OLDER BOYS CONFERENCE

STATE GATHERING AT JACKSON DRAWS 1,600 ATTENDANTS. LOWELL BOYS MAKE GOOD REPORT.

On arrival at the First M. E. church in Jackson, the delegates were registered and given home assignments, 1,600 being housed in homes throughout the city. Seventy-five automobiles were furnished by the Citizens Transportation Co., of Jackson to take the boys to their homes in the city. Detroit had the largest delegation of 225, Grand Rapids second with 80, Muskegon third with 40.

The first session opened at 2:45 Friday afternoon in the First M. E. church, the annual election of officers followed, a committee selecting nine out of about forty fellows who were candidates, the nine names receiving the highest number of votes were voted upon again by the conference.

H. R. Hutchinson, of Lansing being elected President of the conference, the other eight boys are vice-presidents in the order of their vote. Dean Thomas R. Graham, of Oberlin college, Oberlin, Ohio, was the speaker of the afternoon. His subject "The World of Youth" in which Mr. Graham brought out many very interesting and worth while thoughts. Dinner was then served as designated, at the different churches, Kent County church, on N. Jackson St. Discussion groups immediately followed, problems brought out were: "Do boys think 'War'?" Race question and character.

Friday evening, general session First M. E. church. Installation of officers, the church furnished their organist for us free of charge. We received greetings from Jackson, by Fred R. Harris, city manager substituting for Stuart Schram. He opened the door of the city to our hearts and with a final statement of "A person can tell you of your city by your actions and for us fellows to watch the Jackson people." From the boys, Dick Lingard said they hoped this conference would solve our Hi-Y and school problems. Resurgence for Delegation for N. R. Hutchinson, our president. Address by Dr. F. E. Taylor, "Building a Life." This was a piece of art, the way it was put forth surely could not miss the heart of any boy who heard it, and had them thinking at all. His address being taken from Seventh Chapter, the Gospel of St. Matthew. If however, being put in a different way than I have ever heard the story told.

Song services. The song service led by "Ted" Evans, of Detroit. He is a minister of Religious Education at St. Marks' M. E. church. We had some wonderful times under his leadership in songs. These songs were sung at the beginning and the end of each session and most of the time in between. Devotional service was held for about ten minutes each time led by different men of the state.

Saturday, November 12, nine o'clock opened Saturday program at M. E. church. Songs on devotion service, then Dean Thomas R. Graham gave us another address, the biggest sin, was the under estimating of yourself. Then at ten o'clock another discussion group followed at the different churches. The discussion was the "girl problem." Each discussion group had different ideas, and the one may not be the same as the other ones were. Saturday at noon, 12:15, lunch was served, the conference was then taken in front of the Jackson City Library. The parade started at the intersection of Michigan Ave., west and Wildwood in column squads. The parade was preceded by two motorcycle police officers. A soccer football game was then enjoyed. Delegates were then showed through the State prison, but only 1,000 of the 1,600 were allowed to go through among the 600 that didn't get through. 5:30 dinner, discussion followed by delegation, Kent county being ours. 7:45 General session, special music world brotherhood payment, a general session comprised of the Helmsingers delegation and 100 others, this was very interesting, each representative dropping the things most industrial of their country in the fire. All the boys had candles and a large cross was formed, a very beautiful thing.

Sunday morning we went to the church with our hostess and enjoyed lunch with them. In afternoon at 3:00 general session with songs, an organ solo by F. D. Duddleigh Verner, Dean Thomas R. Graham gave us another very interesting address. It would take too long a space to attempt to list the points of this address. At 4:30 a fellowship service took place. At 5:00 the delegation met for the last time, the conference closing at 5:30.

The conference for next year will be divided into two divisions, one at Flint and another at Kalamazoo. The reason for this is because the conferences are getting too large for one city to take care of them. Any boy from 16 to 20 may attend these state older boys conferences. The churches of the community should send one or two and as many more as possible each year. The cost isn't much and the conference is worth all you put into it.

HAWLEY FLAYS IONIA DORMITORY

ESCAPES AND CRIMES AGAINST STATE, DUE TO SYSTEM ARE TOO FREQUENT, HE SAYS. PUBLIC HAS RIGHTS.

Ionias, Dec. 8.—The dormitory system in vogue at the state reformatory and the practice of establishing a large body of trustees were scolded by Judge Royal A. Hawley this afternoon in his findings as a one man grand jury investigating the reformatory outbreak of Aug. 28.

"The dormitory system should be abolished," he declared, "and well blocks provided. The practice of establishing a numerous body of trustees should be done away with or drastically curtailed.

"Plots and conspiracies are also frequent and costly. Offenses against prison discipline and crimes against the state are too numerous. Citizens are entitled to better protection against outlaws than is here afforded, and judges are entitled to know that when they sentence men to prison they will be securely confined."

