Bank Resources

Bank Resources are more than a sum of money, more than a symbol of strength. Every dollar—no matter what its source is an expression of someone's faith and confidence.

The real significance, therefore of the growth of the City State Bank to resources of nearly $800,000.00, lies not in dollars and cents alone but in the respect and trust that first placed these funds with us, and the loyalty and satisfaction that keep them there.

Capital $25,000.00. Surplus $25,000.00. Total resources nearly $800,000.00.

Extra surplus means extra safety for funds deposited with us.

JUDGE ANDREWS HAS LEFT US

PASSED TO HIS ETERNAL HOME FROM BLODGETT HOSPITAL MONDAY AT 9:45 A. M. BURIAL TODAY.

Alvah M. Andrews, justice of the peace, passed to his eternal rest from Blodgett hospital Tuesday morning, June 15, aged 72 years, after a brief period of suffering following an operation performed June 11. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m., at the Methodist church with Pastor L. H. Nixon officiating clergyman; burial at Oakwood cemetery under Masonic auspices, Past Master Clifford Smith, of Albion, who did a like service for the late Harry K. Andrews, giving the Masonic burial address.

ALVAH M. ANDREWS.

Alvah M. Andrews, familiarly known as "Trim", was born in Grattan township May 11, 1854, to pioneer parents, Alvah H. Andrews and Thankful McAdams, on the homestead taken direct from the government. He was united in marriage to Nellie E. Knapp of Lowell, September 17, 1878, and they made their home in Vergennes township. During the 13 years of their residence there, Jennie May and Harry K. Andrews came to bless the home. At the age of 38, Mr. Andrews was converted under the leadership of the Salvation Army, while the latter was holding meetings in the community.

In 1893 the farm was sold and another purchased in South Boston. While residents there, he, with Mrs. Andrews joined the Methodist church, of which he was continuously an active official member and served as Sunday school superintendent for several years. In 1906 Mr. and Mrs. Andrews moved to Lowell, where they have since resided. He has been a faithful and devoted member of the local Methodist church, serving in capacity of Sunday school superintendent and member of the board of trustees. He was preceded to the "Home Over There" by his son Harry, April 22, 1925, and leaves to mourn his wife, Mrs. Nellie Andrews; daughter, Mrs. Jennie Andrews Draper; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harry K. Andrews; granddaughters, Marion Draper, Janet Andrews; sisters, Mrs. Mary Bradish, of Hastings, Mrs. Hetty Davis, of Grattan; brother, Charles H. Andrews, of Grattan. For the past 15 years Mr. Andrews has been justice of the peace in Lowell, performing the duties of that difficult office conscientiously and well.

Our jovial neighbor of twenty years has left us, the better, because we have known and loved him. He was a loving and loyal husband, a kind and indulgent father, a good neighbor and a faithful friend. What more can be said of any man? "I can not say and I will not say that he is dead, he is just away. With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand He has wandered into an unknown land And left us thinking how very fair It needs must be Since he lingers there. He is not dead—he's just away."

MATRIMONIAL.

Marrriage of Beatrice Pattison and Fred Nagle Consummated Last Evening.

The Congregational church Wednesday evening, June 16, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Beatrice Pattison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pattison, became the bride of Fred Nagle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nagle, of Constock Park. The marriage was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. A. J. Blair. The altar being decorated with palms and wild roses.

The bride, who entered with her father, was lovely in a white georgette headed gown, which was sleeveless, with a round neck line. A veil fastened across the front with orange blossoms, with white stockings and silver slippers, completed her costume. Her flowers were a spreading shower of white roses and swansonia tied with white ribbons.

Miss Vera Pattison, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, gown was pink georgette and wore a contrasting hat of pink and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas and Columbia roses. Miss Mildred Taylor was bridesmaid, her gown being peach color georgette, and a contrasting peach color hat to match and carried sweet peas and yellow butterfly roses.

Little Miss Virginia Hosley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hosley, was ring bearer, and her frock was white sateen material made with ruffles around the skirt.

Edward Reynolds and Cecil Bitter assisted Mr. Nagle and the ushers were Hunter Hice, Harry Day, Warner Roth and Harold Engelhardt. Before the ceremony Mrs. C. H. Runciman sang, "Oh, Promise Me," and B. D. Stocking played the wedding march and during the ceremony. The reception was held afterwards at the Pattison home which was decorated in white and yellow flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Nagle left during the evening for an Eastern motor trip which will take in the Sesqui-centennial exposition at Philadelphia.

