ALL WAY FROM WASHINGTON

CAL AND CORA MAYNARD COMING FROM ABERDEEN TO LOWELL HOME-COMING. AUGUST 3, 4, 5.

Aberdeen, Wash., May 16, '26. Friend Johnson:

My sister sent me a clipping about the Home-Coming. Now keep this under your hat.

When the rail is called August 3, 4, and 5, the kids that used to play Indians in the day when it was oak grubs from the old gravel pit east of Dr. Peck's hill, I expect to be there to answer to my name. There are not many left to remember when there were but six houses facing the hill road.

The Peck and Balcom houses at the top, then the Parrish and Lane house half way up, and the Lodomis and Wooster houses at foot of hill.

We are coming quite a ways and hope to see many that we used to know. Now, we haven't changed but little in the last forty years, but the other fellow has, so it will be all O. K. for the other fellow to slap us on the back and call us an old sardine and then introduce him or herself afterwards. Hoping to see all of the old friends that are left we are as here 2-4 years.

Gora and Cal Maynard, 111 North H. street, Aberdeen, Wash.

THE KENT COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.
The Kent County Sunday School association auxiliary to the State, International and World Sunday School association, whose membership embraces all the Protestant Evangelical denominations is the only inter-denominational agency in Kent County working in the field of Religious Education.

Its primary aim is to reach the childhood and youth through well organized Sunday schools; to help in the work of the Sunday schools; to establish and promote Daily Vacation Bible schools; hold institutes and rallies, etc.

The Association is about to launch out for its annual budget which is made up as follows:

- | | |
|---|------------|
| Administration | $1,800.00 |
| General secretary | 1,000.00 |
| Office secretary | 450.00 |
| Rent | 450.00 |
| Telephone and telegraph | 75.00 |
| Printing and postage | 200.00 |
| Traveling expense | 250.00 |
| Financial campaign | 250.00 |
| Publicity | 250.00 |
| Public Pledge | 1,242.00 |
| 10 Daily Vacation Bible schools @ $110.00 each | 1,100.00 |
| Convention expense | 75.00 |
| Shrinkage Fund | 1,258.00 |
| | $8,400.00 |

The raising of the budget is in the hands of a Finance committee: Mr. Boyd R. Swen, chairman, Sydney Spaanstra, W. J. Kingsbury, Rev. E. H. Hildebrandt, and Leon B. Stow. This committee has organized its forces and it is the hope of the association to begin solicitation of funds June 10. The Finance committee has appointed the following sub-committees: Sydney Spaanstra, chairman of publicity; Rev. E. Hildebrandt, chairman of rural solicitation and Leon B. Stow, chairman of reports.

While the association is without a general secretary at the present time the work has been carried on by Miss Bessie Allen, the office secretary.

According to resolutions adopted at the county convention, none of the activities can be carried out, including the employment of a general secretary, until the budget has been raised.

The association is and always has been missionary in its aspect. At the present time, the Association is taking care of work in two localities where Sunday schools have not been possible in past years. One of these places is Grant Center and the work is under the general supervision of Mrs. Ida W. Elson, former general secretary of the Kent County Sunday School association. In speaking about the work Mrs. Elson says: "I have not enjoyed any Sunday school work as I am enjoying Grant Center. The prospects there for a good live school are very bright. We opened the school four weeks ago with an attendance of forty and it has been increasing since." The Methodist Union of Grand Rapids provides speakers for the church services following the Sunday school hour.

The other school is about to be established in Tyrone township, six miles east of Kent City, and is under the general supervision of Miss Bessie Allen, office secretary of the Kent county association. She will be assisted in the carrying on of this work by the young people of the Courtland Methodist church of which Miss Allen is a member. These young people will drive thirty-eight miles to attend from this locality to carry on this work. The Sunday school will be held in the Burch school house.

There are many other localities in this county in which Sunday schools ought to be established and conducted. Anyone interested in this kind of Christian service can get in touch with the county office, 424 Houseman building, Grand Rapids, Michigan.