Conditions Better.

Judge Hawley stated, however, that while conditions at the Michigan reformatory are far from ideal they are much better today than they have been before for several years.

The plot was laid by Russell Andrews, Fred Osberghaus and John Paquin, long time prisoners, and all inmates of ward D, it was found.

Those implicated in the riot and break aside from the inmates who escaped, are Edward Eppelheimer, St. Louis, Mo., pal of Fred Osberghaus, who is charged with furnishing two revolvers; Carl Roman, inmate trustee, charged with delivering the weapons into the prison; John E. O'Connor, foreman of the shirt factory, charged with carrying mail into the prison; Michael Ward and Roll V. Phillips, day guards, charged with the same offense; Harry McKeae, guard, charged with furnishing liquor to prisoners.

Seek Plotter

Eppelheimer is being sought in a nation-wide hunt; nothing has been done thus far with Roman; O'Connor is serving a two-year term in Jackson prison; Ward is awaiting trial and Phillips and McKeae are awaiting arraignment.

Thirty-five witnesses have been examined in the investigation which began Sept. 16 and has continued at intervals ever since. All but three of the 25 prisoners who escaped have been retaken.—(Grand Rapids Press.)

LOWELL PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

SUPERINTENDENT'S LETTER—CAMP FIRE SPARKS—HONOR ROLLS—SENIOR PLAY FRIDAY.

Dear Patrons:

There will be no school next Tuesday afternoon for those children who go to the central building. The regular afternoon classes will recite in the evening starting at seven o'clock. We are doing this so you will be able to visit us and see the school in action. Each teacher will have her name, grade, and schedule attached to the outside of the door. This means that a teacher will hear her classes recite according to her program. You may visit as many rooms or classes as you please. Please enter the room quietly and if a chair is available please be seated. The teachers will pay no attention to you. This is done to avert confusion and to enable the work to go on without interruption. The teacher, principal or superintendent will be glad to talk with you concerning your child after sessions have been dismissed. No class or grade will be kept later than ten minutes after nine. Teachers will be in their rooms until at least 9:30.

The home economics department will put on an exhibit to which you are cordially invited. The girls of this department will serve coffee and doughnuts free to parents. Be sure and come.

Yours truly, W. W. Gumsier.

THIEVES START RIGHT IN ON IONIA'S YULE TREES.

Ionias, Dec. 6.—Thieves began early, stealing and mutilating the Christmas trees set in the flag socks in the business district of the American Legion. The trees had not been set 24 hours, when one was stolen from in front of the Keiser garage and several were discovered mutilated. The same night Chas. Groom's barber shop was entered and razors stolen and the Iowa Dry Cleaning establishment was broken into with the resultant loss of a hat.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to those who were so kind as to render the many services in our recent bereavement, and to the minister for his words of comfort and the singers and also for the beautiful floral offerings from relatives and friends. LITERARY CLUBS—LEGION DOINGS—CHRISTMAS CANTATA AT CONGREGATIONAL—MUSICAL VESPER HOUR

The regular meeting of the Clover Leaf club and Lowell Literary club was held at Central High school Tuesday evening, November 30, with an attendance of thirty. This was also a public meeting and the committee was disappointed at the small attendance after their efforts for a good evening by providing a speaker and trio music from Grand Rapids.

After the business meeting the Creston High trio from Grand Rapids, composed of Misses Adoloid Orphan, pianist; Marion Works, cello; and Douglas Lato, violinist, gave the evening group of numbers.

The Star and the Rose, by Brown arranged for trio by Miss Orphan Bararoli, "Tales by Hoffman," by Offenback; Humoresque, by Dvorak. These were beautifully rendered.

Mrs. Hall then introduced the speaker, Dr. Burton Corbas, of Grand Rapids, who gave an interesting talk on "Nutrition." The clubs then adjourned. The C. L. C. to meet with Mrs. E. H. Shurt at December 14. Club Reporter.

LEGION DOINGS.

Regular meeting was held Monday night some of the boys coming in time to enjoy the supper with the Auxiliary.

Wednesday evening, December 15, there will be a Fifth district meeting in the Grand Rapids Armyory business meeting at 5:00 p. m., supper at 6:00 in the afternoon, followed by a program prepared by the Legion Council of the four Grand Rapids Posts. We want a large delegation from Lowell and it will be very much worth while.

We hope to be able to announce another big increase in membership at this meeting so if you haven't already done so please hand in your membership to the Commander or Dr. H. P. Gottfredsen.

Adjutant F. D. Smith has left town for the big cities seeking employment. Those wishing new caps should give the Commander his size.

Legion caps will be worn to the District meeting.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Special music.