LOWELL, KENT COUNTY, MICHIGAN HOME-COMING CELEBRATION

Sponsored by THE LOWELL BOARD OF TRADE AUGUST 1, 2, 3, 4, 1926

FACTORY PLANT IS SOLD AGAIN

E. L. VOHLERS, OF IONIA, BUYS BUSINESS SITE FOR L. E. JOHNSON FOR LOWELL FORD GARAGE.

The Chase Furniture company plant, recently sold by the Board of Trade to Claude Staal has again changed hands, having this time passed, together with Mr. Staal's residence property to E. L. Vohlert, of Ionia, father-in-law of L. E. Johnson, proprietor of the Lowell Ford garage, formerly the Atkins Motor Sales company.

The Ledger understands this to mean that the factory building will be converted into a garage and that Mr. Johnson will occupy the adjacent Staal home for his residence, which will certainly be convenient for his patrons if not for him.

The new location is a fine one for the business contemplated, an excellent corner, with railroad siding on the property, on main lines of traffic and adjacent to gas stations.

OBITUARY—MRS. A. E. MURPHY. Anna E. Allen was born November 3, 1875 at Lowell, Mich., and passed away June 7, 1926 at Blodgett hospital, Grand Rapids, aged 50 years, 7 months and 4 days.

She was united in marriage to W. F. Murphy, of Lowell, May 4, 1895. Soon after their marriage they located in Grand Rapids. After a two years residence there they went to Traverse City, Mich., where they resided for fifteen years. About seven years ago they returned to Lowell, where they have lived ever since.

Mrs. Murphy was held in high respect by all who knew her and will be greatly missed by her relatives and friends. She leaves to mourn, her husband, their only child, Olive, now Mrs. Elmer McQueen, of Lowell, her mother, Mrs. S. P. Allen and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday afternoon, June 9, at two o'clock, Rev. A. J. Blair officiated.

AN APPRECIATION. We desire to express our sincere appreciation to the kind friends who sent anniversary cards and flowers to our companion and mother on her forty-first wedding anniversary at Howard Bartlett's May 1. Their thoughtfulness did much to cheer and comfort her during her remaining days of suffering.

William T. Murphy, Mrs. Olive McQueen, Mrs. S. C. Allen.

RECEIVER OF CO-OP CAN'T COLLECT ON NOTE, JUDGE RULES.

Paper Given as Collateral for Loan Paid at Later Date. Makers Have No Further Obligation, Court Holds.

C. H. Humeiman, receiver of the McGordis Co-operative association has no authority to attempt to collect in behalf of William Heschke and 80 other stockholders of the association, on a collateral note given by Frank Timmer, of Lowell, one of the stockholders, even though the 81 have paid their notes. There are 35 of the stockholders who have taken Timmer's position.

This decision was made yesterday in a written opinion by Circuit Judge Perkins.

In the organization and operation of the association, 119 members and stockholders, including Timmer, are said to have given their promissory notes, payable to the association, for $100 each to provide working capital for the operation. When necessity arose, $8,400 was paid in on the notes to satisfy a loan, and the receiver brought suit to compel Timmer to pay his pro rata share, amounting to $75.88.

Notes, Not Assets.

The notes were not assets of the association, Judge Perkins ruled. They became obligations against the makers only after they had passed into the hands of third parties for value," stated the court.

"The note in question, with many others, was used as collateral security for a loan secured by the association from the Lowell State bank. This loan was later satisfied by payment made by the several makers directly to the bank, which cancelled and returned to the makers the notes so paid.

"After the loan was satisfied, the unpaid notes, including that of the defendant, still held by the bank, were returned to the association. Those so returned, as a matter of law, were then held by the association as though they were never negotiated. The makers who had paid their notes at the bank paid no more than they had obligated themselves to pay in case of transfer.

"While the notes remain in the hands of the association, no obligation is incurred by the makers in behalf of the association.

Receiver Cannot Collect.

"The receiver has no greater authority to enforce collection than the association possesses. Much less has he any authority to enforce contribution in behalf of those who voluntarily paid their obligations at the bank as is attempted here."

The case was appealed from the decision of Justice A. M. Andrews, of Lowell, who gave the plaintiff a judgment.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)