VOICES FROM THE LONG AGO

SAYINGS AND DOINGS OF LOWELL PEOPLE ACTIVE HERE IN YEARS GONE BY. 'MEMBER WHEN?'

Thirty Years Ago, May 1896. Born, son to Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stocking. Dr. A. E. Campbell and Bertha Horning married. Mrs. A. E. Campbell and Mrs. R. D. Stocking. R. Van Dyke did his sixth life-saving job for Byron Goodsell at the shute below Flat river bridge. H. A. Barrett building house for Mr. Abbey, of Keene. Charles Stoughton moved to Lowell. Dr. Hunter sold practice at Alto, to move South. Born, daughter to Mrs. B. E. Quick, M. G. Griswold building new residence. Eber Moffit building photo studio on spite lot in Flat river. Kopf Brothers offered 600 bushels storage potatoes to McCarty for nothing. Charlie took 'em. G. H. Force occupies new residence in Lowell. Mrs. A. Peck to visit daughter in California. A. A. Husted and wife going to Georgia for peach harvest. Rev. A. P. Moors delivered Memorial sermon at M. E. church.

Editor Krister, of the Ionia News is a great sportsman. He drove through this morning, Thursday, and when in front of Pat Bowes' place, saw a baby rabbit about 4 inches long hopping along the road, stopped his car, caught it, and asked Mrs. Bowes to telephone his chum Johnson that he had left a package there for him. Guess he thinks we have nothing else to do on publication day but to be a wet nurse to a baby rabbit. We let the poor little dud out in the sunshine and told him to find his mother. It must be a snap running the News with a lot of good fellows to do the editor's work and let him run around playing leap-frog. Next Christmas we are going to send Freddie a jumping jack to play with.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank all those who donated to the nurse given us. Mrs. Carrie Condon and Sons. (E 2)

A BASE BALL TOURNAMENT

PROPOSED FOR COMING SUMMER. NEIGHBORING TOWN TEAMS TO COMPETE FOR PRIZES.

The semi-monthly noon-day luncheon of the Lowell Board of Trade was held at the City hall Monday with fifty in attendance. Harry Holland was complimented by a rising vote on the quality of the report.

E. C. Basset, representative of the Isaac Walton League spoke interestingly of the affairs of that organization.

The Board of Trade was invited to join the American Legion in its Memorial Day parade. Dr. Gotfredsen endorsed the invitation, which was accepted by rising vote. Letter from Aercraft club of Detroit, regarding a landing field for aircraft was read and secretary instructed to make suitable reply. A member suggested that Recreation park affords suitable landing field. Tony Gazella was called upon to present his proposition regarding base ball. He requested the support of Board members favoring the holding of a tournament during the coming summer with games being played on Sundays. No financial aid would be required.

After some discussion, on motion by Earl Thomas, supported by Walter Kropp, Mr. Gazella's request was granted. Yes—21; No—8, several not voting.

D. G. Look, of Hotel committee, reported no progress. The meeting adjourned to accept the invitation of the Superior Furniture company to visit their factory. The members were escorted through the plant by Manager Higgins and Superintendent Disk, and were impressed by the quality of the furniture being manufactured.

FIELD DAY, FRIDAY, JUNE 4.
Kent County High schools, twelve in number will compete for individual and school honors in the annual out of door tournament of track and field sports all day June 4. Rockford, Grandville, Sparta, East Grand Rapids and Lee Street schools will lead a merry chase to Lowell to again "cop" the county championship, which she has held the past two years. It appears that probably Grandville and Rockford will have to settle the final championship for lowball honors, as about not all preliminary games are yet played so that the leader of either the north or south half of the county.

Activities will start promptly at 10:00 a. m. at Recreation park and continue throughout the day. Let's make it a Fray Festival for everybody. Admission 50c and 35c for all, 35c and 25c for 1. M.