Anthem: "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains"

Mr. Gumsier Church school on Sunday at 10 o'clock.

Mid-week service on Thursday evening at 7:30. Topic: "The Church and the School."

On Sunday evening, Dec. 19, the church choir will give its annual Christmas Concert, "The Christ Child," a cantata composed by C. B. Hawley.

A carol is a song of joy, exultation, praise and devotion; hence a carol expresses the true spirit of Christmas as no other class of vocal music can.

In olden times, particularly in England, it was the custom of children and young people to sing carols upon street corners, at the door steps of friends, and in public halls, in order to inspire within the hearts of their hearers the true meaning of the Christmas message.

Some of these old English carols will be included in the program of carols sung by the Junior choir presented in the cantata.

Choir rehearsal at 7:00 on both Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

Junior choir will meet at 2:00 Saturday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Cheerful Doers was held Monday evening in the home of Mrs. E. L. Kinyon.

About fifty members were present. Mrs. John Callier was chairman of the Christmas program. The next meeting will be held on January 3, with Mrs. Arthur Armstrong.

METHODIST CHURCH.

At four in the afternoon, Marcia Lewis and Company will give a vocal program in the Methodist church next Sunday.

Miss Lewis, who was with us for a vesper hour last year, has gained a wide and admirable reputation as a vocal artist. She is a Coloratura Soprano—pleasing voice and manner. During the past year she has been featured as solo artist with the Detroit Symphony orchestra. The Musical Courier reported: "Miss Lewis won the approval of the large audience and the press. The progress of this young artist in the past three years is remarkable. Her voice, her singing experience, her matured and greatly and she has gained in popularity as a concert singer to a high degree." Miss Lewis has appeared in concert from coast to coast and her coming to Lowell is a rich treat for all music lovers.

Mr. Albin Preusse, violinist, graduate of the Royal Academy of Berlin, will participate as assisting artist. He is worth your hearing.

Mrs. Helen B. Howe, who will know Grand Rapids musician will act as accompanist.

The offering of the evening will go in its entirety to the party offering the program. Everybody is welcome.

The regular services of the church will be held on Sunday and throughout the week. The pastor will preach a Christmas sermon next Sunday. The Christmas music will be furnished by the choir.

VERGENNES M. E. CHURCH.

The preaching service of this church is conducted every Sunday at 1:30 central time. News, prayer and the pastor will preach a Christmas message.

The economical way is to assure one's self of the greatest number of heat units per two thousand pounds. You are buying heat, remember; not just coal.

LOWELL PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Tawankwa Camp Fire.

Tuesday, November 20, a number of members of the Tawankwa Camp Fire enjoyed a pot-luck supper at the High school. After the supper a ceremonial meeting was held. Miss McGuffie presided and Miss Camp called "Wo-ho-lo" and the girls answered by the same. They then marched in and were seated around the three candles in a circle. Evelyn Williams lit one candle, the candle for "Wo" or work, telling the meaning of this. Then Beulah Wood lit the next candle, standing for "He" or heat, also telling the meaning. Miss Moody then lit the last candle, for "Lo" or love.

At this ceremonial seven new members were taken into the group. After hearing them say the lines required to become a member, Miss McGuffie entered them as Camp Fire girls. These girls were: Vada Linton, Helen Hunter, Thelma Eichhoff, Bertha Davenport, Jennie Leach, Ruby Eichhoff, an Hazel Lee, Margaret Martin Brown and Millicent Rosewarne took the first Camp Fire rank, that of Woodgatherers. The rank of Firemaker comes next and the third and last rank of Torchbearer. The new girls are now working to become Firemakers.

Mazie Thomas and Millicent Rosewarne are planning to supervise a group of children who wish to become Camp Fire members in High school. These will be organized under the head of Bluebirds, or young Camp Fire girls.

Shatanka Camp Fire.

At the home of Mrs. Arthur Hill, the Shatanka Camp Fire held a meeting Friday evening, December 3. This was a ceremonial meeting. During the earlier part of the meeting all girls all wrote a letter to an absent member, Mary Jane Rutherford. Mrs. F. F. Rosewarne was the honorary guest, the girls planning to have one mother as a guest each meeting.

The three candles for "Wo-ho-lo" were lit by Lucille Hosley, "Wo" for work, Edna Claus, "he" for heat, and Frances Rosewarne, "lo" for love. Evelyn Williams and Grace Warren were taken into the Camp Fire. Mable Stone and Mary Jane Hill became woodgatherers. A report was made by Mable Stone on the meeting attended at Grand Rapids in honor of Captain Beknap. A Camp Fire ring was presented to Mable Stone, and also to Mrs. White, the guardian. Beads were presented to Frances Rosewarne, Elizabeth Shuter, and Millicent Rosewarne. Following this ceremonial meeting a food sale was planned. A meeting is to be held next Monday at Mrs. White's home to finish the plans.

