years.

This cry has been heard and the Lowell Board of Trade and its numerous committees have been organized to meet the call.

Dates will be set as soon as possible and announcement thereof will be made in order that our old-time friends can make their plans accordingly.

The Lowell part in this splendid event will be that of a friendly promoter. Its services will be freely and cheerfully rendered and it expects to receive the same from all Lowell people, past and present.

Information will be given out as soon as it is available and the various committees furnish the same.

In the meantime the Ledger will be glad to hear from former Lowell people who will endeavor to "come on back home," when the call goes out.

If the call pleases you and you will try to have a hand in the old-time glad greeting, pass the word on to others and write and tell us all about it.

If you can't come, don't bother to write, for that won't help any.

Now, distant friends, you asked for a Lowell Home-coming and the opportunity is yours. Make the most and best of it.

WELL CUT-- EVEN TO THE PRICES!

There could be nothing more satisfying than this--
A suit cut to your measure means a graceful fit and smartness.
A scissor's snip on the prices means value and economy.

SENIOR PLAY

APRIL 14 AND 15

"Tea Toper Tavern" is the snappy title of the appealing production to be given by the Senior class April 13, 14 and 15. The story abounds with mirth and intricate complications of three young college girls, played by Mildred Jones, Anna Howard and Mildred Lee, who, getting ambitious, rent a house and establish a tea room without the knowledge of the owner, Dallas Thorn, played by Myron Henry. In the first act the gay little tea-room makes its bow to "no customers" and the girls are disappointed. The owner, a hired man, returns and is mistaken for a hired man who is expected by the renters. The girls—but that would be telling the story and that's what we want you to see at the Lowell City hall April 14 and 15.

The other characters are: Marion Day, a canny chaperon, played by Erna Buck.

Gloria Sherwood Jerome, the merry widow, played by Edna Dulyan.

Geleste, Gloria's maid, Bertha Foster.

Harriet Annesley, Flov Kysner.

Mike Hyman, a susceptible policeman, Jurden Moore.

Brian Pierpont, Dallas Thorne's lawyer, Donald Miller.

Rev. Archibald Perry, leader of the Village flock, Alden Cole.

John Sedgewick, who has followed Miss Day around for twenty years, Edward Kiel.

Remember the 14 and 15 of April. Keep the date open and see this play. "Tea Toper Tavern" is just like the other characters are:

Barry Reid, Rosamund's freshman brother, Edward Kiel.

"Say it with flowers." adv.