Friday, December 10, at the High school, the Seniors are responsible for a program during the thirty minute period, from 9:45 to 10:15 a. m. They are going to present a one act play entitled "Enter the Lion." Hazel Lee is "Anne," a young girl who wants a lover badly enough to help herself to one, while Wilbur Claus, as "Harold," is the "hero" who enters not quite as expected. Millicent Rosewarne, "Ruth," is Anne's eighteen year old sister, all enraptured over Anne's love affair. The engagement (?)—but that would be telling too much Marion Brown plays the part of Mrs. Carr, the mother. Mrs. Wingfield is coaching the play.

The Sophomores held a class party in the gymnasium Friday evening, December 3, 1926.

The Economics Department.

A cafeteria class has been started in the High school for the benefit of the rural students. It is being directed by the Home Economics teacher, Miss Zaechliah.

There were seven girls in the class who do the cooking, serving, and the managing.

Economics.

Mr. Smith is doing a fine job of selecting speakers for his Economics class. Last Friday Mr. Runciman gave a most interesting talk on "The Running of the Railroads." He gave several ideas about his own business in such a way that the railroad business was clearly understood.

BREADY HEARS OF 29 OTHER CLUBS TO DO WORK, DROPS LUNFOI.

Port Huron, Dec. 7.—(A. P.)—The Lunfoi society, a religious tolerance organization, sponsored by Rev. Russell H. Bready, Port Huron Methodist minister, will not be brought into existence as a separate organization as originally planned, Dr. Bready told members of the Kiwanis club here today.

"I have been advised not to foster the organization of the Lunfoi society," Dr. Bready said, "as there are already 29 service clubs in existence which could well carry out the tolerance program." Dr. Bready advocated a semi-annual observance of Lunfoi day, emphasizing tolerance, by all the service clubs of the country.

As originally planned by Rev. Mr. Bready the Lunfoi society was to be composed of Jews.—(Grand Rapids Catholic and Jews.—(Grand Rapids Herald.)

ICE ON THE PROPELLOR BLADES OF THE STOUT ALL-METAL AIRPLANE about 10:30 a. m. Tuesday caused the pilot to make a landing near Lowell, it was reported by B. P. Kenyon, traffic manager of the Stout Air Services, Inc.

"Passengers and pilot landed in safety," Mr. Kenyon said, "though rough ground on the field chosen for landing caused a wheel to break."

The passengers were transported from the Grand Rapids to Lowell and a new wheel for the plane was rushed to Lowell.

"Atmospheric conditions must be unusual to cause ice to collect on the blades of the propeller," Rain striking the center of the propeller froze, the temperature being just low enough. This ice gradually worked its way out on the blades, who has been in the produce business in Saranac for several years has added a line of shoes to his stock in trade. The farmer decides against selling it is an easy matter for the state to condemn the land and secure it that way. The state is willing to pay the assessed valuation of the land and Smith is here getting the options on the necessary strips.

The fierce condition of M-66 between this city and Greenville, particularly north of the Montcalm county line is such that people are commencing to wonder how they can get out and get it and certainly if Governor Groesbeck ever intends to travel over that route he will sign the contract calling for the paving before he leaves office. If not, Governor Green will soon see to it that this stretch of road is paved.—Belding Banner News.

PROSECUTOR BARS PAY FOR LAWYER.

Grand Rapids, Dec. 7.—The prosecuting attorney is the legal counsel of the board of supervisors and of the county finance committee and it has no right to employ outside counsel, Prosecutor Earl W. Munshaw today told the finance committee that he advised the committee that certain persons will join the board if an effort is made to compensate former Prosecuting Attorney Cornelius Hoffus for services recently rendered.

Hoffus, taking an opposite view from that entertained by Munshaw but in conformity with the desire of the finance committee, counseled refusal to pay the salary claim of the census clerk employed under a 1925 act by County Commissioner A. M. Freeland. The clerk, Mrs. Esther Van Fleet, obtained a mandamus order to require the committee to pay her claim.

The committee hired Hoffus to defend the case and he was beaten. He has rendered no claim for his work.—(Detroit Free Press. Advertiser in The Led er.

Conditions of Road Causes Materialists To Hope Paving Is Done Next Year.

C. A. Smith, connected with the state highway department at Lansing, has been working in and out of this city for the past week calling on farmers and owners of land between this city and Greenville, along the line of M-66, in an effort to get what extra land is needed for the straightening of some of the curves on the road preparatory to the paving of the several miles next spring.

The road will have to be 100 feet wide and this will take some land away from every farm along the line. Most every one of the farmers are very glad to sell their land to the state in order to hasten the coming of the pavement, for in case
